Applications for them have come in so rapidity that nearly the whole edition is engaged before the receipt by us of the eards from the artist. We have therefore been obliged to adopt the following plan for the distribution of the remainder: No marc of the gill Shaksreare cards, seven in the series, will be sent excepting upon the receipt of a statement from a grocer that the person applying for the cards has bought of him on that day at least seven hars of Bobbins' Electric Soap, with price paid for same. All applying in this manner will receive the full set of seven cards gratis by mail. This will have us that our friends and patrons get their share of these beautiful designs, although it in no ranner reseays us for the cost of the cards. Your great has the soap or will get it, and the purchase by you of seven bars of it at one time will sective fur you gratis seven really beautiful cards. The soap improver with age and is an article of necessity in your house every week. Therefore you are not asked to buy a uscless article, but one that you must have anyway. Please send us your application at once, and tell your hely triends making "Card Collections" to do the same. Yours, respectfully,

All the same, hewever, she is "the style" just now—precisely as it is the style to patronize Jas. J. Marphy, too Clinton street, Johnstown, when in need of ready made clothing. Mr. Marphy keeps one of the most extensive clothing establishments in Cambria county, and the aggregate of his sales is overcopped by none. The reason of his popularity with buyers is that he deads only in honest goods and sells at fair prices. We feel satisfied that if you give him an order, you will ever after be anxious to deal with him. His stock of heavy wear, and particularly overcoate, is large, and, in view of the approach of Spring, will be disposed of a very nearly east. at very meanly cost.
