OBITUARY.

ECKLEY — Died, at Summitville, on the 2M ult., of pneumonia of the lungs, Mr. John Eckley, in 62th year of his age.

Deceased was born and reared in Juniata county, and from there moved to Summitville, where he took up his permanent residence, and was for a time employed as a stage driver on the Huntingdon, Cambria and Indiana Turupike. He subsequently sought and obtained work as a section hand on the P. B. R. and continued in that occupation until a short time before his death. Mr. Eckley was noted for his quiet disposition, while as a neighbor he was all that the word in the best sense implies, hopesty, fidelity and charity being his chief virtues. His sudden demise was a hard stroke to his bereated wife and six children, the cliest of whom, Robert, is an engineer on the P. R. K. Mr. Eckley was conscious up to his dying moment, and was sitended by a Presbyterian minister, of which charch he was an exemplary mem-
