heapest!

AS NOW ON HAND THE

STOCK OF

ves, Tinware,

1000 Occo DDDDD SSSSS

styles and putterns;

COLOR DEDDED ESSSSS

GOO HOUSEFURNISHING SASSAS

services Oil Cloth.

DECEMBER WENDOW SHADO

MI'S of the best quality SAFETY LAMPS, which mingrate WAGONS and only MILK CROCKS of

BOTTOM PRICES

HUNTLEY

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher,

"HE IS A PREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PRIE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1881.

Tilly never forgot this lesson of her girl-

BURNED OUT.

INDIA.

"On the Indian Hills."

thought little of.

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance

VOLUME XV.

SEPTEMBER 10, 1881. NEW GOODS! FOR EARLY FALL,

BEACH SILKS. Honey Black Silks at $1.25 Henry Black Silks at $1.50

d 75c, per yard. on Callineres, 40 tuckes wide, at 75, 85, 90c. about to be revealed. CLOAR DEPARTMENT.

Special Inducements and baryains. and Circulars and Garments of different intel approved shaper in Satin de Lyon, budances Satin Mervellleaux and Clotian FAL SATQES AND BULMANS. Builders' Hardware ENTERS' TOOLS cel for best in the market. Also, a ecusware, Silver-Plated Willow Ware, Wall Pa-Valises, Revolvers, Au-se Shoes, Environ, Rail its, Carriage Roits, Rivindictones, Steel Shov-> lachines, Horse Hay Rakes, y Forks, Bope and Pulleys, kynters, and a full line of Harv-BOGGS & BUHL. 118 & 120 FEDERAL ST., ALLEGHENY. loor and Stair Oil Cloths.

200, to 85 a yard. New Bend Ornaments and Fringes. New Huttons, 10c, to 56 per dozen. DERFUL INVENTION!

NSTANTANEOUS S. TOBACCO AND SEGARS.

"REVIOUS FRACTICE, or even Musical Tainet. afraid to stay," said Tilly bravely. for Tomes on the PIANO, ONGAN OF MELODIC

Ficees of MUSIC, with INSTRUCTIONS, Ma " of to my midress on receipt of $1.00. Engloss | new were nearly made.

Edison Music Co.,

215 & 217 Walnut St.,

PUBLIC SALE

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE!

HE undersigned with office at public safe, at the his make West ward of the borough of Eleme-dow to enjoy it. s and c, Julies street, on the the was s t and on the west by lot of K, commerced a transfer Freeze veice say to and the newscary sutballs.

UDITOR'S NOTICE, ... The under- plied. ...

Ebenshuxg, Sopt. 20, 1881, -21. EET METALS. A UDITOR'S NOTICE.—The under- rest here as long as you choose."

hen and where all persons interested attend by see proper. A. V. BARKER, Auditor. Thersburg, Sept. 33, 1881,-25. A UDITOR'S NOTICE. In the mat-oppointment, at my office in Francisco, 1884, flottice iv seeing, the 19th October, at 2 october, p. s., which not where all interested may attend if they see oper.

P. A. SHOTEMARER, Auditor.

W. A. Shotemare, and the see of the s

INSECUTOR'S NOTICE. Exists of Purmerate Vivous as, dee'd, as in females given to all persons indebted to see at Fred's Yingling, late or almost town towns of the indesigned, who has been greated from her friends, and of a yet the moderatory on said estate, and those risks against the same will present them.

She explained the story of having be separated from her friends, and of a rest there.

"It is rather of a strange stater should think," replied Uncle John. DENNIS CAWLEY, Energiez, Denn Twp., Aug. 19, 1881.-51.*

Dissolution !- The partnership lously.

of a wedding that is to come off just before kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked considered or an and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with formation carries and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with formation carries and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of bed and looked the with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the kitchen. She crept out of a with a steel pen and thought she heard strange sounds in the with the strange sounds in the with the strange sounds in the with the strange sounds in the strange sounds in the strange sounds in the strange sounds in the with the strange sounds in the strange sounds in Please give me a call.

the door of her humble home, an old brown farm house, situated two miles away from the centre of the village of N----. She RECEIVED AND OPENED THIS WEEK! was wondering what made her father so quiet and sober of late, and why she caught the case English Still Stripes, at 25 cts.; choice | her mother every now and then wiping away

Velvets in a combination of colors.

Velvets, in a great variety of shades "foreclosure," "ejection," and the like, and to new Curbre Stripe and Flaid Dress she pondered very solverly upon their meancalled to her to "come in "

The girl obeyed, rightly thinking that s, 40 inches wide, at 45, 50, 55, 60, whatever was troubling her parents was

"We have been harrassed greatly for some "Lose our home? Why mother I thought the three hundred dollars within three

"Oh mother! will it be possible for father to do so?" asked Tilly anxiousty.

"There is only one hope. We have the't THE LATEST and MOST WON- of a friend about thirty miles from here, who may possibly let us have the money, and allow as to transfer the mortgage to him."

dreafful to have him leave the old house." morning. You will not be afraid to stay "Won't you come in and see her?" here alone through the day, will you? We here and sleep the night we are away."

The Company will FORFEIT $1,000 if any Child As they wished to take an early start in | mediately conducted her to her daughter's that on years out but to play ANY ONE of one Paper | the morning, the family retired very suon af-

mother and father had been up already quite visit to the kitchen, a a while, and the preparations for their jour- | they had beard her u them good bye, and then went into the house. to forget her loneliness as best she could in her school-friends had lent her a day or two gard to her fi All that certain Bull Square of Groun I before, and she sat down by the open win- thirst for blood second by the judgment bond and morizage sweet, winning face, and the most fauttless purchases. HARRIET STYCH, grace of manner. She was instantly charmed with her strange visitor, and quickly re-sank into its easy depths in utter weariness. at two o'clock in the afternoon, for the fattending to the datter of his appoint on and where all persons become claims and, "and somehow have strayed away from and most payont, them, or be desarred than and most payont, them, or be desarred than a large because the control of the control o them, and we have become separated."

deside on the executions filed to the sec-il final account of Alexander McMaller, or of the first and final account of Paul Meand John Eger, executors of James Me-been, on the motion of Johnston & Sean-Esgs, appointed Auditor to report distribution of the money in the hands of raid accountants, we is hereby given that I will stiend to the draid my appointment, at my effect in Ebensburg. Sureday, the Sch Scholer next, at 2 'ctock, we have and there all interested may attend it is proper,' F. A. SHOEMAKER, someour, Sept. 22, 1881-24. Auditor.

V Barker, Esq., about crops and other matters that she the't designee, as shown would interest him.

405, 1881, notice is She retired quite e She retired quite early, and Tilly gave her the spare bed-room, which led out of the par-

'Where did that young woman come from?' asked uncle John, as Tilly returned to the Kinchen.

separated from her friends, and of seeking out. "It is rather of a strange statement, I dollars fell out.

about her, Uncle John ?" asked Tilly, anx- means."

was standing by the table, clad in her night God has many ways of bringing about dress, and wildly brandishing a large cary- the same result," said Mrs. Clifford reverof blood to-night. Ha, ha !"

John returned again to the kitchen.

In the meantime, Tilly had dressed and stood there, with a white face, awaiting him. A THRILLING ADVENTURE IN SOUTHERN "O. Uncle John!" she cried, in a hearse what does it mean ?"

and has probably escaped from some lunatic night " "Her madness comes on by spells, I think, and we won't be troubled by her any more to-night. You go to bed, and I'll keep

Next morning the young lady came out, and appeared so perfectly sane, that Tilly was almost fain to believe that the incident of the night before was only a horrible dream. She retired to her room as soon as the meal was finished, and while Uncle John and Tilly were consulting as to what should be

A pale, anxious-looking gentleman came "Have you seen anything of a young lady, can to save it. We think of taking the | white hat, trimmed with lace and feathers."" called out :

tragedy might have happened here."

she sank wearily into a chair.

the previous day and night.

that all our lives are spared."

threw a letter into the open door.

turning it over and over in his hand.

claimed, thankfully :

gone crazy," done, and I am glad that your daughter is fools down and clear my door." companied by her mother, and dressed for and the door opened, but not too soon. At- see it here. I invite you to examine it from Moses Sparrow, he was very green. That to put off the rest of the pienic natil the next her journey. As her father passed out of the door be thrust a bill into Tilly's hands "I owe you a debt of gratitude for shelter-Tilly opened her hand, and a crisp five dollar bill tay upon her palm. She had never owned so much money in her life before, and she gazed at it in pleased wonder. How overhend.

As they realized the danger that had well take its chance and end up the tomasha dings the bride and bridesmaids were fitted feet, but drop he did not. He only said ing up the pillow-case until the bottom is

"Why, father, open it and see," said Tilly, laugning; "that's the quickest way to find ing kuife, whose edge, every now and then, ently. I have had faith to believe He would A PLAN THAT PROMISES TO ECLIPSE THE upon a journey, and when they returned weekly newspapers to-day :

IT BEATS LIFE INSURANCE.

of good character. His bride is a farmer's uated a first-class, intelligent house-keeper. board with a poor family after marriage .-

roof. The dinner was standing ready on Of course not. I am willing to let everythe table, and the lamp was burning bright- body know all about it, so that other young ly, but, as the next day was mail day, I people may enjoy good luck also. Thirteen Cherokee county, Iowa, a former resident of that I at last started up to attend to the stove | married, because we had no money to com- On the 26th of June, about eight o'clock p.

alight, and the strong wind increased the he had a few friends who would use me well etime, being much agent unde a present of some kind, and and one half inches, and that death must ny where. Fired when all the details were ready to be carried have been almost instantaneous. The house lies made a rush out I rented this modest two-story house and furniture were a total wrech. The sides out of Doll Midgets side late her eyes. She mately my door here, and Lizzle and her friends scrubbed of the house had fallen in, with the roof on scuille banged and scoured it from top to bottom. I met top, and on the summit of the pile was the She's rustleated!" But paor Fanny cried all my face by the the agents over at my uncle's tavern in a stove, to which the little girl was found clingwere pressed close against it by the assignments one after another until the Mr. Stevens says the tornado was sixty feet.

At this Panny dried her eyes. They are the former of the farmer of the farmer of the farmer of the farmer. So thek proposed to was the farmer of the farmer of the farmer of the farmer. So thek proposed to was the farmer of the farmer of the farmer of the farmer. So thek proposed to was the farmer of the farmer o the others further away. In vain I kicked large, old fashioned table was covered with wide and about twenty five or thirty feet the insurance companies. Well, with this of eggs fell, -Occess (N. F.) Times. Then there came the refreshing "Whack, money and the orders in hand we got marready the flaming mass or the roof overhead top to bottom, Everything is new, so you was the idea that always came into Miss day, - Glandier Times. was rocking on the slender uprights which see how the marriage insurance business. Page's mind when she looked at her country would accept a handsome silk dress to wear on his. The pistol had become red hot, and now, at the wedding as a bridesmaid. She got | And at it she went, beginning with a smile, full of pillows. No one can ever accuse us added to the general confusion by falling to mad and told them they were in a shameful a word, and rejolcing to see the fish life so of saying that, but there is something homenate guns, which there had been no time to the bride and asked her to name another ing the crash. So she turned him out in the chamored for some new method of putting on have fetched it out, though it were red hot, is the reason why we had no bridesmaid. I you wedding cards when I am married I have tried several new methods, such as loss of my property I thought it might as one. I have beard that at a number of wed- Then she waited to see him drop at her they have tried to get the pillow in by roll-out with money given by the insurance com- "Wal, I'm real glad ! I kinder felt afraid reached, and then placing the pillow on one And so it was! The coolies had scarcely panies' agents for the privilege of taking out I'd been goin' to far with you. I'm a sort of end and gently unrolling the pillow-case, obeyed my warning, and got behind trees, policies. You see that as soon as a party be butterfly, flirtin' from flower, you but all these schemes have their drawbacks. when there was a terrific bang which was comes insured be can marry, but his policy know; and I have flirted with you, I do at- The old style of chewing one end of the pilheard right on top of the Bungalow Hill; a won't be payable until a year elapses. 1 low. I was afraid you'd go off in a decline low, and holding it the way a retriever deg great column of smoke, flames and sparks have figured out the profits, say on a policy or suthin'-you seemed to set so much on holds a duck, till the pillow-case is on, and leaped right up to the tree tops, singeing the of $5,000. The agent makes a present to the me-if you heard sudden like that me and then spanking the pillow a couple of times leaves; and then, dying down, the roof fell | man who is to murry, say of $50; the policy | Ann Maria was keepin' steady company, on each side is the best, and it gives the woin, followed by what remained of the walls. will cost him $45, and the transfer or as But, law, sence you're to be married, there wan's jaws about the only rest they get dur-For a moment everything was brightly illu- signment, $1 ; total $96. His man then mar- ain't no barm done! I shouldn't hev liked the day. If any invention drives this old Tilly lighted a candle, and her father minated, but soon the fire went out with a ries, and in a year's time the company prom- to hev you drown yourself, like t'other sum- custom away from us, and we no more see gazed curiously at the direction and the sudden calm, and I was aware I was stand- ises to pay cash from $350 to $100 per thous- mar brander did, in the mill pond. She had the matrons of the land with their hair full of ing in my slippers, bareheaded, in the rain, and, say $1,750 for a $5,000 policy. The my photograph in her pocket when she was feathers and their months fall of strip of bed which was falling fast now, by the smoking company raises this money by assessing fished out." Then be smiled at Miss Page, ticking, we shall feel that one of the dearest cinders of the poor little house which had other members of the class not married. If and she arose and salled away with great of our institutions has been ruthlessly torn sheltered me for ten or eleven months. the companies keep their word the agents dignity. That night I slept rolled up in a blanket | will make handsome profits on their investon the floor of L -- 's bungalow on the hill, ments; if they don't keep their word it A WELL FILLED POSTAL CARD. - A month our liberties are in danger. - Workington Cop-He did so, and a check for five hundred and the next morning after a melancholy won't hurt us, The business must pay, and ago, a gentleman received a postateard from Part search among the hills for transure trove-in agents must have confidence in the compa. It's brother in Iowa, containing over five In the classic shades of Deadwood the "Here, Tilly, read it," he said, with a which I found rupoes and annas fused into nies, because they make daily calls on all thousand words. It was written to him as a average untive is not very choice in selecting "Do you think there, is anything wrong trembling voice. "I can't think what it lamps, and only the metal work of my gun ministers and dressmakers to find out who is letter, and the writing upon it so fine that it the language used in advertising a runaway remaining-I confided my servants, my dogs going to be married. Of course, the agents required a magnifying glass to read a portion wife. The notices are usually written and all my be longings that could be got together don't keep all the policies they get hold of, of it. He made up his wind that he would posted in the postedness and salouns, where

> Fashion item: It isn't because a woman | Christmas that will open the eyes of the ten with a steel pen and can be read with- is sufficient an' order to wik on fools too." they don't hold a single policy. I believe A rur up fob-preserve-

the policy holders, who are mostly rich farmers and agents. The young couple are going to have a very grand wedding in The following marriage notice, says a church, the grandest that ever took place in Hamburg (Pa.) correspondent of the N. Y. | the church, and a city minister will perform | The farmer and his wife had gone to the Sun, appeared in one of the neighboring | the ceromony. The bride is a cigar factory | village, and left little Dick and Fanny to take girl and the husband works for a huckster care of buby Ben. So the children thought On Sept. 14, by Rev. Y. R. Leinbach, Mr. Enes P. Boyer, of Maiden Creek, to Miss Lizzie Catharine Holman, of Lebanon county. No cards.

Both of them are odd characters, and they apple some thing to talk about. Over 1,000 invitations was a black baby, six mentis old, and he they got about $1,200 cash in advance from

Mr. Boyer is an honest young ore miner are to be sent out, and the idea is to have a squeaked. He had a birth day twice in a number of newspaper reporters present at month. the welding and banquet. Our welding | Doll Midget had blue eyes and yellow curls, was to have been this way, but we conclu- She was invited to the plenic. He is thirty and she just twenty. Their ded to have our house furnished, as that was Dick got a great milk pan and filled it full the most sensible thing. The couple that 1 of water. This was Boston Bay. The dolls stances. Six months ago the young people am talking about desire to creat a sensation, were first to be taken out to sail, and then were quite poor. They had intended to and I suppose they will succeed. The they were to have a lauch. The lunch was bride's dress is to be a long-tailed affair, and a large piece of spice cake and two jam twelve of her lady friends are going to get tarts. enabled to go to housekeeping in first-class | new white dresses, to cost $10 each, all to be | Pudge, the fat kitten, was invited to the style, and all by a novel streak of luck. No bought by the bride. They are going to plenic, too. To begin with, they put her on secret is made of the fact that they were bave carpet laid from the church door across a small table close to Buston Buy so that she The following is from Edwin L. Arnold's first insured by speculators for about $75,000 the sidewalk to the street, and there will be could look on. There was not room in the in a fozen or more marriage insurance com- no end to the flowers, langel, cedar, pine, boat for three of them. The lunch was laid I was busy writing, and the evening being panies. Mr. Boyer, the groom, was asked if cakes and wine. This sort of wedding by in an old wooden hox. As soon as the cold and wet, and fever still hanging about be had any objection to giving his experi-

A PRAIRIE TORNADO .- M. C. Stevens, of Bill ber might. Half a glance showed me that it was impossible to save the but, for it was now well was. My friend Merritt then told me that the strong wind increased the NUMBER 37.

as PICNIC. PARMER BLAKE'S GARRETvisiting

2005

Philadelphia 'l find,

There was a picule in Farmer Blakes attic.

and Fanny puffed out her rosy cheeks with

But the trouble was that Baby Ben wanted to help with the fire shovel. So the children told him that he had better be the fairy hid in the wood box, and popped out just at the right moment. Baby Ben thought be Hired best to blow the boat with the fire shovel, but Famuy promised to give him a bite of her share of the cake. This consoled Ben and they made a place for him in the woodbox. There he kept so very still that the children thought that he must have gone to

All at once a loud splash was heard. A fearful storm aresa in Boston Bay, and the boat was upset. It was all that fat-litten Pudge, who had tumbled from the table into the milk pan. What an uprear! the dolls had no life preservers, but Dick and Panny bravely dragged them from the waters. As for Pudge, the children saw her going down states, with a stream like a small Charles River dropping off behind. Doll Dinks, be-

"Russicaless 'em ?" said Fanny.

"Yest, that's what uncle John called it.

Let's russicable Doll Midget that way. Hold on till I get a barrel ?"

up softly to the woodbox. There is buly crumbs of spice cake and jam fart on his

"Oh, you rogue!" evied Panny Ben opened his blue eyes and looked so cumulagly that both the children laughed say that a woman is beautiful with her mouth

Never confound the bad with the good remedies, the very best we know of it Ph.

inufacturers. et Iron Wares AND DEALERS IN RAISHIAG GOODS GENERALLY.

-ARD-

MPTLY ATTENDED TO.

Jobbing in 280 and 282 Washington St.

CHNSTOWN, PA.

NG AND SPOUTING

OR STOYES CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

HE PEOPLES and HAIR-DRESSING SALOON. the plansors of amounts

WATER ATTEMPTED TO

G & HEATING STOVES GES, FURNACES, Se., uth Avenue, . Altoona, Pa. loor West of Opera House.

TILLY'S ADVENTURE.

BY MRS. S. E. DAWES

Tilly Ciliford was sitting one evening in es Ali wool French Armures, 42 inches a tear with a stealthy hand.

She heard their voices now, as they were talking in a low tone in the kitchen, and once ing. Pretty soon her father went out, to attend to matters at the barn, and her mother

"Sit down, my child," she said, as Tilly ondes are the best value ever offered | terro. "I want to have a little talk with LOIL.

> time now," her mother began, "with the the fear that we should lose our fittle home," that father owned it; that it was left to

SEAL SATORS AND BOLMANS.

Will have observed anylo next week a lot Seal second size and size him by Grandfather Clifford." failed and the debt was lost. The time for ad photos styles Ladius Nackware, Span- forcelosing the mortgage ended years ago . Flehus, black and crexm.

and very extensive stock of Housekeeping | but kind Mr. Dey, who held it, has said repeatedly, "never mind, Mr. Clifford, as long." d to show large and varied peatedly, "never mind, Mr. Clifford, as long as you may the interest." main invested in the house. He died, as you know, a few weeks ago, and the nephew, | daintily dressed, to breakfast, and looked who inherits the property, says we must pay months, or else leave the house."

"I do hope he will, mother; it would be so hastily up the walk, and knocked upon the "It will be as God wills," replied Mrs. Clifford : but we must make every effort we dressed in a black slik dress and sack, and a

"It will be dreadfully lonesome here with Popular Airs by note, at sight, without STUDY, you noth away; but I am not in the least | here, ter Mr. Clifford returned from doing his barn | Upon her return to the Tilly awake at suntise, and found that her rival, and Uncle John ;

new out contage stature for Canadague of Torons, new were nearly made.

As an an analysis in every State and County "Don't leave the house, except to go a short distance, and be very eareful, Tilly, in a broken voice about fire," said Mrs. Clifforn as they drove | down his cheeks. Firstadelphia, Pa. Tilly gave the desired promise, kissed doing up the morning housework. She had a long day, all to herself, and yesterday, she so many a little piece of work that had been riage and plunge put by for a favorable time she managed to the road. I fol SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1881, finish. In the afternoon she happened to she escaped mey think of an interesting book, which one of been suffering

She was so absorbed in its contents, that "Shall I intrude if I step in and rest my safe repeat, will be sold in one entire place, self a few moments "" Tifly looked up, and young lady, beautifully dressed, stood before her. She had a with the remark.

> "Not in the least. Walk right in." The young lady took the chair offered, which was a large cushioned rocker, and "I dare say they will find you," said Tilly, hopefully, "and in the meantime, you may and Roal account of Alexander McMallen, ving Executor of the last will and testament on the Executor of the last will and testament on the Mallen, late of Alexandry township, and, hereby gives notice that he will sit at the close in the afternoon, for the part of the country of the strange lady as though they had always known at attending to the duties of his appointment, and where all persons interested sittend if strange lady's friends did not appear. Tilly wondered why she appeared so perfectly

Not long after ten, the young lady said,

By and by Uncle John came in, and was A UDITOR'S NOTICE, - In the mat- introduced to Tilly's visitor, who made herof the first and finite count of H. C. Kirk- self very agreeable to him, as she talked

She explained the story of having become

I AND FOR SALE.—The undersign.

John the other, where Mrs. and Mr. Clifford usually stept.

About midnight Tilly awoke with a start should be said the said tilly, clapping her bands on the said tilly, clapping her bands and the said tilly, clapping her bands on the said tilly.

she would apparantly try upon her finger. help us in our trouble, but I never dreamed "Ha! she'll make a nice victim, won't it would come in the way it has. How can she?" she muttered; her neck is so thin and | we ever be thankful enough?" white. The fiends tell me I'll have a fount | A few days after the whole family went Tilly tried to scream, but she couldd't they brought with them a clear title to the make a sound. To her intense relief Uncle little household. After paving the mortgage John, who, as he afterward expressed it, they invested one hundred and firty dollars had not undressed at all, but had slept with | in the bank for Tilly, and the remaining fifty one eye open," rushed out of the bed room | they presented to Uncle John, thus enabling and wrenched the knife from the frantic wo- the old gentleman to purchase some farm imwoman, selzed ber by the arm, and marched | plements he had long needed.

her back to her room. By the time she reached there the fierce | hood, or the lesson of God's watchful care glitter had gone from her eyes, and she seem- over us which it taught her .- Ballou's ed as docile as a child. Shutting her into Monthly Magazine. the room and barrleading the door, Uncle whisper, "I do believe she meant to kill me; "It means, child, that the woman is crazy,

"(), dear ! I'm afraid to stay here another minute, Uncle John, and, as for sleeping, which passed up through the thatch of the smile : I'm sure I shall not close my eyes again to-watch the rest of the night," said Uncle Assured thus of safety, Tilly retired to her room, but she was too excited to sleep soundly, and only caught a short map now and done, they were startled to see a handsome carriage, with a span of horses drive up.

Their "lines." "Yes, sir; she is here now," said Tilly.

The lady soon after entered, and Tilly im- lot of my own-which will bear the marks of for a sitting room, and a rag carpet for the jured boy found it almost impossible to rethe circumstances of "My unhappy chi reason for the past; inmate of an asy keepers thought they allowed be; change. White and shouted; it was firm, and the dense yel. printed matter, blank forms, &c. Each bigh. The wind was so hot that it was im-I to think what a low smoke was blinding me and getting agent either gave me an order on a store or possible to breathe it, and its velocity terridown my throat. At length I called out to the cash money as soon as I had signed his ble. It was followed by a blast that was by frock, and a bit of jam on the end of his ness, "It was a narrow escape," said Uncie the bend native "maistry," who I knew was papers. Afterward I learned that the or. cold. The lightning which accompanied the she was startled when she heard a sweet John; "as it happened, there was no harm outside, "Jowra maistry, knock some of these ders were on stores owned by the officers of torondo was awful, and hall stones the size Soon after the young lady appeared acSoon after the young lady appeared acWhack," of his stick, and the crowd parted with a furnished our house as you Centro-tike and forgive him at once. Then they agreed supported it. Any moment it might falt. Works for us. Yes, those vases and the pic- landlady's son. Such a rustle youth, with THE WAY WOMEN Boss A PHLEOW .ing my daughter, and you shall hear from the last I saw of the interior of my but was the same way. The agents ex- and such sloping shoulders, such a lamb-like bidger. It is explained that the pillow holder and such sloping shoulders, such a lamb-like bidger. It is explained that the pillow holder flakes of matting, falling, smoking, left and worth about $1,740 each. That is why they the summer months, the city helle resolved this new invention will not come into genright. Scarcely had the door opened and were so anxlous to furnish my house. freed me, when I heard the sharp crack of "Two other agents, wanted us to have a upon the boy, who struck her as so good a to the eyes of men than to see a woman hold long the time seemed till night, for then she my revolver which hung up loaded at the bridesmaid at our wedding. They went to subject for fliritation, in which all the fun a pillow in her teeth while she gently manipexpected her parents home. At last they bead of my bed, and the builtet whistled my wife's sister Helen, and asked her if she was to be on her side and all the sentiment una'es the pillow case over it. We do not drove slowly into the yard, and from the exression of sadness upon both their faces, the knew their errand had been a fruitless "Your father's friend was unable to make the ground, and every now and then leaping business, and that if she couldn't buy her readily. She enjoyed herself very much, un-like and old-fashioned about it that cannot us the loan, and he has come home feeling up and firing a shot promisenously into the own dresses she would do without. She til she grew tired of it, and then she decided be replaced by any invention. We know utterly discouraged," said Mrs. 6 Tour as crowd. This reminded me of my unfortu- told them to clear out. They next went to to break the hear she had won, and enjoy- that certain over fastidious women have long "I'm so sorry," said Tilly, with trembling save, and they, in turn, reminded me of a bridesmaid, but Lizzie said that the thing garden and made him set beside her on the a pillow case, but these people have either lips; "but it isn't so bad to lose our home new, unopened five-gallon tin of kerosene had gone on long-enough, and that the insuras though some one of us had been killed or oil which stood in my bed-room. I would some next week. I shall send bought do not grasp the citration. They Then, as her father entered soon after, had there been any chance of staying the fire suppose enough agents could be found to am to be married to a rich old gentleman blowing the pillow-case up and trying to get Tilly told all about the exciting events of but, as it was, I was so disgusted with the dress up a groomsman, too, had we wanted hext winter."

threatened their only child, Mrs. Clifford ex- by a grand final firework. "You were right, Tilly, in saying that our trouble is not the worst that could befall us: we'll bear it with becoming fortifude, now A few evenings after, while the family were sitting together in the twilight, a neighbor, who had been to the postoffie, "Who can it be from?" he exclaimed.

SUBSCRIBE YOU THE CAMBRIA PREEMAN. ajar. There she saw a sight which froze her blood with horror. Her young lady guest to our door."

me, on that eventful day I lind made a fire ence in this entirely new method of starting. The graveyard business is slowly playing went on beard. The boat was one of grandin the stove in my little but, the chimney of in life, and be promptly repled, with a out, and the new marriage business is looming by the chimney of the life, and be promptly repled, with a up as the latest sensation."

wrote on and on, absorbed in my occupation. months ago Lizzie and maself were engaged. Oswego who had a terrible experience with The temperature increased very rapidly, and to be married. The wedding day was fixed, a tornado in June last, arrived here a few a sort of red glow came on the paper, which but suddenly the mines stopped work, and I days ago. Mr. Stevens is still on crutches, I remembered afterward, but at the time I was thrown out of a job. Lizzie was living nursing a broken leg and is suffering from home with her parents, and after I had told other injuries sustained at the time. His ac-However, the heat became so noticeable her of my bad luck we concluded not to get count of the tornado was very interesting. which I supposed was the culprit : but to my mence housekeeping, and I had very poor m., he with his wife and three children were dismay and astonishment, directly my eyes prospects ahead. One day George Merritt, walking near his house when what they supwere raised, I saw the whole roof of my hut a neighbor of mine, called to see me. He posed a rain storm was seen approaching. already in flames, and burning fiercely un- taught school at Dry Rock during the winter. There was nothing unusual in the appearder a strong wind which was blowing thro' season. He said he heard that I was going ance of the coming storm, and the family the trees outside. What followed was very to be married soon, and I told him of my had were about to take shelter in the house when brief and decisive. My "boy" was just com- lack. He told me not to let that worry me, suddenly the building collapsed and the air ing round from the kitchen with a dish of and said that if I would let him take out a was filled with flying timbers and bousehold curry, but when he saw that astonishing marriage insurance policy on me and then effects. Mr. Stevens was instantly knocked sight, he stood spell-bound for a moment, marry, he would buy me an eighty-dollar senseless, and on regaining consciousness, and then down went the curry and he flew | walnut bedroom set of furniture, with a marto the big bell hanging to a tree close by, and ble top washstand, bureau and table. He his arm and head injured and his wife berang a peal which brought the coolies swarm- said he was the agent of one of the new com- side him with her hand in his, stone dead. ing up the hill in a dusky, yelling crowd for panies, and that he would take out a policy Mr. Stevens, when he saw nothing could be for $5,000 and have it transferred to himself, done for his wife, crawied around in the flames every moment, while the nearest wat- if they might have the same privilege of in- boy was not hart, but the little girl could not "Thank God !" he exclaimed, fervently, or was at the bottom of the hill, and I knew suring me in the other companies, and I said be found for some time. Finally she was levely hair come all out of card. have arranged for your Uncle John to come Then, turning to the lady in the carriage, he well that before we could collect chattels and it was all right, and that they should come discovered clinging, bend downwards, to a Midget to the kitchen fire and dry her, or she organize a fire brigade it would be all over. along. The very next evening another stove on the top of the wreck of the house. "Dismiss your fears, my dear. Alice is So I proceeded to save what was possible, the agent came and offered to buy me a flower. The wind continued to blow a fearful rate will never be fit to come to pienie. estate books were got out first, along with a ed carpet for a front room, a flowered carpet after the tornado had passed and the uninwhich they were thrown, kitchen. I was delighted with the business, lease his sister, but he finally did and found t; and then I unlocked and I told him be might take out the policy. she was not burt. This done the little felvaged several parcels of In the meantime I had seen Lizzle, and she low started for a heighbor's house, a quarter ae the place was like a seemed first to dislike the idea, but finally of a mile distant. It was impossible to stand ing "fore and aft," and told me to use my own judgment. Along erect on account of the wird, and the jourwd of coolies outside came another agent and he agreed to fur new was performed on hands and knees in ng about, quite at their | nish two bed rooms for the privilege of in- the face of the turrible storm and in the suring us. Incoepted this offer, and looked blackest darkness. Assistance was soon at shed bravely in, and for the next agent. To make a long story hand and all were removed to a place of safe. empartment, seized short, fifteen agents agreed to take policies by. An examination of the body of Mrs. which she gripped for $5,000, and thus I became insured for Stevens disclosed that a splinter had been is and earried about $75,000 in about a dozen companies. Every driven into the base of the brain about two

The last I saw of the interior of my but was tures and that parlor organ were all bought such fair hair, worn long, such big blue eyes. Among the resent inventions is a pillow placidly in the thick yellow smoke, the white plained to me that one year after our mar-expression. And being there at the farm- is for the nurpose of holding a pillow while tablecloth on fire in twenty places, and big riage each of those $5,000 policies would be bouse, whither she had been sent to spend the pillow-case is being put on. We trust that she would try her powers of fascination eral use, as there is no sight more beautiful

Dissolution !— The partnership in the time is a dispersion of the case of a majority of the case of a collected by the case of a collected by the case of a collected by the case of a majority of the case of a collected by the case of a majority of the HERMAN ST. CLAIR." breken-down Southern Indians, the Nell- est. The poorest young people now can af-