session next Monday.

-The Blair County Teachers' Institute will begin on the 23d proximo. It cost David Edwards, of this county, just $6.50 to shoot a little dog for fun near Altoena the other day.

-We understand that Judge Orvis will preside during both weeks of the coming term of Court in this county. "Comical" Conly is billed for an entertalement in Hollidaysburg on Tuesday evening next. "So near and yet so far," The sale of the Gantner farm in Carroll township has once more been postponed, this ume to Saturday, Dec. 28th. See advertise-

-We sre glad to know that the broken hone of R. L. Johnston, Esq., is knitting together nicely. The several cases set down for the coming session of court in which he is retained will necessarily be postponed. -Notwithstanding the weather prophets predict a long and severe winter, it is a noable fact that we have had less snow and cold weather thus far than even during the same period last year, which was remarkable for its mildness.

-On Saturday of next week, Dec. 7th, Mr. Julius Stich, of Carrolltown, will offer his personal property in said borough, as well as in Carroll township. See posters printed at this office. -We understand that Mr. John Fitzhar-House, Ebensburg, but now engaged in the same line of business in Hollidaysburg, has cented a hotel in Johnstown and will remove thither on the first of April next. -Mr. Jacob Dunmyer, a former resident of Richland township, this county, died in trother of Mr. S. P. Dunmyer, formerly of Jackson township, but now of New Cambria, we saw a fine deer put on the train at Beanington last Monday morning—it may not have been shot on the Lord's day—and afterwards learned that it was sold in Altoons for seven cents per pound by the car-cass. It was deer meat of course, but not Nicodemus, the reason or other Amanda has latterly refused business manager. The sum of $3,000 is to live with James, and on Friday the latter given as the price fixed on for the transfer.

-Mr. James B. Huff was found dead in bed at his home in Altoona on Saturday morning last. His disease was epilepsy, to frequent attacks of which he had been subject from childhood. He was a brother of ex-Sheriff Haff, recently of Altoona, but now in the oil regious, and of Mr. Geo. F. The operation of "tapping" Mr. J. A. Moore, who has been confined to his room for a couple of weeks past by a dropsical affliction, was successfully performed on Tuesday of this week by Dr. John Lowman, of Johnstown. Nearly two gallons of semiliquid matter were taken from him and the patient is now in a much easier condition than before. We hope soon to hear of bis complete restoration to health.

-The death of a little son of Deputy Postmaster Davis, noted elsewhere, was caused by diphtheria, a disease which, if we are correctly informed, is afflicting another member of the same family—a little daughter. Mr. Davis himself is also said to be ill, but the nature of his affliction we failed to learn. Other cases of diphtheria in our town are likewise reported but we believe none of them are of a serious character.

--We had the pieasure of a visit on Friday last from Mr. Bartley Corless, who resides two miles west of Altoona, and is one of the most steadfast and reliable patrons the FREEMAN can boast of—"an honest man, the noblest work of God." Mr. Corless was accompanied by his son and brother, both of ven bless our friend Corless and keep him and his from all kinds of distress.

-On Saturday last Judge Dean issued a decree requiring the Commonwealth to refund $709.50, the amount claimed to be ungentleman named, but all others interested fund $709.50, the amount claimed to be unduly assessed upon Huntingdon county for the year 1878, by the Board of Revenue Commissioners. This action is taken in view of the decision recently made by Judge Pearson at Harrisburg, wherein Huntingdon county was one of the fifteen appellants, and the extra tax imposed by the Board was ordered to be stricken off. -Mr. John McFayden, superintendent of the coke ovens of the Cambria Iron Company, while at Bennington, last Thursday, stepped on a loose grate of a coke oven, and the covering turning under his weight, one foot and leg went through into the furnace. He was instantly pulled out, but not before his boot and the leg of his pantaloons had been burned to a crisp. That was all the damage done, but it certainly was a very narrow escape from a terrible injury. -Attention is invited to the advertisement

He has stayed away ever since, as have also the three watches,

Woolf, of Johnstown, will be afforded an opportnity next week to tell what he knows about a "Tremendous Fight among the Clothing Men," of that place, from which he himse f emerged with the cham-pion belt as an emblem of victory. Of course the fight was a mythical one, but our readers may rest assured that there is nothing mythical about the large and elegant stock of clothing or the wounderful low pri-ces which have secured for Mr. Woolf the distinctive title of "Peor Man's Friend," local temperance organization. Hercharges which he has houestly earned and is well that Mrs. R. E. Jones is in receipt each week of something new in the way of hats, and is selling them and all other goods at prices which certainly leaves no excuse for going elsewhere to purchase. She is selling trimmed hats as low as 75 cents, two good linen handkerchiefs for 25 cents, neckties as low as & cents each, and all other goods at prices equally cheap. While she is doing this, however, she has no desire to sell for anything There is at least one cow in this town but cash, and is particularly anxious to that knows a thing or two. She saw an eye avoid the annoyance of charging small articles, and hopes no one will ask her to do it.

-Rev. A. P. Gibbs, Rev. John Walsh,
Rev. Wm. Pollard, Rev. M. Carroll and
Rev. Thomas Ryan have been appointed by Bishop Tnigg as a "Court of Causes" for this diocese, in accordance with the requirements of the brief recently received from Pope Leo XIII., and of which mention was made in our last issue. The three first named been appointed to the general management have heretofore acted with the Bishop in a similar capacity, while the two latter are new appointees. Father Walsh is paster of St. John's church, Altoona, and Father Ryan is located at Tunnelhill, this county, the other three, if we mistake not, being in charge of Pittsburgh congregations.

Mr. Murphy is a gentleman whose every business transaction is honorable in the strictest sense of the word, and we take pleasure in recommending him as such to our readers. Give him a call.

-Messrs, John Lloyd & Co. propose to sell dry goods, clothing, boots, shoes, hats, etc., during the incoming month of December at actual cost for cash, and as this is a look as if it would be the height of folly for persons in need of such goods (and who ain't?) to neglect the opportunity thus afforded them. He belonged to the well known Mullin family of Bedford county, where he was born and raised. Coming to this place about 1851, he entered the law office of R. L. Johnston, Esq., as a student, and when that gentleman was elected Prothougtary in the fall of the same year, Mr. M. acted as his clerk. After his admission to the bar he became Mr. Johnston's law partner which business relation he held with the latter gentleman for a number of years, and until the partnership crased to exist. He continued the practice of his profession until 1860, when he was nominated by the Republican county convention for the Legislature and there being two Democratic can didates in the field, he was elected, and served out the following term. In 1862 he became private secretary to Governor Curtin and held that position about three years after which he filled for a short time the office of collector of internal revenues for this dis-
