LORETTO, Oct. 5, 1878. GOD IS WITH US !- CHRISTMAS DAY. BY LINNEY. Shall we not, like the mountains and valleys, The hills and the trees, applaud, When we hear the glad voice of the prophet, Who crieth, "Behold your God?"

Who giveth the nations a promise, That the Lord on this day fulfils For He comes to the earth as a Ruler,

And shall govern it as lie wills. But a Shepherd we see Him and know Him; The Shepherd the wandering need: He will take all the lambs to his bosom, Of the flocks He is coming to feed. Oh, the lambs! is it these he will gather So tenderly, "with his arm"? Can we sit, when we see them unshelter'd,

Content to be happy and warm? Can a mother be found as unworthy The title, so honor'd and blest, That she heeds not the motherless children. When she gathers her own to her breast

We have sinn'd-there is pardon in Heav'n For all who shall ask it aright; And the layers we show to each other, The mercies of Heaven invite, But in voin do we hope for the blessings This day of all others will bring.
If we move not, by helping our brothers,
The boundful heart of the King.

The above are only a few of the thousands of articles in the hardware and bouse furnishing line which I am furnishing at equally low prices: I don't advertise to sel at 20 per cent, cheaper, or indeed any cheaper, then other men do, as I think it better to let the public lugs that be them, selves, but I do navertise to self goods as low as they can be sold and pay one hundred cents on the dollar. Neither will 1 throw out a good sta-ple arricle of goods over the counter at first cost, or even less, and t on charge two or three profits on something cise to make up for the loss. Yet it will be my en leavor to sell goods at the lowest living profit, and I promise this because I know that I can jurnish goods at prices that will be beneficial to both a ther and buyer, and not at prices which would benefit one and such the other CarThanking you all for the liberal patronage heretologic conferred upon me, and hoping for a continuatic and increase of the same, I remain

Respectfully yours. HUNTLEY Ehensburg Nov. 29, 1878.
