OUTRAGE AND MURDER.-The Columbia (S. C.) Daily Register of Thursday last publishes the following special in regard to a rein Newberry county, that State : making a coupling that his probably never before been experienced by any man who lived to tell the tale. He had his head caught between the bumpers and was so horribly squeezed that it was not deemed possible that he could live, but he is now getting along finely. His head, which was once round, was pressed by the accident out long and slim. He is also from one half to three quarters of an inch taller. The terrible squeeze which his head received has made him cross-eyed, but, strange as it may seem, his mind is as clear and bright as it ever was.

—Reuben and Aaron Leibensberger live in Mootgomery township, Berks county, and are strong Republicans. Morgan Youse, Democrat, of the same township, says that recently the Leibensberger brothers went to his house, a small frame structure, and with nices and use talking, no use talking,
