be distinctly understoo

your paper before you stop it, it ust. None but scalawags do oth-be a scalawag - life's too short.

Cambria

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

NUMBER 27.

1 " 1 year. Administrator's and Executor's Notices. Auditor's Notices. Stray and Similar Notices. Business Items, first insection sess items, first insertion loc, per line ; each. equent insertion &c. per line.

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable joirculation of the Cam-nua Faunkan commends it to the favorable con-sideration of advertisers, whose favors will be fa-serted at the following low rates :

Resolutions or proceeding of any corporation or society, and communications designed to rall aften-tion to any matter of limited or individual interest, must be paid for as advertisements. Jon PRINTING of all kind neatly and expediti-usly, executed at lowest prices. Hon't you lorget age fell :

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 30, 1880.

think it-

THE OLD OAKEN BUCKET.

REVISED PROM A SANITARY POINT OF VIEW.

The senm-covered duck pond, the pig-stye close by

The ditch where the sour-smelling house-drain

But worse than all else was that terrible well,

And the old oaken bucket, the mold-crusted bucket.

The moss-covered backet that hung in the well.

Just think of it! Moss on the vessel that lifted

The water I drank in the days called to mind,

Ero I knew what professors and scientists gifted

Are things I remember with tears in my eyes.

In the water of wells by analysis find.

The rotting wood-fibre, the oxide of iron,

The water-impure as the verses of Byron-

I considered that water uncommonly clear,

I enjoyed it as much as I now enjoy beer.

And often at noon when I went there to drink it,

How ardent I seized it with hands that were grimy !

Then soon, with its nitrates and nitrites, and slimy

The dangers that lurked in that pestilent draught,

With potass permanganate ere I had quaffed;

or perchance I'd have bolled it and afterward

Through fitters of charcoal and gravel combined

Which lurked in the water I ventured to drink

In the teachings of science, I shudder to think.

And now far removed from the scenes I'm describ-

And I gag at the thought of that horrible well,

And the old oaken bucket, the fungus-grown bucket,

-J. G. Bagles in the Sanitarian,

In fact, the slop-bucket, that bung in the well,

A TRUE STORY.

BY MARY KILE DALLAS.

In the town of Lynn every man is a shoe-houses somebody is at work either binding haired Scotchman, called Sandy McPherson.

He lived alone, being either a bachelor or a widor demanded rent, he simply wheeled his ing, and though he did not make much money.

He had lived soveral years in his quiet way when one day there appeared in the village a Sandy put down his work again, looked at the lawyer, and after a pause, remarked :

worked beside it from dawn until sunset.

news had we for me ?"

can has left this world for a better."

"Oh, aye, I saw the old man was failing, saved the best part of what he made.

departed this life "

head, and gravely remarked:

paying into your hands."

Or after distfilling, condensed and regained it,

In potable form, with its fifth left behind.

How little I knew of the dread typhold fever

But since I've become a devoted believer

The story for warning to others I tell,

As memory reverts to my youthful imbibling.

And quick to the mud-covered bottom it fell,

With matter organic, it rose from the well.

Oh! had I but realized, in time to avoid them,

The algre, the frog of unusual size.

VOLUME XIV.

NEW SPRING GOODS

FREIDHOFF'S CHEAP STORE!

While so many are looking forward to the coming Presidential election in hopes of being the lacky man, the subscriber has concluded to remain in the mercantile business and give it his undiveded attention by supplying his friends and the public generally with ALL KIND OF GOODS.

AT PRICES SO LOW

THAT NONE CAN OR DARE COMPETE WITH HIM.

were will always find a full and elegant stock of everything to be found in a general

ORY GOODS, DRESS GOODS, NOTIONS, HATS, CAPS, Boots, Shoes, Groceries, Hardware, Tinware, neensware, Glassware, Woodenware, Cigars, Tobacco, anned Goods, &c., &c.

GLASS, PUTTY, BRUSHES, BROOMS, &c. I have likewise added to my stock RIRD'S PATENT CORN SHELLER.

which will be sold at the remarkable low price of 60 cents each. Also for sale, the REST AND QUICKEST BUTTER-PRODUCING CHURN EVER INVENTED. The A large increase of business has necessitated the enlargement of my store-room and the ercendral additional wavercom, and still my establishment is literally crowded with choice goods and research after margains. Still being determined to accommodate all who come, and especially greats from the country, to whom the highest prices in trade will be paid for all kind of produce, are thrown open my large and commodious stable for the free use of all who may wish to put up of the all the man are the man as ever.

N. J. FREIDHOFF. High Street, Ebensburg, March, 1880.

DON'T, GENTLEMEN, DON'T BUY A STITCH OF

OR A SINGLE ARTICLE OF

CENT'S FURNISHING COODS!

UNTIL YOU HAVE SEEN THE IMMENSE STOCK OF

WARM-WEATHER CLOTHING, HATS, CAPS,

Trunks, Valises, &c., &c.

Young America Clothing House, Corner Eleventh Avenue and Eleventh Street,

ALTOONA, PA., THE PROPRIETORS OF WHICH MAKE IT THEIR CON-

KEEP A STOCK AND SELL AT PRICES

WHICH FEW CAN EQUAL AND NONE CAN EXCEL. To We repeat it: Don't invest one cent in SPRING or SUMMER CLOTHING, GENT'S FUR NISHING GOODS, &c., &c., until you have seen what they can do for you at the Young America Clothing House, [+n] Cor. 11th Avenue and 11th Street, Altoona, Pa. [11-ti.]

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

CORN & CO.

STOCKOFSUMMER GOODS

At LOWER PHICES than articles of the kind have ever been offered at, as will be seen by the following quotations at each figures: Neckties from Boys' Hats front... Suspenders from. Men's Suspenders from. tyceralls from... Working Pants from Rubbons, Ties, Collars, Laces, Embrode-lor, Satins and various other Notions too is to mention, all of which will be sold at Men's Wool Hats, Dec. up : Men's For Hats, $1.00 up : Men's Caps, 25c, up. Also, a Full Line of Men's Rubber Goods, besitting of Coats. Finits and Vests, together with a large and varied stock of other goods for ladies of gents, or all of which prices have been greatly reduced—so much so, indeed, that we will sell some the st and below cost in order to make room for other goods we are daily receiving.

For Thankful for past favors and hoping to be found worthy of a continuance and increase of the major the pattern was considered.

Respectfully, Yours, CORN & CO.,

281 Main St., Johnstown, Pa.

Note.—The above refers especially to our Branch Store in Johnstown, but it should be remembered to these who do their abopping in Altoona that our old-established Store is at 1307 Eleventh Avenue, bors so keep a large and varied stock consisting of DRY GOODS, CARPETS, FANCY GOODS, CLARPETS, CLARPETS, CLARPETS, CLARPETS, CLARPETS, FANCY GOODS, CLARPETS, CLARPE

STILL HOLDING THE FORT!

THE NEW STORE BUILDING OF S, TEITELBAUM, Carrolltown, Pa., SPRINGASD SUMMER GOODS,

cordial invitation is now extended by the proprietor to every reader of the FERRIAS to call and large assortment, examine the various qualifies, and learn the unsurpassable prices, which are that 20 per cent, can positively be saved by those who buy their goods from me. The reason 1 to change is that 1 bought my entire stock for cash and intend to sell for cash or its equivalent, therefore prepared to make quick sales at smaller profits than any other merchant in Cambria CONSTIPATION AND PILES. out such an immense sale in all parts of the co and tone to the diseased organs, and through them cleaness the system of accumulated and positions, the control of the disease of thirty years standing have been cured, also Files, Constipation, Rheumatism, honors. Eldney diseases of thirty years standing have been cured, also Files, Constipation, Rheumatism, honors. Eldney diseases of thirty years standing have been cured, also Files, Constipation, and curative for, which have distressed the victims for years. We have volumes of testimony of its wonderful curative for, which have distressed the victims for years. We have volumes of testimony of its wonderful curative for, which have distressed the victims for years.

[Will send post paid.]

HOW TO GET almost Everything.

in the easiest way and to best advantage what you want for dress and house-furnishing?

Second, where: The place where goods are kept in the greatest variety; where they are sold for what they really are in respect to quality; where prices are lowest; where most care is taken to serve customers acceptably; and where you have the right to return whatever

There—no matter where you are-if you make your wants known and avail yourself of your privileges, you will get the best things in the best way, promptly and without trouble or risk; sometimes by mail, sometimes by express, almost always at less cost for carriage than the money you save in the price.

John Wanamaker, Philadelphia, Pa. Chestnut, Thirteenth, Market and Juniper.

WANAMAKER & BROWN.

HOW TO under Price.

If we could sell a little more of this and a little less of that, we could make things come out even-the last man that came in would carry off the last suit; but we can't. Out of every stock there are a great many sizes left when some are for bargains.

it the Bargain-Room.

These marked-down suits and garments are of all sorts; they may be among fresh and full.

Wanamaker & Brown, Oak Hall, Sixth and Market, Philadelphia.

ises of the undersigned, in Gallitzin township.
Cameria county, and was enclosed by me on the country, and was enclosed by me on the country, and the whole truth, the child having on me. I'll be with you to-morrow morning, and the whole truth, the child having weather and live. To be sure your mother, been told the whole truth, the child having who hasn't been out of town since she was been taken into the country, where it is cared ing to take your word for it without extra instance.

The unfortunate young with the child having weather and live. To be sure your mother, been told the whole truth, the child having ing to take your word for it without extra instance.

Sooner begun, sooner done."

W. DICK, ATTORNEY-AT LAW, Eb- sence the bargain was made with the Widow least excuse. per of legal business attended to satisfacto

Do you know how to get

First, how: Write for a catalogue; see what you can learn from it about the things you want. If samples can be useful to you, ask for them and state your wants so plainly that exactly the right samples can be sent.

is not satisfactory.

GET Clothing

gone. The best we can do with these incomplete assortments is to mark them low enough to set a great many people looking among them

This we do every day at this time of year; and just now we have enough of such to stock a little store.

Besides, odd parts of suits get left-coats, vests and trousers. We have a room in which there is nothing else. There is in that room cheaper clothing than you_ have any notion of. We call the best in the store.

We force a continual clearance of such articles as spare form of the member of Dunn & Derry would only embarrass us; and keep our stocks always of Sandy's house and knocked. walked the lawyer

A DMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. properly authenticated for settlement.

JOHN G. GHLL, Administrator.

Chest Twp., June 25, 1880.-81.

STRAY STEER.—Came to the premto come forward, prove property, pay charges and take him away; laising in which, he will be disposed of as the law directs.
July 9, 1883.-51.8* Mus. JOHN CASSIDY.

and collections aspecialty.

he went, and for three years Lynn saw him no more; but when another year was on its way the wonder-stricken inhabitants saw With what anguish of mind I remember my child-Sandy again at his bench. But Sandy was an altered man. He had grown fat, his eyes Recalled in the light of a knowledge since gained; The malarious farm, the wet, fungus grown wild-The chills then contracted that since have re-would listen to him. tried it; spending ten thousand dollars in are the words, "Died on Duty." three years is hard work for any man. And In 1838 a rebellion broke out in our Cana-The damp, shaded dwelling, the foul barn-yard nost past the work." And to tell the sad truth-though I shudder to from the firm of Dunn & Derry.

Bad news, I suppose I'd have tested for organic germs and destroyed be a hundred," said Sandy.

an uneo rich woman-my Aunt Jean." stand in your shoes, Mr. McPherson,"

"I'm in trouble again, Mrs. Gage," said he. pet, to England.

shoes, hammering soles, making heels or whose hair was gradually growing gray under problem; but it so happened that he was on when on one bright day there was ushered in a position to be plucked, the jobbers next stitching uppers. And among them, many the weight of a thousand dollar mortgage. that particular post about two months after- into the world a tiny stranger. busy and more contented than a quiet, red. that way of a fine fortune. "But how is a mon to spend it?" continued lished his residence asked awkward questions | do wi' it all ?"

could be benevolent."

Pherson, soon discovered the object of his left." search in simple Sandy McPherson, hammer. ing away at his bench, and thus addressed a good, sensible wife to show you how to use challenge. your money," said Mrs. Gage. "You'd find

"Sir, I am one of the firm of Dunn & Der- no trouble then." "But, you see, I'm a bachelor," said Sandy. ry, lawyers, and I bring you the sad news "You needn't remain one," replied Mrs. that your uncle, Mr. Donald McPherson, has

"And who would I marry?" asked Sandy. Sandy laid down his lap-stone, shook his "It's not for me to say," replied Mrs. Gage. Some sensible, middle-aged woman, Mr. "I never thought Uncle Donald was a longlived man." And thinking his duty done, set McPherson."

to work again. But once more the lawyer "And it is also my pleasant duty, Mr. Me-Pherson, to inform you that your uncle Donald has left you a legacy amounting to five thousand dollars, which, after the necessary formalities, our firm will take pleasure in "It was weel meant of Uncle Donald, and dy still made shoes in the little house now to his danger, bayoneted one and shot the no uncommon thing either in mental, moral tic coast. you mean weel to me in telling me of it, but it will be aye dreadful trouble spending sic a to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the as-The lawyer laughed; he thought his client intended a joke, but Sandy was in sober earn- and adds : "I didn't know it until the guard-whom the to turn. Listen! About sixteen years ago of $95,000,000 and some 40,000,000 acres of est. Having received the necessary instrue- told me," which is regarded as one of Mr. firing of his gun had alarmed—came upon my husband and I were traveling through the doors and shutters well, stored it with an old No GRAMMAR FOR HIM .- "I have been old Jacob was the hero of the garrison; and remarkably pretty mulatto woman, who waitfarmer just out of town, and went to get his money. For three years no one in Lynn saw sendin' my darter Nancy to skool, and last the officers subscribed for and purchased the ed on me at the hotel. Sho looked very ill, or heard anything of him, but at the end of Friday I went over to the skool to see how golden collar which the bird afterward wore and, in fact was in quick consumption, which, that time Mr. Gage, the farmer with whom she was gettin' along, and I seed things I | until the day of his death. Sandy had left his house, was surprised by didn't like by no means. The skoolmaster | On the arrival of the regiment in London , my sympathies. I gave her some medleines his re-appearance in a good suit of clothes, was larnin' her things entirely out of the line the bird resumed its old duties with the sen- and little comforts, but the poor thing seemed with a very red face and a very portly person of eddycation, and as I think improper. I tinels posted at the barrack gates, and it was almost distracted at the thought of dving and "I'm glad to get back," he said. "I've had class say their lesson. The lesson that Nan- as it walked proudly up and down with the which she brought to show me. Its father hard work to spend my hve thousand dollars, cy said was nuthin' but the foolishest kind of sentry, or stood to "attention" beside the box was evidently a white man, and the child bore and I could made it without eating and drink- talk; the rediclist words she said was 'I love.' when the latter was saluting a passing officer no traces of negro blood, but was as fair and ing more than was ave gude for me; but I've I looked at her for bein' so improper, but she or guard. The feathered hero was well fed lovely as any I have ever seen among ourlived through it, and maybe I'm no the worse | went right on and sed, 'thou loves' and 'he | and cared for, and a circular bath filled with | selves. Sorry for both, I promised the mother And once more the door of the little wheel- a rigmarole in your life-love, love, love, and were its especial favorities, as they used to well and have her taught to support herself. ed house stood open, and Sandy McPherson nothin' but love. Sez I, 'Who do you love, bring the creature lots of food; but Jacob Matters were arranged with little difficulty. Two years passed. At the end of that time plain after Nancy had finished the lesson, when, in military parlance, he was "standing child with us. On account of her great dark the village gossips once more saw the tail, This sorter pacified me, and Nancy went on easy." For many years Jacob seemed to eyes I called her Juliet. As she grew older in the streets of the little town. This time was every word. She said, I might or would run over by a van. Every effort which kind-fection for us won upon my heart. Gradually he made no inquiries, but walked to the door love.' I stopped her again and sed I reckon ness and skill could suggest was made to save the projudices of race faded away, and at "Come in," cried the shoemaker, and in out of that house. The skoolmaster tried to avail, and he died like a true English soldier, of my own, we concluded to bring her up as "Oh! and it is you, Mr. Dunn?" cried He sed I was a fool, and I knockt him down less than twelve years. - Chambers' Journal. | would have suspected her descent, which Sandy, "Sit ye doon, mon; and what new and made him holler in short order. I talkt the strate thing to him. I told him I'd show him to learn my darter grammar. I got the lett, in answer to his furious and sarcastic by in love with each other and so happy that "Much the same as before, Mr. McPherson," replied the lawyer. "Your Uncle Dunmar teachin' in these parts soon." "His property," continued the lawyer, "has

"That's twice as much as Uncle Donald full breath. The next instant he staggered left me," sighed Sandy. "Twill be hard against a wall, clawing the air and choking Savs the Hawkeye solemnly: "Yes, daugh-son-in-law, who was almost beside himself there was danger that Congressional investigation of the same of the s work spending it. The five thousand nearly and gasping, and it was a full minute before ter, you should go somewhere this summer. with rage and grief. killed me, but a' is as God will, if it's come he blurted out; "Why, you infernal idiot, You cannot stay at home during the warm. The unfortunate young wife has not yet be able to gather the character of the Credit Again the little house was stored away besults," observed the invalid in an injured married, can stand it, but then she is oldtions between Oakes Ames and Garfield and hind the barn of Mr. Gage's farm; but this voice, and he took his bottle and walked off fashioned and don't know any better, and, other steps have been taken, though it is untime the farmer having died in Sandy's absence the bargain was made with the Widow least excuse, like a man who had been abused without the besides, she has fun enough doing the washing and ironing. By all means go, Get a so the end of the cruel story cannot be told at the respective for the complete of the complete

J. Lloyd's new building. Centre street. All manpar of leval business attended to satisfactorile. Sandy some good advice on the subject of his.

A DIFFICULT thing to get on tick this. satisfactorily, Sandy some good advice on the subject of his A Difficult of [10-14.-tf.] fortune, which he received in silence. Away weather—Asleep.

A FAITHFUL SENTRY.

THE GOOSE THAT IN TURN SAVED ITS PRE SERVER'S LIFE.

An interesting relic is preserved in a glass were red and watery, his nose the shape of an case in the Coldstream Guards' orderly-room onion, he had symptoms of the gout, and as at Whitehall. It consists of the head and he worked he made his plaint to any one who neck of a goose, around which is a golden collar with the inscription: "Jacob-Second "Ah! you may laugh-none of you have Battalion Coldstream Guards." Beneath it

I made a mistake. I begun wi' whisky.- dian possessions, and two battalions of the When I took to port wine I got on faster. Guards were sent thither to assist in quell-It's a fine wine, the port wine, ou, aye, but | ing it, the battalion already mentioned being you can hae too much of it. It's put me allone of them. Both corps occupied the citadel of Quebec, and in their turn supplied the However, five years of oatmeal porridge, guards which were ordered to be mounted in bacon and weak tea, with hard work, reduced different parts of the town and neighborhood. Sandy to his former condition of skin and Near one of these guards was a farm yard bone. His health was good, his eye clear, which had suffered much from the ravages of and he was more contented than ever, until foxes-animals that were at that period a one day through the streets of Lynn walked great pest to the colonists; and as the farm once more tho tall, grave, serious gentleman in question had been suspected of being the meeting place of the rebels, a chain of sen-This time Lynn was actually excited, and tries was placed around it. One day the senas the lawyer entered the door Sandy turned | try whose duty it was to watch the entrance upon him a face longer and more solemn to the farm had his attention attracted by an than he had ever shown before, and cried unusual noise, and on looking towards the spot whence it proceeded he beheld a fine "Mr. Dunn again! Weel out with it, mon! goose fleeing toward him closely pursued by a fox. His first impulse was to have a shot "Yes, sir," replied the lawyer. "Your at the latter; but this would have alarmed Aunt Jean is dead. She departed this life | the guard, and brought condign punishment very suddenly. It was a shock to all the on himself for giving a false alarm. He was compelled, therefore, to remain a silent spec-"Aye; I thought Aunt Jean would live to tator of the scene, while every step brought Let me know the worst. She must hae been feather between his teeth the ready bayonet untouched by silver, and a stately figure. of the sentinel had passed through his body. | The daughter, Juliet, seems to have inherdeed, coolly as you take it, I should like to against his legs, and made other equally cu- eyes the rippling tresses and fine figure are rious demonstrations of joy; nor could it ever noticed. "Ah, weel," replied Sandy, "you may call be prevailed on to quit the post, but walked About a year ago, she was wedded to one

"Dear, dear! what a pity it is you haven't | in the deserted farm-yard, responded to the | mother.

the enemy's opportunity, and the rebels were In short, a child with unmistakable African operation, and being unrestricted were charge not long in endeavoring to profit by it. Closer | blood in its veins. wheeled permanently to the kitchen door, up other as he was running away. Meanwhile, or physical attributes. to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the other conspirators approached to the last account received of him. As for the last account received accou tions he shut up his little house, fastened the McPherson's jokes, though it is strictly true. the scene and made them fly for their lives. South on an extended tour for my health.

set awhile in the skool house and heard one exceedingly amusing to watch its movements leaving her child, a little girl of two years, loves.' And I reckon you never heard such water was always at his disposal. Children to take her child North with me, bring it up Nancy?' The skoolmaster said he would ex- would never tolerate any liberties except and on our return to New York we took the with her awful love talk. It got was and bear a charmed life; but he was at length her beauty, her lovable character and her af-I would see about that, and told her to walk this extraordinary bird; but it was of no last, as Heaven had denied me any children interfere, but I would not let him say a word. at the post of duty, after a "sentry-go" of not our child. No one, from her appearance,

"No. Samuel," calmly replied Mrs. Bart-gagement. The young people were so deepnabers together, and we sent him off in a questions, "no. It isn't because there's no I had not the courage to tell the truth which hurry, and I recken than't be no more gram- gray cloth in Burlington that I patched your 1 never dreamed could be found out. Now I A CONSUMPTIVE-LOOKING MAN, lame and lonferish habit of going in your shirt-sleeves advice, "and let him decide whether or not been equally divided amongst his four neph- feeble and carrying a pint bottle full of some- during business hours or I'll make you the his wife shall learn the reason of this misforthis bottle on the corner back there and I be said extra are hereby notified that useful against the same will present them perly authenticated for settlement."

The other township, decreased, have been granted to the undersigned, all persons the back of the town." And when by to tell you, amounts to two thousand this bottle on the corner back there and I wish you'd tell me what's in it." The other fluous women" she leaves Mrs. Rartlett out thousand dollars."

The other township, decreased, have been granted to the undersigned, all persons that me find a pedestrian and said: "I found this bottle on the corner back there and I wish you'd tell me what's in it." The other fluous women" she leaves Mrs. Rartlett out thousand dollars."

linen duster and basket and go at once." present.

----EVEN-TIDE-An artistically arranged bow. A DOLEFEL sound-Long Island Sound. bribe. -Rochester Union.

The Blue and the Gray for Hancock.

From the flowery groves of the Southland And the fields of cotton and cane,

To the wonderful lakes of the Northland And the pine-clad hills of Maine, Brave men are dwelling by thousands.

Who once were so hot to slay, When some wore the blue of the Union. And others Confederate gray.

The passions of war have subsided. Its hatreds have gone with the past, And now, like an army of brothers,

They all come together at last, They follow a man who in battle Was bravest among the brave.

And who, when the fighting was ended, Was the first to console and save. With him are his war-tried soldiers,

And those that he faced in the fray ; With those who have worn the gray.

For brotherhood over the land, They are forming shoulder to shoulder, And are marching hand in hand,

Now, "Down with all thoughts of disunton ! Say those who have worn the gray, Away with all sectional feeling !

The blue-conted veterans say, They rally for peace and for union And who shall dare say them may?

They rally in blue for Hancock,

For Hancock they rally in gray.

A REMARKABLE CASE.

New York City is at this time excited by a very strange case, and one that brings sad the reynard nearer to his prey. In the height trouble to a well known wealthy family.-"So did she; but she had made her will of its despair the poor bird ran its head and The father is well known on Wall street, and notwithstanding, and as you were her favor- neck between the legs of the soldier, in its is a fine, portly-looking man. The mother, ite nephew she has left every farthing to you. frantic effort to reach the refuge which the an elegant, refined woman, has not lost all sentry-box could afford; and at the same moment the wily fox made a desperate grab at thirty years ago, but can still boast a pair of resentative I pronounce this as a monstrous "Don't do that, mon," said Sandy. "You ment the wily fox made a desperate grab at thirty years ago, but can still boast a pair of mean weel, but it's adding insult to injury. the goose, but too late, for ere he could get a handsome black eyes, dark wavy hair, almost and flagrant attempt to overreach the government.

"You are now possessed of more than fifty The poor goose, by way of showing its gratilited her loveliness for while no actual resemthousand dollars," replied the lawyer. "In- tude towards its preserver, rubbed its head blance in features exists, the same great black it cool, but I feel pretty warm. How is a up and down, day after day, with each suc- of the leading young men of Brooklyn, and as the guardians of the people's rights? Inman ever to spend feefty thousand dollars?" cessive sentry that was placed there, until the match was universally pronounced an ad-The lawyer departed, laughing. In an the battalion left Canada, when the goose mirable one. The marriage came off with hour Sandy stood in Mrs. Gage's dooryard. | was brought away with it, as a regimental great celat. Then came the farewell, the tour to Europe, and finally the return to the beau-"My Aunt Jean is dead. Oh, no, 'tisn't The most remarkable thing in connection tifully-appointed home in Brooklyn, where, result maker. That is not quite an exact statement that; we must all die some day, but she's left with the story is that the goose in turn actu-surrounded by all that taste and wealth can but it is so nearly the truth that I will let it me her money, and I've feefty thoosand dol- ally saved the life of its preserver. Whether command, the young couple began life in the former knew that the sentry was the same carnest. The first and supremely happy year | Garfield, Ames & Co. voting for it. Having "I wish I had," said the farmer's widow. man or not must of course forever remain a of their married life had almost passed away. thus put the government and the corporation

years ago, none could have been found more "It's flying in the face of Providence to talk ward, when a desperate attempt was made The pride of a young father was forgetten which to do the plucking. It was necessary to surprise and kill the unwary sentinel. It for a time in the auxious husband, but when for them to organize a ring. For this purwas winter time, and although it was a bright a feeble wail reminded him of his new rela-Sandy. "I couldn't get through the ten moonlight night, the moon was hidden ever tionship, he delightedly asked to see his child. ower-probably the first-in a little two- thoosand wi'out makin' a beast of myself, and anon by the sendding clouds which seem- The family physician, notwithstanding the called the "Pennsylvania Fiscal Agency" roomed house on wheels, and whenever the and feefty thousand at my age will be the ed to presage an approaching storm. In these fact that his patient was doing favorably, was purchased and an act of the Pennsylvanian Piscai Agency owner of the ground on which he had estabend of me. What's a single mon like me to moments of darknesss a sharp observer might looked unusually grave, and replied that the nia Legislature procured changing its name have noticed the shadows of several men who, little one was better left undisturbed for a to "Credit Mobilier of America." All the "Oh! there are plenty of ways, Mr. Mc- unobserved by the somewhat drowsy senti- few days, and must especially be kept from large and controlling stockholders in the mansion away. Thus he spent next to noth- Pherson," said the farmer's widow. "You nel, were endeavoring stealthily to approach a bright light, as its eyes seemed delicate; so Union Pacific were stockholders in the Credthe post where he stood. Suddenly he heard, a peep at the little one as it lay shrouded in it Mobilier, and the object and use of the lat-"I'll never give good money to beggars; let or thought be heard, a strange rustling sound, fiannel in a very dark room was all that the ter were to enable these stockholders to conthem work for their bread," said Sandy. - and bringing his musket to his shoulder, he father gained, and when the impatient young tract with themselves for the construction of "Ah! you dinna know, Mrs. Gago. A mon shouted loudly, "Who goes there?" Not a mother begged that the curtains be withdrawn the road at enormous prices and so enrich tall, serious gentleman in a black coat, who can eat but five meals the day if he does his sound save the echo of his own voice in the that she might see her baby, the same admother themselves at the cost of the government and inquiring diligently for Mr. Alexander Mc. best, and to be aye drinking is all that is distance, and the sighing of the winter wind nition was given, the doctor also insisting that among the branches of the trees which stood | it would be best for the child to have a foster | II. Vanderbilt and his associates in the direc-

But one person beside the discreet nurse another corporation and by contracting one Several minutes clapsed, during which the and physician had seen the child-that was with the other, rob the Central of all its valsoldier marched up and down his lonely beat | Juliet's mother-and when she gazed upon it | ue. | The conspirators in the Credit Mobiller followed by the devoted goose, until, deem- her face turned white and cold as marble, for scheme made the contract with themselves ing his alarm unwarranted, he again "stood she saw an infant with a dark skin, thick full and got along very well until 1867, when they at case" before the sentry-box. This was lips, and a head covered with genuine wool. had a portion of the road constructed and in and closer they stole up toward the post, the Dumb with a horror, the lady left the house transportation. They had nothing further to thick snow which lay on the ground complete- with the physician, and when they reached ask of Congress. What they wanted was to "I wonder would you have me ?" asked by deadening the sounds of their footsteps. her own she implored him to explain this phe- be let alone. Their railroad stock was of no Sandy. "You're a very sensible woman, But just as two of their number, one on each nomenon. "Madame," said the doctor, stern-Mrs. Gage, and it strikes me I couldn't do side of the sentry-box, were preparing with ly, "there is no 'phenomenon,' but two ex- Credit Mobilier machine which was robbing better : but I hope you'll drink your share." uplifted knife to spring upon the unsuspect- planations, either of which may fit this case. the nation was enormous. But Mr. Wash-Mrs. Gage held her peace, and Lynn was ing man, the bird made a grand effort, rose The first is too painful and horrible to mensurprised by a wedding the next week. The suddenly on its wings, and swept round the tion; the second is that your daughter's or And accordingly, in December, 1867, he inmortgage was paid off; the boys were sent to sentry-box with tremendous force, flapping your own blood is of mixed purity, and that troduced in the House a provision restricting college; the farm prospered. Mrs. Mel'her- its wings right in the faces of the would-be as- in this unfortunate child the characteristics the charges for passengers and freight to no son and Saudy appeared each Sunday at sassins. They were astounded and rushed of the race of its grandfather or grandmother more than double the charges on the lines of church in black siik and broadcloth, and San- blindly forward, but the sentry, fully aroused are repeated-a fact that medical lore proves

> When this incident became known, poor During my brief stay in Atlanta I noticed a being the disease that threatened me, roused > summer trousers with seal-brown basket- see my terrible mistake. What shall I do?" cloth, but I'm going to break you of your "Tell the husband all," was the physician's ter seene followed between herself and her expected to be no

CREDIT MOBILIER-WHAT WAS IT I

In 1862, the year that Garfield was first elected to Congress, that body incorporated-a company to build a Pacific Railroad, with a capital stock of $100,000,000; gave it the right of way through the public domain, with all.

the necessary grounds for buildings, workshops, side-tracks etc., and alternate sections of land for ten miles on each side of the roads and issued to it United States bonds at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 150 miles, $48,000per mile for 300 miles, and $32,000 per mile for 850 miles, which bonds were declared tobe first mortgages on the road. In addition, various branches were projected which added further millions of money and further millions of acres of land. In 1864, after Garfield had taken his seat in Congress, another act was passed which doubled the land grants and relinquished the preference of the Government bonds as the first mortgages by allowing the company to issue its own bonds as such mortgages. The passage of this act was stoutly resisted by such men as E. B. Washburne, of Illinois, and as stoutly supported. by such men as James A. Garfield, Oakes Ames, John B. Alley, and others, who afterwards figured in the Credit Mobiller operations. Here was Garfield's first participation. in the business. The nature of the scheme was fully exposed by Mr. Washburne. Wequote his words in the Congressional Globe: "Who are the men who are here to lobby this bill through? Have the men of high character and of national reputation whose names were at an earlier period connected with this enterprise been here, animated by a commendable putlic spirit, by motives patriotism, to ask us to pass this bill? ave not heard of such men being here to that purpose; but, on the other hand, the work of 'putting the bill through' has gone into the hands of such men as Samuel Hallets ernment and the people that can be found in all the legislative annals of the country,— When we look at the original law with all its liberal and just provisions, when we look at the company organization under it and see how far it has failed to meet its proper obli-gations, and consider the extraordinary amendments here proposed, are we not filled with astonishment at what is demanded of us deed, may we not exclaim : "Can such things be, And overcome us like a summer cloud, Without our special wonder?" 'I warn the true friends of the road, I warn Congress and the people of what will be the

But the jobbers had Congress fixed and the turned their attention to the means with pose the charter of a corporation granted by the Legislature of Pennsylvania in 1859 and tion of the Central Railroad should organize ing enormous rates for passenger and freight railroad between the Mississippi and Atlan-

"I shall," he said, "continue to press this matter upon Congress while I have a seat land, the company getting the road without the expenditure of a single dollar of its own money, is charging ten cents a mile for every passenger, and on freight one cent per mile for every hundred pounds, more enormous charges than have ever been known in any

Garfield, Dawes, of Massachusetts, and others opposed Mr. Washburne, who char-acterized them as "parties to the monopoly." It was here, at this point, that Oakes Ames began to place Credit Mobilier stock among members of Congress, "where," to use the words of his letter produced in the Poland Report, "it will do the most good"—not to procure favorable legislation, for all was had that was wanted, but to prevent unfavorable legislation and to prevent threatened investigation. To quote the report of the Poland Committee in their conclusions after investi-

'In relation to the purpose and motives of Mr. Ames in contracting to let members of Congress have Credit Mobilier stock at par, he and all other owners of it consider ed worth at least double that sum, the com-mittee upon the evidence taken by them and submitted to the House, cannot entertain a doubt. When he said he did not suppose the Union Pacific Company would ask or need further legislation, he stated what he believed to be true. But he feared the interests of the road might suffer by adverse legislation, and what he desired to accomngress who would resist any encroach ment upon the rights and privileges already secured, and to that end wished to them an interest identical with his own .says he intends to place the stock 'where it will do the most good to us.' And again We want more friends in Congress. letter to McComb, and also in his statement prepared by counsel, he gives the philosophy of his action, to wit: that he than ound there is no difficulty in getting ments tertained a fear that when the true relation leformity."

the Union Pacific became generally known, and the means by which the great profits are e fully underst tigation and action would be invoked.

From this recital of facts, the reader will they came up during the previous four years; and having gathered this information will be able to intelligently consider Mr. Garfield's