

Democratic State Ticket. FOR GOVERNOR, ANDREW H. DILL, of Union County. FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR, JOHN FERTIG, of Venango County.

The election by the Democratic State Convention of Hon. R. Milton Spear, of Huntingdon, as Chairman of the State Committee, means an aggressive and vigorous campaign, to be crowned with success if earnest and thorough work can accomplish that result.

After several weeks of doubt and uncertainty it appears now to be definitely settled that the much talked of congress of the European powers will assemble at Berlin on the 11th of June—that Russia will submit to it the whole of the treaty of peace between her and Turkey, the most objectionable features of which will be modified, and that war between England and Russia will thus be avoided.

As soon as Mr. Dill returned to Harrisburg after his nomination for Governor by the Pittsburgh convention, he resigned his seat in the State Senate. He was elected in 1876 for four years, and his term would expire with the session of 1880.

QUAY was more successful in dealing with the late model Legislature than his friend and fellow office seeker, Hart, who claimed when he was a candidate for State Treasurer last year that he had learned how to make bricks when he was a boy.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the convention: I come before you as a humble petitioner for your aid and assistance. I have been elected to the office of Governor of this State, and I have been elected to the office of Governor of this State.

The State Ticket.

No Democratic State Convention ever nominated a ticket that gave absolute satisfaction, nor is it at all probable that any convention in the future will accomplish such a result.
