DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention will meet at Harrisburg, on Wednesday, the 16th day of July, 1879, at noon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for State Trensurer, nominating a candidate for State Treasurer, and transacting such other business as the interests of the party require. By order of the State Committee. R. M. SPEER, Chairman.

H. L. DIFFFENNACH, Secretaries. P. J. PIEBUE. P. C. HAMMER.

"NAPOLEON IV" KILLED IN SOUTH AF RICA .- A despatch to the London News gives the following as to the death of the Prince Imperial, the only son of Empress Eugenie who was killed by Zulus in South Africa on the 1st of June :

the 1st of June: The body when found hay on its back. There were eighteen assegal stabs in it, two of them piercing the body from the chest to the back, two in the side and one destroying the right eye. A locket with hair medallions and a reliquary were found around the neck. The face wore a placid ex-pression. He had evidently ineffectually tried to mount, and the leather of the dap tearing, he ran along the path to where he was found. Two troppers hay hear the body, both having been as-regaled. The Frince was very adventurous. He had been sent forward by the Quartermaster General to sketch a site for the next eaup. When the volley was fired not a single Zolu was to be seen. the volley was fired not a single Zulu was to be seen. The party dispersed and sought safety under cover. The Prince was never seen alive again, His horse joined Lieutenant Carey's party on the road back to the camp. The official account of the affair says: The Prince, with Lieutenant Carey, of the Ninetr-eight Regi-ment, six men and one friendly Zulu, left the eamp at Keletti Mountain, seven miles berond the Blood River, on the 1st inst, for a recommissance, The party halted and unsaddled when ten miles from camp. Just as the Prince gave the order to remount a volley was fired from an ambush in long grass. Lieutenant Carey and four of the troopers remount a voltey was three from an ambush in long grass. Lieutenant Carcy and four of the troopers returned to camp and reported that the Prince and two troopers ware missing. From their statements there could be no doubt that the Prince was killed. A party of the Seventeenth Lancers, with an am-bulance, started on the 2d inst. to recover the body, which was found and brought in on the same day. A dispatch to the Times says: At daybreak a cavalry patrol under General Marshail lett to search for the Prince and wont to the krasis, ten miles farther on. The body was discovered among long grass, 300 yards from a krasi. There was no bullet wounds, but eventeen assegnd wounds were in the front of the body. The clothes had been taken, but round the neek was a chain with a locket. A stretcher of Innees was formed and the body borne by General Marshall and Officern Drary. Lowe and Stewart, of the Seventeen the Lancers, to meet the ambulance, by which it was Drary, Lowe and Stewart, of the Seventeenin Lancers, to meet the ambulance, by which it was then brought hither with an escort. There was a funeral parade in the afternoon, Deep sorrow prevails throughout the column. The Prince did not mount after the attack. His horse being rest-ive, he ran on foot. The corpse will leave with an escort for transportation homeward.

KILLING HIS THREE CHILDRES -A Springfield (Mass.) dispatch of June 21st tells the following shocking story of hopeless thunder storm, the lightning struck a poverty and terrible crime :

John Kemmler, a German, living at South Hel-voke, shot his three children—Annie, aged six years: Ludmilla, aged four years, and Amy aged one year—this afternoon because he was unable to support them. He has been out of work since Feb-mery. At that time he went to Colorado, but re-cestly returned, and had been moved from a tene-ment belonging to the Germania Mills in which he lived because he no longer worked in the mills. About 2 o'clock he sent his wife on an errand, and calling his oldest child into the house tried to pol-son her with cyanide of polassium, but she threw up the dose. Kinmler then took the second child into the front bedroom and shot her through the head back of the ear with a thirty-two calibre five-shooter. He took Annie to the rear bedroom and thot her in a like manner and left her on the floor covered with blood. The younger girl was lying on the bed. He also shot her behind the ear, the flash of the pistol burning the pillow. Leaving the house he told a saloon-keeper what he had done, and going to another aloon he was there arrested by Deputy Sherifi Kingsbury. After his arrest he appeared quite cool and suid he was ready to let the law take its course. He said her could not sup-port his children, and he feared they would grow in children and her feared they would grow John Kemmler, a German, living at South Hel-Lewis Frees, in Charlestown township, sought shelter. After the storm had cleared away, two of these were found lying dead, with not the vestige of a feather on their bodies, while the third had about one-half its feathers torn off. The latter finally recovered, and presented a strange appearance while walking about in a semi-nude state. After stance was that there were no marks upon the bodies of any of the hens to show that they had been struck by the lightning. --Edward Payson Weston has at last won a walking match, and is now "champion of the world" in pedestrian-

A SHOWER OF FIRE.-Major Williams, of West Kansas, who keeps the Railroad House, gave a Kansas City Journal reporter the fol lowing interesting account of a phenomenon that occurred at the commencement of the storm on Wednesday morning about 1 o'clock, He says :

I retired about 10 o'clock on Tuceday night I retired about 10 o'clock on Tueeday night. I bad been asleep about two hours and a haif when I was awakened by an outer door slamming violent-ly, as if burst open by something heavy thrown against it. I hurried to close it, when, on looking out, I saw a sight which I can never forget and which was so strange that I never would have be-lieved the like if I hadn't seen it. The air all about the house seemed to be perfectly full of balls of far raising down from the clouds, the brightings of which even the vivid flashes of lighting could not hide.
