Huntley, ought to be happy if a vote of thanks tendered him by the Hancock and English Club of this place, on Wednesday evening last, for having so generously furnished, free of cost, an almost unlimited number of tin-cups with which to deal out the coffee necessary to quench the thirst of the visiting club from Altoona, on Thursday evening previous, is calculated to have that effect on so amiable and consistent a Repub-

Hean as our friend aforesaid. -There is a very wholesome statute of the ommonwealth of Pennsylvania which provides that any person who shall "threaten an lector with dismissal or discharge from any office. place, appointment or employment, public or private, then held by him, in case of his refusal to vote for any particular candidate," shall be liable to a fine not exceed-ing five hundred dollars and imprisonment of two years. The big boss bulldozers in Cambria and Brair counties, as well as elsewhere, might do well to make a note of this fact. -Mrs. Mary McCahan, who resided near Cornprobat's mills, in Huntingdon county, went to a neighboring orchard not long since for the purpose of gathering apples, and while stooping down to pick up some of the fruit, a vicious ram that was in the field plunged with great force against her, knocking her on the head with its horns and rennivers thought they got a dering her insensible. Before assistance arrived the animal broke five ribs on the left and Alena was wrecked in the side of her body and one rib on the right ride wight last on Lake Mich-side. Both horns made impressions in the skull horizontally with the woman's eye. She was picked up and taken to her home, where she soon expired. She was aged 62

McDenald is billed for a ship, for a half bushel of the largest and soundest apples that could possibly be produced anywhere. They were indeed regular whoppers and just as luscious as they were large. Philip, by the way, is one of the most industrious grangers in the State, having cleared within the last five years no less than fifty-five acres of ground in one of the roughest sections of the county, and this too in addition to the hard work necessary in such a position to the maintenance of his family. He has now eighteen acres in wheat, and anticipates, what we hope he will secure in this as in all his undertakings, a large yield for the time and labor expended. -The richest speech of the campaign was delivered before the Hancock and English Club of this place, on Friday evening last, by Gen. Joseph McDonaid, who not only ex-celled himself in the matter of time, the speech occupying over forty-minutes, but was also in the happlest of moods and the best of humor. The speech was altogether extempore and was probably drawn out by the presence in the club-room of that stai-wart Republican wheel-horse, Tom. Davis

(Jackson), who took it very good naturedly and seemed to enjoy it with the best grace possible. It was indeed a rich speech, full of wit, humor, and sound, solid sense, and we are only sorry we can't give it to our readers with all the dramatic effect which attended its deliverance. -The mammoth pumpkin which bore a onspicuous part in the Democratic paradeof Thursday night of last week desires a passing Thursday night of last week desires a passing notice. It was raised on the farm of Mr. Edward Lyons, Delaware county, and took the first premium at the late Fair in that county for largeness and general excellence. Subsequently, it was presented by Mr. Lyons to Mr. Vanaster, of Philadelphia, and by the latter gentleman to Prothonotary O'Donnell, for the special purpose of forming part and for the special purpose of forming part and parcel of the grand parade in question. It is of immense size, weighing 175 pounds, and attracted no little attention, though we are sorry to say that the inscription which was —Some fifty members of the Hancock and English clubs, senior and junior, of this place turned out Monday night and again on Wednesday night for drill, and under the command of Capt. J. S. Bolsinger and Lieuts Lawrence Donahoe, John Stough, Wm. Sechier and Edward Ormsby, on part of the seniors, and of Capt. Geo. E. McPike and Lieuts Harry Fenion and Andrew Gutwald, of the juniors, made rapid strides in wald, of the juniors, made rapid strides in the direction of proficiency. —A young man in Blair county has discovered an ingenious and successful way to capture squirrels, dead or alive, without either gun or ammunition. His outfit consists of a set of climbers such as are used by telegraph repairers, a sheath knife, a pack of firecrackers, box of matches and a dog. The dog holes the game. The young man puts on his climbers, and goes up to the hole in the tree, lights a fire cracker and drops it into the hole. When it explodes the frightened squirrel rushes out into a bag held over the hole, or if he wishes to kill it he strikes its head off with the sheath knife; if he misses his aim and the squirrel leaps to the ground the dog soon finishes it. By this novel contrivance he often brings in from ten to twenty squirrels a day. Larger game is captured

—We had the pleasure of a call on Monday from our old-time friend James McCormick, of Nashville, Tenn., who was here on business connected with the sale of the estate of his deceased father, Mr. Hugh McCormick, late of Gallitzin township, the advertisement for which will be found in another column. James was born and raised in this county, but left here many years ago for Callifornia, where he resided for a considerable time before his return to "the States." He is now employed as a locomotive engineer on the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis Rallroad, and looks quite as natural, barring the gray hairs which time is sure to impose upon all of us, as he did in the sure to impose upon all of us, as he did in the sure to impose upon all of us, as he did in the good old days at Summitville, this county, invited clubs from a distance, North, South, East and West, to unite with them in a torchlight procession to come off in the future.

But just here occurs a hitch. Both the Altoona and the Johnstown boys desire to take a hand in the proceedings, but somehow they are unable to fix on a night which will be mutually satisfactory. The former name Thursday of next week, while the latter are solid for Saturday of this week. If some compromise is not effected and Johnstown and Altoona be permitted to come here tocompromise is not effected and Johnstown and Altoona he permitted to come here together, then the contemplated procession will necessarily fall below the Democratic turnout—a contingency which is too revolting for any well-balanced Republican mind to dwell on for a numeral! All he not lovely with them.

-At a regular meeting of the Hancock and English Club of Ebensburg and Cam-bria township, held on Friday evening last, a vote of thanks was unanimously tendered to the visiting clubs and delegations from Altoona, Strongstown, Belsano, Carrolltown Loretto, Munster, Summitville, Lilly's, and elsewhere, which took part in the grand Democratic demonstration in this place the night previous, and did so much to make it what it was, the finest procession and the largest meeting that has ever convened in Cambria county. A vote of thanks was also unanimously tendered to our diminutive but determined Republican friend, Mr. Abel Lloyd, and his excellent wife and family, for the active and indispensable part they took in preparing the coffee and otherwise provid-ing for the comfort and entertainment of the Young Men's Hancock and English Club of Altoona, an organization which honored the occasion with their presence and elicited the highest encomiums from everybody by their gentlemanly conduct, noble bearing and un-surpassable marching.

-Though the Greenback party has never boasted much of a membership in Ebensburg and particularly in this campaign has it been low down in the figures, yet two or three vo ters, undismayed by any storms which may lower, continue to profess adherence to its principles. One of these voters is our photographer friend Mr. Reicher, of High street, who, upon arising bright and early Tuesday morning, discovered a surprise in store for him. It was in the shape of a pole twentylery, the apex supporting a broom and lower down two small flags and a pasteboard streamer bearing the name of "Weaver" floating to the breeze. It is unnecessary to say that the pole and belongings were the work of no Greenbacker, but the fruition of non. It was a wild strawherry plant in the idea of somebody who wants to be con-

> -There is a young man living in this town whose peculiar fote seems to be to get on a pronounced spree very frequently, and keep it up till his money runs out. This latter ex-perience, coupled with the former, fell to his lot last Monday. He was drunk clear thro', yet he wasn't satisfied, because he didn't have the wherewithal to keep the thing going. Accordingly, at a late hour of the night of the day named he repaired to the domicil of gentleman on High street, a well known Reublican politician, and poured into his lisning ear an affecting story about a fight high had occurred down street. "I was one of the parties engaged," said the impecunious youth, "and they arrested me, and Burgess Humphreys fixed me a dollar, and I'll have to go to jail if I don't pay the mon-ey. Lend me that much, won't you?" Owng to the fact that the election draweth nigh, and bearing in mind the further fact that the young man in question belongs to that only oo numerous class who must be "fixed" and "fixed" to assure the correctness of their ballots, the dollar was willingly handed over. But it was interesting to watch the expression of the donor's face and listen to his expressive language next morning upon discovering that no fight whatever had occurred the night preceding, and that instead of being devoted to the liquidation of a fine, is dollar had gone into the till of one or

The Garfield and Arthur marching club of this place made its third weekly appearance on our streets last Satorday night. Its evident intention was to show forth the proficiency it had attained in the art of marching and countermarching, and in this it was signally successful. Before it had well got-ten under way, however, the procession, thereabout, fully one-third of whom were ju-venties, Burgess Humphreys, the officer in command, attempted to form a ring within a ring on the Diamond, possibly in commemo-ration of the Credit Mobilier and De Golyer rings, with which their candidate for President was so conspicuously and shamefully identified, but ring rule for ouce at least failed to prove effective. How the knot was finally untied it is needless to tell, but when it was magazine. In the Novelty Page we have line of march through the principal streets of our town, closely followed by Bill Roberts, a big, burly black, who, like his "white breddern," covered himself to some extent and page after page of hints for ladies' costumes. The Diagram is a combination of the control of the big, burly black, who, like his "white bred-dern," covered himself to some extent with mud, if not with glory, as he essayed the part of a donkey—no darkey—hitched to a small wooden cannon mounted on wheels. After all hands had expressed themselves as heartlly tired of sloshing round through the mid, the club repaired to the Court House, where the usual stereotyped speeches were delivered by T. W. Dick, Tom. Davis, (Jackson,) and A. V. Barker, Esqs., and then all was

HON. HENRY D. FOSTER died on Saturday night last at the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. F. A. Happer, at Irwin Station, Westmoreland county, in the 72d year of his age Gen. Foster had been in feeble health for several months, and a few weeks ago left his home in Greensburg to receive the care and attention of his married daughter in the pasreturns. The announcement of no man's a feeling of more sincers sorrow and regret than that of Henry D. Foster. In a community like our own, where ten. Foster was so long and so well known, and in which he was so universally esteemed and respected, it is entirely unnecessary to dwell upon his stering qualities both of head and heart. His ability as a lawyer was of the very highest order, and his manners always gentle and attractive, made him hosts of friends whereever he went. He was the soul of honor and his life was without stain or reproach—the richest legacy he could leave to his children. He was three times elected to Congress, first in 1842, again in 1844, and for the last time in 1870. He was a member of the Legislature during the sessions of 1857 and 1858, and In 1860 was the Democratic candidate for Governor, his successful competitor being Andrew G. Curtin. Now that he is gone and his memory is yet green, those who knew him and knowing honored and respected him, will with one voice and one mind say

'The warth that bears him dead, Bears not elice a nobler gentleman." ---

RINDER FOR CONGRESS AND SUCRLING FOR SENATOR-SOME RESOLUTIONS .- The Congressional and Senatorial Conferees of the Greenback party of the Seventeenth and Thirty fifth districts, says the Altoona Sun of Saturday, met in this city this afternoon. All the counties in each district were fully represented. David Tobin, of Cambrie county, called the Congressional Conferees to order, and when the Conference was ready for business Mr. C. F. Walker, of Somerset county, moved that the nomination of T. P. Rynder, indersed by the conventions of the different counties for Congress, be made by acclamation. The motion was agreed to without discussion. After this work had been completed the six Senatorial Conferees assembled for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Senator. On motion of John Mr. Snekling the choice by acclamation was agreed to. Mr. M. F. Conway, of Bedford, offered a resolution of indorsement as follows: That we inderse General James B. Wenver, Greenback candidate for President, and we pledge ourselves to support him to the best of our anility." A resolution was also passed that the Conferees recommend the placing in the field of a full Greenback ticket in each county in this Congressional district. The Conference, after a very har monious session then adjourned without

THE BIG BOSS BULLDOZENS STILL AT IT. -That the Cambria Iron Company and the Gautier Steel Company are resorting to the most infamous and unlawful means to intimidate and terrorize their Democratic employ-ees in hopes of securing their votes for Garfield, Campbell, Boggs & Co., is pretty well field, Campbell, Boggs & Co., is pretty well established by the statement of a gentleman residing in Hollidaysburg and written to a friend in Altoona, which statement, published in the Altoona Daily Sun of Tuesday, is too long for our columns, and also by the following, which we find in the current issue of the cohnstown Democrat:

lowing, which we find in the current issue of the coinstown Democrat:

It is said the Gautier Steel Works of this city are underhandedly trying to buildoze and intimidate their employes. The bosses and managers falsely assert that the Democratic party is a free Trade party, and they say to employes that if they do not vote the Radical tisket they rue, the risk of losing employment by the shutting down of the works. That is an infamous and cowardly ite, and the tools who are fent around to get working men to sign books, etc., are contemptible liars, and should wear around their necks "dog collars." Democratic success means increase of work everywhere and better wages. Republican success means contralized power, imperalism, the rule of the rich, and the creation of a system of slavery among the laboring class of the land which will in the cud destroy industry and ensince the poor man. Workmen realst any interference with your right to vote. Do not allow yourselves to be buildozed and intimidated. The Democrat also publishes the law for-bidding under severe pains and penalties the direct or indirect coercion of voters, and invites the attention of the intimidators there-to, but as we refer to the law in an item elsewhere we kaven't thought worth while to re-

A NEW PAYING OCCUPATION FOR LADIES AND GENTLEMEN.—The handsome Nickel Plated New Home Lamp, being introduced to the public this season, is the most merit-orious article ever offered Agents to make money with, is safer and more convenient than the Student Lamp, which has hereto-fore had the reputation of being the Safest Lamp made, and has a clamp to attach it to Sewing Machine, Piano, Organ, Desk, etc. The fear of the ordinary lamp being accidently upset or thrown from the table is entirely relieved by this simple clamp contrivance. It can be adjusted to throw the light just where it is wanted to suit the eyes, and can be converted into a handsome wall lamp. It has the best argand burner, a filling indicator, and convenient match-box, and its price is within the reach of every one. It has been fully tested and editorially endorsed by the "Western Christian Advocate," "Am. Christian Beview," "Herald and Presby-ter," "Journal and Messenger" and "Chris-tian Standard," the leading religious papers of Cincinnati, and is endorsed by the Mayor and Post-master of Cincinnati, the Agent of the American Express Company and Presi dents of Insurance Companies, as being the Safest, Most Convenient and best Lamp

There are three reasons why Agents should seek such an article to canvass for-first, for its absolute safety and great convenience it is needed in every home; second, its low price makes its sale immense; third, it will be a credit to bandle such an article. One Southern Agent writes, it sells faster than Gen. GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK FOR NOVEMBER IS full of interesting matter. Darley's facile pencil gives us another scene from Dickens' orks, Little Nell and her grandfatherescaping from the fair. The old man's eager face and stumbling hurry, the child's fearful backward glance, are in strong contrast to the fully up to its usual standard of excellence. Christian Beid's popular novel is continued, and there are capital stories and poems from the pens of Margaret Vandegrift, Augusta De Bubna, Lee C. Harby, and other well known writers. We learn that Godey's Lady's Book will contain a complete novel in every number in 1881, and that each issue will be uplete in itself. We will furnish the AMBRIA FREEMAN and Godey's Lady's Book for one year at the low price of $3.00 on application at this office.

Investigation.—Every man should be willing, and we think should be anxious, to investigate everything which is so likely to benefit all mankind as the discovery of Kendall's Spavin Cure, because it is now being used on human flesh with most remarkable beneficial results for rheumatism and deep seated pains, and it has been proved by experience that it is equally as good for human flesh as for any animal. It is penetrating and powerful, and yet it can be used full strength with perfect safety on a child as well as a grown person. For all blemishes on horses, it never has had an equal. BALINA, KASSAS, Oct. 12, 1880.

PRIEND Mac—It may be interesting to you, as well as to your readers, to learn a little about the "Hancock Boom" in Kansas and see what organization will do. You are of course aware of the overwhelming Republican majority in this State, as also in our own county. The nomination of Garfield, however, fell like a wet blanket on the Republicans in this section. The honest Republicans wanted Blains, the ringsters wanted Grant, but none of them wanted or expected "ECS." There was no entansiasm—net even a ratification meeting. So much for the Chicago nomines. When the newscame from Gincinnati, however, announcing the nomination of Gen. Hancock, cheer after cheer rent the air, flags were strung across our principal streets, and on the same evening a large and most enthusiastic ratification meeting was held and immediate steps taken to organize a Hancock and English Club. A week later our club was organized, with 19, names on the list to begin the work with. I made a motion to canvas the county and organize a club in every township. club was organized, with 197 names on the list to begin the work with. I made a motion to canvas the county and organize a club in every township, and the motion was unanimously reopted. The chair appointed a committee of five, of which I have the honor to be the chairman. We went right to work, and now have fourteen clubs fully organized, with a membership of nearly seven hundred, while the Republicans have but four clubs in the county. Our Salina Hancock Club outnumbers the Salina "$729" club nearly two to one. In 1876 Hayes electors received 1.374 votes, Tilden only 375, and Cooper, Greenbacker, 70. As near as can be estimated, the vote this fail will be about as follows: Garfield, 1.400; Hancock, 500; Weaver 300. By this you will observe that the Republican majority has been or will be reduced from 200 to about 150 votes, and should the news from the October States proved averable to us, the majority may be entirely wiped out. As near as I can estimate it about four lifthes of our Greenbackers are ex-Republicans and one lifth ex-Democrats. On the 22d inst, we will have an immense Democratic mass meeting here, which will be addressed by Hon. E. G. Ross, candidate for Governor, Hon. Tom Fenlon and Col. Tom Moonlight, electors at large, and Gen. C. W. Blair, all of whom are first class orstors. Thus, you see, the good work goes 'pravely on. Truly, etc., Your friend, Wm. R. Gers.

In justice one hopes be'll be made to return it. Corruption at the ballot-box is a thing much the deployed. But the above, on its face, wears n be deplored. But the above, on its face, wears no terrible aspect of wrong-doing. The young lady, we take it, is fair and amiable, while the voter of course was a men of faste in recognizing her claims to his osculatory organs, as well in his being a regular costoner of Simon & Bendheim when going to equip himself with a sait of new clothing. So it must have been all right. Simon & Bendheim's establishment, we add, is next door to the First National Bank, Altoona, where Fall and Winter clothing in endiese array and of best material and most approved styles may be bought for a mere trifle above wholesale prices. ...

That young man wouldn't have sense enough to come in out of the rain; nor to take half of a pretty girl's hymn-book at meeting; nor to buy a suit of ready made clothing whan the same was offered to the public at about half price. The latter is the case as now existing in the store of Godfrey Wolff, next door to the postoffice, Altoona. He is selling the biggest and best lot of Fall and Winter wear ever seen in Western Pennsylvania at about half-price that is to say, at prices nearly if not quite fits per cent lower than are afforded by any other dealar in the same line of goods. The celebrated Rochester clothing a specialty. Call on or write to him, and thus secure for yourself a bargain.

This illustration of human idiger, has its parallel in the man who, with the expectation of saving money, buys his ready made elething elsewhere than at Jar. J. Murphy's, 100 Clinton street, Johnstown. The reason is obvious. In addition to dealing in nothing but the very best quality of goods, he sells at lower prices than any other clothier in Cambria or surrounding counties. If you dishelieve this, call and take a look at his new invoices of cold weather wear and bis price-list, or write for particulars. All letters will be promptly answered.

OBITUARY.

I.EAP.—Died, at Lilly's Station, Washington township, on Thursday, October 14, 1880, Mr. John Lear, aged about 42 years. The deceased was foreman at S. H. Smith's coal works on Ben's creek, a short distance west of Liliy's, and the cause of his death was hone stysipeias, which first sitsoked his nose and then his eyes, forcing out and bursting the eye balls twenty four hours before his death. His iliness only lasted three days, but was preceded by an attack of fever and ague, which first manifested itself while he was on his way to Pittsburgh a short time before. He leaves a wife and nine children in comfortable circumstances, the fruit of constant to land honest endeavors. He was an houset, faithful and unright man, a good citizen, husband and father, and was one of the most kind-hearted and charitable of neighbors, as many of the eld and young people in neighbors, as many of the eld and young people in and about Lilly's and elsewhere will cheerfully bear witness. His remains were deposited in the Catholic cemetery at Sumnitville on Saturday last, his funeral heing the ingress over witnessed in that section of the county. May his soul rest in prace.

Timely Advice on Fall Clothes.

You are thinking of your clothing for fall: what it shall be: how and where you shall COME AND SEE US. Come and see us, or drop us a line, saying what you want, as near as you can. If you are here, you can see for yourself a great variety of things, try on what you like, and go home with the old clothes in a bundle. That is very easy; and nothing can be more satisfactory.

NOT A STRANGE PLACE. It isn't as if you were going to a strange place. The chances are you've been here before, and know something of our ways. Perhaps your neighbor has been here; and has told you it was a good place to go to. Perhaps you've only read that we sell a good many clothes, and say to people who buy them: Bring them back if you don't find them every-way to your liking. Now this is really why we are not strangers to anybody: because we deal with everybody as with a neighbor; and expect him to come right back if he has cause of complaint.

IF YOU DON'T COME. But, suppose you don't come. How are we going to sell you just what you want to buy, without your seeing things beforehand? Try; write; say about how much you want to pay for a business suit, dress suit, overcoat, or whatever you want; say what your occupation is; say anything that has any bearing on what we ought to send you. It will not take us two minutes to guess what you want; if we don't guess right, that's our loss, not yours.

HAVE YOUR OWN WAY! Perhaps you want your clothing made to your measure. Did you suspect that we make to measure a half-million dollars'- worth of clothing every year for people we never saw and never expect to see? You may be very certain that we have a way of doing such work without much risk of a mlsfit; for a misfit, you know, comes right back to us. We are pretty careful about making blunders when we've got them all to make good.

OUR WAY: Our way of doing business is to make the buyer welcome, at the outset, to all the advantage and all the guarantee he can ask for. Wanamaker & Brown.
