AN INDIAN FEMALE CRUISE. THE STRANGE STORY OF A WOMAN WHO LIVED THREE YEARS ALONE ON AN ISLAND IN THE PACIFIC.

Mr. George Nidever, of Santa Barbara, California, has given a complete account of his discovery of a lone Indian woman on San Nicolas Island, in the Pacific Ocean, in 1853.

At a certain point, the vessel, which was proceeding to warm her, indicated that she knew its use.

As she was about to land at Santa Barbara, an ox team passed, which so delighted her that she talked, laughed, danced, and gestured.

SOME INSTANCES OF THE DEADLY WORK DONE BY BATTLE.

In the excitement of battle the fall of a comrade is scarcely heeded, and half a company might be wiped out before the other half.

THE HIDEOUS FACE OF WAR. A favorite excuse for worthlessness and intemperance with some men is that their tea is cold.

THE DUTY OF VOTERS TO THEMSELVES.

The ballot-box is a test of the character of a people. The virtue of the voters is made known as it pulls quite as plainly and completely as that of the candidate.

Most of all, fellow-citizens, if your sons ask you how they shall vote, what will you say? For you well know it is not music, nor the eloquence of a demagogue.
