

Mullinan.

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher,

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES FREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

VOLUME XV.

* EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1881.

NUMBER 20.

READ THIS! HEED THIS! There was an old shoemaker, sturdy as steel,

IF A NEW SUIT YOU NEED, IT WILL PAY YOU, INDEED,

ng just returned from the Eastern Cities, where we bought and PAID THE CASH for enough

SUMMER CLOTHING, to stock our FOUR LARGE STORES, we are now prepared to furnish every man and boy to whom this comes greeting with

MADE-UP CLOTHING & GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

at LOWER PRICES than they can be bought at any other house in Blate or adjoining counties. In proof of which assertion we submit the following facts: wing facts:

TAN'S GOOD SELT.

WE ARE SELLING

A Nun's White DUCK VEST for 60 cents, which soul las season, and was considere cheap, for $1.25.

WE ARE SELLING

NEAT SUITS FOR BOYS,

from 4 to 8 years old, at 75 cents, which as-tanish all who see them; and good WOOL HATS for men and boys at 46 and 55 cents.

WE ARE SELLING COOD SUITS FOR BOYS

MEN'S GOOD WORK.

Men's Good Overalls

WE ARE SELLING BOYS' SUITS In 3 PIECES,

If the above described Goods and thousands of dollars' worth of other articles equally cheap are now in stock, ready for inspection at the

YOUNG AMERICA CLOTHING HOUSE

Corner Eleventh Avenue and Eleventh Street, posite Opera House, ALTOONA, PA.

GEIS, FOSTER & QUINN,

113 & 115 CLINTON STREET, JOHNSTOWN, PA.,

-ALWAYS HAVE THE-Largest and Cheapest Stock of Dry and Dress Goods,

NOTIONS, MILLINERY, CARPETS, ETC., ound in Cambria or adjoining counties. Let Forget not the street and numbers and fail not to call, buy and be happy.

GEO. W. YEAGER,

---CASH DEALER IN ALL KIND OF-TING AND COOKING STOVES.

TIN AND SHEET-IRON WARE, 1402 Eleventh Ave., Altoona, Pa.

CHEAPEST PLACE IN THE CITY. Roofing, Sponting and Repairing of ed promptly and satisfactorily attended to.

The Truth Tritely Told. quently with his consent, I put it into the following shape, having carefully compared to the with his note of festimony taken upon the first part of the stimony taken upon the sti THE NEW STORE OF

MMER GOODS OF ALL KIND!

westended by the proprietor to every reader of the Furnman to call and strangular countries of the properties to every reader of the Furnman to call and per cent can politicity be exceed by those who buy their goods from me. The reason I the town, Corporal Julius Frye was shot and are prepared to make quick sales at smaller profits than any other merchant in Cambria killed by one of three men of bad character, take my word for this, however, but come and see for recentary.

S. TEITELBAUM.

T. WORT, and health will be quickly regained. Get it of your Druggiet, Price, $1, worth and health will be quickly regained. Co., Prop's, Burlington, Vi-

NEES' NOTICE .- Notice is ms, therefore, indebted to the said will make payment to the said As-ise having claims or demands will

TORS NOTICE.

TZINGER, / Executors.

ISTRATION NOTICE. BEIN FUELEY, Administrately, NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

PEGGING AWAY.

Of great wealth and repute in his day, Who, if questioned his secret of luck to reveal Would thirp like a bird on a spray:

"It isn't so much the vocation you're in, Or liking for it," he would say, "As it is that forever, through thick and through

You should keep a-pegging away." I have found a maxim of value whose truth Observation has proved in the main,

In the labor of hand and of brain. For if genius and talent are cast Into work of strongest display, grown,

Politicians for hand work made; Some poets who better in shop had shous, And mechanics best suited for trader ire the triumph of hand and of wit If you only keep pegging away.

There are times in all tasks when the fiend discontent. Advisor a pause or a change,

The purpose is tempted to range; Never heed, but in sound recreation restore uch traits as are slow to obey; And then, more persistent and stanch than before

Leave fitful endeavors for such as would east Their spendthrift existence in vain, For the secret of wealth, in the present and past And of tame, and of honor, is plain,

It lies not in change, nor in sentiment nice. Nor in wayward exploit and display, But just in the shoemaker's honest advice, To keep penging and penging away,

A LAWYER'S STORY. WHICH, BEING ALTOGETHER TRUE, IS MUCH STRANGER THAN FICTION.

stantial evidence if I were a juror-never!

mits of his own State.

vidence, a man had been convicted of an the snow except those of one man leading to direct the acquittal of Ryan and allow him on my mind-I had just finished payin' for trocious murder, although many of those down into this stream, and it was evident to testify. nost familiar with the circumstances of the that the person who had fired had not climb- The deceased corporal, the soldier and on comparin' my troubles with my blessin's, case entertained the gravest doubts about ed either fence, but had waded through the Mary Bowen were-mistaken. That was all that after all it would be hard to find a betthe justice of his conviction, and had been stream and disappeared on the other side. there was about it. swang off into eternity, protesting his absolute innocence with his latest breath and stood close by the deceased when the first the direct testimony of honest eye witnesses. from what it is now. The freight train came calling upon God to send his soul straightway shot was fired, and who, not knowing the And so much, also, for giving the accused down at 7:30 a. m., switched off, and waited As most of our party were lawyers the were closed, upon purely circumstantial evidence, in the absence of any direct and pos- whom he had seen do the shooting. itive proof of guilt, and case after case was | The testimony of these witnesses was in | The Ram at Church.-Mollie had a little cited in which, after conviction and execution, the entire innocence of the supposed distinguished lawyer whose very positive ex- Short personally for some time, but he nev- mure-ly into Dea-con Al-len's pew pression of opinion has been quoted, while er had any difficulty with him. He fully The wor-thy deacon quickly let his angry the majority of the lawyers contended, with | identified him as the man who had fired the | passions rise, and gave it an unchristian kick that earnestness for which lawyers are noted | first shot and then ran down the alley, firing | between the sad, brown eyes. when advocating their own side of any ques- one shot after another until he fired the last This landed rammy in the aisle; the deation, that justice could never miscarry when and fatal shot almost in the face of the de- con followed fast, and raised his foot again careful judges guard against the possibility of ceased. He also fully described the cloth- but ah! that first kick was his last. unsafe verdicts by refusing to permit a conviction except when every link in the chain by the other witnesses. of circumstantial evidence has been estab-

ought to have been reported as an example and his escape impossible. of the unrealiability of the direct and posi-what they believe to be the truth."

will readily be appeciated when it is known "not guilty" and the verdict recorded. who were in company and in open enmity with the soldiers. The men were arrested, zens the sentiment of the whole community was strongly against them, feet six inches in height, slender, weighing | whether anything I may say now can ever unnecessary to describe his appearance more | quitted."

Certainly it is difficult to imagine two men he said, slowly and distinctly : more unlike than Short and Ryan or less 'It was I who fired all the shots-not Short."

liable to be mistaken for each other even by Most of the faces in the court room wore THE OLD SWITCH TENDER'S STORY. bless ber! sittin' alongside of my ped, holdstrangers, much less by their acquaintances. looks of incredulity; some of indignation at There was no possibility here for a case of the hardened wickedness of the man who mistaken identity.

their consent-Grey having asked for and he was not guilty of perjury. fended by a separate counsel.

it is true, the whole truth. The prisoners circumstances of danger as would have led put me in this place, where I've been ever I seem to be closer to my boy there. were all her friends and constant visitors to the jury to acquit him.

From her testimony it appeared that a col- deceased with sabre drawn and ready to bridge, in the outskirts of the town which him. ored woman with whom she had some diffi- strike, he was compelled to pull out a revol- you see the other side of the river-small culty had hit her on the head with a stone ver and fire several shots towards his pursu- white house with an elm tree in the yard; and ran, and the three prisoners coming up er, who was rapidly gaining on him, so as to you can see it from the other end of the at that moment, started with her up the keep him back; and that when ne had but switch. street in pursuit of the fugitive. Although one shot left he stumbled over a large stone So you think the river very beautiful at the night was dark there was snow on the and fell on his knees, and at this moment the this season of the year? Well, sir, I dare say ground, and a gas lamp near by gave suffi. deceased struck at him with the sabre, cut- it is. I thought so once myself, but I don't ficient light to enable one to recognize a per- ting him slighty in the cheeks, and, being take any pleasure in looking at it now, and son with ease some feet away. After run- thus pressed, he aimed and fired the last I haven't for many a day. Its green banks ning about one hundred yards the pursuers shot, which subsequently proved fatal. He and its clear water, with the sunlight a came to the corner of an alley and stopped further told how, upon recovering his feet, sparklin on it only makes it seem the crueler. under the gas lamp, being challenged by the he ran, waded through the stream and find- as if it laughed over the misery it caused hudeceased, who was in uniform, in company ing that he had lost his hat when he fell, re- man bein's. But my opinions haven't anywith one of his squad. She swore that traced his steps, recrossed the stream, found thing to do with what you came to ask me when the corporal called 'halt' Short, whom the hat and then went to a hotel, where he about, and so I'll come to the point at once. she had known intimately for years replied, was seen by several witnesses to dry his wet 'It will be four years on Monday, the "Go to h-1," and, while standing at her clothing. His manner, his bearing and his thirteenth of next month-which is Mayside, so that their elbows were touching, both story itself convinced his heavers that he was that after eatin' my breakfast and smokin' being immediately under the gaslight, he telling the truth. pulled out a pistol, pointed it at the deceas. But, so that nothing might be wanting if gets through with about eleven o'clock, I ed, who was four or five feet from him, and any doubt remained in the minds of the started across the bridge, takin' with me my fired and then ran down the alley, the de- Judge or the jury, witnesses of undoubted little boy Willie, who, at the time was just ceased pursuing him, she heard four or five veracity who were called corroborated him risin' four years. He was awful tickled at more shots fired and immediately the deceas. as to the condition of his clothing and the bein' allowed to come out with me, as his saw both Ryan and Grey standing at the that although the man who had fired had trains. I don't think I ever see a finer morn-The speaker was a distinguished criminal that they separated and she went home. It | was perfectly dry. lawyer of nearly forty years' active practice | was also proved that the alley was bounded, | It is unnecessary to say that Short was the trees and grass green and fresh and onversation naturally enough drifted into a and side-whiskers, dressed in a light-blue of the relies of barbarism which still disgrace discussion of the dangers arising from con- army overcoat and white soft hat, and upon its administration in some States at this late utes ahead of time-I always do-and setting victing accused persons, whose own months being directed to look at the three prisoners day. immediately identified Short as the im -Philadelphia Times.

These were all the witnessess to the occur- treat, it stood him on his head! lished beyond doubt and the whole chain rence, except the prisoner's themselves, and, The congregation then arose and went for been made so perfect and complete as to of couse, they could not be heard. The case that 'ere sheep, but several well directed leave no room for any consistent hypothesis against Short seemed to be as conclusively butts just piled them in a heap. "The first murder case I ever tried," said sworn that they had seen him do the shoot- with curses long and toud, while rammy me of them, "was stranger than fletion, as | ing. Neither the Judge, jury, nor the spec- struck the hindmost man and shot him thro' on will admit, and is quite as remarkable tators entertained the slightest doubt of his the crowd. as any of the cases you have referred to guilt, and when the Commonwealth, at this The minister had often heard that kind-audible throughout the whole court room, for you so, I grieve and sorry am !" or concert of action between him and Short. ram-best sheepy in the town."

dence. The narrative produced so strong an and moved the Court to direct the jury to ram, rammy, ram forthwith return a verdict of "not guilty" ram.

Then came a scene as dramatic to those One winter evening about s o'clock in the present as anything ever witnessed on the early days of the war, in the quiet little town stage. Without any opening speech by The other night a policeman observed a man was a feelin' about my heart I can't tell in from his attorney, stepped out of the prison- avenue hall in a queer sort of a way, and he beseechin' me to save my boy ole prices, which are straggers from the camp of the based asked him if he belonged to the order in the conflict couldn't have lasted more are. The reason I the town, Corporal Julius Frye was shot and ers' dock and into the witness-box, looked asked him if he belonged to the order in the conflict couldn't have lasted more and was sworn to tell "the truth, the whole did, and the officer inquired, "Then why got the best of the other I never knew. I Would be attempt to show that Short had "No, sir." And you haven exception of water, all substances done the shooting in self-defense? That terest?" "I might as well tell you," said them like straw, yet I didn't seem to see in nature expand or become larger when in human blood, The third, whom I shall seemed the only thing possible. But how the man, after beating around a while long them like straw, yet I didn't seem to see putation, was regarded as one nulikely to tive testimony of three witnesses two of them ago, and somehow the story came back here nor ties, but dimly and mistily as in a slay a fellow-man except under compulsion living and in the court room, and one of that I was drowned. My lodge thereupon dream.

them dead-murdered. Ryan stood for a moment looking down in a silence, in which the falling of a feather might have been heard, he said:

"May I ask the Court a question ?" The venerable Judge, evidently surprised I weaken."-Detroit Free Press. "I understand that I am acquitted," said

Ryan, pausing for a moment, and then con-

Ryan's face grew pale, and then red, and had just been declared innocent and who, by Short and Ryan were tried together, with his own statement, was guilty of murder, it ed returned, wounded, and Short disappear- cut on his cheeks within fifteen minutes af- mother kept him mostly around the house. ed. While the shots were being fired she fer the occurence. Besides it was shown havin', like most women, a great fear of the orner some feet away from her and after waded through the streams, Short's clothing in', the sun well up, but not too warm, a and whose fame extended far beyond the on either side, by high fences, difficult to promptly acquitted and warmly congratula- glistenin' in the dew, and beneath us the climb, and led down to a stream of water ted on one of the narrowest escapes ever river flowin' bright and clear, just as you see about fifty feet wide and three or four feat | made by any man in a court room. Nothing | it now, sir. or in which, upon purely circumstantial deep. No traces of footsteps were found in could have saved him had the court refused

The next witness was the soldier who So much for the occasional unreliability of prisoners, described the person who fired and an opportunity to be heard on the witness- for the express to go by, which followed it ran down the alley as the man with red-hair stand, the denial of which by the law is one some fifteen minutes later. LAWYER XXX.

no wise shaken upon cross-examination. ram, fleece black as rubber shoe, and every-Then the sworn anti-mortem statement of where that Mollie went he em-i-grated to. culprit had been clearly demonstrated. the deceased, taken by a magistrate, was He went with her to church one day-the Most of the laymen present agreed with the read to the jury. He said that he had known folks bi-la-rious grew to see him walk de-ing worn by Short as it had been described | For Mr. Sheep walked slowly back about a rod, 'tis said, and ere the deacon could re-

made out as though a score of witnesses had Then rushed they straightway for the door point, closed its case, it seemed as though ness would subdue the fiercest peast, so the fatal rope was already around his neck "Ah!" he says, "I'll try that game on you." And so he kindly, gently called: "Come, Ryan heaved a sigh of relief which was rammy, rammy, ram; to see the folks abuse

he was safe; there was not one word of tes- With kind and gentle words he came from timony against him or any circumstances that tall pulpit down, saying, Rammy, ramtending to show any previous arrangement | my, ram; rammy, rammy, rammy, rammy,

After a whispered consultation between | The ram looked meek, and on he came,

it with his note of testimony taken upon the was resisted by the District Attorney, and, parson lit be lay beneath the hindmost seat. solutely correct, with the exception that I have used fictitious names, for reasons which have used fictitious names, for reasons which motion, and accordingly Ryan was declared town-I think 'twns "Yuba Dam!"-Quincy pet, and the thought of my duty and the Short's counsel, Ryan, in obedience to a nod hanging around the entrance of a Michigan words-I only know it was worse than death around the court room, took up the Bible session up stairs. The man replied that he than two seconds, and how the one feetin' truth." Every head was bent forward, every | don't you go up?" "Well, I was thinking | haven't got any recollection of turnin' back, ear was on the alert, every eye fixed on the of it." "Haven't been expelled, have you?" but the next thing I do remember, I was at witness-something startling was expected. "Oh, no." "Aren't afraid of anybody?" the switch workin' away like mad. I never Would be attempt to show that Short had "No, sir." "And you haven't lost your in- had such strength. I felt that I could have

could be be believed in the face of the posi- er. "I went down to Toledo a few days anything about me distinctly, neither rails passed resolutions to the effect that I was | "What I did see as plainly as I do nowhonest, upright and liberal, and a shining although it was behind me-was the clear

> ONE of our free-for-all-poets sends in an able effort commencing : In all the land the wheat fields stand, Golden ripe and tair to see, And bending low the reapers go, Swinging their cradies merrily. All but Rupert—why not he?"

HOW HIS DEVOTION TO DUTY SAVED MANY LIVES, BUT KILLED HIS BOY.

obtained a separate trial-and each was de- But, quietly and calmly, without a tremor, | years I was a brakeman, and if I'd stuck to it, | me, and so I tried to get better in order to as coolly as though he was describing some tri- I might have been conductor by this time- console her. It was two weeks before I was After the preliminary proof relating to the vial occurrence which he had causually wit- who knows? My character was good and I've out of bed, and quite two months before I post-mortem examination, the cause of death | nessed, Ryan went on step by step, detail- always been a steady man. But you see, sir, | was able to go around. I shall never be the and the identification of the body of the de- ing all that had occurred, and when he had it wasn't to be. My wife always objected to same man again. The company pensioned ceased as the person named in the indictment | finished his story there was probably not a | my runnin' on the train, it kept me so much | me and didn't want me to do any more work the Commonwealth called as its first witness | person present who was only fully convinc- away from home, not to speak of the danger; at all, but I couldn't bear to be idle. You a woman, Mary Bowen. She bore a bad ed not only that Ryan had told the simple and so at the end of the third year, when our see, sir, I wasn't brought up to it; and,

my pipe, which latter operation I generally white cloud here and there in the blue sky,

my house the week before-I began to think

"I reached the switch about fifteen min and didn't notice my boy. "Minute after minute passed away, and at girls leaning on the arms of their sorrowful last, when I began to be certain that some and heart-broken parents, the fine, many accident had happened, it came in sight just young men in the first bloom of life, their next minute she rounded the bend at full nest conversation with an old grey beaded man, whom he styled father. The signal speed. I knew that I didn't have any too much time to get the switch in position, and man, whom he styled father. The significant was given for all passengers to get on board. This, it seems, roused him, for immediately I went at my work with a will, when sudden- be caught the old man in his arms and kiss and then slowly lifting his eyes to the bench, ornament, and what was its loss was my and beautiful river flowln' on in the mornin' gain. I wasn't drowned, as you see, but I kind o' hate to walk in on 'em and bust those resolutions. I've tried it three times, and I can't get higher up than the fifth stair before waves dashed in his face and seemed to waves dashed in his face and seemed to do so after being placed in boiling water. laugh. I had no earfor the roar of the nearin' train, but all I heard—or seemed to hear are made hot, in order that by their contrac--were the cries to his father for help growin' fainter and fainter, and then the horrible in' fainter and fainter, and then the herrible which the universe is governed may be illus-gurglin' sound as he sunk finally and his last trated by water, which, as we have just ob-

If any one tells you that Aleck Stephens huge weight of lead seemed to fall on my layers.

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable circulation of the Cam deration of advertisers, whose farors will be in-orted at the following low rates:

Administrator's and Executor's Notices Antitor's Notices

Business Rems first Insertion foc. per line; each squent insertion &c. per line.

Jon Paintena of all kind neatly and expediti-usly executed at lowest prices. Don't you forget

A SKATER'S RAUE FOR LIFE.

in' my hands in hers. The doctor said I had Under the head of "Recollections of Fifty made a close shave of it, and at first I felt Years Ago," which has formed the caption of a goodly number of interesting sketches contributed to its local columns, we find the following in the last issue of the Fenongo

> As early as 1820 two hunters were encamp ed on Tionesta, near the spot now occupied by Newtown Mills. The men had come less for the purpose of hunting than to see the oundry, to examine the streams, to search there were for getting it to market. The only settler in that region then, above Oldtown, was Kingsley. Hezekish May lived at Oldtown, three unless above the mouth of Tionesta. It was at or near Kingsley's

of which exercise he was very fond. A severe cold shap had made three or four inches of smooth, solid lee, and Smith, the young explorer in question, had not forgotten his skates among his other traps. On this bright December night he calculated to have a little y flourishes in front of his camp to see that his skates were securely fastened he started ing Mary accosted her mother with "Ma, see ter the occurrence, he said: "I had gone perwhat a lot of stuff I found in Tolmmy's pock- haps two miles up the large stream. The caim. I could hear the echo of the ring of my steel skates on the shore as I passed top, a broken-bladed knife, a leather strap, swiftly along. Coming to the mouth of a smaller stream on my right I concluded to explore it a short distance. It was very of slate pencil, a worn out pocket-book, an ters of a mile I think I must have travelled byster shell, a wounded Jewsharp, a piece of fully two miles. Its average width was blue glass, a rubber ball, lump of chalk, two about sixty feet. Both banks of the stream dried fish-worms, a sling-shot, piece of In-lock, and the branches interlocked, forming dian rubber, two corks, a fractured comb, a complete canopy over my head, making piece of licorice root, a song book, two me-dule dark in comparison with the broad data and a invenile land tortoise. Tommy creek I had just left. How long I might looked thoughtfully, as the contents of his the beautiful scenery of this little stream ! pockets were deposited before the eyes of cannot tell. I was unpleasantly interrupts his mother, and sullenly remarked that it by a strange sound which I supposed at first was the hooting of an owl. As I listened the conclusion came to me that the noises came Next day Tommy captured the outside this sister's dress, and carrying the contents to his mother saves the live contents the live co ed, in the presence of Mary: "Ma, just see | had to follow the course of the windings of what a lot of trash I found in Sis' pocket:

and he produced from his hat the following knick knacks, viz: Three hair-pins, a soillife and for supper on part of the wolves. ed glove, a piece of chewing gum, three cards, a broken locket, elastic garter, piece animals is not a pleasant prospect. At about of rinbon, two state pencils, another piece of they fried to head me off from the big stream. broken tooth brush, more chewing gum, them on shore ready to spring upon me as bassed. I bent my head and brought every spool of sits, a thimble, a piece of cotion sat-urated with white powder, one nickle, two of danger. As I passed under full headway sour balls, gaiter beel, ivory ornament be-longing to a parasol handle, handkerchief speed they struck the ice quite a distance beperfumed with jockey-club, gaiter-feathoner, and felt relieved, but the race was not over withered geranium leaves, ivery-handled They followed me on down the stream. pen-knife with broken blade, a fan, five vis. was purfectly at home on skates, but all my iting cards, belt-buckle, box of rouge, anothne to escape their fangs. When they came er piece of chewing-gum, fragment of look- so near that I could hear their pattering or ing-glass, a peach-stone, a piece of damasse the ice I would wheel to the right or left and silk of the pattern of her friend Lucy's new gain upon them, for they could not turn as on for several ruls before they could also and a long brown hair entangled in a bunk their course. By this manouver of frequent tacking I kept out of their reach until our camp was in sight. We had two does chained up in the shanty and when they begun to and slid from the room with a grin of tri-bark and raise an uproar the wolves turned uppel on his roguish face. His sister made back and I was safe. How long the race but was probably not more than an hour-

> From Smith's description of the little stream and its zigzag course near its mouth, he undoubtedly went up Saimon creek. It empties into Tionesta fourteen miles from its mouth and two miles above Newtown.—

Wolves are scarce in Forest county to-day. Another sad sight of Irish misery was seen THRILLING EXHIBITION OF NERVE.—Bernard Kochler and Fritz Hisgen, two house painters, yesterday began painting the large house at Betta street and Central avenue. watched the group of emigrants wending their sorrowful way to the docks—the poor Three o'clock in the afternoon found them close up under the eaves of the house and own, when he would come over and perform a like service for him. Hisgen had just coma like service for him. Hisgen had just com-pleted his own knot when Kuchler cried out, a young man flung his arms around his old as quickly as possible, started across the aerial bridge, but had not gone two steps when with both bands grasped the almost smooth top of the fourth story window cornice and hibition of nerve that terrified every one who saw it. Placing the toe of one boot ed him repeatedly, saying, "Father asthore, do not grieve so; I will work, and soon earn against the window frame he gave his body a slight pendulum motion away from the house. A second push gave him better imget you when I go abroad." The tug was ready now; the whistle was given; then crashing through the glass safely to the floor of the fourth-story room, from whence he ture he had made to see what had become of winged its way to the throne of the God of justice. I walched the tug glide along in so fortunate. As he went shooting through the air he caught the hanging rope with both hands and lessened his speed all the be still morning air, and thought, perhaps, way down at the expense of all the enticle of have left our ports bearing our poor famished people have gone down beneath the Attion. He landed in a sitting posture on the lantic, leaving the bones of our kindred to sidewalk and was taken to the bospital with whiten on the bottom of the dreary waste of a pair of sore hips, - Cia. Commercia waters! Oh, Heaven, is there any remedy

CURIOUS HARITS.-Great men often fall into curious habits, which they find it impossible to conquer. Augusta Hare, one of the ripest scholars in the English pulpit, and a refined gettleman, when he had ended a train of hard thinking, would spin around on his heel a few seconds and then resome

The Power of Heat and Cold.-With work again.
he single exception of water, all substances | Neander, the famous church historian, could not lecture to his students unless he had a good goosequill to pull to pieces as be talked, and it was necessary to supply a second quill when the first was completely strip-action plainer than other bodies; and, as a per William Wilberforce became so absorbed structed entirely of iron, is shorter in cold in conversation in evening companies as weather than in warm. If the sun shines wholly to forget himself. He would lift himself from his chair in his carnestness, move forward a little, and gradually approach perilonsly near to the edge. It was a tradi-tion in fashionable English circles that he families where he was loved it was the custom to station one of the order children beed and guard him against peril. Some who afterward became leaders in the English society retained among the pleasantest mem-ories of their childhood the recollection of > little girls dresses, which they put water in and chalk. Cows chew cuds, and each cow

All but Rapert—why not he?"

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT
though it is a short job at best, and I must have done it that time quicker than I ever for learner's daughent it to the recommendation of the SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS in good condition. Cures sores, cuts, bruis-orns. Costs but little more than the imi-Every package has the trade mark. Call of medium height, weighing fully 200 pounds, mistakable indignation, came the answer:

And which might well be vaunted a watchword for

You can never be sure of achievement at last Unless you keep pegging away. There are shopmen who might into statemen have

But when once in the harness, however its fit,

Buckle down to your work night and day,

And, on field far away and irrevelent bent,

Keep pegging and pegging away.

SHOWING THAT DIRECT EVIDENCE MAY BE AS UNTRUSTWORTHY AS CIRCUM-STANTIAL EVIDENCE. "I never would convict a man on circum-

We had been discussing a recent cause to hell if he was not telling the truth.

where ignocent men have been wrongfully convicted upon circumstantial evidence. It tive testimony of eye-witnesses who tell He then related the main points of what was certainly a most remarkable and dramatic trial, and which constitutes a fair offset to some of the honorable cases to be found in every work on circumstantial evi- the counsel for the defense one of them rose with "rammy, rammy, rammy, ram, impression upon my own mind that subsequently with his consent, I put it into the as to Ryan, in order that he might be called The ram quick dropped its humble air that most of the actors in the drama are still of-, while patroling the streets to pick up committed to prison and brought to trial at the next term of court. Two of them were gamblers and desperadoes and supposed to ave more than once had their bands stained call Short, though bearing an uneviable reof circumstances. On account of the character of the men and the trouble they had already brought upon quiet, law-abiding citi-

In order to clearly understand the force of the testimony given upon the trial and the subsequent result it is important to bear in at being interrogated, looked at him and mind the physical peculiarities, dress and said: "Certainly, sir." general appearance of each of the three Prisoners.

Short was a small man, not more than five tinuing; "I want to know from the Court and Sara Bernbardt have been hired to Barnum, who intends to exhibit them as Cleopatra's knitting reedles, don't believe the weeks afterwards, with my old woman, God Sewickly, Pa.

sorry I had lived at all : but that didn't last "It's nigh eleven years now since I first long, for I knew there was another one-her come onto this road. For the first three that sat by me-that had suffered more than name for chastity, but nobody questioned truth, but also that he himself fired the fatal little boy was born, she begged me so hard to strange as it may appear, I didn't feel like her integrity or purpose to tell, reluctantly, shot in self-defence, or at least under such give it up, that I consented, and the company workin' anywhere except in the old place .-

n ineffectual grab for him, and as he passed to stop this heart-rending scene? What could not the Land bill do it it were to meet he expectations of our people? But no.

To quote the words of a modern orator, "Ireland asks England for bread, and gets when cooled. A church steeple is higher in summer than in winter. Metals show this consequence, Southwark Bridge, being con-through a curtain-ring while cold would not

One of those wise provisions of nature with served, is an exception to this rule of con-

nothing but a stone."

thinks honors are easy.

since. It's not hard! I've only got to tend "I found the lily be had gathered, just as I her drinking saloon, of which she was pro- He detailed bow he had fired the first shot one switch and do odd jobs about the depot. had placed it, in my jacket pocket, and gave prietress. She was a woman of powerful from a small, singled-barreled pistol in the The pay is fust as good as what I got before, it to his mother. She has it yet in a little physique, almost masculine frame, great air without any purpose except to give his only there's no chance for promotion; but glass case on the mantle-piece, all withered force of character and more than ordinary challenger a scare, and then ran down the then I'm at home all the time, which makes and faded, and there sir, it will always be, alley and upon being closely pursued by the it up. I live only a little way across the in sight of us both, till our time comes to join A BOY'S POCKET AND A GIRL'S POCKET.

> -Tommy is twelve years old. His sister is sweet sixteen and a half. The other mornand she deposited on the table the following articles, to-wit : Eight marbles, one a buckle, a bunch of old keys, a fishing line, a piece of lead, a smooth stone, four pieces dals and a juvenile land tortoise. Tommy

'was none of Sis' business, and wanted her let his tronsers alone." contents to his mother, sarea-tically observspool of silk, a thimble, a piece of cotton sat-ter place than this same world we live in. "The time table was a little different then down on a tie, I filled a fresh pipe and smoked away, while little Willie gathered pebbles, and, throwin' 'em in the water, taughed and shouted at the sparkles they made. Finally he ventured down to the edge of the water, and picked one of the lillies that grew there in abundance, he came in great glee and held it down at my feet. I put the flower in my jacket pocket carefully, so as not to bruise it, intendin' to show it to his mother. He lisped out that some pretty blue ones grew farther down, and begged me to let him go and get one of them ; but as it was almost train time I wouldn't let him; and takin' of the Dublin Freeman draws this pathetic him some ten or fifteen yards from the track, picture of Irish distress: set him down by the side of a tree-that maple yonder—and told him to stop there till I called him. The time for the train came and went, and still no sign of it. I grew nervous distant America. It was with sadness I five minutes before the express was due, beads bowed down in silent agony. Oh, it was a sight to move the bardest heart. At which I knew could not be more than three miles behind. I saw at once the cause of the was to convey them to the vessel. It was delay. The train was long and heavy, and bere that the pent up grief burst out. Here the engine—number forty-two, which the father's neck, solibing like a child, perhaps fireman had christened Old Rickety—was the bidding him the last farewell. One young worst on the road. The switch was all man particularly attracted my attention .ready, but the train moved so slowly that the tive of Connemara. He was standing on last car had hardly left the main track when I heard the whistle of the express, and the came alongside; he was engaged in ear-saw Willie strugglin' in the water. aw Willie strugglin' in the water.

"For a moment the sight of my child's danger overpowered everything else, and quick provided by the strugglin' in the water.

enough to see you soon in America, where you will not fear eviction any longer. Give me your blessing, father, and I will not foras thought I sprang for the river; but before hundreds of lives that might be sacrificed if I deserted my post, flashed through my brain all those poor emigrants might never reach their destination. How many ships that DIDN'T WANT TO DESTROY HARMONT .- as quick as lightnin', while all the time there breath rose to the surface. "At last the switch was all right, and al-

Ryan was fully six feet in height, of robust frame, dressed in dark clothes and wore a Derby hat.

Grey was a heavy, broad shouldered man of medium height, weighing fully 200 pounds, with a full black beard reaching nearly to his waist. But as the evidence subsequentity showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the shot it is showed that he had not fired the show in the showed that he had not fired the showed that he, at the fund the showed that he and gazed eagerly around for some slight that meight tell meant—an attempt to show the show that he showed that he, at which grow with she to thin that the show the show that he show the show that he show the show that he show the show that had to she show the show that the show the show that the show that he show the show the show that the show the shift of the show that the show the shift of the show that th

Speciator, published at Franklin, Pa. : hanty where these men had their camp. One bright moonlight night, one of the hunters, a young man of twenty-three years, ncluded to have a little pastime on skutes, dress an artificial flower, a horse-hair ring, Tommy placed the last article on the table

"You nasty little brat, if you get at my pocket again I'll slap your face." Toumy A SAD SCENE.-A Galway correspondent traction and expansion. From a certain the services rendered to this brilliant and elebrain, and all was black.

"When I came to my senses it was three my daughter's Paralysis.—W. E. Duncan, this is all there is about cows."

"Beruna had a remarkably good effect on my daughter's Paralysis.—W. E. Duncan, This is all there is about cows."