act be distinctly understone of forward, jour paper before you stop it, if get. None but scalawage do oth the a scalawage life a too short,

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

VOLUME XIV.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 9, 1880.

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

NUMBER 12,

ALL OUR

ISH OVERCOATS

HEAVY WEIGHT CLOTHING!

STILL ON HAND

O BE SOLD AT PRICES LOWER THAN EVER TO MAKE ROOM FOR A LARGE AND NEW STOCK OF

SPRING AND SUMMER CLOTHING!

T WILL PAY YOU TO GIVE US A CALL. AS THE GOODS NOW IN STORE WILL

SITIVELY BE SOLD REGARDLESS OF THE ADVANCE IN PRICES Which are now at least 25 per cent, higher than last year,

TAKE OUR ADVICE, AND BUY YOUR CLOTHING NOW. AND FROM US, AT THE

Young America Clothing House,

Corner ELEVENTH AVENUE and ELEVENTH Street, ALTOONA, PA.

CHAS. SIMON HAS JUST REMOVED TO THE

Large and Elegant Store Room IN C. JAGGARD'S NEW BRICK BLOCK, 1306 ELEVENTH AVENUE, Between 13th and 14th Streets.

BOORS ABOVE EBERT'S MUSIC STORE, ALTOONA, PA WHERE HE IS NOW OPENING A SPLENDID LINE OF

CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS, &c.,

Which he guarantees to sell at the Lowest A PIECE OR PARCEL OF LAND Prices known to the Retail Trade.

eing now in passession of the largest and bandsomest Clothing Store in the City of Alicona, which will henceforth be known as the od elsewhere that when they risk Albana it will be worth their while to with the appurtuances, and others, containing 52 Aeres, more or less, and asked in a frightened tone, "What is completed our handlesses naw store room and quoting the prices of our elegant or mathematical to first anything in our line at the lowest possible figures. It is asked in a frightened tone, "What is NO. 4.

KEYSTONE CLOTHING HALL!

A LOT of GROUND by the arm, and ordered him to unfasten the relative of the same in the future, I remain.

CHARLES SIMON, ALTOONA, PA.

Don't forget to bear in mind and keep in remembrance that

GODFREY WOLF

PALACE OF FASHION. NEXT DOOR TO THE POST-OFFICE, ALTOONA, PA.,

A GRAND CLOSING-OUT SALE

OF HIS ENTIRE STOCK-ABOUT 810,000 WORTH-OF OVERCOATS & WINTER CLOTHING Cenerally, AT COST AND LESS THAN COST.

Call Early and Get First Choice and Best Bargains! As the Goods will Positively be Sold at a Sacrifice,

GEIS, FOSTER & QUINN, 113 & 115 CLINTON STREET, JOHNSTOWN, PA.,

Largest and Cheapest Stock of Dry and Dress Goods, NOTIONS, MILLINERY, CARPETS, ETC.,

the found in Cambrin or adjoining counties. Let Forget not the street and numbers and fail not to call, buy and be happy.

GEO. W. YEAGER. -CASH DEALER IN ALL KIND OF-

HEATING and COOKING STOVES

TINADSHEET-IRON WARE.

1402 Eleventh Ave., Altoona, Pa. OF CHEAPEST PLACE IN THE CITY. Boofing, Spouting and Repairing of all kind promptly and satisfactorily attended to.

* * * * * * * * PERFECTED BUTTER COLOR

$\times_{\text{in S'M}}$ per day at home. Samples worth $5 \\
\text{TEO. M. READE, Attorney-at-Law, horse or light two-horse PEDDLING WAG-line, Malne. The Address Survey & Co., Partitive doors from High street. [8-27, 72] \\
\text{Finensburg. Feb. 18, 1880.-tl.} \\
\text{Tens in an are horse or light two-horse PEDDLING WAG-line. ON. Apply to Evensburg. Feb. 18, 1880.-tl.} \\
\text{Conger was defined.} \\
\text{Conger was described.} \\
\text{

PIANOS Signal, Correr and Book, 2:10 to $1,500.

WE have a large stock of LADIES', Misses' and Children Signals, Stool, Holk, only 508. 65° IIBearry, Washington, N. J.

WE have a large stock of LADIES', Misses' and Children Signals, which we will sell at very low prices between now and the lat of Agril next. V. S. BARKER & BRO.

SAVE MONEY

INSURING YOUR LIFE

OHIO VALLEY MUTUAL PROTECTION ASSOCIATION!

HOME OFFICE, GREENVILLE, O.

OFFICERS: Hox. D. L. MERKER, (Judge Common Pleas Court,) Common Pleas Court.)
JAMES K RIFFLE,
M. F. MYPOIS,
Judge J. T. MERKER,
L. L. BELL. (Cushier Green-ville Bank.)

SPECIAL FEATURES. This Association offer the following special fealst. Endowment Protection on the Mutual As | force of the War Department, and Lieutentent plan. Variorm Membership Fee of $10,00, for all ages and amounts.
Sd. No Annual Duez, nor extra Charges what- Stanton telegraphed these two officers to BENEFITS.

ENDOWMENT PLAN. to 45- $3000, payable at death or at expiration LIFE PLAN.

Agent for Cambria County

ORPHANS COURT SALE

DY virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of

to public sale, at Lilly's Station, P. TUESDAY, April 20, 1880,

NO. 1.

NO. 2. situate in Washington tewnship, Cambria county, adjoining lands of The Cambria Iron Company, Heirs of James Conrad, and others, containing 35 Acres, more or less, with the appurtenances

NO. 8. A PIECE OR PARCEL OF LAND situate in Washington township, Cambria county, the plazza and thundered at the door. The situate in Washington township, Cambria county, adjoining lands of William McCloskey, Thomas Howitt, and others, containing GNE-FOURTH OF AN

NO. 5.

TERMS OF SALE. One-third of the purchase money to be paid op-confirmation of sale, and the balance in two equal-annual payments, with interest, to be secured by bond and mortgage of the purchaser. JOSEPH CRISTE, Trustee,

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE. THE undersigned will ofter at public sale, in the borough of Summittville, on Tuesday, the 13th day of April, 1880, at 2 o'clock v. N., the following described real estate, of which the Rev. John Hackett died seized Cambria, adjoining lands of James W. Cendon, Francis Fridhoff, and others, containing 40 Acres, more or less, all under fence and partir cleared. Mineral right reserved. (tunte to the township and county aforesaid, adtate of M. M. Adams, dec'd, and others, containing 3 Acres and 129 Perches, all cleared and un-

THOMAS DAVIN, Executor.
Summitville, March 26, 1880,-31.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE.-Having tors, as shown by his abcount examined March 8, 1880, notice is hereby given to all marties interested that I will artend to the daties of said appointment, at my office in Ebensburg, on Tuesday, April 85, 1830, at two clock in the afferment, when and where they must present their claims, or be debarred from coming in upon said fund.

GEO, W. OATMAN, Auditor.

Ebensburg, March 26, 1880,-8t.

AUDITOR'S NOTICE, Having een appointed Anditor by the Court of Co-leas of Cambria county to report distrib the money in the hands of F. J. Burgos eald appointment, at my office in Ebensburg, on Mondon, April 19, 2889, at 2 welock in the afternoon, when and, where they must present their claims, or the debarred from consing in upon said fund.

GEO. W. OATMAN, Auditor.

Ebensburg, March 26, 1880.-31.

nership heretofore existing between the undersigned doing business as A. A. Barker & Son. was this day dissolved by mutual consont. All unsettled business will be attended to by F. H. Barker, at the place of business of the late firm, in Ebensburg. All book accounts not closed by note or each on or before May 1st, 1880, will be left with an other for collection.

Ebensburg, March 12, 1890.-46.

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of Daniel Races, dec'd.
Letters of administration on the estate of Daniager, late of Jackson township, deceased, havin a granted to the undersigned, all persons in-tical to said estate are barely notified that im-diate payment must be made, and those having ims against the same will present their propery authenticated for solilement.
ARTHUR DEVIJN, Administrator.
Jackson Twp., March 25, 1880.-6t.

JOHN WILKES BOOTH'S DEATH.

GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THE PURSUIT AND CAPTURE OF THE MURDERER BY THE OFFICER IN COMMAND.

In a recent number of the New Orleans Picayune appears a statement purporting to come from Captain Edward P. Dorberty. now a street contractor in New Orleans, in which are detailed some of the incidents relative to the capture and killing of John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln. There are said to be so many glaring inaccuracies in the article, so many state-"Provide for those dependent upon you a shield that will protect them from the storms of life when you are gone." the article, so many state-ments that are not substantiated by facts and by the records of the War Department, and by the records of the War Department, that a history of the exciting event has been obtained from the lips of Lieutenaut L. B. Baker, now a clerk in the Anditor General's office, who had command of the party which captured the murderer.

At the time when Booth shot President Lincoln-April 14th, 1865, in Ford's theatre -General L. C. Baker, chief of the detective ant L. B. Baker were in New_York city looking for bounty jumpers. Secretary come to Washington Immediately. They Persons between the ages of 16 and 64 years, who have a first-class health record, may hold either a Life Certificate or an Endowment Certificate, as they may desire.

Approximately may desire. for miles around and telegrams were sent 16 to 33-34000, payable at death or at expiration | over all the lines. General Baker gained all the information he could in regard to the of 15 years.

46 to 55-$2500, payable at death or at expiration bably take, and concluded that they would (15 years. 55 to 74-$2000, payable at death or at expiration | go down the Potomac, taking in Surrattville, cross the river, and make their way to Richmond. He sent a telegraph operator and a detective down the river by boat to Port Tobacco and vicinity, with orders to tap the wires and let him know if there was any trace of the missing fugitives. Near Chappella Point the detectives found a negro whom they brought to Washington, and who stated that he was positive he saw both Booth and Harold, whom he knew well, crossing the river in a fishing boat. At first the General discredited his statement, but on showing him several likenesses of the assassins and others, the colored man pointed out Booth and Harold as the men whom he saw. An escort of twenty-five cavalrymen, under Captain Dorherty, were placed at Lieutenant Baker's command, who had orders to "bring At 10 o'ctoors, A. M., the following described real estate, of which William Ther. Ss., died seized, to wit:

Booth, dead of /a live." At the request of Lie tenant Baker, Lieutenant Colonel E. J. periciced cavalry officer who had just known as the "Ross Property," situate in Washington township, Cambria county, adjoining lands of The Cambria Fron Company, Gardiner & Morrow, Baniel J. Morrell, and others, containing 96 Acres, more of less, with the number paper. John S. Ide, and steamed down to Belle commenced the search. The dash was made through the lane in short order, and the house surrounded. Lieutenant Baker dismounted, went on to 52 Acres, more or less, old man Garrett threw up a window near Lieutenant entered the hall. Mr. Garrett soon appeared with a tallow candle. The Lieutenant tock the candle and asked: A LOT of GROUND "Where are the men who are stopping with you?" The old man was very much excited, and he stammered out that "they went age Railroad, Pennsylvania Railroad, lands of the limitton and others, containing 2 Kerrs, to the woods when the cavalry went by to the story France House and France Stance.

The Lieutenant said: "Don't you tell me story France House and France Stance." The Licutenant said : "Don't you tell me that again, they are here." The sight of the pistol brought young Garrett to the front, who said: "Don't injure father, and I will tell you all about it; they are in the barn.

About this time Colonel Conger came into the hall. Lieutenant Baker took young Garret by the collar and led him out on the piazza, while Conger formed the men to suround the barn. The Lieutenant then order ed Garret to lead the way. Before reaching the barn Garrett said: "I have forgotten the key, but my brother has it, who is sleep ing in the corn crib We would not let those No. 1 .- A Piece or Parcel of Land | men sleep in the house, and were afraid they situate in the township of Washington, county of would steal the horses and get away." The Cambria, adjoining lands of James W. Condon, brother soon appeared with the horses and debrother soon appeared with the key and delivered it to Lieutevant Baker. The barn was then surrounded, and Lieutenant Baker No. 2 .- A Piece or Parcel of Land unlocked the door, Up to this time Booth and Harold seemed to be asleep. Colonel Conger came up, a rustling was heard inside the building, as if the inmates were rousing up from sleep. Lieutenant Baker said to Conger, 'Garret must go in, demand their surrender, and bring out their arms." To this Conger assented, but Garrett was relunctant to obey, saying "they are desperate fellows and armed to the teeth." Lieutenant Baker seized him, opened the door and shoved him in, and then closed the door. The Lieutenant hailed the assassins, and said : "We send you this young man, in whose custody we find you, and you must surrender your arms to him, or we will set fire to the barn and have a bonfire and a shooting match." A low conversation took place inside the building, and Booth was heard to say to Garrett; "D-n you! You have betrayed me; get out of here or I will shoot

Garret came to the back door, and said : for you, but I can't risk my life here. The began to move, and he faintly whispered, however, that weighed heavily on his mind, borrow er steal-a few turnips lifted from young Garrett said : "If you don't put that my country."

the men aroused and on the alert, for they stinging reprimand and said to him: "Why window, that he might not be tempted to which he was probably afraid to sell. It was had become so exhausted with their ride of did you shoot without orders?" The Ser- make too free with it. two days and two nights, without rest and geant took the position of a soldier, saluted Thus lived Thomas Pett, whose pulse for kitchens of the neighborhood he might have with but one meal, that it was almost impos- the Colonel, and with right hand pointing the last twenty years of his life rose and fell helped himself to what he saw lying about, sible to keep them awake. Strict orders upward said: "God Almighty ordered me with the funds, who for forty-two years while the cook brought her dish of broken were given not to fire, as it would endanger to shoot." At this reply the Colonel mel- lived in Clare Market as journeyman butch. scraps from some back kitchen or cupboard. the lives of the men who were surrounding lowed in his manner, and said: "I guess he er; who lodged for thirty years in one Hence the mystery of the spoons. the building. Harold begged and entreated did," and then dropped the subject. Col- gloomy apartment, which was never brightin the most piteous manner to be let out, and onel Conger immediately started for Wash- ened up by coal or candle light or the face of the Lieutenant ordered him to put his hands | ington to apprise the authorities of Booth's | a visitor; who never treated man, woman, out of the door, which was partly ajar. He capture, and Lieutenant Baker and escort or child to a glass of any kind of liquor; who stuck his hands out, the Lieutenant caught remained to bring the body as soon as life almost never eat a morsel at his own exhold of them, pulled him out and immediate- was extinct. A neighboring physician was pense; who never said a civil thing to a woly closed the door. Harold was then turned | called, who gave it as his opinion that Booth | man; who would not trust a laundress with | over to two soldiers. He kept making asser- could not survive much longer. Colonel a pocket-handkerchief; who considered all Townsend, of the Eastern Penitentiary of tions that he knew nothing about Booth, and Conger started for Washington a little after must be mad or foolish who did not pile up Pennsylvania, was asked a curious request Colonel Conger threatened to tie him and be left. The body was sewed up in a saddle gold; and who tried to bargain for his coffin some few weeks ago by a prisoner under his gag him if he did not stop his noise. This blanket, placed in a one-horse wagon, driven half an hour pefore he died. He left two charge. Learning of the terrible sufferings had a quieting effect. It had been decided by a negro, and taken across the country to thousand four hundred and seventy-five of the poor in Ireland, prisoner "No. 94, to fire the building, so that Booth would be Belle Plain, where the party arrived about pounds to distant relations, not one of whom as he is known to the officials, inquired of driven to the small door, where it was thought | dark. The tug Idle was waiting, the body | he had ever seen or written to. The list of | the warden as to the sum that stood to his he could be easily captured. Another parley ensued. Lieutenant Ba- river for Washington. The capital was neighborhood, ran thus: "An old bald wig. He was told that a little over $5 was the ker again made the demand for his surrender. reached about daylight in the morning, and A hat as soft as a pancake. Two shirts that amount, and he requested of the warden to

"That makes no difference; we know who and the evidence of various parties taken. you are, and want you. We have fifty men armed with carbines and pistols around the barn, and you cannot escape." After a pause he said, "Captain, this is a hard case, I swear. Give a lame man a chance. Draw up your men twenty yards from the door, and I will fight your whole command?" The Lieutenant said : "Very well, take time.

a pistol in the other, he dashed for the door. were to be kept for next day's dinner. the crack of a pistol was heard from the rear | Clifford's Passage, London, in 1803. He was a dung-heap in the cow-house, from which a | h of the barn. Booth recled forward, threw a native of Warwickshire. He came to Lon- sum little short of two thousand five hundred tenant Baker had the light in his hand, and distinct value, said, "Tell mother I died for he had never learned to shave himself. He victuals from the houses of the rich, old cab-The light was placed a short distance from burning barn was so intense that the wound- fashionable. He made a promise to himself petite. Living near the shore, Joe made a the door, but so as to light the whole front ed man was removed to the piazza of the that as soon as he had amassed a thousand point of watching for wreckage of any sort, right back on me that night, and has been of the building, which had been once used as house. The young ladies brought out a nar- pounds, he would treat himself to a pint of and it was a happy day for him when any sulking ever since. a tobacco house. The light was necessary row straw bed, and on this Booth was laid. porter every Saturday. Fortune soon put it | floating cargo made its appearance on the in case the assassins should make a break A cloth soaked in ice water and whisky was in his power to perform this promise, and he beach. One day great excitement prevalled laugh at us and call it superstition, but they for the door and get out. The soldiers were placed in his mouth, which revived him. He continued to treat himself till the additional among the fisher people. The surface of the never lived in an engine-cab." dismounted, but refused to stand in the fight opened his eyes, seemed to take in the situa- duty was laid on porter; he then reduced waves was covered for some distance with and they were allowed to seek a safe posi- tion at once, and said : "Kill me! Oh, kill his portion to half a pint once a week. If he quantities of apples, probably part of some tion. Lieutenant Baker again demanded me quick! The Lieutenant said: "No, heard of an auction anywhere near, he ran wreck. The inhabitants plunged into the Weekly Guzette, New York: their surrender. Booth replied in a clear, Booth, we do not want to kill you, and hope quickly and begged a catalogue, as if anx-

Conger was doing all in his power to keep | Colonel Conger gave Sergeant Corbett a litin his closet; then threw the key out of the these, of which he never made any use, and boller.

ken by my friends." The Lieutenant said : Here it was kept one day for identification, sandals. A bedstead. A toothless comb. Clare, the Nun of Kenmare. This was done,

PARSIMONIOUS PEOPLE.

a leathern bag with one guinea in it." it should be kept in mind there is a difference | was born in 1716, and was the eldest of four | follows between thrift and mean parsimony. Some children. His father lived on Harrow Weald | Convent of Poor, Clares, Kenmare, & people who are at ease in their circumstances | Common, near Harrow-on-the-Hill, where he The Lieutenant replied, "I did not come to make themselves ridiculous by shaboy at possessed property to a very considerable fight, but came to take you; have got you, tempts at saving. We once knew an old amount, which his sou Daniel, by a most deand you had better surrender." Booth re- Scotch lady who, though she had a consider- termined and whimsical abstemiousness, inplied : "Give me a little time to consider." able sum of money left her, was parsimonic creased to upward of three thousand per sufferings of others, forgetful of your own, ous to an extraordinary extent. As she annum. The childhood of Daniel Daneer You can have five minutes." He was heard grew old, she grew more miserly, until she passed without anything remarkable. It to come forward to the door, or near the would not allow herself milk for her tea or was only when he had attained his majority door. As he came he said : "Captain, I be- meat for dinner. Bent double with rheuma- that he began to display a "saving knowllieve you are a brave and honorable man. I tism in her old age, she would not pay any edge" perfectly incredible. He had a sister ave had half a dozen opportunities to shoot one to wash or clean her house, but with in- whose disposition agreed perfectly with his you, and have a bead drawn on you now, but | finite labor accomplished these tasks for her. | own, and as they lived together many years, don't want to do it. Withdraw your forces self. She never would send for a doctor, for their stories are necessarily connected, and a hundred yards from the door and I will she pithity remarked, "They cost a power o' would furnish the most melancholy instance Captain, for I will not be taken alive." days we often found her shivering over a Mr. Dancer's wardrobe might justly boast all about yourself, and thank the good kind Lieutenant Baker said: "We have waited single handful of fire; a small piece of hard more colors, textures, and substances than warden who has allowed you to writ long enough. Now come out or we will fire cheese and a cup of tea with mouldy bread the garments of a company of strolling play- Read a page of it every day, and we will not the barn." Col. Conger then said: "We her only dinner. When she died, she left ers, and yet notwithstanding his curious forget you in our prayer had better fire the barn ;" and to this Lieu- about eight hundred pounds, besides various patching, his garments often failed to cover tenant Baker gave his consent. Booth said, moneys in silver, copper, and bank-notes, his skin, though he strove to keep all together in his peculiar stage tone, "Well, my brave | which she had stuffed into drawers and va. by a strong hay cord around his waist. Linen letter and then delivered it to "No. 94," boys, prepare a stretcher for me, then." rious secret recesses. All her money went was a luxury to which, in spite of his avarice, "for," said he, "when once the iron doors of After a pause of about half a minute, he was to a couple of nephews, who never paid her he was not wholly a stranger; for at an ear. this place are opened to receive a convict, heard to say: "One more stain on the glo- the least respect, and who even grudged the ly period of his life he used to buy two shirts | the name by which he is known in the out-face downward on some hay which was scat- his pocket. As he had no friends or relations et, carefully tied and strongly nailed down the in the city, he was indebted to the kindness to the manger, were found in bank-notes put on board, and she then steamed up the his wearing-apparel taken by a wag in the credit on the prison books for extra work Booth said, "Who are you, and what do you | the body delivered to Secretary Stanton, who | might pass for fishing-nets. A pair of stock- obtain for him a draft on liveland for £4 want of me? It may be that I am being ta- ordered it to be placed in the Navy Yard. ing, darned with every color. A pair of old payable to the order of Sister Mary Frances

It is a duty of every one to be thrifty; but | than Mr. Pett was Mr. Daniel Dancer, who | Kenmure's answer was received, which is as

ger applied a match to some hay which he married when far advanced in life, to the one. After this shirt got into his possession his former position in life is forgotten and frew through a crevice, and in an instant the great surprise of all his acquaintances, who it was doomed to hang upon his back till it the number of the cell in which he is incar, inside of the building was a blaze of light. - wondered at such an act of extravagance, fell off in rags, never being either washed or cerated is used to designate both The Lieutenant then opened the door to Upon inquiry, however, it was found that he mended. After his sister's death, a pair of and the occupant. When the generous felgive him a chance to come out, and from his | had married entirely from motives of econo- sheets as black as soot-bags were discovered | low was handed the kind letter position on the outside could see every move- my. The lady of his choice was the widow upon the beds, but these Mr. Duncer would famine-stricken country, he burst into tears ment made by Booth. He seemed to be of a respectable school master, who after her never suffer to be removed; and when they as soon as he had finished reading the miseaning against the haymow, supported by husband's decease was in the habit of lend- were at length worn out, they were never sive. The man has been in pris his crutches, with his carbine in his hand. ing him the clothes of the defunct; so, think- replaced; so that after that time he relin- about eighteen menths and he has two He sprang forward toward the fire, with the ling that marriage would put him in the re-quished the use of linen to sleep in. He months more to serve before his time is up seeming intention of shooting the man who mainder of the said garments, he proposed, never would allow any one to make his bed. Since his imprisonment he has conducted touched the match. But the intense light and was accepted. His stipend was, with and at the time of his death it was observed himself with more than usual good behavior. inside the building prevented him from see- glebe and other things, about two hundred to be filled with sticks which be had stolen. He was convicted of burglary, committed in ng objects in the darkness without. He pounds per annum, yet by dist of sheer nig- from different hedges. His room was not the southern portion of this city. then turned and, with the aid of one crutch, gardliness he died leaving many thousands. swept for many years. came rapidly in the direction of the door, He made a point of picking up and taking Mr. Dancer's ingenuity in concealing his evil associations, for he is a young man, unbut halted about the centre of the floor. Here home anything be could find-a piece of money was most wonderful. His bank notes married, and about thirty years of age, and he drew himself to his full height, and seem- coal fallen from a passing cart, an old lucifer were usually deposited with the spiders; as he says himself he dates his downfall ed to take a survey of the terrible situation. match box, pieces of stick from a neighbor- they were laid among the cobwets in the from acquaintances picked up in bar-rooms. He looked first at the roaring flames, and ing wood-anything to save outlay in his cow house, and his guineas were placed in The way he obtained the money which be then his glaring eyes rested upon the open own house. He never wrote on a sheet of holes in the chlumey and about the fire. sent to Ireland was by working extra, in door. He resembled an infuriated wild paper, always using blank pages of other place. The house, or rather the heap of making shoes at night, while many of the beast at bay. A cloud of smoke rolled to people's letters, and turned all envelopes ruins, in which Mr. Dancer lived, and which other prisoners pass their spare time, from the roof, swept across the room, ther came outside in, so as to make them available for after his death Captain Holmes succeeded to, 6:30 to 9 p. m., in rending or idling. It takes down to the floor on the other side, and he his own use. After his death, a drawer full was a miserable decayed building, dreadful a long while for a man to earn $5 by extra appeared to be standing in an arch of fire of turned envelopes, gummed together in a In its external appearance, for it had not work, as the State only allows him from and smoke. He remained but an instant in very ingenious way, was found. On one been repaired for more than half a century, to ten cents for the extra task which be is this position, and then dropping his remain- occasion be gave a dinner, which consisted But though poor in outward appearance, the willing to perform, and half of this goes to ing crutch, with his carbine in one hand and of a sheep's head minus the trotters, which ruinous fabric was fich in the interior. It the county as a sort of recompense, so the took many weeks to explore its contents.

Lieutenant Baker rushed in, followed by of an old woman who sold pies for a morsel and gold five handred pounds more. Several Colonel Conger and young Garrett. The of bread till he could procure himself em- large bowls filled with guineas, half guineas, Lieutenant, not knowing how fatal the shot, playment. Some time after, he was engaged and quantities of silver were discovered at seized him by the arms, intending to se- as errand-boy by a tallow-chandler. Mrs. different times in searching the corners of cure him in case he had only been stunned. Dip-the chandler's wife-being "a lady of the house, and various parcels of bank notes other day, as he pointed to an engineer, who On turning Booth over, Lieutenant Baker | London mould," could not endure his rustic stuffed into old cushions and chairs. In the found a pistol in his left hand, which he still manners and awkward gait; so she sent him stable Captain Holmes found some jugs of held with a vice-like grip, and it required off one bitter winter's night, with the remark, silver money. The chimney was not left great strength to wrench it from him. A "Your master hired you in my absence, and unsearched, and well repaid the trouble, for clear the cloud from the engineer's face, and leather belt was around his body, with a I'll turn you off in his." The good husband in nineteen different holes, all filled with leather belt was around his body, with a bowie knife and another revolver in it. Lieu-bowie knife another revolver in it. Lie tenant Baker then accused Colonel Conger out, and sent him as apprentice to a butcher amounting to more than two hundred pounds. of shooting him, which the Colonel denied, in Southwark. For the first five years he And to finish up with, six hundred pounds in pull with the best of them. A month ago and said "Booth shot himself." This the had twenty-five pounds a year and meat and bank notes was found in an old tea-pot. Lieutenant claimed was impossible, as he drink. The accumulation of money and the Thus living wretchedly, and dying with not saw him every moment from the time the abridgment of expense were the two sole one vestige of comfort, Daniel Dancer and hay was fired until be fell. Colonel Conger objects of his thoughts. His expenses were his miserly sister furnish to all future gensaid: "The man who did shoot him shall go reduced to three heads-lodging, clothing erations an illustration of the extreme of back to Washington under arrest." Upon and washing. For the first he fixed on a penuriousness. further inquiry it was found that Sergeant | back room on the second floor, with one win- | An extraordinary character lived some Boston Corbett had fired the shot from a dow, that occasionally admitted a stray sun- twenty years ago in a small Scotch town on Boston Corbett had fired the shot from a dow, that occasionally admitted a stray sun-navy revolver through a crevice in the rear beam. Of his dress every article was see- the Firth of Forth. His name was Joe Tay-her conduct. She'll get over it in a day or of the barn. This was a most difficult feat ond-hand. Nor was be choice in the color or lor. He occupied a miserable bovel, and two, perhaps. If she don't we'll panis to perform, for the ball struck Booth on the quality, sagely observing, when he was teas- wandered abroad over the country buying her. side of the neck, a little back of the centre, ed about his garb, that according to Solomon rags, old bones, etc., bundles of which were and passed entirely through, breaking the there was nothing new under the sun, and carried by a poor starved ass, the sole living I've seen it tried a dozen times, and it most spinal column. The fire was making such that as to color, it was a mere matter of fan-creature belonging to him. The only food progress that Booth was taken out of the cy. Concerning washing, he said that no he allowed this wretched quadruped was the building and carried a short distance and man deserved a clean shirt who could not grass that grew at the side of the reads in placed under a tree. He began to show wash it himself; and that the only fault he their many wanderings, or a bundle of forage the same as a child or a woman, and I kn signs of life. Water was dashed in his face | had to find with Lord North was the duty he | abstracted from some farm-place. Taylor's "Let me out, Captain. I will do anything and a little poured in his mouth. His lips imposed upon soap. There was one expense, food consisted of whatever he could beg, door was opened, Garrett came out with a "Tell mother-tell mother." He seemed to and often robbed him of a night's rest, and the fields, some mussels or other shell-fish bound, and the door was again closed. Lieu- gain further strength, and then in a more that was shaving. He often lamented that laboriously gathered on the shore, broken used to console husself under this affliction | bage stalks-anything, in short, that would Day was breaking, and the heat from the | by hoping that one day beards would become | stop the cravings of a naturally healthy ap-ringing tone, "Captain, there is a man in you will recover. You were shot against or- jous to buy, and after he had collected a were outdone by Joe, who with greedy cahere who wishes to surrender very much." ders." He then was unconscious for several number of these he sold them for waste-pa- gerness managed to clutch a peck or two, their business At the same time a conversation took place minutes, when he again revived. His chest per. When he heard an accidental rumor which he sold next day in the town. After A black horse is hard to train, for the rea-WE have already ordered our Boots within, and Booth was heard to say to heaved, his chin dropped; he put out his that the bank in which his money was had his death, which was hastened by a violent son that you can't make a black horse a bay. and Shows for the coming season, which Harold, "D-n you, leave me, will you? tongue and seemed to know if there failed, he shook from head to foot, and took cold caught in an unusually long ramble, his reflect that your mother's slipper was the The same of the country and shown in the same of the s WE have still on hand a small assert of the soft of the control of the long are offering at greatly reduced prices, in order to get a bargain, as they will not last long at the period of the was an asking for them.

The lieutenant Baker said: "Bring out the showed no signs of life in his body below the wound, with the exception of the longs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. He said: "My body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. The said is the said: "It was thought from your face that you was a desent person," remarked a bright a fire in his room or go to bed by can be body below the wound, with the exception of the action of the lungs. In a corner of the hovel, under a stone of the body below the wound are offered at the cost of an arms and you can come." He replied, "I would see it has fire in his room or go to bed by can be stone of the body below the wound, with the exception of the lungs. In a corner of the hovel, under a stone of the body below the wound are offered at the cost." He showed no signs of life in his light a fire in his room or go to bed by can be stone of the and we will let you out." Booth then said: he could see it, and it was bathed in ice cold "I thought from your face that you were that Joe in the course of his many years dep"He has no arms; they are mine and I will water. His hand was placed by his side, the demon of extravagance to purchase a that Joe in the course of his many years depwater. His name was placed by his side, the demon of extravagance to purchase a that foe in the course of its many years and he said: "Useless, useless!" which were the last words of the dying assassin.

While this parleying was going on Colonel the last words of the dying assassin.

Income in the course of its many years department of a stray spoon wretch was on the train the cars did not run off the track of the locomotive burst its

Advertising Rates. The large and reliable circulation of the Cam-mara Francian commends it to the favorable con-sideration of advertisers, whose favors will be in-serted at the following low rates:

1 inch, 3 times. f months... 1 " 1 year. Administrator's and Executor's Notices Angitor's Notices. Stray and similar Notices.

 Resolutions or proceeding of any resolety, and communications designed !

quite possible that in Joe's visits to the

A CONVICT'S GENEROSITY.

PRISONER IN THE EASTERN PENTIENTIARY SENDS FIVE DOLLARS TO THE-

LAND'S POOR The Philadelphia Times says that Warden A very old almanac. One old chair and and in a letter written by the denor the wretched table. A small looking-glass. And charitable gift was enclosed and mailed to the country in which the poor fellow was A miser of even more penurious habits born. A few weeks clapsed and the Nun of > County Kerry, March 3, 1880. not receive a letter that affected me so deep-ly as yours, written as it was from your prison cell, and from there thinking of the has dore this generous act cannot be a bac one, and whatever not you have committed nive been done in a thoughtless hour. Max

I am sending you a little book by this post

Just as he ceased speaking Colonel Con- An old clergyman of very mean habits got death he never allowed himself more than clanking of the prison gates all memory of When within about ten feet of the opening There was a Thomas Pett who died in One of the richest escritoires was found to be return to this place, and since he has been up one hand, dropped his carbine, and fell don at the age of ten, with one shilling in pounds was disinterred; and in an old jack- long to that criminal class which necessitate

> CURIOUS FACTS ABOUT LOCOMOTIVES .motive has been off for three or four days," said a railroad man at the Union depot the

"Go and ask him."

then in reply to the query he said:
"It is a queer thing. There's my engin and spluttering and acting as if she wante to pick a fuss with a gravel pit."

"Anything out of gear?"
"Not a thing. She's been hooked over

Put her before a freight or stock train. always worked well. oright as a new dollar and as handsome as :

Tur following funny graphs are taken from Home rule-Your wife's opinion. Good doctors are apt to be rapped up in