

Gambria Freeman.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1891.

The condition of the President has improved so steadily with each day since Friday last, that his physicians now do not entertain any serious doubts as to his ultimate recovery.

CHAIRMAN DILL has called for a meeting of the State Democratic Committee at Bolton's Hotel, Harrisburg, at 12 m. on Wednesday, August 10th, to determine upon a time and place for holding the next State convention.

The Legislature adjourned on the 9th of June, and on last Friday, just fifty days afterward, we received fifteen copies of the Legislative Record, bringing up the proceedings of the two houses to within a few hours of their final adjournment.

A GREAT many people think that Dan Rice is dead, but he isn't by a large majority, as he was alive and well in the city of Erie only a few days ago, where he exhibited his show known as "Dan Rice's Aggregation of Animal Curiosities and Wonderful Colossal Combination of Circus Talent," together with a good deal more of the same sort.

THE Irish Land Bill finally passed the House of Commons on last Friday night and is now in the House of Lords. It is believed that no attempt will be made in that body to amend the bill in any important particular, but that it will be pushed through as rapidly as possible.

GOVERNOR COTTRENDEN, of Missouri, in a recent conversation with St. Louis newspaper reporter, stated that when he was in Washington some time ago, and when the late Judge Clifford was in the enjoyment of his usual health (Judge C.) told him that he had prepared a complete and detailed history of the proceedings of the Electoral Commission, of which he was a member, and that it would be published after his death, unless his wife, who is the custodian of the manuscript, should otherwise decide.

REV. THOMAS FARRELL, for many years pastor of St. Joseph's church, in New York, died July 29th, 1890, and the monument provided for in his will was being erected over his grave in New York, and will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies. Under the date of his birth and death is inscribed, as directed by Father Farrell's will, the following exhortation: "I beseech you to love liberty, and above all, intelligence, and try to extend their blessings to every member of the human family. Hate tyranny, oppression wrong and suffering; but, above all, hate ignorance, the fruitful parent of evil to the human family."

SO RESPECTABLE a paper as the Harrisburg Patriot ventured in its last Monday's issue to say: "Should the decision of the Dauphin county Court in the legislative salary matter be affirmed by the Supreme Court, the next Legislature will pass a bill fixing the salary of members at $1,600. Stick a pin here."

THE downfall of Roscoe Conkling, although it may be viewed only as a time, is a fatal blow to the third-term re-elections of his political ally, U. S. Grant. Conkling was the brains, the hand and front of the movement, and to him, more than any other man, or number of men, that dangerous and anti-American doctrine owes its origin.

THE Kentucky election took place on Monday last. No State officers were to be chosen, but a Legislature was elected which will return James B. Beck to the U. S. Senate. He is a very able man and enjoys a high reputation in the Senate, second only to that of Thomas F. Bayard.

WITHOUT attempting to discuss the constitutionality or unconstitutionality of the ten dollar per diem clause in the legislative salary act of 1874, there is one fact connected with its passage that deserves special notice.

THE Chicago Times, which has a mania for breaking up political parties, has been interviewing a great number of representative men of all parties and shades of political opinion as to whether or not the attempted assassination of President Wright is a crime.

THE State treasury was wifally imposed upon at the last session of the Legislature by the men who procured the passage of the bill appropriating $250,000 for the annual maintenance of the National Guard.

THE High Breed organs may sneer at their place at Roscoe, but beneath all their sneers is plainly seen evidence of fear for his political power.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE Chicago Times, which has a mania for breaking up political parties, has been interviewing a great number of representative men of all parties and shades of political opinion as to whether or not the attempted assassination of President Wright is a crime.

THE State treasury was wifally imposed upon at the last session of the Legislature by the men who procured the passage of the bill appropriating $250,000 for the annual maintenance of the National Guard.

THE High Breed organs may sneer at their place at Roscoe, but beneath all their sneers is plainly seen evidence of fear for his political power.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

THE office of a Senator is a man's life, and he must devote his whole time for more important than that which he did on this side.

—A Chester county man has thirty-one acres of land, which he has been offering for sale for some time.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

—A man named Baker, who was arrested on suspicion of having murdered a woman, was sentenced to the State prison.

An Apparition of the Blessed Virgin. A PASTOR BLIND BEARS A VISION, PRE-SENTING HIS APPARITION AND EX-PLAINS IT TO MANY PERSONS.

A special despatch to the New York World, dated Philadelphia, July 31, tells the following remarkable story:

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

FOR about five weeks past Mary Don, the eight-year-old daughter of A. J. Don, of No. 505 North Third Street, Philadelphia, has been blind for over two years.

ESTABLISHED FOR THIRTY-YEAR. HAY BROTHERS. MANUFACTURERS. WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. SHEET IRON WARE. HEATING, PARLOR AND COOK STOVES. SHEET METAL. HOUSE-FURNISHING GOODS. JOHNSTOWN PA. CHICAGO & NORTH-WEST. LEADING RAILWAY. WEST AND NORTHWEST. STATEMENT OF SUFFERING. "OH MY GOD HOW DID I SUFFER!" "I Earnestly Prayed to Die." TAKE THE GREAT BURLINGTON RAILWAY.