The little one was in his ninth year, and his entle, winning ways not only endeared him o his parents, but also to all the neighbors. Last night, about 10 o'clock, the eldest and mly remaining child of the family fell a victim to the same ailment, and an hour later Miss Ida McFarland, a niece of Mrs. Cooper, age, for the purpose of visiting her aunt, died from the disease, after suffering only four days. In this instance the affliction a peculiarly sail one, as the household of De-Comper is bereft of its treasures, while the parents of Miss McFarland, as well as her unce, who came on from his home in Meadville, this State, feel polgrant grief at her unexpected taking off. She faithfully assisted in the care of the two children until taken down with the dread scourge, and even until near her end she exhibited solicitude for the little girl. The remains of Miss. Scholars and chemists, have devoted years of time and skillful labor that they might, in a measure, relieve human suffering. Dr. Faust's German Aromatic Wine is the result of the most patient and eareful experiments. It is prepared with the most scrupalous care from pure Grape Juice and the choicest Fruits, Koots and Herba, and stands preminently without an equal for the use of ladles suffering with private disorders, aged or weblie and debilitated persons, and those recovering from the effects of exhausting disease, or mental or physical overwork. Grannlead to promote dispession and verwork. Guaranteed to promote digestion and nvigorate and give new and permenent viral force, in no way can it to used as an intexicant. Ask lruggists. NOTICE OF DISSOLUTION.—The

DEATH TO WORMS.

E. F. RUNKEL'S WORM SYRUP never falls to destroy all kinds of werms-pin, saxt, round, thread or stomach worms. Symptoms-The usuthread or simmarh worms. Symptoms—The usual symptoms of worms are intestinal irritation, pains in the belly, irritation or itching at the lower end of bowels, alternations of diarrhosa and continuous, great thirst, variable and often vorschous appetite. The person becomes hungry at most formediately after eating heartily, and a tother times the appetite is been and deprayed, soliciting strange articles, as dirt, chalk &c. There is a fettle breath, the complexion is pale and sallow, with occasional flushes, awailing of the upper lip, watery wouth, a fivid circle around the eyes, distilun or contraction of the papil, and enlargement of the belly. The person sleep is disturbed, often starts and awakes with terror grains the teeth, bloks and awakes with terror grains the teeth, bloks belly. The person's sleep is disturbed, often starts and awakes with terror, grinds the teeth, bleks the nose, and has a dry cough, headache, slow fever, and spasmodic or convolstve affections. To these may be added a slow irrogular remittent lever, which, while it continues, is astended with great drowsiness. There is pain in the bowels and at the pit of the atomach with occasional parging and a good deal of gastric distress. The beal is much affected, senetimes painfully, though for the most part, with suppor or delivium. The eye is wild, the pupil dilated, the alse of the hose contracted, the cheek flowled, and the forebead polished, as if glazed. There is often a very straige alteration of the voice, and in some instance a total loss of speech. E. F. Kunkel's Worm Syrup naver fails to remore them. Price, $1.00 pur bottle,

RECARDING ALL MICES AND MODES AND ADDRESS OF THE PARTY OF ROBERTS.-Died, at his residence in this place, on Monday, October 10, 1881, Mr. EDWARD ROB-ERTS, In the Sixty-eighth year of his age. The above is from a very reliable farmer, whose daughter was ir poor health for seven or eight years, and could obtain no relief until she used Hop Bitters. She is now in as good health as any person in the country. We have large sales, and they are making remarkable cures.

Canvention of Superintendent Higher has issued a circular calling a Convention of all the Superintendents of public schools of the western countes of the State to meet in Pittsburg on the 17th day of January. It is the design of the State Superintendent to gather such information from papers read before the Convention as to enable the making of the proper codification of the school laws of the State. The health of the deceased has been gradually ligations, and in all his dealings with the world his character for strict integrity, so har as we ever heard, steed wassailed. In his family relations he was kind and anderigent, and as an exemplary citizen was highly respected by all who knew him. He was the only surviving child of his father a family, and he binned leaves behind bin hi widow and three children, a son and two daugh ersons of whom it married to Dr. E. H. Plank, for merty of this place, but now a resident of Lancaster county. He remains were interred with Massaire exemples in Linyd cemetery, east of town, on Wednesday afternoon. Peace to his ashes.
