

duced through Mr. Robert C. Ogden (formerly partner of the famous firm of Devlin & Co., New York), who is now associated with Oak Hall, and will give his whole energies and valuable experience to improving the manufacture of our Boys' and Men's Clothing. We do not buy Clothing like the dealers, but make it expressly for our own sales. The Spring stock is splendid, and no other make of goods, so far, have as much merit, or are sold as cheaply.

impressions have been erroneously given to the effect that Mr. John Wanamaker, who founded Oak Hall, is not interested in the old store, and that it does not have his attention; on the contrary, his ownership of it remains unchanged, and he has lost none of his love for it. Every day finds him supervising all its departments. Mr. William H. Wanamaker spends his entire time on the Oak Hall business.

A VISIT THIS SPRING PARTICULARLY INVITED. WANAMAKER & BROWN, OAK HALL, 6th & Market Sts., Philad'a.

eneath his fore feet.

writhing mass.

For at times he is defiant,

And at times it is a pliant Little squeak.

Now it seems to me so funny That this half-demented sonny

So to speak ; Whilst the writer of this ditty, Who you see is rather witty,

Should be loaded down with money,

Montgomery was distant some fourteen miles, and being in no particular hurry I journeyed along quite leisurely so that I might feast my eyes upon the endless, rolling prairies, which were at this seathe year (June) clothed in wild south out flowers of the most beautiful and variebeen reconnoitering in the rear of the gated buys. The sun had almost reached the me-with such violence as to almost un-

I beheld to my horror a large snake of the horse's hoofs, which had already

Dismonnting, I examined the horse

a cause all his terror. I finally reached a of which, apon being informed of the accident invited me into his house, whilst

he made the poor animal as comfortable

Entering the cottage, I saw that every-circumstances would admit.

ore than forty years of age

ented the seat she proffered me.

ed herself in a chair opposite me,

ten by a snake."

to save. she lay, covered and half suffocated, afraid to move and quieting her child, whilst the scaly reptiles crawled over her and even coiled themselves to sleep on and around her warm body, protected from their deadly fangs only by the bed clothes; and, oh! horrible thought, if she should disarrange the covering and that night of horror to that poor woman. In the morning the men who worked for Atkinson wondered at his prolonged party mentioned that in passing the new from it, but when he got opposite and stopped to listen, he heard nothing and mistaken.

men, who all liked John Atkinson, and they ran right into the arms of a tall, could understand being "snakes !"

suddenly oxtinguished, and they were

All that long night and next morning left in darkness. After a few minutes a bright, circular light became visible near one of the walls, and what a terrible spectacle was brought to view ! A man was stretched from a tree with a rope around his neck, while a box lay at his feet within reach-he was a suicide.-His distorted features and glaring eyes were plainly visible, while his tongue. they should crawl beneath. Thus passed black and swollen, hung at least half a foot from his mouth ! To complete the horrible picture, hundreds of demons weredancing around his contorted figure. absence, he being generally the first to Then followed a wild burst of laughter make his appearance, until one of the and the apparition vanished.

The young men had not expected this, nouse late last night, on his way to town. While this strange scene was enacting he thought be heard screams proceeding they sat stupefied with fear, their hair actually standing on end.

At length their horrible spell was so concluded that he must have been broken, and without even stopping to snatch their hats, they fled the house,-This was enough to alarm the work- As they were fleeing along the street, proceeding to the house they knocked at muscularman, who seeing their affrightthe door and were answered by a smoth- ed condition, tightened his grasp upon ered voice, the only word of which they them, and asked them to explain their unfortunate girl, she was often goaded to madness by her sister with the constant accusation of disgracing the family, Golden City now stands, In revenge she went to her brother, who often sympathized with her, and made some false, startling and disgraceful recontinent. It was the point where civilization met the wilderness. The forvelations reflecting on the character of t unes made in bonanza mining were spent her sister (his wife) in connection with here with an open hand. One day, as the polluted pulpiteer. Brooding over Green was driving his ox from his homehis misery, he went into the hayfield. He had not worked long, however, until he discovered a huge snake crawling in moved by the spirit which infested the the grass. Prompted by a spirit of revenge the irate husband picked it up, secreted it in his pocket, and immediately went to the house. In the doorway he met his innocent wife, who was atterly unconscious of the great wrong that had been perpetrated upon her. Approaching her in his rage, he put his left arm around her neck and shoulders and with his right hand drew from his pocket the ever-accursed snake, which he abruptly thrust into the bosom of herdress. Frantic with terror, she disrobed as rapidly as possible, but not until the serpent had glided through all the accesses of the clothing next to her person. This event though momentary in its fulfillment was acre tract, upon which, by the way, and begged permission to say a few words to him in behalf of her mother, and a U.S.

Denver, in the days of 1859, was pro-Senator from our own State, who acted as bably as fast a place as any city on the continent. It was the point where civil-you cannot go in." Worse than that, meaner than that, the poor girl three or four years afterward married a clerk in the Treasury Department. Nocharges were made against him, but because this clerk had married the daughter of Mrs. Surratt he was discharged. stead into Denver, some fellows on horse-back attempted to pass him. The ex, errors fairly and squarely in the face and ac-knowlege them when we have cause to."

place, probably, quickened its steps until The murder of Mrs. Sarratt was the it went off in a swinging trot, leaving the horses behind. This was the first inmost cruel and cowardly act ever comtimation Green had that his boh-tailed mitted in a civilized country. It is a ox (it was bob-tailed) could trot. The curious and suggestive fact that all who idea then presented itself to him that if were chiefly responsible for the exerahe could only accustom the bovine to tion of that innocent woman have felt trotting a certain distance on a certain the unseen hand of the Great Averager. piece of ground he could out-trot any Stanton, Secretary of War, who was horse in the neighborhood. There was perhaps the worst of the number, coma gambler by the name of Randale, from mitted suicide in a fit of remorse, al-Illinois, in Denver at this period, who though the fact was sought to be conowned a horse that could do his mile in cealed. Preston King, the Senator from 2:40. Randale was quite a chum of New York, who reputsed Annie Surratt Green, and would occasionally drop into at the President's door, in like manner his quarters and blow his horse's trumpet, ended his own life by deliberately jump-A day or two after Green's discovery of ing from a ferry boal into the his ox's powers Randale dropped in on River at New York and drowned himself. Andrew Johnson, who signed the Watching his chance, Green remarked death warrant and despotiently suspendthat he had an ox that could heat Ran- ed the writ of habers corpus that had dale's horse for 300 yards. Bandale been granted by the Court, was stricken laughed at first, then got mad, and at suddenly with death upon his return to last offered to bet ten to one that it could the Senate after he had left the Presinot be done. The bet was promptly dency. Judge Advocate Holt, who taken, and they adjourned to the pre- conducted the prosecution, long ago dispared place. The ox was backed up to a appeared from public view, and whether dead or alive nobody knows and nobody his neck, a couple of suplings served as cares. And John A. Bingham, who assisted Holt, was driven from Congress in disgrace as one of the Credit Mobilier bribe takers, and sought refuge in Japan, subject to the action of hisbovine adver- where we believe he now is .- Rochester Union. FAME AWAITS HIM,--Many persons are evidently bound to fill exalted positions, the bads of genius showing themselves almost as soon as the chosen one is out of his nurse's arms. Many of our most eminent statesmen gave evidence in their youth of the possession of superior talents, which eventually placed them upon the very pinnacle of fame. A San Francisco street boy has a brilliant future before him, and if he is not one day ranked among the noble army of newspaper paragraphers, this deponent had utterly failed to read the signs aright. He came bounding into the house the other day, and approaching his mother, asked : "Ma, will candy rot folks' teeth ?" "Yes, Willie, it will indeed, and I do. not want you to cat any of that injurious stuff. The embryo laugh builder was silent several more races, the stock was quoted for a while, evidently rehearsing in his mind the continuance of the conversation, and getting his queries in a shape. that would canlde him to steer clear of speed was made up between him and the all pitfalls. Finally he continued : "Will it rot girls' teeth, too?" "Certainly, my dear." Another silence and more mental figuring, and then he asked : "Ma. Rotterdam isn't a bad word, is "Oh, no, Willie, that is the name of a foreign city. You will find it in your geography. Well, you wouldn't lick a feller for talking about it, would you ?' Most certainly not. 'Honest Injun, you wouldn't ?" and his face bore an expression of deep carnestness "Of course not ; why do you ask such uttestions? "Well, Mary Dawson is coming over here to tell on me. She had a whole two bits worth, of candy, and wouldn't give me a bite, so I told her to jist cat it herself and I hoped it would Rotterdam teeth out." He escaped chastisement, but the moral lesson read to him will Jose (Cal.) Herald,

THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA.

HEREIAM AGAIN! OT AS AN ASPIRANT FOR-PUBLIC OFFICE PUBLIC PATRONAGE!

Having pulled down his political vest and embarked in the mercantile business on in extensive scale at his

LARGE STORE ROOM ON HIGH STREET. Recently occupied by McLaughlin Brothers,

Where he has just opened and is now offering for side an immense, varied and ele-gant STOCK OF GOODS of every description,

N. J. FREIDHOFF ally prepared to pull down-in fact has pulled down-the prices of all kind of perchantise, and is giving bargains in

DRY GOODS, DRESS GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS, CAPS, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, Hardware, Tinware, EENSWARE, &c., &c., which cannot fail to attract the attention and secure scribe her as she appeared to me-such patromage of each buyers who want to get the most goods and the best goods an utterly woe-begone, corpse-like face I their money. So don't forget to call, and this fact before you keep ; A broom hope never to see again ; it was perfectly "a new is best of all, because it makes the channest sweep,

N. J. FREIDHOFF.

Emposition, MADOR 21, 1879.-II.

SIMON'S CHEAP AND POPULAR CLOTHING DEPOT -HAS BEEN REMOVED TO-DR. CHRISTY'S BUILDING. Corner Eleventh Avenue and 13th Streets Altoona, Pa., WHERE HAS JUST BEEN OPENED A LARGE STOCK OF CLOTHING, GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS,

HATS, CAPS, TRUNKS, VALISES, UMBRELLAS, &c., &c., -OF THE LATEST, BEST  "NEATEST SPRING STYLES

And at PRICES SO LOW that it will pay you to buy from CHAS. SIMON, 1230 Eleventh Avenue, in Room recently occupied by C. Simon & (EEAR OF P. R. R. PASSENGER DEPOT. ALTOONA, PA.

FOR THE SPRING TRADE, THE BEST IN THE CITY.

CON Y YWY O D YOY

house, startled his comrades by exclaimridian and, Judging from the distance 1 house is built on a ratilesnakes' den." had come. I momentarily expected to see he church spires of the town loom intoiew, when suddenly my horse, with a under the rock and the truth at once mystery if possible, gled snort of terror and pain, reared flashed upon their minds. seat me. He then began proncing fear-fully, gazing the meanwhile with territhem if they dared to enter by the door fied and distended eyes at the ground one of the party, some immediately the secret, and so they divulged it. scaled the low house and proceeded to Casting my eyes in the same direction tear the boards from the roof, whilst one and the people of the city gave the place or two others hastened in search of ropes. a wide berth, the copperhead species, directly under After having demolished the roof a sickening sight was discovered to their view, continued, until the people believed In the centre of the room by the ghast- without a doubt that the house was trampled the scrpent into a shapeless and ly skeleton of John Atkinson, the ser- haunted, pents having literally eaten every partiand discovered that he had been bitten ele of thesh from the homes while they on the right foreleg. Patting the poor swarmed in hundreds, writhing and dartfellow. I succeeded in partially quieting ing hither and thither, hissing and strikhis fears, and, leading him away from ing at everything in their blind possion the snake, the sight of which appeared at being disturbed at their horrible feast. cottage by the road side, the proprietor each bed post and, while one of the men could it mean ? kent the snakes off the bed with a pole. out of the room and lowered it to the finish the story, ing was seruptionally clean, an appearground. ance of neatness and thrift pervading the When they uncovered poor Mary and whole house and its surroundings, I the child they found that she had fainthad barely time to make these observans, when a woman entered from the ning room and bady me be seated. of her and the child, whom they conurned to thank her, but I started back veyed to town. in astonishment when I saw her counte-

The men in the meantime, having now nance. Words are inadequate to deno fear of the mother and child, battered down the shanty and secured the chastly skeleton : after which they rolled a couple of kegs of powder, which bloodless and of a leaden hue, the eyes they procured from the railroad under being expressionless, while her bair and the rock, and lighting a prepared fuse. eyebrows were as white as the driven blew up the rock, snakes and all, into snow, although I did not judge her to be mince meat. The few suakes which survived the explosion they killed easily Perceiving that my gaze gave her pain with rods. Mrs. Atkinson survived, but apologized for my intrusion and acshe was for many years a raving maniac and her once beautiful hair, eyes and "My son-in-law informs me that your complexion had turned in that night of orse has met with an accident," said horror to what you now see. She has, she in a quiet, subdued tone, as she seathowever, become rational again, except when snakes are spoken of in her pres-"Yes, ma'am," replied I, "He was bitence, and then she once more becomes insane and lives over that night in all I shall never forget the change that its horrid details. These fits are becomame over her in an instant ; she sprang ing rare and less violent lately, and we from her chair and frantically screamed have hopes that, ultimately, they will whilst she shook my arm, "A snake altogether cease.

where ?" Her face, which a moment Yes, sir! the child lived and is now before was so deathlike, now became my dear wife. You can see her coming airly illuminated, and her eyes, hitherup the road now, leading her mother, to so utterly void of expression, actually over whom she has a wonderful control dashed fire as she excitedly reiterated, when she is suffering from one of those Where ! where !" The next moment attacks. she had rushed from the house and down Your horse will be all right to-morrow; the road in the direction from which I had come, wailing as she ran, "Oh the ernel, cruel snakes !

To say that I was surprised and astonished at this entraordinary scene but faintly expresses the true state of my feelings, and I raked my brain in vain. young man who had taken charge of my strange transactions of a favorite female for I had now ample evidence to convict horse, entering shortly after, I informed cat in his possession. Some time ago them, the following story :

wife R. R., lying between the towns forted. At last she took to the company them but had committed enough crimes of Brooklyn and Grinnell, and in order of the poultry of the place, and was ever to condemn them for life, better to superiatend the work, he deter- moving about in the company of hens mined to build himself a small house or especially. When one of the laiter would to prison I took opportunity to show nanty of only one room, intending to seek a nest for the purpose of laying the some visitors the house, and explain the ccupy it but temporarily. He chose a cat would be her companion and would secret of the ghosts. In the room where spot about equi-distant from both sta- nestle down by the side of the fowl. By the apparitions appeared I showed them tions, and upon a large flat rock, which and by the cat became a nuisance to the a secret door, and behind it was an alhe said would answer admirably for a bens and also to the roosters. They did cove. This was the place, where the floor, he built his house.

young wife and infant daughter from pletely exterminating the cat from the away by means of a magic lantern. My cesses,

They told him all.

After they had inished their story, the detective (for it was no other than ing, "My God, boys, come here! This Detective John Burnside, of New York, who was visiting friends there) told It was only too true ; the reptiles were them "to say nothing about it, but wait were crawling in and out of a small hole and hope," and he would discover the

About two weeks after the detective It would be certain death to some of returned home-so his friends thought. In course of time the young men disor window. But at a suggestion from covered that they could no longer keep

The strange sounds and sights were

We will pass over a year.

One morning a posse of police, headed by a tall man in plain clothes, approached the Foos mansion, unlocked the door, and passed in.

In a few minutes the sound of pistol-The men having by this time arrived shots was heard, and then all was still. with the ropes, they succeeded, after. In a few minutes the posse emerged from many failures, in fastening the rope to the house, looking much larger. What

And now, little Ants, my narrative is oisted the bed and its occupants bodily at an end, and Detective Burnside will

NARRATIVE 2.-BY DETECTIVE BURN-SIDE. After I left the two young men, said ed. By this time several women had ap- Detective Burnside afterwards in telling the story, my mind was made upwould discover the mystery.

Accordingly, the next evening, I proceeded to the mansion. It was a mere repetition of the story of the young men. as far as the apparition. As soon as the lock struck twelve my candle was blown out by a gust of wind, I know. caused by the slamming of doors. And what a terrible sight met my eye, shudder now when 1 think of it, so terribly real it looked.

There in the same spot that the young men had described, I saw a young and beautiful girl on her knees. A form was bending over her, its hand cla ped her long golden hair, while a keen, bloody knife was drawn across her fair, white throat, while torrents of crimson blood dripped down upon the floor.

I regained by self-possession enough to draw my pistol, aim, and fire. A wild laugh followed, and my bullet was heard crashing through the wainscoting .-The apparition vanished slowly, and husks. happening to turn around—I discovered the mystery, gang, by means known only to myselfprofessional secret. There were comcopperheads are not so poisonous at this among them. I will not weary the readtime of the year as they will be later." - South Florida Journal. burglaries they committed, or of the various ways in which they manufactured A CAT THAT WILL HATCH CHICK- and "'shoved' their 'queer' money. ENS,-The auctioneer Bruce, says the After staying with them for about a seeking for a solution of the mystery. The Madison (Wis.) Democrat, reports most year, I resolved to break up the gang.

him of what had occurred and requested she presented the homestead with a large Accordingly, I obtained the posse of him to explain, which he did by relating litter of kittens, all of which the master police, and raided the house. After a of the place destroyed. The old feline slight resistance they were captured, It is some eighteen years since Mr. mother became terribly distressed over When they found out who their cap-John Atkinson, who was a vailroad the untimely and most unnatural taking tor was they threatened me with venbuilder, had a contract for grading a di- off of her kind. She moped around for geance dire, if they ever escaped ; but sion of the Chicago, Rock Island & days and weeks and would not be com- they never did, for there was not one of

A few weeks after the gang were sent not want the feline intruder, and war robbers had hidden themselves every The next day he moved some furniture was made upon her. Four or nye game hight, and, when the curtous came to can seize on failures and make them sucin evil, the sad effect of which brands an unfortunate creature during its existhim and as usual began "talking home," ence. Time passed rapidly away, until childbirth revealed the ever to be regretted incident. In the meantime the nnocent wife pleaded and clearly proved her innocence and wifely virtue. This allayed the unger of the husband, and again united the heads of the household. The above are well authenticated facts. while the Times reporter witnessed the little hand-cart, half a yoke put around ollowing in person : On a back, out of the way road, that crossed an expanse of shafts, and the whole rig was completed prairie, the Tones correspondent disby a pair of ox-hide traces. Randale was covered the house, consisting of apartto do the scoring and control his horse. ments built after the manner of an upright and L, and standing at a considersary, as Green knew very well it would able distance from the road. He stopnever do to trifle with his steed. When ped, and his knock at the door was reeverything was ready, away they wentsponded to by an intelligent looking. Green, with his long black-snake, making middle-aged woman, who invited him to come in and sit down. Everybody about things lively for the ox, and Randale swearing like a trooper at his 2:40 mag. the house presented a neat and homelike Sure enough, at the end of 300 yards, the appearance. When he made known the ox came in ahead. On the spot Randale bject of his visit he was led to a spacious bought half the ox for $500. The next. room, where, in a basket about seven day he was pitted against two horses, and feet long and three feet wide and about the whole city turned out to see the retwo feet high, lay the animated specimenmarkable phenomenon-a trotting ox. that combines in one body the human Again was he victorious, and, amid the and the ophidian. After removing the wildest excitement, he passed the line woolen blankets that covered the form, six lengths ahead.

it uttered a prolonged hiss similar to that Every day thereafter he defeated a of a snake. It is a male, nearly five horse or two, and there soon became a years of age, and is five feet seven inches popular demand for a share in the ox, in length. Being unable to attain an Accordingly a stock company was formupright position, he crawls about similar ed with a joint stock of $6,400, being 64 to reptiles. He is speechless, and makes shares of $100 each. The stock went no utterance except to hiss. The head like hot cakes, and sold away above par. is hald and spotted on the crown. The In a week, during which he had won mouth contains fangs. He is carnivorous, breathes slow and can live a long on the gambling-tables, and passed for time without food. The body is perfect $1,000 a share. At last a horse sired in in form, but spotted with black, while San Francisco came along, and a trial of the arms and lower limbs are like the body of a smike, scaly, flexible and taper ox. If the crowd of speciators had been to points. This horrible sight only proves large before, it was gigantic on this day. the truth of the adage, "Truth is strang-It seemed as if the whole country turned er than fiction." All who have seen it pronounce it one of the greatest living, 10,000 people present. Everything beout, and it was estimated that there were

ing in readiness, away they went, heralded by a thousand voices. The ox took How BURNED MOLASSES CANDY the lead from the start ; at the 100-yard MADE ONE WOMAN RICH .- There is a pole he was a length and a half ahead ; stately dwelling-house in Philadelphia at the 250 the distance had widened into which has a singular history. It stands five lengths, and the ox still gaining. in a grove of walnut trees; the wood- But the old saying. "There's many a work is all of walnut; carved panels slip 'twixt the cup and lip," was never representing walnut boughs decorate the truer than in the present case, and when dining-room ; and on the carriage of the within a dozen yards of the winning post owner, instead of a coat of atms, is a his oxship became tired and made up his bunch of walnuts just bursting from the mind to stop. Accordingly he planted his front feet and refused to budge, The story is this : About forty years Moral suasion, profane abuse, physical ago a poor woman kept a cent store in an ill-usage, all, separate or combined, fail-It was a gang of some sort, I was alley, in the lower part of the city. One ed to move him, and the horse quickly sure, and I was resolved to capture day, when making molasses candy to be trotted past, and took the race, the ox them. A few weeks after I joined the sold to the street children, if was scorch- never reaching the winning post at all. ed. The woman was in despair. The That minute the stock sank from $1,000 loss was a serious one in a trade whose a share down to 1-64th of the value of serve as a guide-post through life, -- San terfeiters, burglars, and everything else profits were counted by pennies. She the ox intrinsically as meat.

But it was not to the wainuts nor to the lucky chance that she owes her fortune. How many women have burned their candy, and the result was only scorched molasses ! How many men saw apples fall before Sir Isaac Newton 1 11

HOW FOUR PINS PRESERVED A of one of the leading jewelers of Vienna is exposed to view a brooch, magnificent-

y studded with gems, in the middle of Young Gibls.—There is no more ex- whose elaborate chasing is inclosed the quisite creature on the earth than a girl most singular of centres-four common. from twelve to fifteen years of age .--old, bent and corroded pins. This brooch is the property of the Countess Lavetsko-There is a period in the summer's morning, known only to early risers, which ly, The pins have a history, of course, combines all the tenderness of the dawn Seven years ago Count Albert Lavetsko with nearly all the splendor of the day. Iv was arrested at Warsaw for an alleged There is at least full promise of the daz- insult to the Russian Government. zling noon; but yet the dew-drop glis- real author of the insult, which consisted tens on the half-opened flower, and yet of some careless words spoken at a social man disposed of her business a few years the birds sing with rapture their awaken- gathering, was his wife. He accepted ago for a sum which made her rich for ing song. So, too, in the morning of a the accusation, however, and was sent life. Is it any wonder that she took a girl's life there is a time like this- to prison. In one of the lightless dunwhen the rising glory of woman hood geons in which the Czar is so found of sparkles from the sports of an infant, confining his Polish subjects, the unforand the elegance of a queenly grace tunate martyr for his wife's losse tongue adorns the gambols of babyhood. Un-spentsix years. He had only one anauseimpeded yet by the sweeping raiment to ment. After he had been searched and which she foolishly aspires, she glides thrown into a cell he had found in his amongst her grosser play-fellows like a cont four pins,

The next day he moved some furniture was made upon her. Four or five game night, and, when the curious came to is the keen eye and the ready brain that royalvacht amongst a fleet of coal barges. These he pulled out and threw on the Unconsciousness (alas, how soon to de- floor, and then in the darkness he hunted part !) has all the effect of the highest for them. Having found them, perhaps er with a description of the numerous with expedients. She cracked some coerce the bovine into a trot, but all encuriosities, was quick-witted, however, and ready Many efforts were afterward made to walnuts, mixed the kernels with the can- ticement and persuasion, gentle and MAN's REASON,-In the show window dy, and wrote a placard, "The New Nut otherwise, failed, and he never trotted Candy, one cent a cake." The children again.

dropped in on their way to school. The candies were liked. They came back for more next day. The fame of the cheap confection spread from one school to

was into one of the principal streets,- ripe walnut for her crest ?

another. The maker shrewdly confined herself to that. Presently she took a larger shop in the alley. In a year or two she again moved, but this time it To-day her original walnut candy is sent off to all parts of the country. The wa-

S. B.	CORN Manager,		i concerning the most of the second second second second second	premises. But in a few days she furned up at a near neighbor's place—Widow Carry's : and here she had gained the wood will of several rold hens that were		WHAT THE CAPTAIN TOLD HIS WIFE. -Milliner (to captain who has been buy- ing a hat for his wife) Tell your wife	and health adorns her with beauty. In- deed, it seems to be the peculiar province of her sex to redeem this part of life from	tered them again. And so the game
KNO	WLEDGE IS POWER	OTICE Notice is hereby given	son fastened the door and only shutter that the shanty could boast, and, extin- missing the light, jumped into bed.	laying in the same nest. By and by the cat took possession of the nest and could not be coaxed away from it. Then the	in his possession a stone which he uses in his shop, which was found by his great-grandfather, Gottlieb Scheirer, on	of six feathers poised high on one side, with feathers curling forward; place a	THINGS TO BE REMEMBERED One	me with a purpose. So long as I had them to search for I had something to do.
TUTE: 10 minsol big for a term	toumence April 13, 1879, at the public Commission of Wilmare borough, and continue ception	on Pleas of the Prothonatary of the Court of one Pleas of thembrin county, and if no ex- ons be filed to said account on or before the	versing upon their future prospects,	would get up and let the egg roll into the nest. Then she would lie down and corofally material the nest and its con-	nearly one hundred years ago. George Scheirer subsequently got possession of the stone which was used by him for a	curtain. That's easy to remember."— f The captain (to bis wife)—"She said, if you wanted it dressed up, to put a non-	very base of other sanctities. Great wants proceed from great wealth and make riches almost equal to poverty.	had escaped me for four days. They saved my wife's husband from lumacy.
they indu	thation call an added if desired. For fur- Proth	ionotary's Office, Ebenstury, March 24, 1879.	Many whis interrupted by his wite,	possession : and she evidently expects	ness, until he retired, when the present	 cake and sixteen poisoned fratheys curied np forrid, clap on some lizards and bec- thes to belay them with, and cover the 	unjustly, keep not unfaithfully, and	prouder oriminent."
8.65. $2, 3	JOHN MCORMICK, Wilmore, Cambria Co., Pa. S77	2 Month and expenses guaranteed to Agents, Outlin new Survers Co., Apenses, Marine	sound in the room,	of a large family.	present in the pursuit of his avocation.	lizard on the hand with your curtains."	ance.	How to get along in the worlds-Walk.