THE CAMBRIA FREEMAN.

Ebensburg, Pa.,

FRIDAY, - - - NOV. 8, 1878.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Here, There, and the Other Place.

—Enough snow to whiten the ground in spots fell this morning.

—Tuesday's elections seem to have cooked the Greenback goose very effectually.

—The Greenbackers seem to be the only fellows who have nothing to rejoice over.

—We regret to state that the State of Pennsylvania, as a State, seems to be irretrievably joined to its radical idols.

—Swearing at Swank seems to be the only solace left to our Republican brethren now that Campbell has been elected—to stay at home.

—Old Boreas has done as much blowing during the last twenty-four hours as an average greenbacker, and the result has been about the same.

—Our paper is one day behind time this week. The desire to furnish our readers with the latest news about the election has induced the delay.

—The first snow of the season that was visible to the naked eye visited this section yesterday morning, but came in flakes neither thick nor fast.

—The scent of the Lilley has grown painfully rank in the nostrils of a radical editor whose name it is Swank; for which same let all decent men a kind Providence thank.

—A coon-skin stuffed with the lying effusions of his own brain, in shape of several copies of the Weekly Tribune, were sent to Editor Swank, on Thursday last by several Democratic wags in this place.

—Some of Campbell's supporters in this vicinity express a willingness to forgive Coffroth for having defeated him if he will only bring some pressure to bear that will have the effect of producing a vacancy in the Johnstown post-office.

—Our friend and patron, Mr. John Riffel, of Summitville, slaughtered two hogs, each sixteen months old, Wednesday last, which weighed 534 and 460 pounds respectively. Perfectly pounderous porkers. Who can make the Riffel on a heftier pair?

—John A. Shilling, of Martinsburg, Blair county, made a rumble sixpence of himself on Saturday last by getting gloriously drunk, and while in that condition fell over a cook stove and broke his neck, causing instant death, as a matter of course. His age was about 60 years.

—Blacklick township, notwithstanding its strong Republican proclivities, did a noble work for Coffroth on Tuesday last and for that reason deserves to wear the belt as the banner township of Cambria. A little post-office squabble is what cooked the Campbell goose in Blacklick.

—It appears to be the general sentiment among Republicans in this vicinity that the Johnstown Tribune did more to aid the election of Coffroth than all other causes combined. We don't know how that is, but we are certain that the paper in question didn't do him any harm.

—The total vote of the Greenback party in Altoona, where John Tomlinson ran the machine, was 472, which is rather a small party to make as loud a noise as they did from the very beginning until the closing scene of the campaign. A fly, however, is much more frisky than an elephant.

—The small frame building used for school purposes by the Catholics of this place caught fire from a defective stove-pipe on Monday last, but through the efforts of Father Boyle, who promptly hastened to the scene and was aided by others, the fire was subdued before any serious damage was done.

—One of the impossibilities of the present day is to undersell Jas. J. Murphy on any article of clothing, with an elegant stock of which his Star Clothing Hall is constantly stocked. This assertion is not done up in rhyme, but it is true nevertheless, as can be abundantly proven to the satisfaction of all who favor him with their custom.

—Coffroth is reported to be still on the run in the glades of Somerset, and the editor of the Johnstown Tribune is trying to add up the figures as the returns are received, in order to have them framed and sent to his Washington city friend, William Lilly, general dealer in cadetships and wholesale manufacturer of fraudulent affidavits.

—A man troubled with the toothache probably don't care who is elected, but if he lives near Wilmore or Carrolltown he will no doubt be interested in learning that Dr. Hoffman will be at the former place on Monday next and at the latter on Friday following, Nov. 15th, when all work in his line will receive scientific attention at moderate charges.

—We do not know how many copies of the Weekly edition of the Johnstown Tribune were circulated in Somerset county during the campaign, but it must have been supplied in great numbers, judging from the fact that it enabled Coffroth to come out of the fight with a majority of only 411 against him in that radical stronghold, where Gen. Campbell claimed 1,400.

—The bewildered Republicans in this place could have stood the election of Dill, but Coffroth's election is to them like the last straw placed on the camel's back, and they have adopted the theory that Coffroth's votes in Somerset county were first votes, which he polled with the same facility that the extreme Greenback men propose to manufacture fiat money.

—Some eighteen hours or so after the polls had closed Mr. Thomas Davis (Jackson) was confident fifty dollars' worth that Gen. Campbell had been re-elected. Prothonotary O'Donnell being convinced the other way to exactly the same amount, a third party was made the custodian of the money until the official returns would show, as they have shown, that Gen. Coffroth is elected.

—Capt. Harry Wilson, a route agent on the Middle Division, Pa. R. R., reached out the mail pouch at Mifflin on Monday evening last, and having secured it was in the act of stooping down to throw it into car when the train struck a curve and he was thrown out of the door and on to the track, receiving injuries which are likely to if they have not already resulted in death.

—Judge Dean has reason to be proud of the fact that the Supreme Court, in session at Pittsburgh, rendered decisions on Monday last sustaining his rulings in the following named cases, all of which were tried in this county: Joseph Bardine vs. Francis A. Gibbons; Wm. Flattery vs. Mary Flattery; John E. Holmes vs. Bernard McGee; Theodore Atkinson and others vs. St. Francis' Academy, Loretto.

—We always rejoice at Democratic success, but we have a sympathetic feeling for our friend, Hon. M. Edgar King, editor of the Altoona Radical, who was defeated for Assembly by 58 votes, while his colleague was elected by a majority of 376. We presume that Mr. King's defeat was brought about by some local question which so often plays sad havoc with the hopes and calculations of candidates for office.

—The election of Coffroth should be celebrated by the trotting out of a whole coopful of roosters, but the pressure upon our columns is so great that we refrain from even going one c—Hicken on the glorious result. We are none the less happy, however, and are sure our readers will not repress their joy simply because the FREEMAN'S rooster has not been afforded an opportunity to air himself on so joyful an occasion.

—If the chairman of the Republican County Committee had succeeded in seducing Mr. Jacob Trefts, chairman of the Greenback County Committee, from the path of political virtue for "a certain monied consideration," as Trefts in a published letter declared he had attempted to do, it is possible that there would not to-day be weeping, wailing and gnashing of teeth in the camp of Jacob M. Campbell and his political friends.

—The principal resemblance, so far as yet discovered, between a team on a High street crossing and a quarter barrel of flour is that both make about fifty wait—very often for an opportunity to get across to John Lloyd & Co.'s cheap cash store, whence the tide of bargain-seekers still tends in the full consciousness of buying as cheap, if not a little cheaper, and obtaining as desirable goods of all kinds as can be found at any mercantile establishment in northern Cambria, or parts adjacent.

—McDonald, of Loretto, determined to be outdone by no one in the matter of low prices, sends us another bulletin announcing his ability and willingness to sell two good corn brooms for 25 cents, two buckets for 25 cents, good roasted coffee, in pound packages, for 20 cents, sweet molasses for 35 cents per gallon, sweeter syrup for 55 cents, and pure alum salt for 1,60 per barrel, as well as ladies' cloaks and other goods in profusion at all prices except high prices.

—I am the newspaper, and carry the news to all of your dwellings or wherever you choose; I tell you of many things you ne'er heard before—of things good and bad, and of Blumenthal's store, which throughout all the country has won great renown, and contains such a stock as ne'er in Altoona town has been opened for the people to look at and buy, where each customer at low prices all his wants can supply so far as boots, shoes, gaiters and all goods in that line are concerned. Store at 1119 Eleventh avenue, Altoona, Pa.

—As a political prophet, or as a prophet of any kind, the wise man of the Herald is a most dismal failure. During the campaign he assured the Republicans in the other three counties of this district, and of course misled them, that Coffroth would utterly fail to receive the Democratic vote in this county. The returns tell another story, and show that the difference in the vote between Dill and Coffroth is not worth talking about. The majority for each of them would have been two hundred greater than it is had not the Greenback fever broken out in the northern portion of the county where it was least expected.

—The many friends of R. L. Johnston, Esq., will be sorry to learn that he had the misfortune to fall this (Friday) morning and fracture his lame leg immediately above the ankle. He was amusing himself in the kitchen at the time with some of his family but just how the accident happened we failed to learn. Dr. Lemmon, who was promptly summoned, reduced the fracture as speedily as possible, and if any one imagines that the injury happened to his wooden leg, this fact will serve to show the folly of such a presumption. Our friend "Bob," it is feared, will be confined to his bed for some time to come.

—The election is over, and it is a fact beyond doubt that all the defeated are badly "put out," while those who have won, it is easy to guess, are filled with a joy they can scarcely express; though after all's said, and the excitement is o'er, we advise all concerned, as we have done oft before, to think of the winter now so nearly at hand, and prepare for its blasts, which are hard to withstand, by calling on Wolff, who delights at all times, to make good what we say in these disjointed rhymes, by furnishing clothing, the finest and best, at prices unequalled in the east or the west. Store on Eleventh avenue, next door to the post-office, Altoona, Pa.

—The fine organ recently purchased for the church at St. Bonifacius, in Elder township, is, we are glad to learn, a source of great pride and pleasure to the members of said congregation, who are not only delighted with the instrument itself, but highly pleased with the manner in which the keys are manipulated by Prof. Glosser, who, it is proper to say, is an accomplished musician. The organ in question, which is first class in every respect, cost about $1,000, the necessary funds having been secured by a couple of picnics held during the past summer, both of which were liberally patronized by members of the congregation, as well as by persons from other portions of this and adjoining counties.

—We didn't have time or space this week to devote to the new advertisements of Chas. Simon and C. Simon & Co., Altoona, but cannot let the opportunity pass without once more calling the attention of our readers to the fact that said houses deal very extensively in dry goods, clothing, and all manner of merchandise pertaining to those departments of trade. More than that, they sell at prices which no one can excel for cheapness, and which few if any can successfully compete with. We think, in fact have no doubt at all, that those of our readers who do their shopping in Altoona will find it to their advantage to deal with Chas. Simon and C. Simon & Co., whose stores occupy prominent positions on Eleventh avenue.

—While our good friend and true, Mr. James Kirkpatrick, of Chest township, and one of his little sons were on their way home on election day in a two-horse wagon, in which were a cider mill and a couple of barrels of cider, the former got out of the wagon for the purpose of warming up by walking down what is known as Weakland's hill, a rather steep acclivity, but had not gone very far when the horses took fright and ran away. The youthful driver being unable to control the team, they dashed down the hill at a fearful rate, and coming in contact with a tree at the foot, the wagon was completely wrecked, young Kirkpatrick at the same time being thrown out and having his head considerably cut, though otherwise escaping, we are glad to learn, without serious injury.

—If any German Democrat in the north of this county who keeps a hotel, or is in the eating-house business, was induced through the senseless gab of a German demagogue from Johnstown, who visited the portion of the county referred to prior to the election, to oppose the election of Gen. Coffroth on the ground that he was a temperance man, we trust that if the same chap tries the experiment again, when perhaps some other temperance man may be the Democratic candidate for Congress, he will have a large glass of lager, or something stronger, thrown in his impudent face, and told that a member of Congress has about as much to do with the license law in this State as he has with the sale of lemoade at Barnum's big show.

—We regret exceedingly to state that the official returns of the election shows the defeat, by a small majority, of Henry SHOEMAKER, Esq., the Democratic candidate for County Surveyor, and the election of Wm. T. McConnell, of Portage township, the nominee of the Greenback party, who was also supported by Republicans, their county convention having declined to make any nomination. We ought perhaps to blame Mr. S. himself for contributing to his own defeat by permitting his modesty to get so much the better of him as to induce him to make no effort whatever in his own behalf, which his opponent took timely the forelook and worked deligently for his own success. The office is not worth seeking after by making a personal struggle to obtain it, but so good and worthy a man as Mr. S. deserved to be relected, having at all times proved himself to be a most competent officer.

—The editor of the Herald pretends to have understood last week that "a fellow from Somerset county was in town and furnished the Freeman with an electioneering story in the interest of Coffroth. Whatever it may be," he adds, "the people should bear in mind that it is an eleventh hour lie." The above is not "an eleventh hour lie" of the editor of the Herald, but simply one of his every hour lies, and we venture to say that he never heard from mortal man anything of the kind he pretends he did. No "fellow from Somerset county" was in our office last week, and consequently no "electioneering story" was furnished to us. The same bright genius who concocted and published the lie about the Democratic meeting at Chest Springs, three hours before the meeting took place, invented and published this additional lie about "a fellow from Somerset county" having visited the FREEMAN office. We again ask can a postmaster under Hayes, who is at the same time the editor of a Republican newspaper, possibly tell the truth? It would be a good subject for a debating society.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN HACKETT.—We were deeply pained, on Tuesday last, to learn of the death of Rev. Father Hackett, whose pure and spotless life came to an unexpected, not to say sudden end, at the parsonage of the Catholic church at Summitville, this county, about 3 o'clock on the morning of the day named. We understand that on Wednesday of last week he was prostrated by an attack of vertigo, and from that time grew gradually worse until death at last claimed him as its own. Father Hackett was about forty-six years of age and was ordained a priest more than twenty years ago. He had charge of the congregation at Wilmore for several years, and from thence was transferred to the church at Summitville about nine years ago. He was a most zealous pastor of both congregations, and was loved and respected not only by every man, woman and child who attended on his ministrations, but by everybody who knew him. He possessed as sweet and gentle a disposition as any man we ever knew, and inspired sentiments of the most sincere esteem and admiration among all with whom he came in contact. Pure and spotless in this life, we trust he has found a blessed immortality in the life beyond the grave. His funernal took place yesterday at 10 o'clock, the choir of the Church of the Holy Name, in this place, furnishing the music, and was attended by quite a number of our citizens, among whom the deceased had many warm and admiring friends. A grand solemn Mass of Requiem was celebrated for the repose of his soul, upwards of fifty priests, besides the Bishop of the diocese, being present, we are told, in the sanctuary, and an affecting and beautiful tribute to his memory was pronounced by Rev. Father Bush, of Loretto. After this the last rites of the Church were performed over the remains, and then all that was mortal of a faithful priest and a noble man were laid to rest in the cemetery adjoining the church. May God in his infinite mercy grant eternal rest to his soul.

HYMENEAL.

ARTHURS—HANCOCK.—Married, at Irwin, Westmoreland county, on Wednesday, Oct. 30, 1878, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. G. D. Knox, Mr. G. Arthurs and Miss Mary Hancock, both of that place.
