letter addressed to the County Clerk of Troy, N. Y., by the postmaster at Georgia Station (George's Station is of course meant,) in Westmoreland county, this State, in which the writer asks whether it is true, as reported in his neighborhood, that the County Clerk sforesaid has in his possession a will made by a man named Karns, a resident of that city, as the writer alleges. 180 years ago, when that city was no city at all, but a howling wilderness, and in which the alleged devisee was considerate enough to leave the enormous sum of $200,000,000 to his heirs of the fifth generation, nearly all of whom, as the letter avers, are now living in the vicinity of George's Station. An early answer is respectfully solicited, not only to the main question at issue, but also as to the cost of furnishing a copy of said will, if in existence, to the parties immediately interested.

dians of juries while in deliberation. A. V. Barker, Esq., asked leave of the Court to make a special motion that the case of the County Commissioners vs. Ex-Treas-urer Freidhoff, an action brought to re-open certain accounts allowed as a credit to Mr. Freidhoff by the late board of County Auditors, should be placed first on the list for the second week of June term next. Allowed. Mr. Barker also asked, through motion, for the board of Commissioners, that the pay per day for the maintenance of prisoners now allowed the Sheriff, 50 cents a day for each inmate of a cell, should be reduced to 25 cents. A rule was granted by the Court to show cause why the proposed reduction should not be allowed.

The list of causes was read, and all but a half dozen or so were postpoued, for good and sufficient reasons assigned. At 12 o'clock, m., a jury in the case of

Tierney vs. Wilkinson was called, and Court adjourned. AFTER NOON SESSION

Court met at 2 o'clock, when the case of Tierney vs. Wilkinson was resumed. merits of this action, in brief, are that F. P. Tierney, Esq., endorsed for James Wilkin-son in the sum of $165 in the year 1872, and afterward was obliged to pay the note at the banking house of Collins, Johnston & Co., Ebensburg. As a guaranty against loss, some notes and accounts were subsequently transferred by Mr. Wilkinson to Mr. Tierney, amongst others one against Rev. R. C. Christy for the sum of about $75. The reverend gentleman is since dead, with no estate. Claimed, on the part of the plantiff, that the account against Father Christy was re-transferred to the defendant in 1873, and should not therefore stand as a set-off in the settlement of the note. The re-transfer was denied by defendant, who claimed that the value of the note was lost to plaintiff through After argument by coursel and an able and impartial charge by Judge Dean, the jury

The rest of the afternoon was consumed in listening to an itemized account of a store Mr. P. F. At 7 o'clock, the case of Cree vs. Cree was reached. John A. Cree was plaintiff, and David K. Cree defendant. They are brothers, and they and their families reside in Whitetownship. Some difference of opinion as to which owed the other arose, and this cause omes as an appeal from Esquire Fiske's docket, White township, to Court. The sum claimed by plaintiff was about $35. Prior to the taking of testimony, and after a jury in the case had been sworn, counsel for fendant made a tender to plaintiff of $18-Union, Mr. W. availed himself of the many fused, for the reason that the question as to who should pay the costs of the suit, the plaintiff, or the defendant, would get remain open. A large volume of testimony on either hand was elicited, the tenor of which went to show that it would be a good thing for the general public if brothers could so arrange it that they lived in no other condition than in a condition of harmony, and Court, at 9.30 o'clock, adjourned.

> Court met at 9 o'clock, and arguments of counsel were listened to. Mr. Reade spoke for plaintiff, and Mr. Johnston for defendant. The jury retired at 10 o'clock, and the verdict in the case was that John A. failed to make formerly a resident of Cambria county name, in foll, is Simon P. Dunmyer. The trouble was about some lumber, to the claim-ed value as before given. The jury patiently listened to much testimony, and went out and some time afterward brought in a verdict who were both on a sick-bed and night unto | in favor of plaintiff in the sum of $181.75. TUESDAY AFTERNOON. The case of Bredemyer vs. Ryan occupied the intention of Court. The defendant in this case is Sheriff Ryan, who, in the exercise of what he understood to be his duty as a public officer, sold, on a writ, certain property therein named. Claimed, on the part of the defendant, that the property so sold was the property of a third parity. This case, together with listening to testimony and to a speech made by Mr, Me-Laughlin for the Sheriff, and likewise to re-ceiving the verdict in the case of Stewart vs. Donmyer, occupied up to the hour of 9 o'clock at night, an intermission having meantime en-sued for supper. TUESDAY AFTERNOON.
