LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

A FEW WORDS ABOUT THE FREEMAN .-The present number of the FREEMAN brings the eleventh volume of its existence to a close, and a few words with our readers on so interesting an event in its history will not be out of place. During the period that the FREEMAN has been under our continue to "pass" us on the road. control we have faithfully devoted to its columns our undivided time and attention in order to make it acceptable to our subscribers, and we flatter ourself that our efforts have not been in vain. The relations existing between us and our patrons have been pleasant and harmonious, espe- assigned. cially with that large number of them who adopt the theory that a printing office is a self-sustaining institution, and that if an editor can't afford to furnish his paper for at least three years without expecting or asking to be paid for it, he ought to sell out to some more enterprising genius who can. A man who will take a newspaper for a number of years and neglect or refuse to pay for it, must certainly be a practical believer in the new doctrine preached by Henry Ward Beecher, and is fit for treason, stratagems and spoil. It is a profound mystery how a man can live and be twice the amount necessary to secure i. In the northern portion of Cambria county, which is thoroughly Democratic, and where the FREEMAN has its largest circulation, we ought at least to have three hundred paying subscribers added to our list for the coming volume. We would like to enlarge our paper and otherwise Improve it, and will do so just as soon as the revenues of the office will justify the venture; but in this year so reasonable that every Demoerat can afford to comply with them. If they will do so, and will personally interest themselves in increasing our subscription list to what it should be in so strong and reliable a Democratic county as Cambria, we promise them that we will make the FREEMAN for 1878 a better and more useful paper than it has ever been heretofore.

AN UNHEALTHY HOTEL .- The Johns- LLL town Tribune of Tuesday turnishes the following particulars of a new-fangled swindle which found a victim among many others in Mr. John D. Hughes, a former well known and greatly esteemed citizen of this place, but now and for many years past a resident a day or two before his remittance came into their hands. The Tribune says :

Last week one of the most important confidence schemes that we have heard of in a long time was unearthed at Sidney. Nebraska, and an extended account of the matter will furnish an extended account of the matter win furnish interesting reading, as there is a local significance attached to it, and a moral which can be digested by even the most obtuse. On the 22d of December last a letter was mailed from Sidney, and directed to Mr. John D. Hughes, Johnstown, Pa. The letter head was neatly printed, and the penmanship was of the most businesslike hand. It read as follows:

Sidney House, Sidney, Neb., } Dec. 22, 1:77. JOHN F. WILSON, Proprietor.

DEAR SIR: On the 30th of last month a gentle-DEAR SIR: On the 30th of last month a gentle-man stopped at my hotel, registering his name as M. Hughes. 'rom the Black Hills. On the way down on the stage he caught a severe cold, which terminated in pneumonia, from which he died two days ago. Not knowing anything in regard to his relatives I examined his 'runk and found it to contain a very fine gold witch and chain, two silver-mounted revolvers, a gold ring, and many other valuables. I also found some papers con-sisting of deeds, etc., to min ng property in the sisting of deeds, etc., to min ng property in the Black Hills, and some addressed to John D. Hughes, Johnstown, Pa. On seeing dis and supposing you to be some relative, I concluded to write, as the contents of the trunk is very valuable. I would also say that Mr. Hughes owes me a balance for board, etc., as follows :

Paid undertaker..... 18.50 Believing you to be the proper person to receive he effects of the deceased I will forward the trunk and contents to you on receipt of amount due me as above. The doctor's and druggist's bills I have not received, but as I am not responsible for them I do not propose to pay them uniess the money is sent for that purpose. Yours, etc., John F. Wilson.

As Mr. Hughes has a brother in the Far West comewhere, from whom he has not heard for a long time, and us the statements in the letter seemed plausible enough, he came to the con-clusion that "Mr. Wilson" was honest and up-right in all that he proposed doing. So be call-ed on Esq. Fisher, to consult with him in regard to sending on the bill of expenses which had been incurred by the landlord of the Sidney House. The Squire was inclined to look with distrust on the matter, but finally decided to send his personal check on the First National Bank of Johnstown for the sum of $28.50, but, at the same time, took care to write scross the face of it, "For trunk and funeral expenses," intending, if it turned out to be a confidence game, that he would refuse payment of the paper when it came back, and thus block the game of Wilson. The check was sent on the 3 list of December last, and arrived at Sidney just about the time that the "proprietor of the hotel" was arrested. Following is a copy of the letter in which it was enclosed:

OFFICE OF J. H. FISHER. JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, JOHNSTOWN, PA., Dec. 31, 1877.

J. F. Wilson, Esq. DEAR SIR: Mr. John D. Hughes, merchant thior of this place, has just shown me your letter of the 221 inst., and from which he gathers that the Mr. Hughes who died at your hotel must have been his brother, who, when last heard from—three years ago—was in California. I enclose you my check for the amount of your bill, and you will please forward by express the trunk mentioned, and also please give us such particu-lars of Mr. Hughes' death as you know, and Very respectfully, yours, J. H. Fishgu.

Mr. Charles E. Smith, who had come on here from North Platte. Nebraska, several days be-fore the Wilson letter was received, and who left a few days subsequently on his return, was requested by Mr. Hughes to stop at Sidney and make some inquiry in relation to the death of the latter's brother. On the 11th of January he wrote back that a pack of scaundreis had been carrying on extensive operations in the "dead brother" business, and that for five or the only crumb of comfort be will ever have a chance toget for what he at least conceives to be faithful and efficient services to a party that in our opinion is fast tottering to its fall. Be that as it may, petitions praying among their personal effects. This, he stated was in possession of Mr. N. B. Ball, U. S. Mar three hundred Black-Hillers died at the Sidney House—that is, Mr. Wilson's cierk sent out to various towns and villages in Eastern States duplicate letters such as the one received by Mr. Hughes, only changing the names and address to suit location. A special agent, named Sevbelt, was put on the track of the swindlers. and found by means of a decoy letter that John Lee, who resided in that place, was the John F. Wrison of the "Sidney House," and he shadowed him until the following day, when his man took out seven letters from the post-office box, which were all from Pennsylvania, and addressed "J. F. Wilson." On Monday of hist week he received eight letters, and as the detective was satisfied I. on the movements of Lee that he (Seybold) was recognized, he placed his warrant of arrest in the hands of the Sher iff, who served the document that evening. Finding that the game was up he gave the name of E. W. Morgan as his accompance, and that individual was immediately captured. In his possession twenty-one letters addressed to of names, with postoffice addresses, but only one from each postoffice. The addresses were prin-cipally of parties residing to Pennsylvania, Hiinois, Teanessee, Ohio, and Missouri, A pre-liminary hearing was given the prisoners, and it was decided to hold them for trial, in default of $1.000 bail. Lee formerly resided in Omaha, where he was in the lottery business for some time, and thus secured the names of thousands of persons throughout the country who are anxious to make money by chance. Morgan had been a post-trader's clerk, at Red Cloud Agency, and was always considered of excel-ent character. In writing up this matter at such length it is to be noped that some of our readers may be taught a useful lesson - which is, that schemes by which wealth may be acquired so easily, on complying with requests sent out by circular or letter, can always be set down as the swin-dling dodges of confidence men, and gullible people who bite at specious schemes are little if any better than the persons by whom they

A RARE MUSICAL TREAT .- St. John's Choral Club, of Altoona, which recently gave a concert at St. Augustine in aid of the Catholic church in that place, where it was honored with an immense andience, to which it gave unbounded satisfaction, has kindly volunteered to give a like entertainment at and for the benefit of the Catholic church, in 25th. The programme to be presented will consist of sacred, sentimental and humorous solos, quariettes, choruses, recitations, etc., some twenty-five in number, with piano ac- effect. companiments by Misses Rooney and Haas. two of the most accomplished lady performers on that instrument that the State can produce. We know to a certainty that the concert will be first class in every particular and that the four ladies and five gentlemen who are to participate have few equals and no superiors among amateur vocalists. So well pssured, indeed, are we of this fact, that we have no hesitation in saying that any one who has a single objection to urge against the entertainment after it is over will have their money returned fully and promptly. More than this we need scarcely say, though the following from the Altoons Mirror will serve to show that twenty-five cents could not be better invested for a better cause and with a better assurance of getting more than full value in real, genuine enjoyment, such as St. John's Choral Club is abundantly able to furnish. The musical entertainment given by the St. John's choir, in the basement of the Catholic church, on Saturday evening, was well attended, though not so numerously as that which praceded it. This was partly on account of the mud and darkness through which the people knew they would have to wade; but we are well satisfied that had the absentees known what a rich musical and intellectual feast had been prepared for them, they would not have allowed such difficulties to keep them away. All who engaged in the performance acquitted themselves in a highly creditable manner. Gen-uine merit was exhibited by every one of them, and although much we would like give to each individually and all collectively the praise they merit, our limited space prevents us from do

A SKILLFUL PHYSICIAN .- Dr. George II. Keyser, of this city, is so well-known to the community in which he has been in successful practice for such a long series of years, that it is scarcely necessary to mention the location of his office. For the benefit of the few who may not be familiar with it, however, it may be stated that it is at No. 240 Penn avenue. The doctor, in his special lines of practice, may be said to be almost without a peer in this country. A lengthy experience and years of study have made him most thoroughly familiar with pulmonary complaints, and likewise with all that class of diseases that are to be enred by trusses and appliances of that character. Dr. Keyser is one of the best educated men in this locality-particularly so in his profession and in the particular branches of it to which we have referred. His thorough knowledge of diseases of this character and their treatment insure absolute safety, and those who place their reliance on him can

BABYLAND FOR JANUARY. - A fine double number, full of tiny Christmas Stories and lovely Christmas Pictures, all in big print, on thick paper, just the magazine to teach babies to read. It is only fifty cents a year, D. LOTHROP & Co., publishers, Boston, Mass. One of our exchanges says:

"If D. Lothrop & Co., of Boston, publishers "If D. Lothrop & Co., of Boston, publishers of Babyland, could have seen the joy the November number carried to the 'utile man' who has the privilege of 'taking' the copy that comes to this office, they would doubtless have felt that their magazine for juvenile readers is the publication of all publications for little eyes and cars. It is an 'institution' in families where there are small children."

I expect to save without delay money enough my debts to pay.
