nominee. It was Mr. Campbell's fourth election to the office, an interval having oc-cendancy in the county, was elected. The Commissioners were sworn into office on Monday last, and two appointments, clark and counsel, were to be made, that of Mer-cantile Appraiser having been made some days before by the old board. John A, Kennedy Esq, who has been its clerk for a number of years, was an applicant for reappointment, and the position was also sought by E. R. Dunnegan Esq., of St. Augustine. Mr. Campbell was regarded as

Mr. Gurley was fatally bent on Dunnegan's his (Gurley's) brother in-law. To make the tory short, after the board met and organ ized, Mr. Campbell voted for John A. Kennedy, and Messrs, Gurley and Davis voted for E. R. Dunnegan, and then by the same vote, A. V. Barker Esq., Republican, was elected counsel. This is the end of the first chapter of the official proceedings of the new board of Commissioners. Of course the whole thing had been pre-clously set up by Messrs, Gurley and Davis, the latter, as he had a perfect right to do, taking advantage of Gurley's blind develon to his brother-in-law, and buil-dozing him to his brother-in-law, and buil-nozing thin in order to save Dunnegan, to vote for his (Davis') Republican friend, Barker, for coursel. If Mr. Campbell was determined not to vote for Dunnegan, and if Mr. Gurley was as determined not to vote for Kennedy, which we understand was the fact, then their plain duty was to throw both aside, Camilla in c. ty for the past year, when the attention of Mr. Siluentan was attractappearance at home Saturday evening ed to the following provision of the new constitution : ART. 12. Suc. 2 .- No member of Congress rom this State, nor any person holding or ex-recising any office or appointment of trust or rodt under the United States shall at the tame time hold or "xercise any office in the State to which a many, fees or perqui-stall be attached. The General Assembly by law declare what offices are incompaompatiche It so happens that Mr. Stineman is Postmaster for South Fork, and, a question of aw having been taised as to his ability to retain that appointment and at the same ime act as Auditor, the entire matter was referred, by felegraph, to Attorney-General Lear for his decision. Mr. Lear's answer was in effect that the two offices are not incompatible, and that Mr. Stineman wascomintent to act. We have not seen the correspombence and are therefore unable to say by hat process of legal reasoning the Attorney General is evalued to arrive at the conclu sion that a postmastership is not a United States government appointment, or that the position of Auditor is not an office held ithin the State, with fees atlached. Ret Mr. Stineman felt warranted to resume the lischarge of the duties of his effice upon the strength of the decision. This was the situation up to Wednesday morning, when to more fully test the question raised, a writ of and marranto was served or Mr. Stineman, requiring him to show by what right he exrecised the duties of the office. The writ is returnable at next Argument Court, 11th of February, and the question is therefore in abeyance till that date. Meantime, the work of squaring the books will be proceeded with by Messrs, Dillon and Skelly, the remaining two members of the board, astoona on Sunday afternoon, last, one Rev. G B. Sarvis is reported by the Mirror of that city with having said : "In Altoona and Blair county much liquor was sold and drank, but in this regard, Cambria county was the banner county of the State knew this by experience. The prevalence of drunkenness and the constant and open giolation of the Sabbath day by the Cam hria people was actorious." The marked departure from the trath contained in this extract tends to the belief that Mr. Sarvis has been incorrectly reported, or else that he is a disgrace to his cloth. Cambria connto is not noted for over-indulgence in strong drink on the part of her people, while her many churches and the large attendance thereat each Sauday would seem to dispose of the other part of the assertion. Who is Sarvis, anyhow? And what is he?
