believed, was one of the brightest and pret-tiest girls in Columbus, Ohio. Her father, a police sergeant, was very fond of her, and did all he could to aid her social progress. Not so her mother, however, who was anxious that her daughter should retire the world and become a nun. To the latter proposition, Mary at last assented, and the papers gravely assure us that she came to this place and entered on her novitiate at the convent of the Sisters of St. Joseph, her father meantime knowing nothing of her movements or intentions until she had taken her departure. Then he was so furiously augry that he fired five shots at his wife with a revolver, chased her out of the house with an axe, and started for this place, declaring that he would level the convent and kill everybody in it, except his daughter. This is the story as we find it related in the New York Sun of Monday last, but as the convent is still intact and the good Sisters and all their proteges alive and well, we take it for granted that the irate father aforesaid either reconsidered his bloody in-tentions and concluded not to deal out death and destruction on so large a scale, or else took the wrong train, and possibly brought up in Edenburg, instead of Ebensburg—a mistake which some of our exchanges not unfrequently make, and which it is not unpecially if, like Mr. Ryan, they happen to natural for men sometimes to commit, es-

THE DEATH BATK of our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any rea-sonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it, and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. -Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrus chee's German Syrup has proven itself to be cine. In anticipation of this happy event, the poung man has ordered his wedding suit. It is to come—of course—from the establishment of Godfrey Wolff, next door to the post-office, Altona, Pa. DEAR PREEMAN—The account of tour trip to Kaussa was read with much interest by many of your subscribers in this section, and the promised second installment is locked forward to with still greater avidity, owing to the promise made to disclose the "true inwardness" of to with still greater avidity, owing to the promise made to disclose the "true inwardness" of your observations and experiences. In the meantime many friends of the FREMAN are watching for the proposed improvements in its get up, and doubtless they will prove their appreciation of its energy and pluck in a substantial and tangible form.

Local items are a rarity just now, but it is worthy of mention that considerable sickness abounds in this neighborhood. In fact, since the beginning of the year we have had five funerals to our cemetery, which is an unusual per the beginning of the year we have had five fun-erals to our cometery, which is an unusual per contage in this congregation. Among these was the funeral of Lizzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Richers, aged about five years, who died on Friday last, the 2tth last., after a very painful fluces from that most horrible of mal-adles in this climate, diphtheris. The little sufferer was attended by Dr. W. H. Eck, who did for it all that the medical skill he possessed suggested, yet the disease triumohed.

sufferer was attended by Dr. W. H. Eck, who did for it all that the medical skill he possessed suggested, yet the disease triumphed.

Also, on Monday morning, a yeeng child of Mr. and Mrs. James Refiner was buried in the cometery here, but we have been inable to get the particulars from Dr. Eck, who also attended the last mentioned case.

During the coming week Dr. J. J. Oatman will remove to the property adjoining the St. Lawrence Hotel, in this place, and not to Ebonsburg, as was erroneously stated by your contemporary, the Herald, last week.

A rather expensive joke was perpetrated by one of our citizens on Saturday last, as we learn from a responsible informant. It appears that the gentleman to whom we refer was on his way home in a sled, or sleigh, and met another of our citizens travelling in the opposite direction when the first referred to caught the bat from the head of number two and let it fall in the snow. Number two declined getting out to recover his bead gear, but quietly determined he would have a new one at the expense of citizen No. 1. Accordingly on his (No. 2s) return home he bought himself a hat costing $2.50 and then formally notified the other party that twenty-four hours would be given to "pay the piper." No. 1 thought "discretion the better part of valor" and paid for the "tile."

SUMMIT, Jan. 20, 1879.

EDITOR FREENAN—Dear Sir:—As the time has come when aspirants for nomination at the approaching Democratic county convention are beginning to loom up in the political borizon, permit me to suggest the name of one of our most trustwarthy and desarries. Democratic parts permit me to suggest the name of one of our most trustworthy and deserving Democrats. Mr. George J. Swaderer, of Washington township, in connection with the office of Sheriff at the election next fall. Should the approaching convention decide to bestew on him this well merited reward for his fidelity to Democratic principles, Mr. Schwaderer is a man who possesses all the qualifications for the faithful and efficient discharge of the duties of the office to which he aspires, and his well known generosity is the best assurance that could be given that he would, if entrusted with the office, prove the friend of the poor and distressed. Besides, Mr. Schwaderer halls from a district which is a well known stronghold of the Democracy, and his nomination would be a tribute to the unflinching Democrats of this section of the county. All things considered, I think the coming convention could not select a more worthy man, or better Democrat, as their standard bearer, than by nominating Mr. Schwaderer for the office of Sheriff. Yours, respectfully. Democrat.

GILL. Died, at the residence of her parents, in St. Lawrence, Chest township, on Saturday, Jan. 18, 1879, Miss Flona, third daughter of John and Catharine Odd, aged 14 years. and Catharine Gill, aged 14 years.

This and event occurred after a few days' severe filness, and was unsuspected even by her parents and relatives, who prayed fervently for her speedy recovery. But Beath, being no respecter of age or sex, claimest the beautiful and beloves daughter, sister, and affectionate triend, as its victim, who can appreciate the loss of a loving parent, brother, sister, or dear friend? None but those, surely, who have experienced such a loss, which to know must be felt in all its polgnancy.

"Oh, grave, where is thy victory?"
Oh, death, where is thy sting ?" Oh, death, where is thy sting it.

Flora, there is every reason to believe, is now rich in the enjoyment of the eternal felicities of heaven, where it is to be hoped she has found and is now in spiritual communion with her beloved coustn, whose remains were consigned to the dark and silent tomb only a few days before her own demise. Greatly endeared as she was to a large circle of relatives and friends, Flora will long be missed not only in the family circle, but by the entire community, in which, child though she was, her gentle and winning ways had secured for her the affection and esteem of all. May our blessed Saviour, whose great delight white upon earth was to be smong the children of men, take little Flora under his loving and protecting care. A Requiem Mass for the repose of the scul of the deceased was celebrated on Monday forenoon by Father Edmund, after which her remains were followed to their last earthly resting place in the Catholic cemetery by a large concourse of sorrow-
