

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR SENATE TREASURER: DAN L. O. BARR, Allegheny County.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET. FOR SHERIFF: MICHAEL J. NAUDEL, of Carroll Twp. FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR: JOSEPH JOHNSON, of Grove Twp. FOR JURY COMMISSIONER: JOHN J. HORNICK, of Richmond Twp. FOR COUNTY SURVEYOR: HENRY SEANLICK, of Carrolltown.

Light at Last—Mr. Kirby Withdraws. We are glad to announce on the authority of Wm. H. Seehler, Esq., Chairman of the Democratic County Committee, that Mr. P. F. Kirby has withdrawn from the candidacy contest, and that his letter of declination will probably be received in time for publication in our present issue.

It does not necessarily follow, although the Republicans hug that delusion to their souls, that if A. B. Corwell is elected Governor of New York over Robinson, the vote of the State will be certainly cast next year for the Republican candidate for the Presidency. It must be remembered that the Tammany Hall leaders have proclaimed their purpose to support all the State candidates on the Democratic ticket except Robinson, the nominee for Governor, and in making this declaration there is no reason to doubt their sincerity. If, therefore, the result of the election shows that Robinson has been defeated and the balance of the tickets elected, it will prove to the country that the Democracy of New York are abundantly able to cast the vote of that State in favor of a candidate for President upon whom the two wings of the party can unite. If Robinson is defeated, it will of course absolutely shelve Mr. Tilden as a Presidential candidate, for the plain reason that he is far more obnoxious to John Kelly and his followers than Gov. Robinson himself, if such a thing is possible. The defeat of Tammany Hall from Gov. Robinson is unfortunate and to be regretted, but keeping in mind its electoral resolution to support the balance of the Democratic State ticket, the Republican party is entering upon its campaign with a confidence that the forty-seven electoral votes of New York will be cast against the Democracy at the Presidential election next year. Whether they will be or not depends entirely upon the contingencies we have mentioned—the defeat of Gov. Robinson, but the election of the rest of the ticket.

GEN. GRANT arrived at San Francisco from Japan on last Saturday evening. He left Philadelphia two years ago last May in a steamship for Liverpool, and since then has made a complete voyage around the world. When starting on his journey he was escorted down the Delaware by a crowd of his admirers, amongst whom were Simon Cameron, George E. Robeson, Grant's jobbing Secretary of the Navy, and men of that stripe, all of whom, in their speeches on that festive occasion, referred to Grant as a candidate for a third term without a word of disapproval by our "second Washington." Grant carried that idea away with him and he has brought it back with him, for no man can point to anything he has said while abroad, nor to anything he has written home, and which has been made public, that excludes the idea of a willingness on his part to accept another nomination. We trust the Republicans will nominate him, and thus afford the voters of the United States the only opportunity ever presented to them of vindicating the example set by Washington and acquiescing in it by his successors down to Grant. The people of this country will never by their suffrages recall Grant to power and with him the corrupt crew, from cabinet officers down, who caused the hot four years of his administration to be remembered only as a war and a disgrace.

NEW BUTLER having on yesterday been nominated for Governor of Massachusetts by the Independent Republican State convention, enters upon his campaign as the nominee of three parties, and ought to be able to make things lively for "the blooded" Republicanism in the old Bay State. Regular party conventions will meet on the 7th of October, and Benjamin would of course like to have its endorsement, but it would as soon be given to John Fremont as to Benjamin F. Butler.

BEING suggested by several Republican organs after the Maine election, that Grant for President and Blaine for Vice President would make a strong combination, the friends of the Senator from Maine indignantly repudiated his association as second best on the same ticket with Grant, and declare that in an event with James G. Blaine consent to such an arrangement. It was "Cesar, we believe, who said that he would rather be the first man in a village than the second man in Rome, and although Blaine is not yet a Caesar, he explicitly thinks he is a bigger man than Grant.

A mass meeting of the Democracy of Philadelphia was held in Horticultural Hall on last Saturday night, at which Andrew H. Trautman was nominated for Sheriff, Thomas Greenbank for Register of Wills, and S. Davis Paige for City Treasurer. The Philadelphia press without a single exception, unite in awarding to these gentlemen the highest character as citizens, and entire competency to discharge the duties of the offices for which they have been nominated. The two rival factions of the Democracy in that city under the respective leadership of Richard Vaux, and George M. Cowan, would, under the leadership of the latter (Wednesday) and it was expected that the nominations would be ratified by both of them. Whatever the result of the election may be, the Democrats of Philadelphia deserve infinite credit for having taken the bull by the horns, and put in the field a ticket which commands respect and for which no honest man need be ashamed to vote.

HON. WARREN J. WOODWARD, one of the Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of this State, died on Tuesday last in the 50th year of his age. His home was at Hopewell, but his death occurred at Hopewell, N. Y. He was married in 1874 for the term of twenty years, and took his seat on the bench on the 11th of January 1873. He was a nephew of the late Judge George W. Woodward and like him was a firm and consistent Democrat. His character was irreproachable, and his private life was one of a high moral tone. The country will be filled by the Governor, and, inasmuch as Judge Woodward's death occurred within three months of the next annual election, his successor should, under the new constitution, be elected on the 11th of November 1880.

WE read with the contempt it deserves the imputation of the Philadelphia Press, that the course of the Pennsylvania regard to the candidacy of Messrs. Naugel and Kirby for the Sheriffial offices from a desire to secure the printing patronage of that office. Such a necessary motive would no doubt govern the course of the editor of the Tribune under similar circumstances, but we are his right to measure others by his own standard. The Tribune, however, is privileged as a party organ in widening the Democratic breach as much as possibly can in obedience to the familiar maxim, "divide and conquer," which is as true in politics as in military affairs. Our sole object, and we say it as sincerely as ever entered a mortal man's mind, is to prevent the Democratic party of this county from blindly supporting their own party in a stone wall, when there is a plain path leading around it—to rescue it from the threatened entrance of the "Czar" and his friends, and point the way to an old-time Democratic victory. Our advice is taken, the Tribune will not be misled on the morning of the election, nor will its readers by its wings and crew in triumph over result, which will stand as an instruction monument of unpardonable fanaticism, perversion and stupidity.

THE bureau of statistics has received information of the amount of exports of wheat for the month of August from the ports of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and Baltimore. The following table shows the exports of wheat for the month of August, 1879, as compared with the exports in August, 1878:

THE official returns of the California election show that Jerry Demoreau is elected to Congress in the third district by a majority over McKenna, Republican. Although Perkins, Republican, won 20,000 of a majority of the popular vote, California may, therefore, be set down as a State to be fought for in the Presidential contest of next year.

THERE is a loyal heart in all this broad land that does not feel safer and stronger than that Grant's fate is again an American issue.—Philadelphia Tribune.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

—Col. Thos. A. Scott was in Pittsburgh on Thursday attending a wedding. Edward G. Lawrence, of Louisville, Ky., fell and broke his neck at Pittsburgh on Friday.

—Kitty Dee was married in Hartford on Friday afternoon, and at 4 was locked up drunk. A shirt of strong chain mail is now worn by the Czar. It was made by an armorer of Paris.

—The Pittsburgh races have been postponed to the 4th of October, continuing until the 7th.

—A Lancaster lady has a raspberry bush in her yard which is now bearing its third crop of fruit.

—An Allentown lady while swinging a few days ago met with a singular accident, according to the Chronicle. She was alone and mounted a swing and after swinging awhile the board on which she stood slipped out and she fell "upside down," and the informant says that she was not caught, and in this unpleasant position she remained quite a while before she was released.

—Cardinal Newman's familiarity with Scripture is spoken of as somewhat wonderful. He seems to have the whole Bible at his fingers' ends, and he quotes each point in his sermons with quotations from the Old and the New Testament with a surprising accuracy.

—The Boston Post says that John Kelly has performed the somewhat difficult feat of kicking himself out of his own door.

—A rare golden wedding has just been celebrated at Waterbury, Conn. The couple, having been married on Monday, it had been locked up for eight months and was frozen stiff when it was placed in the water, and in half an hour showed signs of life.

—Helen Burke, a young woman living near Media, was burned to death on Friday morning by the explosion of a coal mine.

—From sunrise to sunset a gentleman recently drove a horse from Centre Hall, Centre county, to New Bloomfield, Perry county, a distance of 65 miles.

—Abraham Ireland, a colored man, sixty-eight years of age, residing at Westminster, Md., has been growing wild for a number of years past.

—An amateur school made the music for a Sunday school festival at Russellville, O. One member was led away from his duty as drummer by a girl who called him to play her disbelieverly remained with her and the refreshment. The exasperated leader seized the drumstick and struck the girl on the head.

—Near the northern line of Berks county, Jacob Fry, with a number of boys, were hunting raccoons. A limb which had been cut from a lofty tree fell and struck Fry on the head, killing him almost instantly.

—John Smith, now serving a term in the State prison for robbing a stage, was the 77th, has become one of the most expert carpet weavers in the institution. He is able to weave fifteen yards of carpet in ten hours.

—The Rev. H. B. Smith, of Stoughton, Mass., is 130 years old, and his wife is 15. The difference in their ages is not greater than the difference in their temperaments, and they have signed and published an agreement to separate.

—The Rev. Mr. Keith, a popular preacher in London, rides to church on his bicycle, followed by a crowd of friends mounted on similar vehicles. The riders house their vehicles in the Sunday school room and ride home on their own. Brother Keith is a lively paragon.

—A young woman of Staten Island, named Jessie Bailey, is trying to have the marriage of the King of Spain with the young lady, and she is making a strong effort to induce him to do so. Her father is a Catholic, and she is a Protestant. The King is engaged to her. But the poor young woman is crazy on this subject, like a great many others of her kind.

—Mrs. Daniel Martin is going to school in Bellefonte, Pa., to her granddaughter. This may seem a tall story, but it is true. Mrs. Martin is only sixty years of age, and her granddaughter is only five years old.

—Mabel Pearing was repeatedly visited, at Plain City, O., so she says, by the ghost of an old hunter, who declares that there is a considerable deposit of lead on the farm. Under the unearthly guidance, Pearing dug night after night to find the mineral; but the ghost did not direct an excavation against a post, and finally the shaft caved in, injuring the miner fatally.

THE ATTEMPT TO REVIVE A CORRUPT AND POWERFUL CONSPIRACY. We have no Congressional member in Pennsylvania this fall; no members of the State Legislature, and no State officers with the exception of State Treasurer, and accordingly the conspiracy, which was organized by the late State Treasurer, but upon the choice of this officer important results depend. He is by law the custodian of all moneys in the public treasury and responsible for their safekeeping. In recent years, Republican Treasurers have had control of millions of dollars, and the conspiracy, which was organized by the late State Treasurer, but upon the choice of this officer important results depend.
