

A R. CONTRACTOR . LAN 14 John Troxel ... 14 F. J. Schristy... 7.00

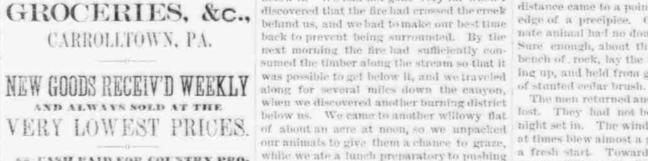

TARE SOTICE, all who are concerned in this approximates on the second state of the concernent, that an appeal will be held at the Concernent, that an appeal will be held at the Concernent, that an appeal will be held at the second state of the se distance I'm a'r Alebor th

May 7 1880.44.

Contrationalist only a been you may attend if you think proper, FUANE W. (MURLEY, Automation) 44 G. W. Waganer, 7,09 a T. O. Stewart & 1) Fighler & Lever-Notice to Taxpayers. 14 Hindy & Nulla ninn wolf. . Hechstein, A. M. Kuntz, Ino Libert & So It Brinker & on Cramer .

AD TASH PAID FOR COUNTRY PRO-M. Jehnslott DFCB when Goods are not desired. COUNTY, STATE AND POOR TAXES J. W. SHARPAUGH & BRO. Carrolltown, March 19, 1880.-11. with Hornigh. ton Township Manufacturer and Dealer In or to C t Constantingh Borough HOME AND CITY MADE Wieni, Jolintown Borough K-enned VA CAM PARLOR AND CHAMBER SUITS, ont: Comenantly Ward, Miltrilla LOUNGES, BEDSTEADS. est Horongh. p), Cambria Rorongi TABLES, CHAIRS, monitole Borough of Yoster Downship MATTRESSES, &c., oder Towaship. 1605 ELEVENTH AVENUE. Borough, gheny Township, rzin Township, Between 16th and 17th Sts., Springs Borough. Altoona Penn'a. a moment before was a bed of smouldering #2" Ultimous of Combrin county and all others visiting to purchase housest FURNITURE, &c., at embers, now became a bissing, crackling homest prices are respectfully invited to give mean call before larging clowhere, as I am confident that I can must every ward and please every tosts. Prices the very lowest. B. J. LYNCH. Altown, April 16, 1880-40. Telli Melkonalda, Co. Telli W. W. MoAteur of a burning log. The pack lashed to him arr Township, klick Township, Weids that monot of was soon affre. I had been foolish enough TOUGH II. W. MITTING. in Township, and, Ebensburg Boro' INCORPORATED IN 1857. to take with me into this place a sixteenpound can of blasting powder, wrapped in a STRICTLY ON MUTUAL PLAN TOTAL SCREENSERVIEW TOTAL guuny-sack, which I had strapped to that Taylor Township, mule. Here was a new and terrible danger PROTECTION MUTUAL Saturday, Ameriat 14, Mame Townshin, threatening us. How to get the can of pow-Filler 14 June 10 Follow, ... der off that mule before some flying spark And, in generalization with the Second . nevall taxie reaid to the Treasurer of a structure methodologies. noment was fraught with terror, for if it much Toy 14 John Riffle. off taxes and placed in the hands of an offection. ANDREW YEAGHEY hould explode while we were heramed in OF EBENSBURG, PA. with fallen timber on every side some lives Co. Treasurer's Office, Ebensburg, May 4, 1889, 4t (g. 7.0031 R. M. Johnston W. 7.07 & Co. Sciences Premium Notes now in force - $123,000. TINIAL LIST .- Causes set down for COMPANY TOTAL STREET, A trial at a Court of Common Pleas to be held at Ebenatoring, for the county of Cambria, cont menting on Monday, June 7, 2000; Only Five Assessments in 22 Years. investories monthereise. parts 1,00714 John Schroth. VINCT WARK. NO STEAM MILLS TAKEN. Cambrin County vs. Trenking; McEwen vs. Long. CONTRACTOR OF THE PARTY OF THE (4.3) 34 John B. Clarke, 7.09 Silcowe willing.
Francis Cooper vs. Lewis A. Craver et al., Juga Good FARM PROPERTIES size : Direal Internations, Henry's Executors, Joigned a Jamos Henry vs. Henry's Executors, Joigned as a The Pooples' Fire Insurance Computy of a structure of the Quirk, Science Insure, Source come very soon. ESPECIALLY DESIRED. Premeryteenin vie, John Quirk, Science Leone, Same vie Evangebent Lattienin Courch et Johnstown; Same vie John Rast, Same vie P. M. & J. Brown Same vie Lowis Plitt, Same vie James Adams; Same vie Seme; S. E. Burns vie Barkens et al. Finitery vie Finitery Horder vie Barkens et al. Finitery vie Finitery Horder vie Barkens et al. GEO. M. READE, President. T. W. DICK, Secretary. 1000 11 A.S. McCariney Ebensburg, Jen. 31, 1880 -19. work works two wells. a ber ing v. Bark Same v. Wagner: Same v. huer Same v. Baky: Same v. Back: Same Bargoon: Same v. Ivay: Same v. Buck: Same Bargoon: Same v. Ivay: Same v. Kratzer adley & Excentra v. Rishan: Barns v. Bars centors: Kenengy v. A. Leiden et al.: Johr H. H. HENCH, CALL YOU COLOUR YARKS STREET THEFTHER IN STREET, PERIS Farmers' Union Association a impairy of Cambria and Somer Jungers, Mo. Jonatia WHITELEAD, LINSEED OIL, RETAILERS OF SPIRITORS Mo Jough's Execut concerned on atomiria county, for MIXED PAINTS Ready for Use, Mitry Township, Eaking vs. McCastney ; Plummer vs. Plumme Patterson vs. Patterson ; Lengbein & Thomas ; Maynard & Cu. ; Krise et al vs. Burk et al. ; P VARNISH, SP. TURPENTINE, CALCIMINE, Soil Terrahip 56.60 Jand vs. Smith Administrator of Bohmi : Bish vs. Shindis ; Crook vs. Newtonse, C. F. 19700N NELL, Prothonotary Name Prothonotary's Office, Ebonstourg, May 3, 1980 PUTTY, WHITE GLUE, vollteen Envited Anna Julia Schroth Varnish and Paint Brushes, A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. AND A FULL LINE OF grout Township. Estate of David Besider, dec'd FINE COLORS GROUND IN OIL. Letters of infiniteration on the contact of based Bendurt, late of Washington township, decembed daying been granted to the understand, all per-sent indicted to and means are acrony nother hat moved by person at mean by inside, and them having detras against the same will present them Cheaper than anywhere else in the city. HENCH, THE PAINTER, 13th Avenue and 16th Street, properly anti-unicated for actionant. WERNER BENDER, Administrator, Washington Twp., April 20, 1580.-01.* -15+45 BaronyK 1200200 4200 MeNEVIN & YEAGER, on Edward Howe. A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Estate of Matty Ass Lerrnes, doe'd, there of administration on the estate of Mary Luther, late of Carroll Township, deceased, - MANUFACTURES OF-Tin, Copper and Sheet-Iron WARE, and thereby property cuthenticated, for settlement, D. A. LATTHER, Administrator, Carroll Twp., May 14, 1800-51. S (iro) Hahl. S John Karr. RANGES, FURNACES, &c., EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Estimate of Manu Kumanan, dee'd, there restaurantary on the estimate of Mark Kib-a, late of Clearleff township, doctared, have ground to the undersigned, resulting in the 1108 Eleventh Avenue, . Altoona, Pa. MAP IS BRIDE East Contenangl One Door West of Opera House. . BLOULLearnerd RDd. ROOFING AND SPOUTING. tate will store make payment without delay, and there inving status against the same will present them, properly produced. For forthement. TrestPHI HERINGER, Excentor. for our I. H. Meist. BEPAIRS FOR STOVES CONSTANTLY ON HAND. Altoom, Oct. 10, 1870-rf. Some bold effort must be made to get out of the mouth of the post and destinate on the bold in Jacksonville, Fig., Brezz tells the fol-this hellish corral, or we would sufficient. The old trail, a little the worse for wear all of the mouth of the post and destinate on the bold effort must be made to get out of the post and destinate on the bold in Jacksonville, Fig., Brezz tells the fol-the bread out of the mouth of the post and destinate on the bold effort must be made to get out of the post and destinate on the bold in Jacksonville, Fig., Brezz tells the fol-Clearfield Twp , May 14, 1880, -61." DENTAL NOTICE. DR. M. R. B. ELCO EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Pit, requestivity informs Swarty decid upon. I handed the reins of my horse to a If I were a story writer, you can see fr

when we discovered another burning district donning an hour or so, we saddled up and started. Matters at first seemed favorable, leaves and boughs to the depth of four or five fast as we could, hoping to get past the fire as soon as possible. The heat was growing intense, and it soon became so hot for us we and bear it until it had burned itself out, but suddenly the wind sprang up, and in an instant almost everything seemed aglow with fire. The place where we stood, and which struck his trail, and following it for some denty. below it. We had not gone very far when I distance came to a point where it led to the There was no answer. The handful of discovered that the fire had crossed the creek edge of a precipice. Over this the unfortu- men that remained of the doomed band looknote animal had no doubt blindly staggered! ed meaningly at each other, but no one spoke. Sure enough, about thirty feet below, on a Strict disciplinarian as he was, seldom pass-Sure enough, about thirty feet below, on a Strict disciplination as no was, serious par-bench of rock, by the mule, his heels stick- ing a day without punishing some one, the within any of the provisions of the pension was possible to get below it, and we traveled ling up, and held from going over by a clump old colonel had nevertheless won his men's below us. We came to another willowy flat. Inst. They had not been back long before giment would gladly have risked his life to of the court the applicant has any equ of about an acre at noon, so we unpacked hight set in. The wind sprang up again and save that of "the old growler," as they callour animals to give them a chance to graze, at times blew almost a gale, and the firstook ed him.

while we ate a funch preparatory to pushing a fresh start. Toward midnight the seene But if he were not with them, where was our way through and beyond the fire. After . was terribly grand. Now and then the wind he? Outside the battery the whole ground go down for a time and the smoke was scourged into fiving jets of dust by a would hang in a great black cloud above us storm of bullets from the fight that was still claim for pension shall be considered the started. Matters at first seemed favorable, as the wind had gone down and the fire did until the wind again freshening favored the raging on the left. In such a cross-fire it The bill provides for an appeal from the not seem to be as furious as it was a short fire into flames. The furid glare reflected on seemed as if nothing living could escape, decisions of the Pension Department, and not seem to be as furious as it was a short the blood-colored rocks made them look like and if be had fallen there, there was but requires that all papers, affidavits, exhibits, and testimony filed in each claim in which an led along the side of the mountain, a little a huge mass of burnished gold. The crash little hope for him. way from the creek, which enfored a narrow of falling timber could be heard for miles, "I see him I" cried a tail groundher, "He's appeal is taken shall be delivered by the Secdefile below us. Before we had gone half a while massive pieces of rock cut loese from dying out yonder, and alive, too, for I saw all the testimony flied in the claim shall be defile below as. Before we had gone half a mile we got into the fire, which had first fed upon the fallen timber and dead trees, the latter constantly falling around us. The tying everything before them. As they fell, beside him." round in places was covered with dry pine striking against other rocks, these great "But you musta't disobey orders, Dubois," boulders would burst like a bombshell and said a young captain (now the oldest surinches, which were soon in finnes, and so scatter their fragments in every direction. viving officer, so great had been the havoe) burned our horses' feet that I thought best to Rocks weighing several tons and glowing hoping by this means to stop the reckless dismount and go it on foot. We traveled as first as we could, hoping to get past the first the howl of wild beasts in terror, and plung- even if he were left among the wounded, no ing with a hissing cry into the stream below. one must go out to pick them up." inally laid down to rest but not to sheep. laying down lis musket and tightening the could go no farther. We concluded to grin It seemed like pandemonium let loose. We "I can't help that," answered the soldier, There was a great tree slowly burning away straps of his cross-belts ; "Captain, report at its base, and we calculated whether it was Private Dubois for insubordination and a tall enough to reach where we had spread breach of discipline. I'm going out to bring sir, if this be true, then a court of pensions our blankets. We concluded that it was not in the colonel?" our blankets. We concluded that it was not in the colonel "" dite the adjudication of pension claims, it at but during the night it came down with a And he stepped forth unfinchingly into crash, failing to one side of where we lay and the deadly space beyond. reaching a number of feet beyond us. They saw him approach the spot where The following morning, after breakfast, the colonel lay : they saw him bend over the we saddled up and started down the trail fallen man, shielding him from the shot with again. On arriving where we had been the his own body. Then he was seen to stagger day before, we found a little heap of scoreh- suddenly, as if from a blow; but the next ed flour here and burned sugar there, and pext moment he had the colonel in his arms, bottles which had contained acids and other and was struggling back over the shot-torn wounds, for injuries, and for disability conchemicals, together with the tubes, were all ground, through the dying and the dead. tracted while he was in the military service melted. I took my carbine and went down Twice he stopped short, as if unable to go of his country in sustaining the best form of human government ever given by God to should reach it was our first thought. Every in search of the mule, to put him out of mis- farther; but on he came again, and had just man. It is our duty as the representatives ery, if he was yet alive. When I got to the laid his officer gently down inside the bat- of the people to see that a court is provided brink of the precipice and looked over, Mr. tery, when, with his comrades' shout of wel- where the law shall be fairly admi-Mule was nowhere to be seen. He had evi- come still ringing in his ears, he fell fainting served, might be sacrificed. The anxiety to save our dently fallen from the bench where he had to the earth, covered with blood, property made us hazard the effort. We lain, and as this projected so that I could not By the next morning Col. Lasaile had re- court satisfactors to the soldier, but it will tried our mightiest for a while to remove the see beyond it, I went further down the covered sufficiently to amaze the whole repack, but it was no use as the pesky critter stream until I found a place where it was giment by putting under arrest the man who the decisions of the Pension Department will was lying on the lash ropes. So we left him possible to get down to the bottom of the bad saved his life; but the moment it was to nis fate and moved along a little to await canyon, which I followed up with considerato his fate and moved along a little to await ' canyon, which I followed up with considera-the explosion, which we thought sure must ble difficulty, as I was compelled to cross the off to the headquarters at full gallop. In and rules of evidence will be haid down that stream several times over logs and flood- about an hour he was seen coming back will do much to lighten the burden of the af-I confess I felt no little curiosity as to wood. As I passed around a point of rocks again, side by side with a short, square- flicted pension applicant, in having his penwhere the biggest part of that mule would I came all of a sudden upon the mule. He built man in a gray coat and cocked hat, at sion granted at an early day. 1 confess 1 felt no little curiosity as to where the biggest part of that mule would land when the upheaval took place, and as thought it was an apparition, but soon disbut to ourselves as well-we failed to notice dead mules, albeit badly burned and bruised. "Let me see this fellow," said Napoleon, that the wind had freshened into a gale and His rumps looked like some old venison names steruly; and two grenadiers led forward that the fire was sweeping through the foliage that you often see hanging in front of restau. Pierre Dubois, so weak from his wounds of this bill is to compel the Pension Departof the pine and spruce trees under which we rants, besides he had received other injuries that he could hardly stand. had taken shelter. Sprigs of fire were torn (which, however well-bred and circumspect "So, fellow, thou hast dared to disobey says the applicant daes not come within the had taken shelter. Sprigs of five were torn (which, however well-bred and circumspect from the burning wood and blown in show- be may be, the energetic mule always makes orders, ha?" eried the emperor, in his harsh-Government of the United States, then the ers, which kept us husy knocking away the use of when you get near him)-he had lost est tones. ers, which kept us busy knocking away the use of when you get near him)-he had lost bot embers that fell upon us. Our horses his tail! When he saw me he brayed-and "I have, sire. And if it were to be done to Congress for relief, and then we will grant suffered terribly, and it was as much as we such a bray ! It was as the plaintive wail of again, I'd do it " "And what if we were to shoot you for incould do to keep them from rushing head- one who had hid adieu to the pleasures of long down the mountain. They floundered this life, and been shut forever in a cave of subordination?" "My life is your majesty's; now, as alaround as if they were possessed by evil gloom. I at once began to look around to spirits. I expected every moment they see if there were any way to get him out of ways," answered the grenadier boldly, "and detectives or special agents ; that these dewould go down. The old fellow who was there. I went up the stream a short distance, if I must chose between dying myself and tectives or special agents go through the with me seemed to feel the effects of the fire but came to a perpendicular fail and found leaving the colonel to die, the old regiment of the perpendicular fail and found and smoke more than any of us, and kept it impossible to make any further progress in can better spare a common fellow like me of the pensioners, and then without any nogasping out, "Ob, my lungs; my lungs?" that direction, so I started down the canyon than a brave officer like him." until his lamentations became most pitiable. and found that by crossing the stream two or A sudden spasm shook the colonel's iron agent makes his report, and on this er parts ALTOONA, PA. [5m] To proceed on our way was impossible, to three times, and cutting away a few logs. A student spasm shook the coloner's tron the Commissioner of Pensions three times and cutting away a few logs. remain where we were was certain death. that I could get him out that way, so I went stern grey eyes softened as few men had pensioner. In many cases these detective Our only way of retreat was past that mulet to where the other party was and got an axe even seen them soften before. Imagine the situation if you can. The nule and a long rope, and asked two of the men "Thou'rt wrong there," he said, "for I widew of the dead soldier, and retail in their had fallen so as to completely block the way, to go with me. We soon chopped the logs would not give a 'common fellow' of thy licentious and the villifier with avidity in orand at any moment that can of powder might off and got them ont of the way. I went sort for twenty colonels, were every one as der to have her name dropped from the penand at any moment that can of powder might of and got them out of the way. I went go off, and two to one everything within a over on a log and fastened a cable to his neek, good as my old Lasalle here. Take this, some roll. In other instances, on vague state ments and on heresty declarations, upright the furnare. In short, woman is a minute COOKING & HEATING STOVES, The second a few moments for the ex-"I warrant me thou'll be a colonel thyself a court to review the action founded upon this kind of affidavits, or must the wounded plotion, which did not come. The heat was which he undoubtedly realized was a hard one of these days."

of stanted cedar brush. The men returned and reported everything to courage in battle ; and every man in the re-and in this class of claims, if in the optition sear and determine whether the record of the War Department, which shows the appliant to be a deserter, should be amended and riginal applications, increase of pensions, not ask the Government to place upon the applications for restoration to the pension , and for arrears of pension arising under pension-roll the name of any soldier unless w is entitled to and deserves a pension. the pension laws when an appeal is taken,

We are daily reminded of the large a propriations made to pay pensions and and the judgment of the court to be final upon the parties constantly increasing pension-roll. gress cannot appropriate money for a more worthy or just purpose. Congress approprintes millions upon millions of dollars for other purposes that do not have a tithe of laws and which cannot be adjudicated and wance of the same to Congress.

the merit of the pension appropriations. Now, how many members of this House when the great civil war was convulsing the right to relief, the court shall recommend the country, made speeches inducing menta pr to the tented field? Do we remember now The court is given jurisdiction and power what inducements we held out to our follow-citizens to volunteer." We promised them that our great Government should be in lines No. Withow of the Indert whole body grew numb and heavy and my throat parched. I realized that it had be-which by the way were nicely baked; the retary of the Interior to the court, and that ment from dismemberment and our 1 iw the taking of additional evidence, either by the applicant or the Government, and when any claim is determined and allowed shall be certified to the Secretary of the erior, and the name of the applicant shall placed upon the pension foll with the same effect as it the applicant's name had been on laws in force when the application was pending in the Department. It is alleged by able hawyers, who have that the rulings of the Departwith one an-different claims are in corrlict with one an-other, and in violation of the plainest prin-other. Now, needed. If even the court cannot expeknow that in the matter of passing upon his pension chim he will be placed upon the me equality with litigants in the courts of law, with the right of appeal to a superior ribunal if he believes a wrong has been done him. In my opinion the pension claim of the Union soldier is maximum to all other claims, and is entitled to immediate consid-cration. He chains for less of limbs, for and where the rules of evidence shall be ob-

Sir, I say this bill will not only provide a expedite the adjudication of pension c he fact alone that there is a court to review

Congress Mr. COFFROMA: 1 am not. The purpose

ment to decide cases with respect to the law and the evidence adduced, and if the court his pension without delay. Mr. Chairman, one of the complaints 1 hear nearly every day is that the Pension

Department strikes from the pension-reworthy pensioners on the secret reports of or the names of the witnesses the special or special agents strike the virtue of the reports the foul slander and scandal of the with less timidity than to her bridal.

soldier, the wife and children of the man my eyes partly closed to save my sight. My I then went back and gathered up some And sure enough, five years later, Pierre who gave his life to save the nation, rest un-A MOCKING BIRD'S LOVE FOR A CHILD .- spies, detectives, or special agents to take

15

beir love of connirv, and we hald them the everinsting honor that would I rebeliion and who would save the Govern from devastation and destruction eyes of his little children in the hope that h would soon return to his family, and that would merit and receive the gratitude of 1 countrymen; but, alas, he never returned he fell upon the buttle-field; perchance | sleeps in one of the "unknow from wounds or discuss contracted in service. The son took leave of his dependen errent and went in the full hope of a sa return; but he, too, fell in liatthe or die-

Hundrois of thousands of others, full of life, health, vigor, went out to built fully for their country, but returned discussed and disabled, and many of them to-day r far from being a walking corpse widow of the dead soldier applied f ston-roll ; but because some envious or ma cious person residing in the neighborhoowrote to the Pension Department throwing doubt upon her right to her pension, a special agent was dispatched, and while intextented prepared and took statements, without an notice to her, and then made his report, sim now her name is dropped from the pension roll. The soldier himself by the same means and without notice to him, has had his man stricken from the pension-roll. of others have been struggling throng poverty and in want for years in aving their pensions granted. Over two hundred thousand of the brave soldiers who nided in crashing out the rebellion are nauxionsly and in painful suspense walth for action on their pension application on its in the Department. Many thousand of the applications have been pending there for an we've years. The applicant's have not been commissio of officers and surgeous, or t compty with the peculiar rulings of the Pen sion Office in regard to the evidence demand ed Already in this Congress two thousand and five hundred bills granting pensions to soldiers have been referred to the Committe on Invalid Pensions. Now, I appeal to the doing justice to the wounded and disaster soldier is right, and it it is complying with

A BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE TO WORAS. -- We

have seen many beautiful tributes to but the following is one of the finest we have "Place her among the flowers, rosher her as a tender plant, and folly-annoyed by a dewdrop, frested by the touch of a butterfis" wing, ready to faint at the sound of a breile or the rattling of a window pane at nigh and she is overpowered by the perfume a the reschud. But let real calamity come rouse her affections, enkindle the fires of her heart, and mark her then ! How strong is her heart 1 Piace her in the beat of build-give her a child, a bird or anything to preect-and see her, in a relative instan ing her white arms as a shield as her own blood crimsons her upturned forchead, pray-ing for her life to protect the helpless. Transplant ber in dark places of the forth her emergies to action, and her location ecomes healing, her presence a lifessing She disputes inch hy inch the strides ing pestilence, when must, the strong and Misfortune infunts her not; she wears away a life of silent endurance and goes forward prosperity she is a bud fuil of colors, waitin for the winds of adversity to scatter them abroad-pure cold, valuable, but untried in

WHY KANGAROO ?- Mr. Backland tells a curious story about the naming of the animal we know as the kangaroo. When Captain of some sort in their ansession, and sent lors in a little boat to buy it of them -When it exme on herrd he saw it was som

