A MARE THAT CAN'T BE GOT AWAY PROBABLE MURDER IN BEDFORD COUN-TY .- We learn from the Bedford Gazette that a bitter feeling long existing between the rehas culminated in bloodshed and the probable death of one of the parties concerned. The facts of the case, briefly told, are as foilows: On Tuesday morning of last week, while Adam Sheirer, aged about 18 years, was in the act of crossing a foot-log which is reached by a path through Rawlins' lot, he was met by the latter, who told him if he never in any way molested him. To this Rawlins assented, but told him that his brothers had. When young Sheirer came back on his way home he saw Rawlins at the other end of the foot tog, armed with a scythe, and once more he threatened to kill Sheirer if he attempted to cross. The latter did cross, however, and just as he stepped off the log Rawlins struck him with the scythe, custing him across the right shoulder, over the back, and in the left side. The wound is said to be a terrible one. Young Sheirer is very corpulent for his age, weighing over two bundred pounds. After the cutting he made his way to the nearest neighbor, where his wounds were attended He was reported dying at last accounts. Rawlins gave himself up and was lodged in the Bedford jali.

MEETING OF THE PRESS ASSOCIATION. Owing to a pressure of job work we found it impossible to attend the fourth annual sure Cure for Piles.
meeting of the Pennsylvania, Ohio and West | A sure cure for the blind, bleeding itehing and Virginia Press Association, held at the Seventh Avenue Hotel, Pittsburgh, on Friday last, and not having authorized any one to act in our stead, the Telegraph of that city must have been mistaken when it said that the FREEMAN was represented on said occasion. Be that, however, as it may, we fully endorse all that was done by the Association, and especially in its renewed expressions of confidence in Messrs, W. L. Foulk, Sons & Co., who as agents of the Association have shown themselves eminently faithful, competent and trustworthy. Of the topics discussed and other business transacted we pers of Saturday, as follows: The meeting was pretty fully attended, much more than a mere unjority of the newspapers embraced in the Association being represented. President E. L. Christman, of the Washington (Pa.) Exporter, occupied the chair, and Secretary C. W. Hazzard, of the Monongabela City Reblican, performed the duties pertaining to

The following topics were discussed: 1. The advance pay system. 2. Printing office, book keeping. 3. The relations which the country press bears toward Pittsburgh as the business centre of the territory embraced in our discret.
The last of these topics drew out a wide range of discussion and elicited quite an able and interesting speech from Col. Foulk, who among ings advocated the improvement of the One river.

A summer exeursion was decided on and a committee of arrangements consisting of Mess. Hazzard, Sansom and Foulk appointed. The Treasurer's report showed a healthy condition of the flumers, and an invitation kindly extended by Col. Unger, of the Seventh Avenue Hotel, to partake of a sumptuous dinner, which of course was gladly accepted by ye hungry editors, who did ample justice to the rich feast, and made it the occ. slon for appropriate tousis, songs, speeches, etc., showed very plaintly that the heart of that elever gentlemen is in the right place - a remark which will apply with equal force to the managers of the Opera House and Lyceum, whose generous tender of free tickets to their respective enterminments were received and accepted with becoming thanks. This done, the Association, at 3 o'clock, P. M., proceeded to the election of officers for the en-suing year, with the following result: Presi-dent-E. L. Christman, Washington Reporter, Vice Presidents-J. M. Laird, Greensburg Ar-gus; Thomas Rouinson, Butler Eagle; Walter gus; Thomas Robinson, Butler Eagle; Walter L. Campbell, Youngstown (O.) Register. Scoretary and Treasurer—Chill W. Hazzard, Monougabela Republican. Directors—G. W. G. Day, (non George Washington's Great Day,) Waynesburg Republican; E. S. Durbat, New Castle Courant; J. B. Sansom, Indiana Democrat; A. Kline, Greensburg Democrat; H. A. McPike, Ebensburg Freeman; M. Weynnd, Beaver Times; E. B. Martin, East Liverpool (O.) Gazette.

W. L. Foulk, Sons & Co. were complimented, as they well deserved by being unanimously as they well deserved, by being unanimously re-elected business managers for the current year, and Messrs, Christman and Hazzard were chos a to represent the Association at the Na-tional Convention of the U. S. Export Trade, held in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday last.

Herald of a recent date:

Last Saturday Mrs. Mary Barkley, who is at present residing in this vicinity, came before Justice Brown and made complaint against her husband, John Barkley, for negict of his family and refusing to render them support, stating that for eight meanths he has not provided her anything for anything for anything for anything for anything for anything for anything anything anything for anything for anything for anything anythin The warrant was issued, and resterday Bark-ley appeared before his Honor. IN MERORIUM. Lines written on the death, Feb. 10, 1878, Miss Emma Farber, of Wilmore, Pa.

Relentless tate, and hast thou thus With cruel hand uncased thy knife? Cut down a flower so dear to us Just as it had bloomed into life?

Those lips so dear to friendship's breath, Unkindiy words they never knew; Alas! they now are closed in death-Cold, coloriess, and silent, too.

Those eyes so sweet, their timld gaze, So caimly beautiful that brow; The mother sighs—the group surveys— To think they sleep forever now.

All who shall hear thy timeless doom Shall grieve thy short solourn on earth— That thou should'st seek thy Father's home Ere well we knew to prize thy worth.

PRICELESS DISCOVERY.

A sure cure for the blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. William-an Indian remedy-called Dr. William's Indian Unitment. A single bottle has cured the worst old chronic cases of twenty five and thirty years' standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wenderful securing medicine. Lotions, instruments and electuaries do more harm than good. William's Dintment supports the tumors, allays the intense itching (particu-larly at night after getting warm in bed), acts as larly at hight after getting warm in bed), acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless reliet, and is prepared only for Piles and nothing else. Thousands of cured patients attest its virtues, and physicians of all schools prenounce it the greatest contribution to medicine of the ago.
