GALUSEA & GROW, with whom a desire to be sent to the U.S. Senate from this State has assumed a chronic shape for the last five frans, is about to realize the truth of the maxim. "Put not your trust in politicians." While it is a disgrage to the Republicans of Pennsylvania, it is nevertheless a fact, that sticking and clinging to each other. no man can hope to be the successor of William A. Wallace unless he is acceptable to the "Cameron clan," and it is now asserted in high quarters that Simon, his son Don, and their backers, have made other arrangements, and that Grow will be remorselessly squetch-ed. It may be Quay, or Hoyt, or Oliver, of Pittsburgh, but there don't seem much of a channes that it will be G. A. Grow. liam A. Wallace unless he is acceptable to

HARRY WHILE proposes contesting Mosgrove's right to his seat in the next Congress on the ground of enough "errors," as a Republican paper puts it, to justify him in claiming his election. The amount of check displayed in setting up this claim becomes apparent when the fact is stated that while White was beaten 750 votes, Garfield's maenough to satisfy the ambition of any man possessed of an ordinary share of modesty. been so long quartered on the public treasury that holding office has become to him a sec-ond nature. With White's defeat, his transparent scheme of tunneling the Allegheny monutains for slockwater navigation purposes fails to the ground, never again to be revised.

NOTHING in the political career of Hendrick B. Wright became him so well as the ending of it. He wanted to go back to Congress, and wanted it badly, but his constituents concluded that it was about time to give him a rest. Councily was the Democratic candidate and Scranton was his Republican opponent. Wright was unhappy, and when on a still, calm night a small crowd of his devoted admirers marched to his house with a brass band, and halled him as the coming man, "Barkis was willing." He received 4,-174 votes, which enabled Scranton to defeat Connolly by 2,507, whereas Connolly's elec. tion was assured had Wright remained out of the contest. About half a dozen men like Wright in other States, the untorious Ackleu, of Louisiana, being one of them, and Allen, of Missoury, another, by their inordinate thirst for office have taken the absolute control of the next House of Representatives out of the hands of the Democracy.

PRILADELPHIA, Nov. 16, 1880. To the Editor of the Freeman .

The present agitation in the political world is the city tleket in February. There is some prospect of a free fight for the Republican the Democrats by putting a Democratic City Solicitor on a fusion ticket. But no coalition the Democrats have ever made in this city has been successful. It looked well on paper, but when the votes were counted the OAK HALL, PHILADELPHIA.

The reason is that everything to be found there is made there-made and sold under a system which rarely allows mistakes to occur, and which corrects them, if they do occur.

OAR HATA is the place; and its practice may be summed up in a few words. If you get there what you don't want to keep at the price, you return it, and get your money back.

This means a great deal more than appears on the surface. It means that you are not going to get what you will not want to keep at the price, if the merchant can help it. It means that the clothes you get there will be of honest cloths, honestly made; and that they will cost you less than as good clothes can be got for elsewhere. It means that they will be every way better worth your money than you can get elsewhere for the same money.

The language and in-informations of Davis were so fix-grantity unfounded and unjust, that Mr. II, was compelled to expose him in the columns of the pupile press, which forced from Davis an explanation little less offensive than the conginal attack. If Noah Davis was laying the ground work for a good appointment from Garfield he did the job web, and it is fair to expect, will meet with his full reward. He richly deserves it. What an insufferable infliction it is to a community to be encoded with a marthem today? with a partisan judge ?
