PROCLAMATION.

at the bruse of Paniel meet at School House No.

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

"HE IS A PREEMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PREE, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1881.

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

VOLUME XV.

ERAL ELECTION Save the Commonwealth!" , by an Act of the General Assembly associate of Ponnsylvania, enfitted regulate the General Elections with-

N for the company Francisco of the is not the office of Associate No for the effice of Commis-during their terms of service.

Six, i. No person shall be qualified to serve as an election officer who shall beld or who shall within two months have beld an office, or appointment or employment in or swher the government of the United States, or of this State, or of any city or county, or any municipal board, commission or trast in any city, save only justices of the peace, and altermen, notaries public and persons in the milital service of the State, nor shall any election officer be eligible to any civil office to be filled at an election at which he shall serve, save only to such subordinate municipal or local officer, he had been unleading to make the analysis of the shall be designated by law.

And alreading to blowing Acts of Assembly now in force in this State, viz. known and give unlies, that ing the adorratio election is cough, districts and towndistrict composed of the , to meet at needly section! old composed of the town-during district composed of the context as follows: First one in salf-ward: Second of the property composed of the most at the School boose. 2. 7. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in certion loans on the morning of the abotton, variancy shall be direct in conformity with exsting laws. The Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to the Election of this Commonwealth," passed talls 21, 1876, provides as tollows, to wit. Tent the Inspectors and Indges shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the decisions in the district to which they respectively belong, before seven of the in the morning of Frender, November 5, and such said inspector dual translations are not to the control of the said. rease the person who shall have received the one highest number of cores for increases about district composed of the former at School House the day of an election, then the person of St Augustine, in Testict composed of the first supposed of the flings of St Augustine, in

THE MODE OF VOTING.

THOMAS GRIFFITH, Sheriff.

PUBLIC SALE

A UDITOR'S NOTICE. - In the mat-

t. when and where all interested may atte hey see proper. P. A. SHOEMAKER, Ebensburg, Sept. 23, 1881.-3r. Andl

Let in 96 Acres of land 15 mg seek some of the stands, or who shall all the found opportunity to cast a furtive and consideration to any return and Chest Springs which he will sell very trutte and cheapest remedy is two cast a furties of the principally covered with the closer over his shoulder.

The purest, best and cheapest remedy is woman, yet he resolved to await her husbands arrived at the close over his shoulder.

The purest, best and cheapest remedy is woman, yet he resolved to await her husbands arrived at the close over his shoulder.

While Martin was busy with his work he had sought to reassure the woman, yet he resolved to await her husbands arrived at the close over his shoulder.

The purest, best and cheapest remedy is two first over the section of the district of the section of the s

There are loves of all kinds In this fair world of ours; There's love in the twilight,

At young beauty's fair shrine;

But the love of all loves Is my mother's for me-

Interwiven with the years, Braided silver and gold;

'Tis as young as the morn, In its beauty unrolled; Fresh as the violet That's just kissing the sky.

Through the April's soft eye : And though four score and ten mers fell at her feet,

Her love had outlived them As immortal as sweet.

Oh, beauty, exquisite! Oh, bright spirit divine! Oh, the lave that still thrills Every fibre of mine!

That shines ever a star, From a calm, perfect sky,

The one beacon that guides. When the storm burries by The bright pole star of hope In the midst of the sea-

Is my mother's for me. There are loves of all kinds In the lives that we live

The deep love that absorbs, And the love that doth give : The lave of a sweetheart,

But the love of all loves Is my mother's for me.

THE COUNTRY POSTMAN. A STORY OF A HURO-TRANSLATED FROM

THE FRENCH. fields with a hasty step, recognizable not house. The man who had chatted to him and asked if he had been seen. only by his blouse and his regulation hat, inspired in him a veritable repulsion, and it but also by the sustained activity of his move, was his rule, because of the habits of disments, because for him the instants are cretion which the post office imposes upon the thought of a misfortune to be averted "Wid my gun, I'se gwine to git it nowcounted and he has not the right to slacken all its agents, to keep at a distance all who had increased the speed of the postman. so jest look out," his pace. An indefatigable walker, he ac- did not appear to him worthy of confidence. There was no longer even the shadow of a "Whoo, nigger! who's afected of you!" complishes his task from the first to the last. The storm had somewhat abated its fury. day of the year without resting a day. No the rain soon ceased to fall, and bright sunmatter though a tropical sun invite ail crea- shine lighted up the country when the posttures to become motionless, though the cold man reached the nearest village. tuses which trade confide by the millions to had a neat and sympathetic counterance.

I know a man who for twenty years filled man, "have you a letter for me?" this position. A former soldier, thanks to "No. Madame Andre, I have not." irrepropelable records of service strengthen- "That's strange; my husband should have each instant veiled the moon, the wan rays through the open window. ed by a little influence, he had obtained the written to me to-day; you cannot imagine of which added to the sinister character of . "He ain't here," said one of the company, great favor of having placed to his credit fif- how much his silvance troubles me." ty frames per month at the post office of the She grew pale and seemed scarcely to have drinks and a few groceries.

standing upon the threshold of the drinking she shook her head.

ment a fierce blast swept it into Pere Mar- a grudge against any one." tin's face, preventing him from walking, and bent to the ground the stalwart trees.

arose from Martin's soaked garments.

What a dog's trade you follow, Pere Martin," who has only children around her.

your letters."

ed to feel its weight and turned it over and 'sieur Martin, that he is iost !"

UDITOR'S NOTICE. In the mate coldly, "you have disarranged all my letters, you are unacquainted with him, for since his "Pere Martin, help me to prevent your dog He hastened away, and when he was alone from strangiling mine," said his new acquain- his fears gained possession of him. He again The postman arese and caught his dog by the skin of the neck. The animal's fury contrasted with its habitual gentleness. This fact seemed strange to Martin. He Unfortunately, his round that day was exfelt distrust of the communicative stranger | coptionally long and the bad weather in addigrow upon him. He was about to replace tion had considerably delayed him. the papers in the sack when the man, as if to see what was the state of the weather, than was his custom. The woman who disopened the door.

At the same instant the wind swept impetuously into the room, which it filled with a thick smoke, and lifting the letters spread out upon the table, scattered them in every direction.

The postman uttered an exciamation of anger. "Bah ! it's nothing," said be who caused the accident. "We two will speedily gather them up." And without heeding the refusal of Martin, who wished to avoid his help and do the work alone, he began to search for the let-

When they had collected all they could find the postman carefully examined them : then he seemed worried, as he had not the full number.

"Are any missing?" asked his compan-"It appears to me that there was another letter." "Bah! either you are deceived or you forgot it at the post-office."

He said to himself that it must be so. However he resumed the hunt and searched beneath the furniture. He found nothing letter. Nevertheless he hastened to depart You have often seen him pass through the regretting that he had entered the drinking carry the letters, newspapers and prospec- and, without possessing remarkable beauty. "Monsieur Martin," said she to the post-

Everybody in the district was acquainted with this little grav-haired man with bronzed features, whose limbs had the pliancy and features, whose limbs had the pliancy and features are successed from a neighboring of a day is easily explained; your busband of a day is easily explaine strength of steel. He was highly apprecia- was disappointed, some unforseen business thicket; but on approaching his victim to fin- and then made a mad rush to secure the must have been laboring under a fit of stellted, for, while a scrupplous observer, of the suddenly demanded his attention and he ish and rob him be found himself in the pres- murderer, frightful; it had been raining incessantly for bring him a great deal of money; a small in. the head and felled him to the ground. formed into torrents, what foliage remained | would return this evening; he had made his | ment. that it could not offer a protecting shelter. farm of La Mane is to be sold; he has decid- foresaw it; he has killed him !" sent itself, but I would prefer a thousand supposed her busband ought to arrive, she to cool. The commonwealth proved to eve-drinking house, situated at the entrance of a "Because some one has wicked designs sure yourself; I am unburt I" s sabot makers, who found there alcoholic soon struck. You know there are two toutes sassinated?" for an instant; while you are giving me the he might return by the way of the Moulin-stant illuminated his face and uniform.

"You cannot think," resumed she "what | decided to prevent at any price the conse- | weeping widow haunt you now and ever- | movements along the Memolis and Charles-The rain was pouring down at that mo- certain men are capable of, when they have quence of his negligence, even if he should more."

down beside the fire which crackled on the I was a young girl he wanted to marry me, hearth. The man who had invited him to but he filled me with horror. He has never enter threw upon it some dry beauches, pardoned me for having repulsed his offers which were soon in flames; a heavy vapor and has enveloped in the same animosity the man I preferred to him. He hates George The stranger interrogated the postman as and myself for being in easy circumstances to the hours of the departure of the mails, while he vegetates in want, as if honest and asked him a host of questions about him- people were responsible for the mistakes of self, his service and everything concerning it. idlers and drunkards. This is not all. A "You know me, then?" said the post- erime was recently committed; suspicions were aroused, but the proofs were wanting. 'Parbleu! Everybody loves and esteems I postess them and the guilty man knows it. you here; Pere Martin's value is well known. Ah! it is a dangerous secret for a woman said the man. "Will it take you much long- "Yesterday he accosted me to sound me; er to finish your round? You doubtless I did not hide from him my contempt. He have yet to go to the Landa Grise, to Plessaw clearly that he was unmasked in my sis. I know some one who is patiently wait- eyes; he overwhelmed me with insults and of st two o'clock in the afternoon, for the puring you there. I am obliged to pass in this o'c of attending to the duties of his appointment, o'c and where all purpose tracersed attend if o'c on proper.

A. V. HARKER, Auditor.

Our letters.

Ing you there. I am obliged to pass in this vicinity. If you wish I will relieve you of saying to him that soon, when my husband by our letters. "Thank you, I will deliver them myself." him, he would be less presumptuous. Oh! "That's yourself out and and out. After if you knew what glances his eyes shot at all you're right. It is not my duty to deliver me, what an expression of hatred his features wore! I know-that often during the While talking with a loquacity which did nights he haunts the ruins of Moulin-Brale not encourage the postman he took np the If this man should discover that my husband sack the latter had placed beside him, seem- is to pass through that place, I tell you, Mon-"What is the scoundrel's name?"

began to doubt, and little and little was seized upon by a terror he could not explain. He increased his pace and leaped over the it was a current saying that he could match the devil himself in cuteness. Rob's fort squalls which half our good ship over nearly tects, concluded to have one of the mulars. hedges and ditches with unusual nimbleness. the clutches of the law than straightway the angry sea for miles around, sufficiently de. that purpose. She was then employing the best of health, and weighed one bondred He reached the post-office a little later unfortunates would send for him, and if noted to the experienced sailor the continuation and eighty one pounds. The tooth was a they had any money Rob was almost certain tion of a "dirty night." tributed the mail, on being consulted by him, confirmed that he had taken away a letter for to clear them or get off with a light sentence. So at least thought the crew of the Roslin and fast, and the pain which was endowed. confirmed that he had taken away a letter for Madame Andre. One of her assistants con-He understood human nature well, and had Castie, East Indiaman, outward bound to cité her nervous system to such a degree presented himself, asking if there was any-

A LEGAL ANECDOFE. HOW ROB CONWAY CLEARED A CLIENT.

He flew rather than ran to the office of the | and go a little outside of law. coach which carried passengers from the A good find true story is told of him, showsaw this man, who returned with joy in his stowed away, the workers found a big supheart, encountering death, at the threashold | per awaiting them, and the barn cleared for of his home through his fault, and mistor a dance. Of course there was cheap whisky tune overt/king the widow and orphans. in abundance, and the nirth grew fast and The dark st clouds troubled his imagination. farious, and Sambo and Dinah spread them-He did not besitate, and, without taking seives. The old barn groaned beneath the

Those who saw him pass, absorbed in his The night's festivities were brought to an thoughts and noticing no one around him- untimely and bloody close. It seems that and concluded that his memory had not ysked themselves what grave affair had two of the sable beaux got into a dispute served him faithfully, for he had watched caused this breathless haste on part of the about the right to dance with the belie of the After having passed over a fourth of the Chris. Johnson, mad with rage, told his andistance he inquired concerning the traveler tagonist that he intended to kill him.

"What you goin' to kill me wid ?" Inter-He had gone by some time before. The rogated the other, who was held back by the which led straight to the Mourin-Brule. Pere d-d quick," and Johnston flung himself other path, which, however, was rough and The affray was soon forgotten; the fiddles

On both sides bushy trees formed an impen- "Whar's Jeons Knox?" he said. "Show ence of a new actor and vented his disap- "Stand back," he cried with his finger on

In the course of time his trial came off. for more than a week; the roads had be- heritance was also to be received. But all A woman, distracted with terror, threw The commonwealth was represented by an canal. come bogs and the brooks had been trans- is concluded. He sent me word that he herself on the postman's body at that mon- able lawyer, while Bob and a junior defended the prisoner. In the evidence it was pro- ter (Oline) Seminary. on the trees was so impregnated with water arrangements to that end. To-morrow the "Oh! how wretched I am!" cried she, "I ven that the prisoner was not intoxicated, and that he had watked three units to his Ohio's common schools, pushing forward his in the ruture go on building houses for other home to get his gun and returned, making own studies at the same time.

> the gun she had run forward precipitately. premeditated murder. The gashing juntor counsel for the de-"Jeane," said her husband to her, "reastence arose and tried to soften the jury's College, Ohio. heart. He quoted Portin's speech in the "Merchant of Venice," and with tears in | rum College. by which to return here; one is longer than They bent over Martin's body, and recog. his eyes plead for the prisoner's wife and At twenty nine he was a member of the information I need, the violence of the storm Brule, the more so because there is some one The husband and wife carried him to their "Yes, gentlemen of the jury, if the fount to see in that direction. I tremble at the home, where he lived only twenty-four hours. of mercy is sealed in your hearts, if your lond Ohio Regiment. This invitation was addressed to him by a very thought of it. If I only knew ... ' He related how he had allowed to be stolen breast is dumb to the cries of the wife and man who, with a pipe in his mouth, was The postman strove to calm her fears, but from him the letter in which George Andre children, if you should sentence this man to of a brigade and played a prominent part in and lat on Austin average, for do reason - be compelled to give his life in exchange for Then Rob Conway got up and his plea She seemed to hesitate and then added: that of a factor of a family whom he had in- was that the gun went off accidentally, and staff of the army of the Comperiand, partickilled the wrong man; and a sensation was | ipated in the campaign of Middle Tennessee | ter say -The postman was a little ahead of time, before the Judges of our Orphans' Court, and the demands of the service do not go so our spot with money in his pocket, but also other act to the ground the staiwart trees.

"If I tremble, it is not simply because my voluntarily helped to place in peril.

The postman was a little ahead of time, busband will have to pass through a danger. Obscure vicinm of duty, he has added an our Orphans' Court, and the demands of the service do not go so our spot with money in his pocket, but also other act to the ground the staiwart trees.

"If I tremble, it is not simply because my voluntarily helped to place in peril.

The postman was a little ahead of time, busband will have to pass through a danger out of the postman was a little ahead of time, and the demands of the service do not go so our spot with money in his pocket, but also other act to the jury for examination. Sure The postman was a little ahead of time, husband will have to pass through a danger and the demands of the service do not go so our spot with money in his pocket, but also other act to the list of those unknown sacriand was promoted to the rank of Major around the banner would not stay raised.

The postman was a little ahead of time, husband will have to pass through a danger of the service do not go so our spot with money in his pocket, but also other act to the list of those unknown sacriand was promoted to the rank of Major and was promoted to the part raised. far as to forbid the acceptance of a momen- because there is in the district a wretch fices which are made daily, without being en- enough the hammer would not stay raised. General, tary shelter when it offers itself under such whose dearest wish is to put five feet of earth couraged by the hope of any recompense, and Rob sat quietly by as juryman after without even having for indemnification the juryman tried the old weapon and shook his He, therefore, went into the house and sat "This hatred dates from long ago. When remembrance they should leave behind him. head sayely. Well, to make a long story At forty-eight, having been continuously short, a verdict was brought in of involuntary in Congress since he was thirty-three, he was street, which am wolf twee as much manslaughter, and the prisoner was senten- elected to the United States Scuale. A COMMON BARRATOR.-There is a man named Wagner in Maryland who is by proced to six months in jail. Then, after Chris. Johnson was removed. fession a common barrator, only he has had Rob got up and told the Judge that, at the request of the weeping widow, he would ask | ed by the people. that the gun should be returned to her. The Judge was about to comply, when up > pay his fee. The weeping widow here remarked in andible tones: 'For' de Lord, dem lawyers take de last rag off Chris' back."

"Silence in the Court," thundered the entered against them. A year elapsed, and Judge. "Mr. Clerk, as the fees in this case then the right of appeal was lest. Thus have not been paid, make out an order for the gun as due you for your services." "What did he say ?" anxiously inquired pay his fees. You must leave the room of the defendants to contest the suits was in snapped out, "Pears to me white folks gets law a victual acknowledgment of the claims. all dey grabs fur. And you, Mr. Dennam," county, finding it dangerous to his personal safety to remain there, and is said to be in New York. Settlements have already been "you may have dat gun. Much good it'll do have performed the duties of President, but The proprietors of English Grant The Proprietors New York. Settlements have already been made netting him, it is said, $10,000. Ot all took it to his office and filed away de works.

I ame York. Settlements have already been made netting him, it is said, $10,000. Ot all took it to his office and filed away de works.

James A. Garfield will be cherished in the local took it to his office and filed away de works.

AN AWFUL LEAP.

It had been blowing hard all day, and now cago Post and Tribune gives the following re-Rob Conway was a clever young lawyer | the dark masses of clouds whirled across the | markable history occurring at Battle Creek, in a little town in the Virginia lowlands, and | dreary expanse of leaden sky, already blur- | that State, just one year ago last weekwas criminal practice, and he was the idol of on her beam ends, and now and again a extracted, and accordingly she repaired to the negroes; no sooner was any of them in plittering flash of lightning lighting up the the office of a deutist, Mr. N. Merritt, for that purpose. She was then enjoying the

the rare faculty of being en rapport with the Calcutta, as they gathered at the after cap- that she experienced a shock of nervous The postman was thunderstruck. He saw jury. He did not care much for the law of stans before the watches were formed for prostration, which ended in paralysis of the with fright the heavy responsibility thrown upon him. His terrors augmented when he remembered that time and again, at the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that time and again, at the but to move heaven and earth in carrying the remembered that the but the but to move heaven and the but the moment of opening the mail bags, a man had jury; so he made a specialty in watching the | ne chlowed if something did not turn up he- tempted to eat food it refused to remain in potent twelve as a doctor sees an ill patient.

Sometimes he would bring in his sharpness

The end of the peop, and called the muster—give it up. It soon became evident to har roll, after which eight bells (eight c'clock) physicians that she could not be kept alive was struck, the wheel and look-out relieved, ticle of food passed for lips. nearest station on the railway to the chief ing his great power of resource. It happens and the starboard watch went below. I best was therefore given her, and her life has town. George Andre had arrived, but had ed that in the country one autumn night ing in the port or first officer's watch, it was thus been prolonged for a year by the set out immediately on foot for the village. there was an old fashioned corn husking, my duty to walk the lesside of the peop, cess of absorption of food by the walls of This news gave Martin a violent shock. Where all the darkies for miles around as- and strike the belt every half hour; so muf- Belts of he The prospect for a catastrophe for which be would be responsible arose before him. He moth heap of grain had been husked and key jacket, and sea boots. I proceeded to the beautiful for the process of t fulfilment of my ampleasant task.

with a perceptible increase of wind from that point, decided the officer in furling the the usual way; but, although this kind of neizzen upper topsail. After the yard bad thet keeps her alive, it does not prove very been lowered away and haufed down by the down banks, and the gear all tant, we jumped aluft to take it in. I clambered to the quite a healthy appearance, and would not weather side, and found outside me a Fin strike one as belonging to a person whose served him faithfully, for he had watched served him faithfully faithfully for he had watched served him faithfully fa After fisting and smothering it for about a tauty of the body is very low. quarter of an hour we, at last, got it folded ling activity or senses she begins retching up on the yard and were passing the gaskets uing through the day, and until the system securely around it when the heatswain (who is completely exhausted, when she again stood in the slings or middle of the yard) falls to simp. sang out something I did not bear, owing to the howling of the spinds ambiet the shadow so great that she has now lost her reason, the howling of the winds amidst the rigging. and her voice is so weak that she can speak However, guided by the glances of the others, only in a low waisper, and she continually I looked aloft, and on the main top-gallant grows worse, so that her death is daily ex-yard arm descried a ball of light (called by surface a correspond and attributable 1 be. sailors a corposant, and attributable, I be- copied and created no little interest; letter lieve, to some electrical agency) which move being received by her physicians from all be Scherian, though it blow and snow, he A woman was at the door of her house dangerous, he could yet arrive before him. sung out, and the dancers pitched in with ed about as we gazed, and at last remained parts of the United States. the Fin (Jacob) liseffect was terrible; with Good Anvice - Commenting on the fact place was well fitted for an ambusende. long into the room with his double-barrel gun a bound be reached the yard from the foot. That some over employed at large industrial etrable shade; rapidly moving clouds at him to me!" But that individual had flown light. Suddenly placing both hands before. To men not accustomed to spending much his face as if to shut out its giare, he turned money for whishy or none at all, it is incom-"He ain't here," said one of the company, round and imaged into the boiling surges of he thus thrown away. Nost of such man the Atlantic fifty feet below! leaving us as have families dependent on them for supfew seconds the thrilling cry of "Man overing for a week. Perhaps one in ten has pra-> self, probably accelerated by the appearance. GER. GARFHELD'S RECORD. - At fourteen be was at work at a carpender's bench.

At eighteen he was studying in the Ches

The postman, wet to the skin, warked with ed to purchase either an or part of it. It is Madaine Andre had not occur and the Six miles in all, and that his blood had time the impassibility of an old soldier who does an opportunity which will never again preduce he will be register build for himself and his blood had time.

At twenty-three he entered Williams Colfamily. The single man can also profit by At twenty-six he graduated from Williams with the highest honors of his class. At twenty-seven, he was a tutor at Hiram

At twenty eight, be was Principal of Hi-

At thirty be was Colonel of the Forty-sec-At thirty-one he was placed in command town Railroad. At thirty-two he was appointed chief of

At thirty-three he was in Congress, the specessor of Joshua R. Giddings.

At forty-nine be was nominated for the Presidency of the United States. • At fifty he was President, and died belov- linger.

THE EFFICACY OF PRAYER.-Is it not a jumped the cierk and claimed the gun to response to our prayers to see our nation in his eye and a copy of the Squadhrine in and its peace preserved, to witness party his hand. Did comput that piece in here or and sectional animosities becoming subscript. he demanded of the editor, pointing with and sectional animosities becoming subordipatriotism, and to observe the horror with "That?" said the editor, inquiringly, stopwhich the crime of assassination is viewed?

Let us remember that the primary object of __what of it? True, sin't it?" "Yes, and prayer is not to obtain favors from God, but ' that's just what's the matter," said Jos to acknowledge our filial relation to Him and dependence upon His great providence. do you hear?" "Oh, ves, certainly," said the editor. "John I" he called out, "stop Jones's A temporal favor was asked when we sup- paper. Anything else Mr. Jones pileated that the life of the ruler of this there is something case!" shriefted Jones, country might be saved for four years to maddened at the editor's coolines: "I'd like reign over us, and although it was denied us for interests of His children, of which He can and on Monday morning, sir, judge better than we, He has been pleased ed the vegetable gurden, the vidain and all to inspire the nation with respect and leve | nlong of that confounded piece of yourn." and veneration for Garfield, not alone for she said, turning around facing the clerk, four years, the short time when he would - WHO GRASPS MUCH HOLDS LATTLE "-UDITOR'S NOTICE. In the material special control of the problem of and de hammers so as it wouldn't stay cock- memory of his fellow countrymen, and hisoderation of advertisers, whose favore will be in-serted at the following low rates:

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable eleculation of the Cam-inta Perchan commended to the favorable on-mouths.

Administrator's and Executor's Notices 298
Auditor's Notices 298
Stray and similar Notices 188
Business items, first insertion loss, per line : cach subsequent invertible 50, per line."

(4) Resolutions or proceeding of any corporation or society, and communications designed to and other from to any matter of limited or anticidual internal agent to paid for an advectionment. NUMBER 38. JOH PRINTING OF All kind Deatly and expedite

A REMARKABLE STORY.

It was a cold, wild night in the Atlantic .- A special from Macomb (Ill.) to be Chi-without means of nourishment, as not a pay-

It had furthly gone two bells (nine o'clock) ther life being supperced entirely in this way when a darkening toward the east, together. When size is bungry, a bath of milk and oxwith a perceptible increase of wind from beef tea, or an injection of the same, satis-district.

Pere Martin was not very fond of his brilliant position, but he perfectly understood liant position, but he perfectly understood liant position, but he perfectly understood liant position. But he perfectly understood liant position is a constant position of the perfectly understood liant position is a constant position. But he strength to sustain herself.

The sentence was never unusure.

In the strength to sustain herself.

The postman assisted her into the house and own a home, and handed her a chair upon which she let it was, doubtless, George Andre, whom he had proceeded only by a few minutes; he was lever unusure.

The sentence was never unusure.

What have you got to do wid it?" said beard it was, doubtless, George Andre, whom he had proceeded only by a few minutes; he was lever unusure.

The sentence was never unusure.

What have you got to do wid it?" said the murderous wretch; as he threw the gun up and pulsed the trigger. A stumming religion to the more proceeded only by a few minutes; he was level unusure.

The sentence was never unusure.

What have you got to do wid it?" said the murderous wretch; as he threw the gun up and pulsed the trigger. A stumming religion to the more proceeded only by a few minutes; he was level unusured.

The sentence was never unusure.

What have you got to do wid it?" said the watch below out of their bonks of deck; but the remaining nime go set from year to up and pulsed the trigger.

The postman assisted her into the house heard the sound of approaching footsteps; if was, doubtless, or line of the watch below out of their bonks of deck; but the remaining nime go set from year to up and pulsed the trigger.

The postman assisted her into the house heard the sound of approaching footsteps; if was, doubtless, the watch below out of their bonks of deck in the murderous writing the watch below on the proceeded only by a few minutes and the watch below on the proceeded only by a few minutes are the watch the watch below on the proceeded only by a few minutes are the At twenty-one, he was teaching in one of man ought at once to docade wil

TESTING HIS APPECTION - A mean trick

had announced his return, and how he had the final penalty of the law, then may his had announced his return, and how he had the final penalty of the law, then may his the stege of Counth and in the important. He paided shown the real, and singling his withholding the same, shall thereby forfeft the right to vote at such election; and an elector whose right to vote shall be challenged for such cause before the election officers, shall be required to swear or affirm that the matter of the challenge is untrue before his vote shall be received.

SEC 9. Any person who shall be received.

SEC 9. Any person who shall while a candidate for office be guilty of bribery, trand, or wilful violation of any election law, shall be forever disqualified from bodding any office of trust or profit within this commanwealth; and any person convicted of wilful violation of the election laws shall, in addition to any penaltics, provided by law, be deprived of the right of suffrage absolutely for a term of four years.

in addition to any penaltice, provided by law, be deprived of the right of suffrage absolutely for a term of light Shariffor the file. Commonwealth of y make knewn and give he country aforesaid, that a held in saled county of the right country of the right country of the right country of the right country of the right sum at particle either and residence by reason of his presence, or last it by reason of his absolute by law, a been country of the state of the saled country of this State, or of the United States, or on the high sum, nor white a state of the saled as follows:

Sans her following the trib is which time state be reached as follows:

Sans her following the trib is which time state be reached as follows:

Sans 14. District election learned a residence of any interest in the country of any new district shall he right to cole for the indige and one inspector, and entile engaged in making up and frams within provided by law. Election officers shall be privileged from arrest upon day of election, and entile engaged in making up and frams mitting returns, except union warrant of a court of record or judge thereof, for an election in read, for relony or for wanten breach or the process. In cities they may claim exemption from jury duty during their learns of services. g of November, A. D. 1881,

ACT OF JANUARY 30, 1871. Sec. 4. That all elections bereafter held under the laws of this Commonwealth, the poils shall be opened at seven o'clock, a. a., and close at seven

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE! it if undersigned will offer at public sale, at the not discuss his orders,

"SATURDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1881, but his round was far from being finished, turn without notifying me." At 2 o'clock, r. s., the following described real when he passed an inn, or rather a miserable "Why?" All that certain Half Square of Groun ! ituale in the West ward of the borough of Ebens-Sheriff's Notice. tambeta County, ss. - The Commonwealth of Penusylvania to Mary A. Downey (formeron the 5th day of September, 1881, or show cause why the same should not could. THOMAS INDIFFIFIE Sheriff. Sheriff's Office, Ebeneburg, Oct. 4, 1881, 41. UDITOR'S NOTICE. - The underpurpose of attending to the duties of his appointment, when and where all persons having claims on said land must present them, or be debarred from coming in or, said fund.

A. V. BARKER, Auditor.

Ebensburg, Sept. 23, 1881.—2.

UDITOR'S NOTICE. - The under-

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

And love 'mong the flowers. There is love like a dream, And a wife's love, as deep As the fathomless sea;

When Flora is weeping

Like to nectar divine. A sister's and child's, In the heart's inner shrine And a wife's love, as pure As the depths of the sea;

"That is quite possible."

regulation, he never refused to perform a missed the man.

regulation, he never refused to perform a missed the man.

regulation, he never refused to perform a missed the man.

"No: I know him and cannot understand bits silence. You are aware that he departion in a horrible oath; he had recognized in the trigger. "I'll kill the trigger. "I'

He had distributed a portion of his mail, times that he should miss it to having him re- had come to swait for him; at the report of rybody's satisfaction that it was a willing,

"If I tremble, it is not simply because my voluntarily helped to place in peril.

"Let my sack alone, please," said Martin. "Jean Bruno. It is not astonishing that time to enter his dwelling, started off again. thumps of shuffling feet.

tning for Madame Andre I joy of return had given wings to his feet, as crowd. doubt; the fated man had taken the path "Well, you wait, an' I'll show you purty Martin calculated that by passing over an- through the door and disappeared. He hastened on and reached the fatal spot renewed zest. In about an hour the dewhen the night was already advanced. The ment came. Chris. Johnson pitched head-There was a species of cut through the rocks. at full cock in his hands.

the darkness. He paused; amid the rustling of the fol- had better put that gun up, for-" service, provided it did not conflict with his "No; I know him and cannot understand pointment in a horrible oath; he had recog- the trigger "I'll kill the fast man that

The postman, wet to the skin, walked with ed to purchase either all or part of it. It is Madame Andre had not been able to sub-wood; this place was mainly patronized by against him and at night a terrible blow is "It was not you? Who then has been as-"Ho! Monsbear, the postmar, stop here the other, but safer. I am afraid lest be nized him in the moonlight which at that in-better luck than usually befalls such adventurers. This person, who has made a business of litigation, resides in Frederick county. He brought in 1879 something like 2,000 suits against as many defendants for the recovery of sums of about $75 each. People thought that he was crazy, and the different defendants did not take the trouble to make any defense. As they failed to appear before the magistrate to answer, judgment was Wagner has become possessed of some, 1,-800 judgments, averaging $75 each, against about 300 persons and corporations. Against | the w. w. the estate of one person, deceased, Wagner "The Judge directs," said Rob, "that the has filed judgments amounting to $5,200.- gun shall be turned over to Mr. Denham to Appeals have been taken, and the indications are that the said judgments will be enforced. The Court has ruled that the failure The ingenious Wagner lass left Frederick woman, yet he resolved to await her husband's arrival at the chief town of the dis-