MURDER IN THE CLEARFIELD COUNTY JAIL.—We condense from Wednesday's is-sue of the Clearfield Republican the following account of a terrible tragedy which was enacted in that place on last Friday after-The Goodman and a weman of bad repute named Kate Sampic, both from Du Bots, in that county, and both of whom had been in jail on some charge not stated, were released from prison nhout two weeks ago on their own recognisance to appear at the next term of Court. George Evans occupied a cell in the some institution awaiting sentence for mensionghete, of which he was convicted in Jannary for having killed a Swede near Houtafale in Jannary for having killed a Swede near Houtafale in Jane last. Evens and Goodman were cond miners and had been acquainted for several years, having first met each other in the oil regions. On Friday atternoon last, Pat, Goodman and the woman, Sample, who had come to from from In Bots, appeared at the jail (Sheriff Mcharley and Deputy Thompson, both being absent) and obtained admittance, alleging that they were brother and alster to a prisoner who had been lodged in jail the day previous for larceny by a constable from In Bots. The jailor permitted Goodman and the woman, and also Ed. Goodman, a brother of Pat's who came from In Bots with him, as we infer, to enter Evans' cell. While there Evans and Ed. Goodman got into a quarred about some toy firmiture that Evans it ad manufactured, and during the fight Evans stabled Goodman twice,—once in the abdoman and once in the heart—causing death in a lew moments after. It is stated that Pat Goodman drew a resolver to shoot Evans, but was prevented from doing so by the Sheriff's wife. Fatrick and the woman who had come with him immediately started from town'in their bugsy, but were subsequently arrested at Curwensville and brought back to Clearfield. The mordered man was about 20 years of age and unmarried. His father, sister and brother-in-law live in Du Bots.—Goodman's romains were buried in the Catholic cornetery at Clearfield on Sonday last.
