H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

THE GREAT SKIN CURE

INFALLIBLY CURES

tous Humors, Ucers, Old Sores

and Mercurial Affections

when all other Human Agencies Fail.

he internal use of Surioura RESOLVENT, the new

For Susburn, Tan and Greasy Skin use Curr-una Soar, an exquisite todes, both and nursery anative, tragrant with delicious flower odors and on head, neck, face, arms and legy for seventeen cars; not able to walk except on hands and knees for one year; not able to help himself for eight years; tried hundreds of remedies; doctors pro-nonneed his case hopeless; permanently cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

y the Curteura Resolvent internally and Curt-

URA and CUTIOURA SOAP externally. The most conderful case on record. Cure certified to before s justice of the peace and prominent citizens. All afflicted with Itching and Scaly Diseases should send to us for this testimonial in full.

onl all description from a skin disease which ap-eared on his hands, head and face, and nearly

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, says: "After three months' use of the Currenta Remunres, and 12 years of as constant suffering from humor of the face, neck and soulp as was ever endured, I can her face, head and some parts of her body were stroyed his eyes. The most careful dectoring and Curneuna Soar, the Great Skin Cures.

healing baltams.

SALT RHEUM.

PSORIASIS.

SKIN DISEASE.

SCROFULA.

SKIN HUMORS.

"HE IS A FREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

-widowers.

VOLUME XV.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1881.

EN like duling or proceeding of any constraint or society and communications designed to call after-ion to any matter of limited or instridual interest, must be paid for its absorbisements. Jos Penvien of all kind neatly and expediti-usly executed at lower prices. Don't you larget

1 1 year, Administrator's and Executor's Notices. Auditor's Notices.

W ADVERTISEMENTS.

EPTEMBER 10, 1881. W GOODS! FOR EARLY FALL. TED AND OPENED THIS WEEK!

glish Silk Stripes, at 25 etc.; choice i good effects. i great efforts.

-wool Franch Armures, 42 (nches if eclops, at 50g, a yard, ready worth bargain worthy of spenial notice, friends to see the goods in our store ets in a combination of colors. a great variety of shades ind $4,50 a yard. box Cimbre Steipe and Plaid Bress inches wide, bt 75, 85, 90c. BEPARTMENT.

BLACE SILES. early Black Silke at $1.25.

lars and Garments of different revol shapes, in Salin de Lyon Serie Mervellkent ent Glellan QUES AND DOLMANS. on save from $15 to $25 on the purchasing early, and Children's Hosiery in close-Cotion, Merino and les Lacties Neckware, Span-k and cream. lankets.

I to show large and varied out possible values for the

BOGGS & BUIL.

GUIDE

before it, from I to 100 correctly.

frees on rurelpt of $1.00 Enclose. amp for Catalogue of Tones, ted in every State and County Edison Music Co., 215 & 217 Watern St.

AVLOR, Poet and Traveller.

Articles in One.

J. H. HI NTER M'F'G CO., Cincin'II O. Ag'ts Wauted.

A YEAR and expenses to agents.

Outpl. free. Address P. O. Vickery, Asymia. He.

365. Planus $125 up. #g-lifus, blress Realty, Washington, N. J.

Select Birrare to Spring St., K. F.

FROM D. Ct., 122 Names St. New York.

A TERRIFIC EXPERIENCE.

Turning over the leaves of my note book | ev did you have aboard ship?" kept daily for more than a quarter of a cenmemoranda, which alludes to one of the most | Thirtieth street, on Sunday afternoon."

Itching and Scaly Diseases, Scrofu- tective experience :

of a special messenger. on board the schooner "Dart," moored in the Bracely saw me bring aboard ship." murdered and robbed .- You had better go | left him, returned to the Central Office, call- conscious. down to the barge office, get a boat and board | ing the "shadow" away from Bracely, and | When I came to my senses I was lying requisite. Now, my man," ne added, ac- tion.

Frontasis or Leprosy, of twenty years' standing. On our way to the barge office, the sailor | tumbled into one of the low slums, or their- ironed together and closely guarded. informed me that the schooner "Dart," was ing resorts, then abounding in Water street. I subsequently learned that the door on a coaster, plying between Eastport and New calling for a glass of grog, and sat down the pier side of the box had given way, just York : that the captain, Mr. James Burleigh, amidst the general carousal. A group of as my antagonist had sprung upon me and had come on board the schooner at a late three persons at the farther end of the room, dealt the terrible blow that had deprived me hour on Saturday afternoon, having with seemed to attract his attention. They were temporarily of my senses, and that some exhim two canvass bags, containing one thous- two men and a boy. One of the former had cellent "club work" upon his own head had F. H. Drake, Esq., Detroit, Mich., suffered be- and dollars in gold each-that he had taken | densely black hair, black eyes, a very short | been the means of saving me. an early supper and gone ashore, telling the black beard, and a most ferocious counte- The two who had fallen into the water watch to keep a sharp lookout for river | nance. failed to help him, and after all had failed he used the Christian Rimotyrry internally, Curitina and Ciricums Soar externally, and was cured, and nas remained perfectly well to this day.

violent noise in the cabin which awakened | the progress of the game.

what remarkable on record. I have been so clated with my success that I have stopped men on the creek who were afflicted and told them to get the Zutleura Remedies and they would core them." durest raw. Head covered with scale and sores, and tried everything. Fermismarks of bloody halids upon various artitemestics are for sale by all druggests. Price of The captain's night dress had been torn in of the night." THE TRANS A Medicinal Jelly, small boxes, Sec.; shreds, and his bair was disheveled and mat-Blood Further, Si per bottle. Curreum Manuel body. I fancied there were signs of life about gave him into my custody. WEERS a POTTER, Boston, Mass. of blood, when the surgeon arrived from the alone, "tell me all about the night you went sallants. in various places, some of which was black, tell nothing, kin I?"

out of the buny some of which was black, tell nothing, kin I?" where, some sandy in color, and some nearly white. "Very well; if you don't know anything, Captain Burleigh's hair was almost white; you shall be made comfortable. Pull off duce such as pumpkins, turnips, cabbages, that she could get a new bottle te-morrow. A UDITOR'S NOTICE.—In the matand an examination of his hands, which were your shoes, New put on this slipper—it is some chestnuts, etc. "I also have," said he. By this time she was arrayed in her long of the account of Margaret Kittell, Admin-of William Kittell, Lag., decenced.—In the Court of Combus County.

Court of County.

Court of County.

County County.

Court of County.

Court of County.

Court of County.

County County.

Court of County.

Court of County.

County Co

A UDITOR'S NOTICE. In the mat-

floor was among the other articles found. It "You kin never git them two," he contin- wagon, and the cider was closed out in more casy to dream of great arbievements She maker, Ear, in Phenshor, on Tharethe first shock, ims shrieked and tumbled down before adverse fate.

The boy proved to be correct. The rufthe first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of the boy proved to be correct. The rufthe first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of
the first shock, ims shrieked was a receipt from one Josiah Grandle, of the first shock in the f

A UDITOR'S NOTICE, The under-He said he knew Captain Burleigh well, and, | would serve, to attempt it that night. ocket-book, he said :

A DITOR'S NOTICE.—The undersigned, having been appointed Auditor to hour and decide on the exceptions filed to the secoud and final assecut of Alexander McMullen, serviving Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel McMullen, late of Allegheny township, deceased, hereby gives notice that he will sit at his office in Ebeusburg, on Tuesday, October 18th, 18M, at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the purpose of attending to the duties of his appointment, when and where all persons interested attend if they see proper.

A.V. BARKER, Auditor.

Ebensburg, Sept. 25, 1881—21.

noney away and not return this receipt ?" "Bless your dear soul !" said the old man, "he didn't take it away, he left it here."

This complicated matters still more.

sarily fatat, and that he had been brought on A faint glimmer of light came through the fire like I expected ye would, I'd harangued got a ride with a teamster, and rode with shore to the City Hospitat. money in the hands of the said Asshence as shown by his account confirmed Sept. Sah, isst, notice is then proceeded to the hospital, where, after an hour's delay, I was permitted to see Capanal where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see and where all interested may attend if they see that Burleigh. He was a man of splendid that I will attend to the daties of my and bought my last parsing.—

I sent a messenger to shadow the sallor was suddenly extinguished. There was a hurrying of feet above us, the trap lifted, and then we could hear the sound of our men on the pier, battering at the place over that a proper.

The party who had been the heaviest purchased with a proper with the piece over the pier. The party who had been the beaviers purchased with a proper with the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins that the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins the piece over the pier was no one it; Miss Higgins the piece over the pi physique, clear-eyed, bright-faced and intel- One of the inmates lowered himself down, that animal laid his ears back on his neck, the tea table stood there, laden with good > slowly. the captain, "and was no more in than I him a desperate pull and broke his hold.- ble ter swallow some one." was asleep. I was awakened suddenly with Unfortunately the boat careened, and pitch. He then dropped down into his seat and His unusual fatigue had overpowered him, about advertising. So long as they have an "Wuzzit a clish'h, or engine blowed by The doctor said it was a train wrecked," a sound as if something heavity had fallen ed him and the officer overboard. The man drove off, remarking that when he went acthey to the floor, and although the binnacle light above was about to follow, but discovered him. think it is sufficient and trost to flock for the turned to about to follow, but discovered him. Auditor. was burning rather dimly, saw two men and a boy in the cabin. They knew I was awake close the trap. The quickness of my moveabout as soon as I did. One of them struck ment defeated his object. I sprang up thro' properly probated for settlement.

DENNIS CAWLEY, Executor. and leaping from the berth, grappled the one f had counted upon being immediately stake, well done, with onions "Twenty-room at his excellent breakfast." LAND FOR SALE.—The undersign from him, and hurled it with all my strength at the other, who was standing near the cable of land these Springs which he will sell very should not easy terms. There are about roarr actual element, the balance being well-covered with sew timber, principally home with the balance being well-covered with sew timber, principally home with the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with July 15, 1881-tf.

The undersign from him, and hurled it with all my strength at the other, who was standing near the cable of the water as to have apparently forgotten me. The door overhead continued to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with an infuriated and desperate criminal in a box not high like the cabin are the cabin to the water as to have apparently forgotten me. The door overhead continued to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the efforts of the men on the pier, and I found myself caged with an infuriated to resist the cabin, the cabin th from him, and hurled it with all my strength so intent upon saving their comrade who had don't charge anything for the gravy." place?"

we all stumbled upon the table and went intensely dark. The situation was simply down by the run. This was all I remember- appalling, and yet demanded coolness and decisive action.

ed until I came to this place." "But the money, captain? How much mon- Crouching closely down in the corner of "Not a dollar, sir! Fortunately I had left awaited the ouslaught of myantagonist with tury-my attention is rivited upon a brief my money with old Mr. Grandle, of West an emotion impossible to describe. The din overhead precluded my hearing if he was "I thought the deck-hand was deceiving making any movement; and in the absence

The flash of the pistol lit the box with a momentary glare, but sufficiently to show "A more bonest man than Tom Brazely that my ugly companion was lying prone keener, until all the details come to mind | never walked a deck," he answered; "but upon his face, with his long and muscular THE CUTICURA TREATMENT, for the cure with a force and a distinctness absolutely we Downeasters are full of tricks. The fact arms extended at full length, as if feeling of Skin, Scalp and Blood Diseases, consists in painful, and of which I cannot, even at the is that when my gold was being put up inbags for his prey. The instantaneous flash had present moment, think without a motion of at the broker's, I bought two empty ones, revealed my position also. The bullet sped just like them, and filled them with cotton. harmlessly above him, and before I could It was a little after midnight, early one The cabman who drove me to Mr. Grandle's fire again he was upon me with the fury of tratefully acknowledges a cure of Sait Rheum | Here is a sailor who says he is a deck hand | there; and these were the bags that Tom | the butt of my pistol. A terrible crash followed and in the same instant I received a North River, and that his captain had been As the captain was growing fatigued, I terrible blow that rendered me utterly un-

the schooner, and take such steps as may be gave myself opportunity for a little reflec- upon the pier, my head being supported by one of the patrol, who was wiping the blood had also been rescued, and in a little while His companion was of an exactly opposite | we were all at the Central Office. It was The sailor thought it must have been about complexion, having light eyes, sandy hair, some days before I was able to resume my ten o'clock when the captain returned, and and wearing no beard. These two were duties and appear in court against the prisothat it was nearly twelve when he heard a playing cards, and the boy was observing ners. No trial was had, however. Captain Burleigh had also recovered sufficiently to him. Calling one of his companions, they In a few moments the sailor recled out of appear, and the boy being ready to testify in burst the cabin hatch, and upon entering, the place, turned toward the river front, behalf of the State, the array made the ease they found Captain Burleigh lying on the passed into the open doorway of a tenement a hopeless one for the accused. They pleaded my that I am cuted, and pronounce my case the floor, bleeding from numerous wounds, house, and was lost in the darkness. Five guilty and were each sentenced to fifteen

A CAMPAIGN INCIDENT.

h the products of the farm and garden, and drawn by a dilapidated horse attracted such snowy biscuit and honey, such golden considerable attention in Titusville the other | butter, such cakes and sweetmeats had not cles scattered about, and also upon the sides When you capture him bring I im to head. day. The occupant of the vehicle was a little old man in homespun, who rode with one her benign victory rose before her as she foot on the outside of the wagon-bex. In- took off the liftle switch of hair at the back terest in the odd-looking turnout was greatly of her head, and pensively rolled it up ere increased when the driver reigned up in she put it in the top bureau drawer. front of the Petroleum World office, and rais- She saw again the sinking sun shining in exr. 15.; in ters for burbers and large con- it, and had commenced staunching the flow, "Now, my lad," I said when we were ed a small sign-board in his wagon, upon through her house plants in the window, upwhich was inscribed in an uncouth hand :

> COUNTRY PRODUCE POLITICAL ISSUES DISCUSSED.

when the little old man stood up in the crazy | the frosting on the fruit cake did not seem wagon and made a formal announcement to be flavored quiet enough." But this that he had for sale a nice lot of garden pro- haunting memory was softened by the tho't the best ever brought to ver town."

you fly cops," he blubbered again. "Will I a man from the curbstone.

there had been two assailants; and the slip- "Not if you tell me the truth," I answered. soon as I sell some ov this truck out ov the back on the carpet, hitting her head as she where parties interested may attend per evidenced the fact that they had been And with this assurance he made a com- wagon so as I kin have a pince to stand." did so on a chair rocker. There was her they think proper.

AUSTOPH McDONALD, Auditor.

Elember Mc we term them-a class of waifs, without me the names of the criminals, telling me struck something in the way of a political Miss Higgins had often fancied how she homes or parental restraint, who live about that they had seen the captain when he went orator, and it was plain that they meant to would awe such a robber, such a burglar, be estate of Wm. Brookbank, late of the wharves and piers, and are used by the on board the schooner with the bags in the encourage him, even before he had made the with her fearless and searching glances; now for two bars of gold, each containing one guidance we located the place. The "dock- for Old Tippecanoe; an' besides, it's made wither away before a calamity. Not long thousand dollars. The receipt was dated crib" was constructed of rough boards, un- uv as fine fruit as ever growed on a tree." did she lie there; but as short as the time the very day of the robbery, and bore upon | der one of the North river piers, and formed 'See here! tell us about Maine!" yelled a | was, when she lifted her head the man con-and the pocket-book, and went ashore, side, but this was available only at low tide Pumpkins, squashes, parsnips, etc., were peated before he answered, with drooping when on the stump discussing the great is-but it was ten o'clock before the tide had ed bowled it down street with an oath, and neath the warm light of the kerosene gleamboat approached the end of the pier, I stood | The crowd was breathless with anxiety, or light of Eunice Higgins' eyes, the inquisition up in the stern sheets, opened and closed my would have been had it not been yening was continued. From which these facts

Goods are all sold without it. If ye'd hung early in the morning, he said, and he had chinks between the boards of the box, but it ye till sundown. But ye kem right up like him till afternoon, so he must have come I sent a messenger to shadow the sailor was suddenly extinguished. There was a little men, and bought my last parsnip .- some distance. After the teamster stopped

MISS HIGGINS'S MAN.

For thirty years Miss Higgins had looked under the bed every night and had never found a man there, yet still she looked. Whether it was fear that impelled that death like research or a fatality that was beckoning her to her fate, I know not. It would seem, wever, to be the former, for she had often been beard to observe: "That of all the abominations on earth, a man was the most abominable."

Indeed, at the informal tea-drinkings of the allied forces of Chesterville, the three Misses Wheeler and the two Misses Jones, she had often excelled them all in the wither ing tone which she would repeat: "Man, man!" and no one could breathe greater defiance at this forman than she. It was at one of these tea parties that they had entered into a solemn compact that, in the event of Women's Rights giving either of these allies sovereign power of the nation, an Eastern law was to be imported and improved, and husbands buried with the dead bod-

As Eunice Higgins well remarked : "That would put an end to widowers pretty lively." And with this remark the Hyson flowed, and the wassail went on-with such a spirit that Aurelia Wilder, the most radical, added another clause: "That the children of widowers should be thrown in too, and not be a botherin' other women." This was also well received. Now if any one thinks that Miss Ennice Higgins was a woman devold of virtues and womanly graces, I pity them-they are so utterly mistaken. She had assisted a drunken father through the world, till he made his exit-sustained and supported a feeble mother-and three or four children, older but more helpless than she, till the mother went home to her reward, and the children had found flourishing homes for themselves, with the exception of the oldest son, who had followed his tather's footsteps, literally. Indeed, when one contemplates the specimens of manhood she has been familiat with, her aversion to the sex does not seem so wonderful. She was not shrew-eyed, but good and kindly looking. No home was brighter than hers. No farm was better managed. The night on which commences my humble history, Miss Higgins went to her room in usual good humor. She had had a tea A crazy-looking buckster wagon, filled party. The affles had been present, and adously that such fragrant ten; on the drugget of the dinning room; the snowy tea table, with its silver and sprigged china; the admiring faces of her friends as they took of her delicious food. But no memory disquieted her. She almost mistrusted This legend soon attracted a large crowd, her lemon extract was losing its strength-right angles, she looked up at her breast-pin, per, not larger than those owned by lads of "It's no use trying to keep anything from "What about the political issues?" yelled and then impelled by fate she caimly advanced to the side of the bed and raised the 'We'll come to that by-and-bye-jes' as snowy valances-gave one shrick, and fell > she would defend her property with her life. finding them filled with cotton instead of The cider was the first thing they tackled. Let us not be too hard with her-she is not As many men as could gather around the the only one of us who has found that it is than to accomplish them. She is not the on-"Drink hearty, gents," the little old man ly one who, at the first shock, has shricked deed, not more than seven years old, and "Don't fret the cattle," was the old man's | small at that, very good looking and well clothed, although exceedingly disheveled and

> "How came you here, under my bed ?" This was the first question, but it was re-

"I've runned away." "Run away from where "" "From our folks." "Who is your folks?"

were gleaned:

"Father." Here the dialogue terminated suddenly-"Gents, this is the last shot in the locker, Eunice Higgins became suddenly conscious that a night-grown and night cap was not the Twenty-five or thirty men, apparently, of proper raiment in which to entertain even so fered to purchase it. The man who succeeds small a man. Out in the sitting room, being through rose geraniums, and the keener tried with his father because he wouldn't let "No occasion for a speech now, gents .- kim go to a circus, that he ran away. It was ligent. Although very weak, he managed to and as he did so his feet touched the gun- and showed his teeth in the most vicious things; he had helped himself generously, and then, as be heard her step suddenly ont and attempted to draw himself up again, "I forgot ter tell ye," said the old man, side, guilt, which makes cowards of as all, "I was very fired on Saturday night," said when one of the officers seized him, and gave quietly, "not to go near Romeo, fer he's liadrove him into the bedroom, and, as the step came nearer and nearer, under the bed. merchants use but very little judgment asked as he sat straight and tried to look w needed now was a good supper and a bed, game to drop. They are alming for duck Notice is hereby given to all persons indebted to at me with an iron bar, just as I was rising the question again vexed by and get crow. Advertising requires as much being delay to the undersigned, who has been grant to the testam entry on said estate, and those having chaims against the same will present them.

But in the morning the question again vexed but, the end of the bar grazing and get crow. Advertising requires as much ber. What was she going to do with her and good judgment as good j who had struck at me, wrenched the bar followed by one of the officers, but they were five cents." "And the gravy?" "Oh, we "Whereabouts do your folks live--in what ed inquest sat on Miss Higgins's man. The A WOMAN MARRIES A WOMAN. additional result of their over-questioning being that the father of Miss Higgins's man belonged to the corrupt and shameless sect once? Was it not partly encouraging wid. effect that a certain nice young man, Mr. G. owers in their nefarious duings, to harbor M. Polter, who had been a happy man for these small men ?"?

Miss Higgins trembled.

arms been upon her, and it was with great relief that she heard the decision of Aure. Jids man of her choice, and with the full conlia, the most radical of the allies. "No: keen him here. Such a chance was the child. Let him think he was lost; let truth for it foundation. him hunt him up the best way he can." forty and naturally timid and apprehensive Chronicle, these men to come right here to Miss Hig. genial couple, Mr. and Mrs. William Potter gins's after him. There wasn't anything at the Franklin House, one of Harrisburg's they hadn't the face to do. It would be just most home-like hotels. I, one day, related like one of them to walk into her sitting. this story, when Mr. Potter told me S. M. that she would like to see him; walk into her | public, that, what was considered a reckless bouse. He wouldn't stir a step beyond the thing, may be properly understood. hall, and as for that stair carpet she was going to take it up and clean it anyway." This remark, which was warmly applauded, terminated the conference.

Johnny did not seem at all averse to the arrangement. He was at the age when bodily ling; was always lover-like in her manner to comfort overshadowed the mental. He appeared to have a great deal of affection for was one of them. Some years ago she had his father, but there was a Sarah Ann at the gone to the far West. In some way her very mention of whose name he gnashed his trunk was lost -a big Saratoga-with all ber teeth. "She was nwful; she ind shaken womanly attire. She was the independent him, pinehed him and nulled his hair."

ed within her at the recitat of his sufferings. She was the youngest child of her parents, for employment. knowledge.

her mun, for the best of boys have unreg. no difficulty in getting work, for which she lated movements; looked benignantly at aim | was well paid. ing and out of one of her second-best morochim in pursuit of it.

Opening it, she confronted a pleasant lookwither him.

'I have been informed, madam, that there

Instead of the prussle acid and vinegar

"Is he here now "

an olive branch.

"Yes, sir, he is." His auxious eyes so brightened at this that she entirely forgot her carpet and her enmity, and actually invited him in. No sooner had he seated himself than

Johnny ran in with eager eyes, "Father! Father!" He threw his arms around his father's neck and kissed his bearded lip, and then, in his delight, be turned and threw his arms around Eunice's neck, and kissed her with us any man; but in form she is a perfect the same pair of lips, and still Miss Higgins | woman. could say, in the dying words of the great statesman : "I still live!" Mr. Dale was a man of means and leisure.

She will again burst out upon us, as a man of business, a 'Richard III.' a 'King Lear,' or 'Othello,' for I predict her boy's nature will necess. He thought the air of town exceeding good. He obtained board for the summer, for himself and son, at the little hotel. But in all and train Chesterville, no air was so solubrious, he Reading News. thought, as the air of Miss Eunice Higgins's parlor; consequently he sought that hearth-

Day after day Mr. Dale trend over the immagniste purity of her carpets, and they ers and ablest men of their profession to be were not taken up and cleaned. Hourafter found mywhere. There were noc hour did be sit upon her sofa, and it was not | no frands or quacks minong them that we purified with soapsuds and benzine. And at last, one peaceful twilight, it was benefit to the people who will be under their

at the time, of sound mind-Johnny's father vention here at the same time, and a ra-When I say that she did not immediately some unaccountable mistake, and on inqui kissed Miss Higgins on her cheek.

prepared for the result that followed. The next week Eunice Dale, late Higgins, between two doctors and tell nelse p. forces of Chesterville; her name was washed out in the hot streams of Hyson, and still and arms and legs, bones and everything more burning indignation. But Eurolee made and a doctor was illustrating some operation be had performed. The railroad fellow is a happy home for her man and his father, she wisted not of the "allied" proceedings ribs and said: "Been a nac (bic) cident And thus endeth the story of Miss Higgins's THE SECRET OF ADVERTISING .- Some bi

"What do you ask for nicely cooked beetmediately stake, well done, with onious?" "Twentyfive cents." "And the gravy?" "Oh, we who had don't charge anything for the gravy."

"You don't? That's liberal. How much do ontinued you charge for bread?" "We throw in the piece of peach pie midway between his plate
the other evening gave them a very brain questioned him in the sun-lighted dintugroom at his excellent breakfast.

"Whereabouts do your folks live—in what place?"

"You don't? That's liberal. How much do you charge for bread?" "We throw in the piece of peach pie midway between his plate
the other evening gave them a very brain questioned him in the sun-lighted dintugroom at his excellent breakfast.

"Whereabouts do your folks live—in what
place?"

He tooked up mildly at her, with a large
piece of peach pie midway between his plate
the other evening gave them a very brain duestioned him in the sun-lighted dintugroom at his excellent breakfast.

"Whereabouts do your folks live—in what
place?"

He tooked up mildly at her, with a large
piece of peach pie midway between his plate
the other evening gave them a very brain ways pays. There are some business men who seldem advertise and sending lier to bed and second by taking into the toest, first by calling the commatted ways pays. There are some business. Judicious advertising alwho seldem advertises, and they are always who seldem advertises, and they are always
who seldem advertises, and they are always and second by taking into the toest, first by ealling the commatant of the toest, and they are always who seldem advertises, and their trade. They treat and second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the toest and second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the room as who seldem advertises, and their trade. They treat the second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the treats and second by taking into the tr when trade is dull they say they cannot afford to advertise. Moral: Repair a lonky roof when it is fair weather, and advertise in all sens are. Advertising pays all parties interested better than any other commercial investment.

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable of colonia is of the Cambria Frances consideration of a trariform, whose favors will be inserted at the following for rates:

I inch. Stimes

6 months.

f months.... Star Smonths tray and similar Notices

SPOURL TO WHAT WAS SUFFOSED TO BE A SENSATIONAL STORY—THE PACTS.

Some four years ago quite a sensutional article appeared in the San Francisco Chron-"Had she not better dispose of her man at | icle, copied from a Tuscarora paper, to the about a year, was not a gentleman, in fact, She asked these questions with some re- but a lady in disguise, and that his, or her, lenting of heart, for already had the childish young wife was to be married immediately by a young clergyman of the town to a bona sent of her husband, the lady man,

Here the story was abruptly left, incomnever vonchsafed to the allies to teach one of picte, and though we renders of the Chronicle these men-widowers - a lesson they would anxiously awaited the sequel we awaited in not soon forget. Ponish that wretch, that vain. it never came, and the story was finalunnatural widower, by saying nothing about Iv regarded as a Chronicle canard, with no

This same little story appeared in many The younger Miss Jones -- she was only eastern papers, copied from the enterprising suggested that it would be just like one of Some weeks since I chanced to meet a real was his sister, Sarah Melissa Potter, and Here Miss Higgins remarked with spirit gave me her history, which I now give to the

She is a lady of about thirty-five years, and has always been eccentric, having from ber childhood something of she boy nature, preferring tops, kites and horses and out-ofdoor pursuits to doll babies and dish washgirls, treating men and boys more as if she to send home for money, as her friends had Eunice Higgins's warm heart almost melt. disapproved of her leaving the home nest. -She tried for many days to find employment, A week passed away, and daily had Miss but tailed and became dispirited and dis-Higgins's man gained upon ber affections, couraged, her money all gone and no hope and had never known the delights of child. | Early one morning, sceing a kindly-faced ish society. She had dwelt so long alone, woman in a store, she went in, told her that to have that bright, manly little face on- story, and then and there made a trade, posite hers at the breakfast table, looking gave her womanly garments in exchange for out of the window, bading her return from a suit of boy's clothes and a little money .-her short absence, his merry, innocent prat- With the money she had her hair cut man tle and ringing laugh, were all more agree. fas..lon, got a good breakfast, and paid her tardinisty found employment, such as driv-She grew leplent to the boyish nerve of ling a baggage wagon. After this she had

as he capered in the garden paths in start. She met with various young ladies, to ling preximity to her marrowfats and clust. Whom she paid more or less attention, and ering encumbers. She raveled out a stock. finally made the acquaintace of Miss Emma Blank. The two were mutually pleased ca shoes made a ball for him; and when he with each other, and were much together. lost it in her best meadow, she herself boldty. The father of the young budy was not ravorbreasted the clover waves, side by side with able to the jotimacy, and forbade the young So that beautiful week passed away, and | she, the daughter, told S. M. of her unlianone morning Eutifice Higgins was called from piness at home, having no mother, nor six her snowy dairy rooms by a ring at the front, ters, she was quite alone with her father,

S. M. told the secret of her womanhood ing man of about her own age. Woman's and offered to take for under her protection unerring intution said to her, "That is he," until she should find the right one, the man Here was the opportunity to wither him with | of her choice and worthy of her affections. glances. But how could she when he looked This could not be done without a marriage, so much like Johnny, just such a pleasant, so the two were duly married and kept manly look to his face. Eurice did not house as Mr. and Mrs. Potter. S. M. succreded well in business, well supported his has been a boy, runaway boy, here-is it home with him to dine or pass the evening, the young lady lad ample opportunity to make the acquaintance of a number of genthat she had designed to have in her tone, themen, of whom S. M. seeing them daily in the likeness to her man so softened her their ordinary business pursuits, could judge voice that it was only pleasantly acidulous as to character and their worthiness of the like a ripe lemon, as she replied, "Yes, sir, love of a good girl. Among the number one seemed particularly pleased with Emma. and as a gentleman and an honorable man, he told S. M. he must discontinue his visits. Then came disclosures and explanations and avowals among the three, which ended in the marriage of the two, with the full consent and approval of S. M., who was present at the marriage and gave away the bride.

So the stray became known, and quickly found its way into the papers. Mr. Potter says S. M. has used the chest tones, until now she talks quite as mannish She is at present with her mother near Binghamton, and has again denned woman ly attire, but she does not seem satisfied, or it case in it, and there is no telling how soon not long submit to the restraint of petticoats THOUGHT THERE WAS AN ACCIDENT .ful retreat often, Johnny going before like The Milwankee Son relates the following The convention of doctors from all over know of, and their meeting must have been on the 14th of September, at the close of a care. There was one aughable thing occur long conversation—both of the parties being ters of the United States were having a con-burn it out with lunar caustic, you may be was directed to the hall occupied by the and rejoicing in their content and her own, ing to the doctor on the left he punched

Philadelphia, Pa.

notice is hereby given that I will attend to the su-les of my appointment, at my office in Ebensburg, in Thursday, the mith October next, at 2 'clock, r. s. when and where all interested may attend if her see proper; F. A. SHOEMARER, Ebensburg, Sept 25, 1881,-3t. Auditor. A UDITOR'S NOTICE. - In the mat-itles of my said appointment at the lotel of Ebensburg, Sept. 23, 1881,-38.

A UDITOR'S NOTICE, -In the mat-

Having been, on the motion of Johnston & Scan-an. Fags., appainted Auditor to report distribu-ion of the money in the hands of eard accountants.

Dean Twp., Aug. 19, 1887, -5t.

BY AN OFFICER OF THE UNITED STATES SE-CRET SERVICE.

exciting and dangerous passages in all my deleigh, schooner 'Dart,' 12:50 A. M." and, as derstand his motive," I con it over, the remembrance of the events to which it is the key grows brighter and Blood Parifier, and the external use of Curreura horror.

H. E. Carpenter, Esq., Henderson, N. V., cured

fice we were on board the schooner. The in- of shadows." struggle had taken place between the cap- came up. The cabin table had been broken down, and there were you only want the boy now?"

Central Office. Leaving the captain to his aboard the 'Dart' with those river thieves? COLLINS FOR COLLING VOLTAGE there skillful offices, I began picking up the If you tell me the truth, you shall not be hans' Court of Combris County.

In the blanch and sandy hairs adhering to the fingers.

A further search disclosed a small list slip intuite balance to the bands of the Administra is shown by her arranger, and to distribute the per, not larger than those owned by lads of the state of the careful search of the bands of the b The different colored hair indicated that be hurt?"

old river thieves in effecting entrances to the afternoon, and depicting their chagrin at suggestion regarding business. Summerfill township, deceased.
On motion of F. A. Shoemaker, Esq., Harry G.
Ross'appointed Anditor to report the items against the parties in interest, make distribution of the amount of the recognizance, and also of the fund in the hands of A. V. Barker, Esq., Truetes, &c.

By the Caurt.

Notice is border also that I will be the fund had been rifled of its contents. A leather pocket-book lying on the cabin gold.

suppore of attending to the duties of his appointment, when and where all persons having claims in said find most present them, or be decarred from coming in on said find.

A. V. BARKER, Auditor.

The solution of the solution. Day broke as I landed at the barge office, Having made a reconnoisance of the place purchased rapidly, the old man remarking head and glances: and took my way to the residence of Josiah in daylight, I judged it best to make the at- that the drudgery of farm-life was distaste-Grandle, whom I found with much difficulty. tack first from the pier side, and as tide ful to him, and he was only truly happy

> "Yes, I gave that to the captain on Satur-"But how came the captain to take the that Captain Burleigh had recovered con- had seen and understood it, and glided unsciousness; that his wounds were not neces- der.

the box into which I had been thrown, I me, when he said you came on board with of any better expedient I pointed my pistol The notation reads briefly: "Captain Bur. | two bags that day; but I am at a loss to un- | in a straight line from my head and fired.

The captain smiled. Sunday morning, as my book shows when I | might have been honest, but I did not know | an enraged tiger. washurridly summoned to the Central Office | that. He saw me carry two bags into the | I could feel him coming as one feels a dead house and bring two out; but I left the gold stillness before some awful explosion, and "Sorry to disturb you," said the inspector, and brought out the cotton. This was to de- dropping close to the floor, I turned partially Will McDonahl, 2542 Dearborn Street, Chicago, as I came in : "but the case is an urgent one. ceive him as to my having left any gold upon my side, and struck out wildly with dressing the saitor, "you go with the officer." That same night a half drunken sailor from my face. Near me were the culprits, minutes afterward there emerged from the years' imprisonment at bard labor. In about half an hour after leaving the of- same doorway, Mr. Joseph Tracer, the "king terior of the cabin indicated that a terrible "What luck, Mr. Tracer?" I queried as he

The whole party is inside sit quarters. I shall lodge there for the balance threads likely affording some clue to the as- harmed; if you deceive me, I shall send you to the penitentiary." PLASTERS ance the public. They instantly relieve Dyspensia, ver Composition, Mularia. Forer and Agnet, and of the built's eye revealed little tafts of hair sniveled; "If I don't know nothing, I can't had been rifled of its contents with the ex- ued; "they'll know I'm pulled, and they'll short order at five cents per cup. the margin the words: "This receipt was a cavity of about twelve feet in length by | political man, whose thirst was for political fronted her. He was a very small man, in given to me at two P. M.;" but the sailor seven in width. It was not more than four information. had informed me that the captain had come | feet in depth, owing to the proximity of the on board at four o'clock on the afternoon in water line at high tide, and had a point of question, having the gold, for he had seen ingress and egress from the pier. There One man bought all the chestnuts he had, uncomfortable in appearance. was also a trap in the centre of the floor, in order, as he said, to reduce the stock, and 1 gathered up the tufts of hair, the slipper | which rendered it accessible from the water | get around to the political issues.

upon being shown the receipt found in the My plan was to run a boat under the pier sues before the people. as noiselessly as possible, and then to have | Scraping under the seat with his feet be men on the pier to make a demonstration unearthed a gourd, and holding it up, said : upon a given signal. The criminals would necessarily resort to the trap, and we would | who is the lucky man?" take them in the boat as they came out. The night was in every way favorable, And in a few moments he produced the ebbed sufficiently for our purpose. As the said what he wanted was chin music. Bidding Mr. Grandle good morning. I bull's eye lantern with such rapidity as to "speech!" "speech!" drove to the Central office. The surgeon cause a flash of light, heard the whistle of had returned from the vessel and left word the patrol in acknowledgement that they took off his hat, and said:

A UDITOR'S NOTICE. - In the mat-

ies of their wives.

The little old man stood up in the wagon, That the boy, Johnny Dale, had been so

"Father." The affice were called in : the stiffly starch investment.

Loretto, Pa the cabin, they striking me repeatedly with and desperate criminal in a box not high ly." "Then bring me in some bread and Weeks & Potter, Boston, Mass. 9-2-1m. ATEST and MOST WON-REUL INVENTION!

WIN FURFEIT $1,000 Hast Child to play ANY UNE of our Popu-PLANO, ORGAN OF MELD DE-HOUR after resideing the Music

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. to 44 page estategue

S72 a work $12 a day at home easily made. Costly holding and I doing little more than holding and pulling them by the hair, until impregnable from above and below it was mer. — Texas Siftings."

