-We briefly made mention in our last a strange woman at the boarding-house of Mrs. P. S. Kelly, East Conenaugh. On Saturday last, while walking along Clinton street, Johnstown, Mrs. Kelly was lucky enough to come face to face will this strange woman, who was at once given into charge of the police. Before Esquire Fisher it was of the police. Before Esquire Fisher it was developed that her name was Sarah Myers; that her husband, Edlis Myers, had been killed on the C. I. Co's railroad three years ago, and that she is a daugiter of Mrs, Jacob Layton, of Jackson township. Sarah at first denied all knowlege of the crooked transaction with which she was charged, but eventually owned up, giving the name of Harvey McFeaters, of Morreliville, as that of the father of the child. Harvey was taken into custody, and without the least hesitation orroborated Sarah's statement. The upshot

It was a must incomfortable predicament for a round thely or an old one either, to the piecel in. But we venture the suggestion that it was caused by wearing an Hi-fitting show one too broad in the instep, or down In the heet, or defetive in some other particular. Such mislings can be easily pre-rented. The back, shows and slippers sold by S. A line lot of boots and shows for gentlemen is also in store. The decensed lady was a victim of that fittal di-ease, consumption, and for many months suffered as only those do suffer who are affinited with this remorseless malady; yet at no time throughout her long and painful liness find she fail to mani-fest the utmost Christian forfitude and resigna-tion. A fond and faithful wife and a kind and in-dulgent mother, her death is indeed a sail blow to her bereaved husband and two little children, who have the sympathies of all who know thrue in their irreparable loss. The funeral took place Sunday forenoon, the remains being brough to this place for informed in the Catholic connetery, whither they were followed by one of the largest concourses of people ever called together on such an occasion. May her soul rest in peace.

Quorn a wise man to a youth one day : "Tell me your aim in life, 1 pray." "A toighty general I'd be," Replied the youth, ambitionsly. Then quoth the stripling to the sage : "Tell me your aim in your old age." Then said the sage, a little tired, "Aim." O. I have no aim. I've fired ?"

"Aim? O. I have no aim: Eve fired." Mixed up with the aim of the youth and the want of aim avowed by the sage was a sentiment common to both, but of which unfortunately no mention is made by the peet. We refer to an ambition firing each to be always well dressed - an ambition firing each to be always well dressed - an ambition which they and all others can easily satisfy by calling on Goilfrey Woolf, next door to the post office. Alloons, Mr. W. is proprietor of the most extensive ready-made clothing store in this section of the State, and has hely filled his shelves with all styles and de-scriptions of Spring and Summer wear, from the cheap business suit to a costume fit for a bridal oc-easion.
