AFTERNOON SESSION.

After some routine business, the case of the Com'th. vs John Metzgar alias John Lahner was taken up. John is the brilliant individual who raised a check of the Gautier Steel Company of Johnstown for $6 to $1, 800. No defense was put in except the sug-gestion by Mr. Johnston, John's counsel, that anybody who could perform such bung-ling work in the line of forgery as was apparent on the check in question must of necessity be instane. The jury brought in a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

Joseph Brown is a young man whose home is in Prospect. He pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons, and was remanded for sentence. Com'th. vs James Sinsabaugh-six indictments for forgery and uttering a forged store order. The defendant pleaded guilty as to two of these indictments, and nolle prosses were entered as to the residue. Remanded

NIGHT SESSION. The applications for taveru, eating house and quart license, together with the bends required by law, were taken into considera-tion. The applications of Jesse McGough, of Portage, and Edward O'Brien, of Allegheny Township, were refused. Those of John Crouse and John R. Litzinger, Chest Springs; Mark B. McLaughlin, Washington Township; Andrew Geagler, Gallitzin, and Peter Brown, Loretto, were held over. The rest were granted. A full list of the names appeared in our advertising columns last TUESDAY.

The case of the Com'th, vs. Noah Murphy, larceny and receiving stolen goods, occupied the attention of the Court all day and up to 8.30 o'clock at night. The particulars of this case have heretofore appeared in the FREEMAN. About one year ago Mr. William Knepper, of Croyle township, lost an apright saw from his saw mill. Suspicion at first attached to Jacob Murphy, and he was tried for the theft at last June Cour the verdict of the jury being not guilty. Then followed Noah Murphy's arrest. His case first came up at the December term, when the jury failed to agree on a verdict. After hearing a large mass of testimony, and istening to speeches by District Attorney tose for the Com'th, and George M. Reade, Esq., for the defendant, the case was given to the jury by the Court at the hour before named, and in about one hour's time the following verdict was returned: "We find Neah Murphy guilty of larceny and not guilty of receiving stolen goods, and recom-mend him to the mercy of the Coort." The defendant was taken to jail to await sen-

Sarah M. Knepper, charged with assault and battery. The testimony went to show that Mrs. Knepper and Mrs. Chestnutwood, the latter being the prosecutor in the case, are near neighbors in Croyle township, and, wohe to that of the other. The testimony was all in at II o'clock, when Court adjourned. WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Court met at 9 o'clock, and counsel in the case before stated made their pleas. His pearance of things it looked as if this whole matter should have been settled before a Justice of the Peace, and not have been permitted to disturb the tranquillity of a Court of Justice by the consideration thereof. The jury went out, and in a short time afterward brought in a verdict of quilty in manner and form as the defendant stood indicted. Millard F. Blum was next arraigned, or the charge of adultery and bastardy, case also comes from Croyle township. Blum is a married man, and the prosecutrix is by name Charlotte Sharp. The allegation by Charlotte was that Millard had falsified the laws of the Com'th, by becoming the father of an illegitimate child. The testimony brought forward was voluminous but scarcely interesting to the general reader. This testimony and the several arguments of counsel had been taken in by the hour of 12 o'clock, when Court took its usual recess. Court charged the jury in the Plummer case. A verdict was subsequently returned of guilty, and the prisoner was sentenced to undergo imprisonment in the county jail for the period of three mouths, pay the costs, etc.

A jury was sworn in the civil case of Evans' administrators vs. Comey-an action Then, a jury in a hobers corpus case for the ownership of a small lad paned Dick was empanneled. The other jorors were dis-charged from further attendance. and resulted in the remanding of the boy to sibs. diana county, as against the claim for his possession put in by Mrs. Lewis King, of Croyle township.

If Mr. Daniel O. Barr, of Pittsburgh, who is prominently named in connection with the nomination for State Treasurer on the Democratic ticket, is fortunate enough to make his calling and election sure, we do not question that it will be done altogether on the square, though it must be admitted that such a result would give room for suspicion that there was a political Rargain somewhere, and that Daniel O.—d his clevation to the fact that he had more votes in the convention and at the polis than either word is relief to be fact that the had more votes in the convention and at the polis than either of his competitors. There is nothing Barr as inster, however, in that way of winning a victory.
