The Altoona Mirror of Monday furnishes the following in relation to the several sentences imposed in the U. S. District Court, Pittsburg, on the 27th inst., upon James P.
Funk and other parties recently convicted in said Court of dealing in counterfeit money:
The Court opened at 10 o'clock with Judges Ketchum and McKernan on the Bench. Judge Ketchum at once began the reading of the sentences on the prisoners who had been brought into court. Joseph H. Perkins, a young man, convicted of passing counterfeit money, got off with one year in consequence of his services to the government in furnishing Detective Perkins with information that led to the arrest of the counterfeiters. Judge Ketchum then pronounced the sentence upon James P. Funk, convicted of passing counterfeit money, and sentenced him to four years at hard labor. James P.
Funk had been sentenced to four years at hard labor by Judge Ketchum, and was sentenced to four years at hard labor by Judge Ketchum. Judge Ketchum then pronounced the sentence upon James P. Funk, convicted of passing counterfeit money, and sentenced him to four years at hard labor.
