LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

First, There, and the Other Place.

—Buy Barkers' Teas at 50 cts. per lb. and get the best in town.

—Five hundred persons attended the Allegheny at Cresson last Thursday.

—The long reported rain visited us a little during the past seven days.

—Any one can get $2 in every $5 by buying goods from S. Tabb Hamm, Carrolltown.

—Call and buy the best sewing machines in the world" of A. A. Barker & Son, Loretto for $30 dollars.

—The concert given by the May Flyde Co. in this place last Friday evening, was largely attended. The cause why is obvious—it was not well advertised.

—The people's cheap store of Carrolltown, S. Tabb Hamm, announces that it goes from this date onward at low rates so as to make room for fall goods.

—The juvenile delegation to the meeting of Turners held at Wheeling last week succeeded in carrying off a half dozen prizes offered for proficiency in athletic sports.

—As advertised, the reader is requested to call and see the bargains offered by S. Tabb Hamm, Carrolltown. He promises a big time in the shape of bargains in the general line.

—Having at the mentioned day weather permitting our greatest part of July, the potato crop in this vicinity will be a light one, and will be in comparison with the yield of last year, and much esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. Johnson Moore, is undergoing dangerously ill at the residence of his son-in-law, Col. Wm. E. Piper, of Johnstown.

—Any one should examine the Registry list of this district and see if his name is on the list before it is placed in the hands of the Assessor. It will be on the list after the 1st of September at the office for Registering.

—The 5th of September is the day appointed upon which P. P. Thomas, Esq., the State Centre Centre, is to give bail in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance at Court to answer the charges preferred against him by H. D. & L. D. Woodruff, of Lewistown Democrat.

—We are exceedingly pleased to chronicle positively that the Democratic candidates for Assembly will be present at the picnic to be given a week, near Baylor's school-house, to-morrow.

—The well-known friend Mr. John Thomas, of Carrolltown, is lying sick and very low at his home in that place. He is one of the few men of whom we can truly say that it will be sad for a community to be taken away.

—Mr. Anthony Shoup, while on his return through Clearfield and Carroll counties on the 15th inst., had the misfortune to get his horse severely injured by the cars. The next time it happens it will break the answer.

—Dr. E. McGahan, of Huntingdon, a gentleman over sixty years of age, and who has practiced the long-tailed profession for forty-four years past, walked from Altoona to Hollidaysburg, a distance of nine miles, in one hour and twenty minutes, on the 10th inst. Now let the boys try his distance as the Herald says that Republicans don't know a Democratic Smigger when they see it. And the Herald might with equal propriety add that Republicans are a rule, are the other kind of creatures.

—Wm. Kirk Ewing, the affable and efficient representative of the following townships in Cambria county, to wit: Blair, Lib. Wood st., Pittsburgh, was in town the beginning of this week, and while here he and some big bills. Mr. Ewing's name sounds well in connection with that locality.

—We learn from the Scientific American of the 10th inst. that Mr. Samuel Keim, of Altoona, Pa., has invented an improvement in Millstone Dresses, the object of which is to cause the grain to be thrown away from the eye of the stone, and carried to the flouring surfaces of the grinding stones, thereby reducing the liability of middlings by entirely framing the dressing the flour.

—Daniel T. Caldwell, of Tyrone, formerly a resident of that place in connection with W. M. Lloyd, of Altoona, appeared before the Register in Bankruptcy at Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday last, and filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are $12,000, his assets nominal, and his creditors one hundred and sixty. How is that for high in one way, and very low in another.

—The following named teachers were appointed last Saturday last to take charge of the public schools of Cambria township for the term beginning Monday, October 7th: No. 1, Maria Davis; No. 2, Maria Swankhank; No. 3, Robert Thomas; No. 4, Owen Jones; No. 5, Howard C. Evans; No. 6, Morris D. Jones; No. 7, Maria Shenkle; No. 8, Thos. Jones; No. 9, L. H. Linton; No. 10, John [illegible].

—A preliminary meeting for the purpose of making arrangements for the giving of a printers' picnic, some where in the Juniata valley next month, is announced to be held at Tyrone to-morrow afternoon. The printers, it seems, must have some recreation along with the rest of the folks.

—Constable Barclay succeeded in arresting one Longenecker in Blacklick township on Wednesday. He was safely landed in jail, but not till after it had been found necessary to handle a revolver as a persuader. Longenecker is charged with fornication and bastardy, and was arrested for the crime last winter in Jefferson county, but somehow succeeded in effecting his escape from the officer. His trial will come off in September.

—Henry Beyer, of Tyrone, Blair county, was so unfortunate as to get in the way of a lot of logs which had been jammed at Barney's, Clearfield county, and afterward cut loose. He fell under the front logs and three heavy pieces of timber passed over him before he could be rescued. His neck was found to be broken, and, of course, death was instantaneous. The remains were interred at Tyrone Saturday morning of last week.

—A statement was current in our midst the latter part of last week that a cargo of human freight followed by yellow fever was consigned to this place per mail. The story was incorrect in some pertinent particulars. The parties named didn't happen to have the yellow fever; they didn't come here per railroad; and, to cipher the thing down close, they were among the silkiest passengers on the train which arrived that day. Some folks, it seems, will talk.

—Isadore Smith, son of Mr. John Smith, of Carrolltown, aged about 17 years and who has been in delicate health for a long time commenced bleeding from the nose early on Monday morning and has continued bleeding to write of the offering of physicians to this time, with but brief intervals, almost constantly. His case is pronounced hopeless by the doctors in attendance and it is a matter of surprise how life is sustained at all under the loss of so much blood.

—We desire to attract the attention of our readers to two facts. One is that the dog-days have come and gone, giving place to comparatively cool weather. The other is that a new style of clothing will therefore become necessary. The best ready-made clothing in the market is sold by Godfrey Wolfe, next door to post-office, Altoona. An invoice embracing the very latest styles was received this week, and marked away down in price. Orders by mail solicited and promptly attended to.

—Charles James Todd, Jr., of Indiana county, is believed to have drowned himself at West Point Wednesday night. He has been sick in the hospital since May 30. His clothes were found on the river bank. He left letters expressing his determination to commit suicide. He was in his twenty-third year, and before his sickness stood at the head of his class, the third. It is supposed that his long sickness caused mental unsoundness. His body has not yet been found. He was a son of Col. Wm. A. Todd, at one time a resident of Ebensburg.

—"To cure is human; to quit, Divine." There are very few divines in this country. Most of the inhabitants are continually driving around seeking some one foolish enough to trust them. Mr. Blumenthal, proprietor of the Great Eastern Boot and Shoe Store, 1129 Eleventh avenue, Altoona, does not do a trusting enough in this way—he trusts you will give him your patronage—believing you to be guaranteed satisfaction as regards style, quality, price and low prices. A large fall assortment of boots and shoes now received from Boston and other Eastern cities, the newest styles.

—Stephen Vincent, a much-esteemed member of the Franciscan Brothers, died at Loretto Tuesday morning. His age was 56 years. Brother Vincent along with Brother Dominic and Brother Francis came to Loretto long ago and founded the institution with which this gentleman was connected up to the time of his death. Brothers Dominic and Francis have since been gathered to their fathers. The mortal remains of Brother Vincent were laid to rest in the cemetery attached to the Franciscan institution, and the pious prayers of all who knew him will ascend for him a quiet repose.

—When the Pittsburgh morning mails pulls into the depot here every Saturday evening, in order to make rapid headway it is a remarkable fact that in the short time between the Saturday city and Ebensburg only a fraction is thrown away. A gentleman named Mahoney, a guest at the Lloyd House, stepped in front of the train last Saturday evening. He is probably yet aware of it, and some big bills. The yard of Mr. Ewing's name sounds well in connection with that locality.

—Mr. Owen, of Williamsburg, was run down by a Pennsylvania train at Williamsburg last Monday morning and severely injured. A companion of Mr. Long was also struck by the engine and slightly hurt. Mr. Owens was a member of the military organization known as the Silver Grays.

—Harrison B. McAllister, son of Hon. A. McAllister, of Springfield Furnace, who was taken ill at his bed on Thursday morning last. He had not been in good health for some years previous to his sudden taking off, and at the time was he considered as all things. He was aged about thirty-five.

—The Misses McLaughlin desire us to announce through the columns of the FREEMAN that all work left at their woollen factory must be called for on or before the first day of October. Work may be brought in now and after that date, and, if desired, can be delivered to the owners in the latter part of the month.

—The branch of the Pennsylvania railroad from Tyrone to Bellwood, a distance of seven miles, is now completed and will be opened for business on the 1st of September. The new road will be a great convenience to the people of Bellwood, Antis and Logan townships, and will be the means of building up a thriving town at the junction with the main line.

—Thomas Kyle, Esq., will be election day; Saturday, Sept. 8th, will be the last day upon which voters can be assessed, and Saturday, Oct. 5th, will be the last day upon which State and county taxes can be paid in order to vote, as well as the last day upon which foreigners can be naturalized. Voters should bear these facts in mind and act accordingly.

—It is thought that the Bell's Mills narrow gauge railroad will be extended from its present terminus, Glen Hope, to the mouth of Trout's run, Clearfield county, four miles north of the point at which the road now ties up at for the night. Willow run is in Beccaria township, and some big things are spoken of in connection with that locality.

—We learn from the Scientific American of the 10th inst. that Mr. Samuel Keim, of Altoona, Pa., has invented an improvement in Millstone Dresses, the object of which is to cause the grain to be thrown away from the eye of the stone, and carried to the flouring surfaces of the grinding stones, thereby reducing the liability of middlings by entirely framing the dressing the flour.

Lloyd, of Altoona, appeared before the Register in Bankruptcy at Hollidaysburg, on Tuesday last, and filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy. His liabilities are $12,000, his assets nominal, and his creditors one hundred and sixty. How is that for high in one way, and very low in another.

Evans; No. 6, Morris D. Jones; No. 7, Maria Shenkle; No. 8, Thos. Jones; No. 9, L. H. Linton; No. 10, John [illegible].

—Gold weather is coming—a delicate blister when taken in nature's legitimate sense, and those who intend to get married are Winter fixed better at once jump over the fence. It also throws out some hints which affect the bodily comfort, plainly letting us understand that the raiment we have been wearing up to date will not suit with the thermometer down to 40°. Where can you buy good and cheap ready-made clothing? At Jas. J. Murphy's Star Clothing Hall, 109 and 111 Main street, Johnstown. His reputation as an honest, honorable merchant is second to none in the land. Give him a trial, and we feel sanctioned that you will obtain a bargain which will give satisfaction.

—The excursion to the Mammoth Cave, Kentucky, is the big event of the week with the editorial fraternity. A large number of that valuable class of society, through private arrangement, met at Pittsburgh Monday evening, where they were taken in charge by Colonel Foulk, the general advertising agent for the press. If everything using agent for the press. If everything using came up to the bill, they carried an Omnibus and other paths for a couple of days, and and other paths for a couple of days, arriving at the Cave yesterday. H. A. McAteer, Esq., of the Freeman, Mr. James, of Pike, Esq., of the Freeman, Mr. James, of the Herald, and Caspar W. Early, Esq., of the Herald, and Caspar W. Early, Esq., of the Johnstown Tribune, represent Cambria county in the gathering. They will have company to the gathering. They will probably get back home in time to tell us in next week's papers about the wondrous sights they saw.

—On Tuesday of last week, a picnic was given at Black Lick station, on the Indiana branch road, about five miles north of Blairsville. Among those present were George Rogers and Benny Butler. During the afternoon they met, when Butler called Rogers a scoundrel from the crowd, and an angry altercation ensued. Finally the men came to blows, drawing a knife plunged it into his antagonist's abdomen. He immediately fled, and left the scene. He immediately fled, and left the scene. He immediately fled, and left the scene
