Beckie, it appears, had been seduced by a negro scoun-dret named John Pople, and oh Saturday last Dr. Krise, formerly of this county, was called in, her situation at the time being considered very critical. In the evening of that day, Dr. K. sent Burris to get either Dr. Rowe or Dr. Bell, also a former citizen of this county, to come and assist him in manufing the case, but they both refused to obey the summons. Buranything to do with the case while it was in Dr. K.'s hands. Dr. Elliott was finally induced to go to the house, but finding that the girl had been chlorotormed by Krise, he told one of the women that he (K.) did not know how to use the drug. At 3 o'clock on Sunday morning the two doctors left, Krise telling Elliott to meet him at 9 o'clock, at which time the latter was once more on hab?, but Krise failed to come until an hour latter and when he did nome
