CENTERT OF THE RECEIPTS

THE LABOR APPLY 1878, OF THE BOROVOIL OF and out we per wonehers __$19.$1 and out we per wonehers __$19.$1 and out we per wonehers __$19.$1 win hands of Treasurer. . . . . 9 47.81

TEMENT OF THE RECEIPTS.

TYPEN PATE BES OF BLACKLICK TOWN

Rand Emplicate . . . . . $119.98 plants Calanty Tersenter, 107.12 plants James g Supervin, 10.21—$446.11

the least Andrews of Blacklick town-ing fractive base standard the accounts for home! Supervisors and for them Privilly the PRIVIS. Anditors. This I LAVIS.

TEMENT OF THE RECEIPTS

..... Illiant of Collector, Div.

SPENIGRURES OF GALISTEN BON-was I han College many 525.84 triumed Auditors, have examined the Collector and Frenswerr, and

by S. A. Criefe, Rose

DUTOU'S NOTICE .- Feter Ger-

DITOR'S NOTICE .- 48 THE

July E .- In the unitier of the ap-

ECUTORS NOTICE.

SHAISTRATORS! NOTICE.

LAMES BOLAND, Excentor

DEVIAN. Administrator.

The undersigned offers him-

CHALL DICK, Auditor.

BRAWLEY, Erstuiers.

18.74-9110.11

part C. Arikin, Supervisor, Da.

Peace Runs, Supervisor, Dr.

Louising Minnier, Treasurer, Dr.

Batteman. Cambria &

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES RESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

VOLUME XIV.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1880.

NUMBER 15.

IN THE TWILIGHT.

BY W. R. CANEBOX.

As we grow old, our yesterdays Seem very dim and distant; We grope, as those in darken'd ways, Through all that is existent ; Yet far-off days shine bright and clear With suns that long have faded,

And faces dead seem strangely near To those that life has shaded. As we grow old our tears are few For friends most lately taken. But fall-as falls the summer dew

From roses lightly shaken-When some chance word or idle strain, The chords of memory sweeping. Unlock the flood grates of our pain For those who taught us weeping. As we grow old our emfles are rare

To those who great us daily, Or, if some living faces wear The looks that beamed so guily From eyes long closed-and we should smile In answer to their wooing-Tie but the past that shines the while,

As we grow old our dreams at night Are never of the morrow: They come with vanished pleasure bright, Or dark with olden serrow :

Our power to smile renewing.

And when we wake the names we say Are not of any mertals. But of those in some long dead day Passed through life's sunset's portais.

AN UNEXPECTED CLUE.

A STORY OF CIRCUMSTANTIAL EVIDENCE. As the Rev. John Craig was returning home to Weston-Super-Mare, in the west of England, on the night of September 12, 1831, he was accosted by a young man in the garb o'clock, and there was sufficient light to ena- by the farmer. ble the clergyman to take a good look at the sailer. He was above the medium height, with a smooth face, dark curly hair, and a small sear above the left eyebrow. He carried a thick stick in his right hand with a dog's head on the top. The clergyman rode | the farmer. on, and the sailor pursued his course in the The man in the rear drew Crafts' hands and Vice President of the United States.

same direction. Soon after daylight on the morning of still pointed the pistol at his head. Sept. 13th, James Buller, a wealthy resident of Weston, was found murdered in his bed dexterously slipped a gag into Crafts' mouth the plaintiff quoted Blackstone. The opposroom. He was a widower with one daugh- and tied it behind. ter, Emily, aged eighteen, a very lovely girl. Mr. Buller's skull had been fractured with | Yourdon't make too much noise."

pounds sterling were missing. A search of the premises discloscony. Among the bushes in the garden was was standing by. found a stick with a dog's head for a handle. and that he carried a stick precisely similar and another man came out. the fatal wound had been inflicted with the steal all your money out of the till if you still; you mix them up so with preposito the one found. There was no doubt that stick, for the bair on the top of it correspond. | don't look out,"

ed with that of the murdered man. Constables were sent off in pursuit of the the shop, and looked around as though sur- some," was all I could say. supposed murderer. He was traced to Bris- prised at Crafts' absence. tol; but there the officers lost sight of him. Several ships had sailed early that morning, but whether the young man had left on any of them could not be ascertained.

will specified that in case he died she should cab. come into possession of the property at the age of eighteen, was virtually mistress of a for the other fellow." plendid domain. She received several offers | The two men entered the store and walked of marriage, but rejected them all, and kept to the rear. Each carried a pistol ready Soon strange things were whispered bear with full force against the door and around, and at length it was openly said that | burst it in.

the young lady at the Oaks, as the dwelling A man sprang from a couch at the far end all respectable people in the neighborhood. other foot and I'll shoot you like a dog." him christened Charles Ransom, and an nearest pistol. The farmer and his compan-

One month later, that is in July, 1832, a been. person was arrested in Bristol answering to The detectives had ascertained that these sank to the earth. He solemnly averred his | which had proved so successful. ALTOONA, PA. with a dog's head handle, and said that he tors of the murder of Mr. Buller. In their between the above named places, accidentalhad lost it, he didn't know where.

> the same smooth face, the dark, curly hair, bearing Mr. Buller's name. and the scar over the left eye.

Castle with the stick in his possession the ccuted. afternoon preceding the murder, and that he did not return until four o'clock the next | ter's connection with this strange history. morning, his excuse being that he wanted to a country road.

sentenced to be hanged.

when Mr. Buller was murdered a man who stick, intending to recover it on his quitting ways of Providence and wondering how it gave the name of Crafts deposited £3,000 in the premises. On his leaving his wife, soon the bank, saying that he was going to start after two o'clock on the morning of Septemwould have been with his soul if he had not in notes, the manager examined the notes utterly ignorant of what had happened at the young captain in a charmingly decorated recarefully. He found that they had been Caks while he was under its roof. counted and arranged £100 at a time, and His wife had promised to write, but he re- In an adjoining room, with door open, were "Thus the apparition had been seen three between each lot a small piece of paper was ceived no letter, greatly to his astonishment. the rest of the company. Said the little placed right in the centre. On one of these She, in her turn, was horror-stricken at her niece in a jealous and very audible voice, the only one of these She, in her turn, was horror-stricken at her niece in a jealous and very audible voice, the only one of these samples of the company. placed right in the centre. On one of these She, in her turn, was horror-stricken at her niece in a jealous and very audible voice, the only one, however, that has seen its

Sheriff that, instead of ordering the execu- It is needless to say that the young couple tion of Carter to proceed within five days, were happily re-united. the Court deferred it for thirty, in order that inquiry might be made. Crafts, it was found, had really opened a | rlous facts are mentioned in a recent lecture saddlery in a back street in Exeter. His by Chief Justice Horton, of Kansas, before place was watched, and several suspicious | the Atchison Institute : tol to Mr. Buller.

narrating struck him as important.

bought a pair of hames. Back of the store twelve signs in the zodiac. In all times the was a room with a door, the upper part of number twelve has been regarded as an imwhich was of stained glass.

While the supposed farmer was counting | twelve persons was necessary to convict. out the money from a leathern purse, another threw on the counter.

lar right back of you?"

round and examine it." The last comer walked round the counter and appeared to be examining the collar. determine perplexing cases by chance. An of a sailor, who asked the time. It was nine | Crafts was counting the money just laid out | Indiana judge once had a number of cases to ed Crafts, and at the same moment the ward that they were the best decisions he farmer in front thrust a pistol into his face. signal, and I'll blow your brains out," said behind him and manacled him. The farmer "Make all sure," he said, and the wagoner room was rifled and some three thousand | wagoner turned his prisoner toward it and | a book written by a man who had kissed the | time the servant did come, I had almost | declivities with ruts in them sufficient to try the farmer moved along with the pistol still bloody hand of George III. At the close of persuaded myself that the whole affair was the springs of the strongest vehicles—imready for use. The farmer opened the door, that some person had entered by a small and the next moment the saddler was in the balcony from the garden. There were marks clutches of two men outside, who placed him court. He gave judgment for the defendant were marks made about my not ed home the time had not yet come for the of footsteps beneath and soil was on the bal- in a coach and drove off. Another coach and declared that if the attorney for the looking well; it was observed that I was idea to be fully developed, it was destined which was covered with blood and hair. The the wagoner re-entered the shop. Then the him for contempt. fact came to Mr. Craig, who testified that he farmer knocked foundly on the counter .had met the young sailor the night before Presently the door in the rear was opened. "Come, man," said the farmer, "we'll

The new comer descended the few steps to "Let me look at those stirrups," the farmhis companion asked to look at the collar behind the man. Permission was given, and Those were not the days of steamboats in a few moments the second man was in the said." and telegraphs, and all the authorities could | same position as Crafts find been in a few do was to wait patiently and see what would inhutes before. Manacled, gagged and keeping. threatened with instant death if he resisted By the death of her father Emily Buller or gave an alarm, he was led out, placed in had become heiress to his estate, and as the the charge of two men and driven off in a

"Now," said the farmer, "we can go right cocked. The farmer brought his body to was called, would become a mother. This of a long, badly-lighted room, and made a event did actually happen in June, 1832, rush for three pistols which lay on the table.

Immediately after the child's birth she had | The man, nothing daunted, seized the nounced that she had been secretly married | Ion fired simultaneously, and the man fell to the father, who bore the same name. Who | with his arm broken. Then the two officers, he was or anything about him she refused to for such they were, seized and bound him, and he was removed as the two others had I right? I am anxious to speak English the description of the young sailor who was three men were notorious thieves, burglars tion this time." supposed to be the murderer of Mr. Buller. | and murderers, who had taken every precau-The Dover Castle, a West Indian trader, had | tion to prevent capture. In a series of years | man, her son, is a fine young fellow; a just arrived in port, and he was captured as they had operated in the midland counties he put his foot ashore. Investigation show. and escaped arrest. A former associate had ed that the Dover Castle sailed from Bristol | informed the authorities that they had re- Good-day." on the morning of Sept. 31, 1831, the day ar- solved to kill any officer who attempted to take them, and for that purpose wore conformed that Mr. Buller was the victum he to injure him, and he had devised the plan | held protracted meetings not far from Port keeping on the day of the murder a stick | three men were proven to be the perpetra. | a heavy load behind them over the bad roads When confronted with Mr. Craig the lat. from Mr. Buller's desk on the night of the covertly following behind. The convert ter instantly identified him as the sailor who | murder, and moreover Crafts was easily | could not imagine the cause of such strange had met him near Weston on the night of the , identified as the man who deposited the three | conduct, but thought he would keep an eye crime and asked him the time. There was thousand pounds with the slip of paper on his movements. For two or three miles placed right in the centre. On one of these scraps there was writing, and with a care husband's supposed crime, for she believed thus band's supposed crime, for she believed thus band is supposed crime, for she believed thus band is supposed the same believed that a long supposed crime, for she believed thus band is supposed to the same believed that a long supposed crime, for she believed thus band is supposed to the same believed that a long supposed crime, for she believed that a long supposed to the same believed to the same peculiar to the manager he had placed the that by some strange and inexpicable thing had happened. "You should say the same room by any one else." scrap in a small drawer with other like odds | change, Ransom had suddenly become a twice, Ethel, dear; two is not grammar," and ends. Having need to go the drawer a murderer and a thief, and had quitted the was the immediate rejoinder.

few days after, he saw the slip of paper and country never to return; thereupon she the name "Buller" written out in a bold hand | never wrote to him, for how could she hold attracted his attention. He had just read an Intercourse with the man who had stain her account of the trial which was in progress in father, although he was her husband? Ran-Gloucester, and the singular facts he was som had shipped under the name of Carter, and she hoped and prayed his whereabouts

They were deemed so important by the would never be discovered.

JURIES AND JUDGES - The following cu-

looking personages were seen to go in and Four hundred years ago, at least, the presout. The scrap of paper was identified as ent jury system was adopted. An old tract part of a letter written by a lawyer in Bris- says the jury of twelve was adopted because the prophets were twelve, the apostles num-On October 27th, 1832, the detective, who bered twelve, there were twelve Jewish had been summoned from London to inves- judges, twelve pillars of the temple, twelve tigate the Crafts matter, called at his sad- patriarchs, twelve tribes of Israel, twelve dlery store disguised as a farmer. He in- stones in Aaron's breast-plate, twelve gates quired the price of certain harness, and of Jerusalem, twelve months of the year, and

When juries were first established, the man entered the store. He was short and judge took the jurors about with him in a thick set, and looked like a wagoner. Over cart until they agreed. If they didn't agree, his shoulders was some harness, which he they were fined and imprisoned. William Penn was once prosecuted in London for "Mister," he said to the saddler, "have street preaching. The jury was locked up you any objections to my looking at that col. | without meat, drink or fire to find a verdiet. They declared Penn not guilty, and the judge "None whatever," said Crafts. "Come sentenced each of them to pay a fine. Juries are not now compelled to agree.

An Ohio judge was a fatalist, and used to pass upon, and he gave decision turn about In an instant the man back of him pinion- for plaintiff and defendant, declaring afterever made, as every one of them was sus-"Utter a cry, or move, or give the least tained by the supreme court. General Bela M. Hughes told an ancedote of David R. Atchison, who was a senator from Missouri He was a district judge in Missouri before he was a senator, and was holding a term of the on the shoulder. The hand felt icy cold, court in a frontier county. The lawyer for ing counsel, in reply, said he was astonished gone than before, and began to be very them. Each fresh episode in the journey, "Now march," said the farmer, "and see that his learned brother should quote from an English law-book, written by an English | make her appearance. Whether I slept places impossible for carriages to pass, riv-The farmer pointed to the door. The nobleman, in an American court of Justicehis speech Judge Atchison declared that he nothing but a very vivid nightmare. How, pressed the thought more and more strongly plaintiff ever again read in his hearing a book | pate. In answer I told my cousins that I | at a later period to bear fruit. In the mean-"Now, then," said the farmer, and he and written by a red-coated Tory he would fine had a most vivid registmare, and I remarked, time he employed himself in a variety of

> OUR VERBS .- "I begin to understand your language better," said my French friend, Mr. Dubois, to me, "but your verbs trouble me

> "I am sorry you find them so trouble-

"I saw your friend Mrs. Murkeson just now," be continued. "She says she latends er said, and while he was examining them to break down housekeeping; am I right

"Break up housekeeping, she must have "Ohd yes, I remember; break up house-

"Why does she do that?" I asked.

"Because her health is broken into," "Broken down." Broken down? Ob, yes! And, indeed, since the small-pox has broken up in our

"She thinks she will leave for a few wenter."

"Will she leave her house alone "" "No, she is afraid it will be broken-broken-how do I say that?" "Broken into."

"Certainly, it is what I meant to say," Is her son to be married soon ?" "No, the engagement is broken-broken-"Realesn off ?"

"Yes, broken off." "Ah, I had not heard of that." "She is very sorry about it. Her you only broke the news down to her last week. Am girl.

"He merely broke the news; no preposi-

"It is hard to understand. That young

STANDING THE TEST, -The following is a good one in the way of a religious test-good breaker, I think." "A broker, and a very fine young fellow.

So much for the verb "to break," because it is true. A minister not long since Austin and Bad Axe, Mich. One day one innocence, but admitted that he had in his But the most important fact was that these of his converts, while driving his oxen with possession were found documents missing ly looked back and discovered his pastor the man of holy orders hung on the rear of They were tried, convicted and sentenced the slowly moving exen. Now eronching It was proved that he had left the Dover | to be hanged, and the sentence was duly ex- | behind stumps, now moving like a phantom through the skirting forest, occasionally Now comes the explanation of young Car- spurring like a quarter horse across some open space to gain the cover of some friend-Miss Emily Buller had been at school at ly fence to keep the field side like a stray morning, his excuse being that he wanted to sound the last night at home with his relasound the last night a lives. It was also shown that his shoes were she made the acquaintance of one Charles through cat-tails, crawling behind logs, dusty, as though he had been walking along Ransom, a handsome youth a few years older | bounding over pools of water-the pastoral than herself. They were secretly married legs seemed equal to any emergency. All Carter persisted in his denial of all knowl. and immediately separated. Soon after this the while the pursuer kept ever near, ever at the same time the child passed from the ten to give him his instructions how to read. Carter persisted in his denial of all knowl. and managinated. Some kits to give him his instructions how to read edge of the murder, but was convicted and. Ransom quarreled with his stepfather and eager, ever listening finally straightening up window into the room of her (my consin's). The boy compiled, and in his best accent be went to sea. After an absence of over a and calling the brother driving the team by sister A-, and the latter, as she afterward gan-"And the Lord spake unto Moses, say-What had become of the money taken on year be returned, and found means of see. name: "Brother —, I have followed you declared, distinctly saw the figure of a child ing tick, speak unto the children of Israel, the night of the murder was not disclosed on ling his wife. The very last night of his stay two miles to find out whether you would on shore he went to Weston, and was secretswear at them oxen. I am satisfied the Lord table in her room. She spoke to it, and it say note them, tick, tick, tick, tick, tick. This the trial.

The very day on which Carter was sentenced the Sheriff of Gloucester received a tenced the Sheriff cess. On her knee was a diminutive niece. gone.

WAS IT A NIGHTMARE?

A young English lady, who is said to possess remarkable intelligence and hereditary acumen, relates in Notes and Queries the fol. in the career of John Metcalfe, of Knaresold Yorkshire mansion :

'Imprened to myself while staying with rule, the loss of sight shatters the whole some North-country cousins, last July, at framework of the mind and body, and the their home in Yorkshire. I had spent a few child grows up selfish and moody, becoming days there in the summer of the previous day by day more silent, reserved, hervous year, but without then hearing or seeing and discontented. The very reverse of this anything out of the common. On my second was the case with little John Metcalfe; no visit, arriving early in the afternoon, I went | boy ever entered into the sports of noyhood out boating with some of the family, spent with a keener relish than he; he was a prea very jolly evening, and finally went to bed ficient climber and birds' nester; he knew a little tired with the day's work, but not | how to ride and manage a horse; and enjoythe least nervous. I slept soundly until he ed a good gallop; he knew how to swim, tween three and four, just when the day was and on one occasion saved the lives of three a short time, when suddenly the door of my a man after whom he had dived to the botbedroom opened and shut again rather tom of the river Nidd four times. Nor was quickly. I fancied it might be one of the be less apt at indoor than outdoor amuseservants, and called out, 'Come in.' After ments; he could play the violin with cona short time the door opened again, but no siderable skill, and amuse himself in such a portant number. In early ages the oath of one came in-at least, no one that I could variety of ways that time never hung heavily opened for the second time, I was a little himself to useful pursuits, made a little startled by the rustling of some curtains be. money and was rich enough to buy a horse longing to a hanging wardrobe, which stood of his own, on which he constantly followed by the side of the bed; the rustling con- the hounds, and was as hold and daring a tinued, and I was seized with a most uncomfortable feeling, not exactly of fright, but a for a race and won it, to the chagrin of many strange, unearthly sensation that I was not alone. I had that feeling for some minutes, when I saw at the foot of the bed a child, about seven or nine years old. The child seemed as if it were on the bed, and came miles, on an unknown road; and what is gliding toward me as I lay. It was the more extraordinary, and would be incredible figure of a little girl in her night dress-a little girl with dark hair and a very white story is told, he accomplished the distance in face. I tried to speak to her, but could not.

She came slowly on up to the top of the bed, and I then saw her face clearly. She seemed in great trouble; her bands were clasped, and her eyes were turned up with a look of entreaty-an almost agonized look. Then, slowly unclasping her hands, she touched the time upon this subject, except that my dances and public assemblies, kept a vehicle host, who was a doctor, observed that I had for hire, then started in business as a fish better not sleep in the room again, at any So the following night one of my consins slept in the same room with me. Neither of between Knavesborough and York, starting us saw or heard anything out of the way the first stage wagon on that road .- Heroes during that night or the early morning. That being the ease, I persuaded myself that what I had seen had been only imagination, and, much against everybody's ex. X. Bloomington, writes: - When is the pressed wish, I insisted the next night on best time to make verbena beds ?" sleeping in the room again, and alone. Accordingly, baving retired again to the same up. That's the time other beds are made, room, I was kneeling down at the bedside to after the people are out of them. say my prayers, when exactly the same the same sensation as previously that I was best advantage? not alone. I felt too frightened to stir, when, Rag weed. Its a dead sure cure, and you luckily for me, one of my cousins came in for won't have to break your back keeping the something which she had left. On looking other weeds out of it. at me she exclaimed : 'Have you seen anything?" I said 'No,' but told her how I felt; and, without much persuasion being what had happened (asshedid inquediately) Cut the board about the length of the roost she told me that I must not sleep in that you are going to raise the heav from, press room again, as the nightmare bud made such the warm edge up against their feet, and an impression on me I should imagine, she there you have 'em. Don't give it away.

was alluded to only as my 'nightmare."

"In this I afterward found there was a do so, but-however that wasn't what you little reticence, for, just before leaving my asked about uncle's, my cousin said to me : 'I must tell Miss Ethel Effingum writes from Galison. you something I have been longing to tell Ohlo: "I think I have found the solution you ever since I left home. But my father of the fift-" desired me not to tell you, as, not being Etnel, if you, or anybody else, writes very strong, you might be too frightened. another line to this paper about that device Your nightmare was not nightmare at all, of the evil one for destroying human reason but the apparition of a little girl.' She then und domestic peace, there will be an encov went on to tell me that this 'little girl' had plenipotentiary from this office prowling been seen three times before, by three dif. around Galison with a sand club. You ferent members of the family, but as this was | throw that drendful box over the fence and some time or ten years since, they had at soak your pretty little head, and write us

ter the first night of my second visit. 'My cousin further went on to tell me that her younger sister whilst in bed luid | "SAY TICK."-A country schoolmaster one morning, about daybreak, to her great once told his pupils to say "tick" when they standing with her back to her, looking out | when they should come to a sensicolen; "tick, of the window. She took this figure for her tick, tick" for a colon, "tick, tick, tick, tick" little sister and spoke to it. The child not for a period, or full point. The purish minreplying or moving from her position, she later having sent word that he would visit called out to it, 'It's no use standing like | the school the next day, the teacher told the that; I know you; you can't play tricks pupils to leave out the "ticks" in reading, saw her little sister, the one she thought she | so happened that the first boy called up by was addressing, and who was sleeping with the minister had been absent the preceding her, had not moved from the hed. Almost day, and in the hurry the master had forgutwith dark hair standing by the side of a saying tick, tick, and thus shalt thou Good morning! And the good man walked before I saw it, by my cousin's father, Dr. and his friends almost died of laughter.

A NARROW escape -- A fire ladder.

The large and reliable circulation of the Cam-pula Farewan commends it to the law rable con-sideration of advertisers, whose favors will be in-serted at the following low rates:

Advertising Rates.

8 months 6 months. 1 year 6 months 1 year 6 months dministrator's and Executor's Notices

Resolutions or proceeding of any corporation or society, and communications designed to call atten-tion to any matter of limited in individual interest, must be paid for an advertisements.

Jon Printing of all kind neatly and expediti-usly executed at lowest prices. Don't you forget

BLIND METCALFE, THE ENGINEER. One of the most extraordinary instances of victory over adverse circumstances is found lowing strange personal experience in an borough, the well known engineer and road maker. He was fully deprived of sight by "What I am going to relate," she says, small-pox when only six years old. As a rinning to break. I had been awake for of his companions, and on another the life of Almost at the same time that the door upon his hands. As he grew up he devoted rider as any in the field. He even entered who had laid long odds against him.

Among the feats which proved his courage and sagacity was a walk from London to Harrowgate, a distance of two hundred but for the good authority on which the the same time it took a Colonel Lindell to perform the journey by coach. It should be mentioned that the roads were in a terrible state of dilapidation, rendering coach traveling slow and very bazardous work. During this journey with his mind undisturbed by objects which distract or engage the thoughts of seeing men, Metcalfe considered the state and while I strove to speak she was gone. of the roads, revolving in his mired whether I felt more frightened after the child was something might not be done to improve anxious for the time when the servant would each new difficulty-as such as deep marshy if I was a believer in ghosts, I should imagine ways in order to procure a livelihood, and I had seen one. Nothing more was said at amongst other things played the violin at salesman, enlisted and gained many volunteer recruits, afterwards dealt in hosiers, then in horses, and finally became a carrier

BOR BURDETT'S MUSHERY.-Mrs. L. M.

Well, we suppose after the verbenas are

Mrs. Mulhooly, of Eigria, Ohio, says: "I dread as before came over me. The curtains have a very small garden, only about fifteen of the wardrobe swayed about, and I had feet square. What can I plant in it to the

John Stuby writes from Laneaster, Obio

"What is the best thing to raise bens on?" In confidence, John, in strict confidence, a necessary, I left the room with her, and pine board with the edge heated hot. Its never returned to it, When my host learned the best thing to raise hens on you ever tried.

said, all sorts of things, and make myself. Marcus Wachenhelmer, a commercial quite ill. I went to another room and dur. travelet from Dunkirk, wants to know : ing the rest of my visit-a week-I was not "Can a railroad conductor put me off the troubled by any reappearance of the little train because he can't change the bill with which I offer to pay my fare "" "On leaving, my cousin, the oldest daugh. He can, Marcus, most assuredly he can, ter of the doctor, went on a visit with me to If he carries the breadth of beam the conthe house of an uncle of mine in the same ductors usually do, he cannot only put you county. We stald there for about a fort. off, but he can throw you half way across night, and during that time the filtle girl. The prairie, and make you think the train has run over you. He may have no right to most ceased to think anything about it until some nice poetry about life being a river or I related my experiences on the morning af. something of that sort, and we'll talk to you -Rarlington Hawkeys.

urprise, seen a little girl with dark bair, came to a comma in reading; "tick, tick Kicking.

Conxing. Pleading with ma,

Hustling around 'till things bubble and sizz. And look for the woman that brought out the bang.

. Mais for the office of Profices in devian of the coming Dense inten, and, if nominated an exact to persons the duties of PROTHONOTARY .- The un-BHOESLARER. THE LEGISLATURE .- I here-Turch 19, 1883-1-4.*

Don't part with your money until you know the truth. Interested parties are CONC. Law of Difference flore, name Acte. mpath | sensed prior to had setspreading the reports that MR. JOHN WANAMAKER is not interested in the 17.58-9102.08 old and famous OAK HALL Clothing over iver stabilities 3, 6.25 the results that we have examined the business and does not personally direct its affairs.

Nothing could be more Untrue! Mr. JOHN WANAMAKER has prein the past. WANAMAKER & BROWN is what it has been ever since Mr. Brown died, 12

cisely the same relations to Oak Hall as years ago. Mr. JOHN WANAMAKER personally watches over the faithful preparation of the stock of MEN'S AND BOYS' CLOTHING, and the conducting of the store. Nothing is allowed to pass his eye that is not straightforward and true to the interest of those who have patronized the house for 19 years and depend on its reliability. From all appearances the year 1880 is to be the largest in sales ever known. The READYMADE Department is Better Stocked! The BOYS' Department is Better Stocked!! The CUSTOM Department is Better Stocked!!!

The SHIRT Department is Better Stocked!!!! All this will be apparent on FIRST SIGHT! Please call whenever you can and look through this BEEHIVE of a Building, so busy with its Hundreds of Workpeople and Customers. Do not forget that Clothing of the W. & B. make will stand better service than any other that can be got and that it does not cost any more (if as much) as other makes.

WANAMAKER & BROWN,

SIXTH AND MARKET STREETS, OAK HALL.

JUST REMOVED

TO THE LARGE AND ELEGANT STORE ROOM

IN C. JAGGARD'S NEW BRICK BLOCK, 1306 ELEVENTH AVENUE.

2 DOORS ABOVE EBERT'S MUSIC STORE, ALTOONA, PA. much to the surprise and consternation of "Hold!" said the farmer; "move but an-NUTRINATAL AUDITOR

GENT'S FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS, &c.,

KEYSTONE CLOTHING HALL! And baying filled it to repletion with new and seasonable goods, I have no hesitation in saying to my ter the murder of Mr. Buller.

Respectfully, &c., CHARLES SIMON,

NEW MILLINERY And Fancy Goods Store AT 281 MAIN ST., JOHNSTOWN, PA.

TRIMMED AND UNTRIMMED HATS. Laces, Embroideries, Trimmings, Ribbons,

All kinds of Hair Goods, &c., &c., Of the LATEST DESIGNS and BEST TEXTURES, which we will sell at prices that cannot fall to benefit all who favor us with their custom. Also,

Rustic and Polished FRAMES of all sizes. BE-New Goods of the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

Milling and the good man walked before I saw it, by my constitute the contentedly back. The man with the oxen tended to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

Devonshire, saying that just about the time to be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

He contented to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

Leaning against the window, he left his divided to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

Leaning against the window, he left his divided to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

He contented to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

He contented to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

He contented to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day, and a first-class letter from the manager of a bank in Exeter, quently entered.

He contented to all the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day and a first class of the latest styles and at popular prices will be received every day and at popular prices will be received every day and at popular prices will be received every day and at popular prices will be received every day and at popular prices will be received every day an

NOTE: The above relates only to our Branch Store in Johnstown, but it abould not be torgotten by those who do their shopping in Altona that our old-established Store is at LECT Eleventh Avenue, where we keep a large and varied stork consisting of DRY GOUDS, CARIFETS, PANCY GOUDS, MILLINERY GOUDS, RATS, CAPS, &c., &c., which we will at prices that price

THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA. PHILADELPHIA.

Between 13th and 14th Streets,

WHERE HE IS NOW OPENING A SPLENDID LINE OF CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS,

Which he guarantees to sell at the Lowest Prices known to the Retail Trade.

Being non in possession of the largest and handsomest clothing Store in the City of Altoona, which will henceforth be known as the ter the murder of Mr. Buller.

Itake them, and for that purpose were concealed weapons, and kept them close at hand.

The young man, who gave his name as same than the purphase or not, as I and my efficient salemen will not only take in showing them around our handsome new stres room and quoting the pieces of our elegant between the purphase or not, as I and my efficient salemen will not only take.

The young man, who gave his name as Samuel Carter, expressed surprise when told handled the carting from the past, and hoping by honest and he was arrested for murder, but when in-Thanking my many friends for their liberal patronage in the past, and hoping by honest and the was arrested for murder, but when inthe many friends for their liberal patronage in the past, and hoping by honest and the was arrested for murder, but when inthe many friends for their liberal patronage in the past, and hoping by honest and the was arrested for murder, but when in-

WE HAVE JUST OPENED A

And respectfully invite the Ladies of Cambria and adjoining counties to give

BLACK CRAPES, SILKS, Silk Velvets, Ornaments,

CORN & CO.'S BRANCH STORE,