

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Death in There and the Other Place. Death to raise and remain - Parsons' Examination. - Thanksgiving day on the 26th. Now is the time to take turkey to you. - For pills, constipation and a torpid liver never fail to take MASLIN.

Mr. Henry Garman, of Denver, Col., is here on a brief visit to the parental home. If you want cheap goods, and you're a queer fish if you don't, go to McDonald's, Loretto, Pa.

Rheumatism, neuralgia, hysteria, female weakness, etc., promptly cured by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Mr. John R. Campbell, of White township, Indiana county, raised 2,000 bushels of wheat this year.

McDonald's, of Loretto, has just received a full line of ladies' coats, dolmans, shawls, etc., handsome and cheap.

Gambro has been broken for the erection in Cambria township, north of town, of a new First Methodist church, at cost $750.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has advanced the wages of car inspectors (per month), to date from September last.

There has been a painful absence of villanous coons and "skink" like in the columns of the Johnstown Tribune since election day.

The affairs of the Distreille Building and Loan Association have run down so completely that they are going to wind them up.

William Clapper of Frankstown township, Blair county, shot an eagle the other day which measured seven feet from tip to tip.

One of the "God and morality" party is said to have sworn his vote into the East ward after proposing without avail to do the same thing in the West ward.

Mr. Reed Holzinger, who had charge of the funeral of the late Mrs. J. H. Campbell, died on Sunday morning last after two or three days illness, aged about 40 years.

All forms of impaired vitality, mental exhaustion, weakened digestion, etc., etc., radically removed by using Brown's Iron Bitters.

"What every one says must be true," says "Dr. Sellers' Cough Syrup" has no equal for coughs and colds. Try it. Price 25 cents.

If you want to deal where business is done honest and square, and where you can get full value for your money, go to McDonald's in Loretto.

Election day was a lovely one, and more especially notable on that account because it was antichristian between two very wet and disagreeable ones.

The doctors said my wife had contracted diphtheria from her Blood Searcher, and she has better health than ever." G. H. Hubbard, Hampden, Ohio.

Thirty-two new subscribers in two weeks to what the Saltbush Press boasts of. A house of that kind would be exceedingly fine in this neighborhood.

McWilliams, of the Saltbush Press, understands his business to a dot. He prints a handsome and readable paper, and gladly do we welcome it to our exchange list.

Attention is invited to the big advertisement of our enterprising merchant friends, Messrs V. S. Barker & Bro., about whom we shall have something more to say next week.

The Campbell, of Armagh, Indiana county, fell from a wagon a few mornings ago, while on her way to Johnstown, and had her right shoulder dislocated. It was her arm.

The house and lot in this place heretofore owned by Mrs. Harriet Stok, of Johnstown, was sold at public outcry on Saturday last to Mr. Lewis Edwards, of Cambria township, for $750.

Chairman Heist is one ahead, and a peg to spare. He wanted to bat a mint of money Tuesday night, that if the lightning bolt should strike him, he would be the man who was killed in was.

The desire to lay before our readers the actual returns of Tuesday's election in this county, say nothing of the fact that one of our employes in the stock list, has left our pages in the same fix it was last week - one of the best things that has happened.

Frank Newell, one of the parties arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the Galloway robbery, established an alibi before Judge Hunter at Greensburg, the other day, and was discharged from custody.

Chas. Egger Hinkle, Jersey City Heights, N. J., writes to say that he had used two bottles of Eczema's by the Cuticura Remedies, and that his head to his feet was one mass of scabs.

Mr. Bebe, the architect of our new Court house, was the Republican candidate for mayor of Buffalo at the recent election, but made another aspirant for political honors. He didn't get votes enough to make his calling and election year.

Hon. Wm. Taylor, Boston, is well again. Completely cured of a scrofulous humor which poisoned his blood, covered his face and hands with sores, by Cuticura Resolvent and Cuticura and Cuticura Soap.

The Huntington Journal says that two checks were presented at the First National Bank, in that place, one day last week for the sum of $42.50 in full for a $1,000 policy held in the life of old man Beaty, who died a short time ago. The certificate presented by the checks said that the different assessments on the policy in question had amounted to a little over $50.00.

A man named C. B. Gates, who claimed to be a resident of Altoona, was arrested in Johnstown on Friday for indecent exposure, and would have been confined to the lock-up for a period of five days had not his wife, who is a sister of the late John P. Pink, entered in for the big first prize of $10,000 of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad and other notables at Johnstown last Friday. She gave the paper neatly and promptly to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

Thousands of women have been entirely cured of the most stubborn cases of female weakness by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Send to Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, 235 Western Avenue, Lynn, Mass., for pamphlet.

A large bear, weighing about two hundred pounds, was caught in a trap at Lloyds, in this county, on Friday last. The same bear had been caught in the same trap a few days previous, but it succeeded in making its escape.

David Herdman, a track racer, at Conemaugh, in this county, was caught and punished between two sections of local jail which were being shoved together at the jail on Friday evening last, resulting in his death soon after night.

Samuel Mornhast, foreman of a gang of workmen on the Huntington and Broad street railroad, dropped dead in Richey's tavern, Tevleville, Bedford county, on Tuesday last.

Not content with "shooting off their heads," some of the enthusiastic Democrats got out their little cannon which has been in service and made the walking on Wednesday night with the loudest bang of thunder - the same being in honor of the success of John A. Kennedy for County

CAMBRIA COUNTY, PA., AT ELECTION HELD ON TUESDAY, NOV. 9, 1881.

Table with columns for Districts, State's Treasurers, Associate Judges, County Court Officers, Auditors, P. H. Decker's, and Coroner. Lists names and vote counts for various candidates across different districts.

On Monday night a female child about two weeks old was left on the steps of the residence of Mr. Conkle, of Johnstown. A knock at the door attracted the attention of the occupants of the house, and on coming out the child was found, wrapped up in a shawl.

It makes a person think of old times to see John Bushman in our midst. He was a resident of Ebensburg thirty years ago, and whenever he comes into our midst he is so welcome that we don't know how to let him loose again. He was a return judge for a Johnstown precinct this election.

According to law, all drinking saloons must be closed and remain closed on election day. We weren't around looking, but we are told that this law was lived up to on last Tuesday, and that the fellow who wanted a glass of elder was advised to betake himself to the drug store and get himself outside of a little safer.

Scandalous as the wayward Johnstown, about whom a bad and sad story is told by the Tribune and copied by us this week, was not brought to jail until Wednesday night. Besides his other evil doings, Woodring is charged with having one more wife than the law allows, but whether he will be called upon to answer for that grave offense remains to be seen.

Our recently wedded and of course supremely happy young friend Seward Jones, of Zanesville, Ohio, married with his bonnie bride for several days among their many relatives and friends in this locality, leaving for home Thursday morning, after having done up the usual points of interest during their wedding tour.

Our brotherly friend of long standing, as "Tom" of this city, was in that of our state, Mr. Peter F. Collins, spent Tuesday last at the old homestead in this place, coming from some of his laboring on a railroad contract in Luzerne county and bringing with him his two little daughters, the eldest of whom is to remain with her mother until she fully recovers from the effects of malaria, with which she has recently been afflicted. He is one of nature's noblest and is always welcomed to his old home by a host of warm friends.

A large frame barn on the farm of Mrs. A. J. Rhee, in Bell township, Westmoreland county, was burned to the ground last Friday morning, and all the contents were destroyed by the fire. The barn was owned by Samuel Freeman, having caught fire and communicated the flames to the hay and straw in the barn was in charge of Mr. Wm. Armstrong, who lost heavily, a cow, hog, farm implements, two hundred bushels of wheat, and four tons of hay being some of the property destroyed.

John W. Pen, of Chest Springs, purchased the Mechanical Works and house lately built by the late John W. Pen, and for the sum of $2,000, and intends removing the engine and some other portions of the machinery to a higher tract owned by Mr. Fisher and situated between Loper and Croston, where he proposes to embark in the lumber business on an extensive scale. The heirs of John W. Pen, who recently bought the property at an assize sale, were the parties from whom he purchased.

Our energetic friend, Mr. J. A. Shoemaker, who for several months past has been connected with a corps of civil engineers, left for home on Tuesday last, after a visit to his home in this place, and remained long enough to sell some of his loose property at public sale, attend to a little urgent business and make arrangements for the early removal of his family to Ridgway, in the above named county, where they intend to reside during the winter, and possibly for a year or two to come. The best wishes of all our citizens will accompany Mr. S. and his worthy family to their new home.

Mr. Gregory Madala, one of the oldest, best known, most esteemed German citizens of Hollidaysburg, died on last Friday forenoon from a stroke of apoplexy, caused, it is believed, by a severe cold, which he had contracted by a sudden change of air, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at 10 o'clock.

The Republican blowers and strikers in this place were so confident on Tuesday night of Barker's election after the returns of the three Courts. However, they were disappointed, and some other districts heard from by telegraph, that they started the "nova" and continued to labor under the delusion until about eight o'clock next morning, when they learned from Germany and Ireland (Croyle and Munster townships) were received, and as they didn't pan out in his way, the fact of this he stated that they would, but on the contrary were of another sort, they surrendered at discretion to the victors, and that the "best" laid plans of vice and men are gone.

We were told by a reliable citizen of Carrolltown on Wednesday, that the desperate and unscrupulous nature of the friends of Mr. Barker to coerce Democrats into his support were simply without a parallel. As an instance of this, he stated that a night or so before the election an active Republican walked upon the old watchtower of the town and promised him, if he would vote for Barker, that he would see that the watchtower should get the contract for putting up the town clock in the new Court House. And all this, too, without any authority from Mr. Shook, the contractor for the erection of the building, to make such an solicitation, as it may be called, to a very fine effect, but the honest old German told his interviewer that his vote wasn't for sale just then if he knew himself, and he thought

For various reasons not necessary to mention, but which are well understood, one of the most important events of the year, regard the defeat of ex-Sheriff Myers, one of the Democratic nominees for that office, in any of the railroad men's wards. His Gold Medal salaratus of 100-000, and is said by M. L. Outman, John Lloyd, and a good many others, to have been simply because a certain number of Democrats who voted for Masters did so without the least reflection upon their own wards. They don't mean twice before they treat a candidate so stably? The defeat of Mr. Myers is one of those blunders, sometimes thoughtlessly committed, which in many respects is worse than crime.

Mr. Wm. Cox, one of the very best citizens of Altoona, as well as one of the most earnest and sincere friends of the writer of this article, was run over by an engine and almost instantly killed in that city, on last Monday night, while in the discharge of his duties as janitor of the railroad men's ward. The deceased was aged about sixty years, and had been in the employ of the R. R. for more than thirty years. He was a devoted member of the Catholic Church and an honest, upright man. His wife and several children were left behind him, and our heartfelt sympathies are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and excellent father, whose funeral services were being fully attended by its imminence that afternoon in which he was held by every body in the community. He was a man of the fitting reward of his well-spent life.

Diphtheria is still claiming its victims in various parts of the county, and the death from that terrible disease we have heard of being a bright and interesting little son, aged seven or eight years, of the late Mr. J. H. Rhee, of Washington township, filed in charge and dumped in Clearfield creek. It is a sad reflection upon the health of the two points where the new plant was made and it might as well be noticed here as elsewhere, that the man who catches them otherwise than with hook and line ought to be killed on the spot, the spot being low.

A Johnstown landlady failed to put in the printed notices in his hotel in accordance with the provisions of the law, and was brought to a bad end for not paying his bill, but the boarder retaliated by bringing suit against her for not putting in the notices. The law in having the notice posted, and there is a fair prospect that he will go to jail for not doing so. The matter is now in the hands of the court, and unless the matter is compromised, landlords and boarding house keepers will save trouble and expense by putting in the law posted in offices and bedrooms.

Our brotherly friend of long standing, as "Tom" of this city, was in that of our state, Mr. Peter F. Collins, spent Tuesday last at the old homestead in this place, coming from some of his laboring on a railroad contract in Luzerne county and bringing with him his two little daughters, the eldest of whom is to remain with her mother until she fully recovers from the effects of malaria, with which she has recently been afflicted. He is one of nature's noblest and is always welcomed to his old home by a host of warm friends.

A large frame barn on the farm of Mrs. A. J. Rhee, in Bell township, Westmoreland county, was burned to the ground last Friday morning, and all the contents were destroyed by the fire. The barn was owned by Samuel Freeman, having caught fire and communicated the flames to the hay and straw in the barn was in charge of Mr. Wm. Armstrong, who lost heavily, a cow, hog, farm implements, two hundred bushels of wheat, and four tons of hay being some of the property destroyed.

John W. Pen, of Chest Springs, purchased the Mechanical Works and house lately built by the late John W. Pen, and for the sum of $2,000, and intends removing the engine and some other portions of the machinery to a higher tract owned by Mr. Fisher and situated between Loper and Croston, where he proposes to embark in the lumber business on an extensive scale. The heirs of John W. Pen, who recently bought the property at an assize sale, were the parties from whom he purchased.

Our energetic friend, Mr. J. A. Shoemaker, who for several months past has been connected with a corps of civil engineers, left for home on Tuesday last, after a visit to his home in this place, and remained long enough to sell some of his loose property at public sale, attend to a little urgent business and make arrangements for the early removal of his family to Ridgway, in the above named county, where they intend to reside during the winter, and possibly for a year or two to come. The best wishes of all our citizens will accompany Mr. S. and his worthy family to their new home.

Mr. Gregory Madala, one of the oldest, best known, most esteemed German citizens of Hollidaysburg, died on last Friday forenoon from a stroke of apoplexy, caused, it is believed, by a severe cold, which he had contracted by a sudden change of air, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at 10 o'clock.

The Republican blowers and strikers in this place were so confident on Tuesday night of Barker's election after the returns of the three Courts. However, they were disappointed, and some other districts heard from by telegraph, that they started the "nova" and continued to labor under the delusion until about eight o'clock next morning, when they learned from Germany and Ireland (Croyle and Munster townships) were received, and as they didn't pan out in his way, the fact of this he stated that they would, but on the contrary were of another sort, they surrendered at discretion to the victors, and that the "best" laid plans of vice and men are gone.

We were told by a reliable citizen of Carrolltown on Wednesday, that the desperate and unscrupulous nature of the friends of Mr. Barker to coerce Democrats into his support were simply without a parallel. As an instance of this, he stated that a night or so before the election an active Republican walked upon the old watchtower of the town and promised him, if he would vote for Barker, that he would see that the watchtower should get the contract for putting up the town clock in the new Court House. And all this, too, without any authority from Mr. Shook, the contractor for the erection of the building, to make such an solicitation, as it may be called, to a very fine effect, but the honest old German told his interviewer that his vote wasn't for sale just then if he knew himself, and he thought

For various reasons not necessary to mention, but which are well understood, one of the most important events of the year, regard the defeat of ex-Sheriff Myers, one of the Democratic nominees for that office, in any of the railroad men's wards. His Gold Medal salaratus of 100-000, and is said by M. L. Outman, John Lloyd, and a good many others, to have been simply because a certain number of Democrats who voted for Masters did so without the least reflection upon their own wards. They don't mean twice before they treat a candidate so stably? The defeat of Mr. Myers is one of those blunders, sometimes thoughtlessly committed, which in many respects is worse than crime.

Mr. Wm. Cox, one of the very best citizens of Altoona, as well as one of the most earnest and sincere friends of the writer of this article, was run over by an engine and almost instantly killed in that city, on last Monday night, while in the discharge of his duties as janitor of the railroad men's ward. The deceased was aged about sixty years, and had been in the employ of the R. R. for more than thirty years. He was a devoted member of the Catholic Church and an honest, upright man. His wife and several children were left behind him, and our heartfelt sympathies are left to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and excellent father, whose funeral services were being fully attended by its imminence that afternoon in which he was held by every body in the community. He was a man of the fitting reward of his well-spent life.

Diphtheria is still claiming its victims in various parts of the county, and the death from that terrible disease we have heard of being a bright and interesting little son, aged seven or eight years, of the late Mr. J. H. Rhee, of Washington township, filed in charge and dumped in Clearfield creek. It is a sad reflection upon the health of the two points where the new plant was made and it might as well be noticed here as elsewhere, that the man who catches them otherwise than with hook and line ought to be killed on the spot, the spot being low.

A Johnstown landlady failed to put in the printed notices in his hotel in accordance with the provisions of the law, and was brought to a bad end for not paying his bill, but the boarder retaliated by bringing suit against her for not putting in the notices. The law in having the notice posted, and there is a fair prospect that he will go to jail for not doing so. The matter is now in the hands of the court, and unless the matter is compromised, landlords and boarding house keepers will save trouble and expense by putting in the law posted in offices and bedrooms.

Our brotherly friend of long standing, as "Tom" of this city, was in that of our state, Mr. Peter F. Collins, spent Tuesday last at the old homestead in this place, coming from some of his laboring on a railroad contract in Luzerne county and bringing with him his two little daughters, the eldest of whom is to remain with her mother until she fully recovers from the effects of malaria, with which she has recently been afflicted. He is one of nature's noblest and is always welcomed to his old home by a host of warm friends.

A large frame barn on the farm of Mrs. A. J. Rhee, in Bell township, Westmoreland county, was burned to the ground last Friday morning, and all the contents were destroyed by the fire. The barn was owned by Samuel Freeman, having caught fire and communicated the flames to the hay and straw in the barn was in charge of Mr. Wm. Armstrong, who lost heavily, a cow, hog, farm implements, two hundred bushels of wheat, and four tons of hay being some of the property destroyed.

John W. Pen, of Chest Springs, purchased the Mechanical Works and house lately built by the late John W. Pen, and for the sum of $2,000, and intends removing the engine and some other portions of the machinery to a higher tract owned by Mr. Fisher and situated between Loper and Croston, where he proposes to embark in the lumber business on an extensive scale. The heirs of John W. Pen, who recently bought the property at an assize sale, were the parties from whom he purchased.

Our energetic friend, Mr. J. A. Shoemaker, who for several months past has been connected with a corps of civil engineers, left for home on Tuesday last, after a visit to his home in this place, and remained long enough to sell some of his loose property at public sale, attend to a little urgent business and make arrangements for the early removal of his family to Ridgway, in the above named county, where they intend to reside during the winter, and possibly for a year or two to come. The best wishes of all our citizens will accompany Mr. S. and his worthy family to their new home.

Mr. Gregory Madala, one of the oldest, best known, most esteemed German citizens of Hollidaysburg, died on last Friday forenoon from a stroke of apoplexy, caused, it is believed, by a severe cold, which he had contracted by a sudden change of air, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery on Sunday afternoon, May 13th, at 10 o'clock.

The Republican blowers and strikers in this place were so confident on Tuesday night of Barker's election after the returns of the three Courts. However, they were disappointed, and some other districts heard from by telegraph, that they started the "nova" and continued to labor under the delusion until about eight o'clock next morning, when they learned from Germany and Ireland (Croyle and Munster townships) were received, and as they didn't pan out in his way, the fact of this he stated that they would, but on the contrary were of another sort, they surrendered at discretion to the victors, and that the "best" laid plans of vice and men are gone.

We were told by a reliable citizen of Carrolltown on Wednesday, that the desperate and unscrupulous nature of the friends of Mr. Barker to coerce Democrats into his support were simply without a parallel. As an instance of this, he stated that a night or so before the election an active Republican walked upon the old watchtower of the town and promised him, if he would vote for Barker, that he would see that the watchtower should get the contract for putting up the town clock in the new Court House. And all this, too, without any authority from Mr. Shook, the contractor for the erection of the building, to make such an solicitation, as it may be called, to a very fine effect, but the honest old German told his interviewer that his vote wasn't for sale just then if he knew himself, and he thought

For various reasons not necessary to mention, but which are well understood, one of the most important events of the year, regard the defeat of ex-Sheriff Myers, one of the Democratic nominees for that office, in any of the railroad men's wards. His Gold Medal salaratus of 100-000, and is said by M. L. Outman, John Lloyd, and a good many others, to have been simply because a certain number of Democrats who voted for Masters did so without the least reflection upon their own wards. They don't mean twice before they treat a candidate so stably? The defeat of Mr. Myers is one of those blunders, sometimes thoughtlessly committed, which in many respects is worse than crime.

NO DULL TIMES HERE! BUSINESS ALWAYS BOOMING AT BARKER'S.

What's the matter with us now? That is to say, we have bought such a large assortment of goods this fall that we cannot find room on our shelves and counters to place them; so we wish to get rid of them with the public for the public's money, as we can find plenty of places to put all the cash any of our old or new customers have to spare. In

WOMEN WHO WANT SHOES We have the largest and most varied assortment we have ever carried. We have taken special pains this fall in selecting our stock of LADIES' FINE SHOES, and we take pride in saying that we have made the finest assortment in Ebensburg, while in boots for MEN AND BOYS everybody knows we keep twice as many as any other merchant in town; so it is useless for us to say anything further about boots or shoes, except that we have all kinds and quality, as well as

Overshoes in Gum and Cloth, either buckled or plain, for both sexes and of all qualities and sizes. OUR STOCK OF CLOTHING is much larger than we have ever before kept. We have found it difficult heretofore on account of our measure assortment to fit children from 4 to 10 years of age, but now we have all the sizes requisite for children of any age, while for men we have suits at any price desired, and will guarantee to sell you a complete outfit as cheap as the same kind of a suit can be bought anywhere else in this county. Our stock is a bargain, however, and it is a great bargain indeed, is a

SUIT WE ARE SELLING FOR TEN DOLLARS. We claim that it is the cheapest suit of clothes in the country, and the very best for the money. We also have the LARGEST STOCK OF OVERCOATS ever displayed in Ebensburg. If you want to see the Cheapest HATS and Winter CAPS you ever did see, call at our store and we will show to you. We challenge anybody to show you as good Hats at 75c, and $1.00 as we are offering at those prices. We have also a

SPLENDID LINE OF WATERPROOFS IN DIFFERENT COLORS; AN ELEGANT LINE OF FLANNELS IN ALL COLORS, SUITABLE FOR DRESSES OR SHIRTS; A VERY NICE LINE OF CLOTHS AND CASSIMERES FOR MEN'S AND BOYS' WEAR;

A Fashionable Line of Dress Goods for the Ladies; THE LARGEST AND BEST LINE OF UNDERWEAR FOR LADIES AND GENTS; A MAGNIFICENT LINE OF QUEENSWARE.

But we haven't room enough to enumerate half the goods we have for sale; so we will simply say that we keep Axes, Baskets, Cloaks, Groceries, Elephant Overshoes, Fish, Goswams, Hardware, Ink, St. Jacob's Oil, Kendall's Scurvy Cure, Lamps, Merino Hose, Napkins, Oil Cloth, Paints, Quills, Rope, Spoons, Tinware, Umbrellas, Waxed Canvas, Whips, XX Flour, 3 arm, 2 arm, 1 arm, and everything else that people need in housekeeping, farming, and all other pursuits of life.

We take all kind of GRAIN and PRODUCE in exchange for Goods, and sell the Goods at just the same prices as we do for cash. Thinking all our friends for past favors, we again cordially invite them to call at our store and examine our goods and prices, believing that we can sell them goods as cheap as any one else can do, and knowing that they will find with us the largest assortment of goods to select from.

V. S. BARKER & BRO., Ebensburg, Pa. NOVEMBER 11, 1881.

EXECUTRIX'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Thomas Campbell, late of Summit Hill, deceased, were granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to the said estate, and all persons having claims against the said estate, are requested to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. JOHN C. GATES, Probationary Executor of the Estate of Thomas Campbell, deceased.

NOTICE. The first and final account of H. J. Mad, Assignee of A. R. Lutzinger, late of Cambria county, and all persons having claims against the said estate, are requested to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. JOHN C. GATES, Probationary Executor of the Estate of H. J. Mad, deceased.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS. A meeting of the stockholders of the Cambria County Gas and Light Company, for the purpose of electing a new board of directors, will be held at the office of the Company, on the 20th day of November, 1881, at 12 o'clock, P. M. All persons owning shares in the Company are requested to attend, and to bring with them their certificates of stock, and to be prepared to authorize the transfer of their shares to the new board of directors. JAMES R. McLAUGHLIN, Secretary.

Orphans' Court Case. In virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of this county, I will expose to sale by public auction or outcry, at the City of Harrisburg, on Saturday, 30th day of December, 1881, at 10 o'clock, P. M., the following real estate, to-wit: One-half of the lot of land, containing 100 acres, more or less, situated in the Borough of Ebensburg, fronting on the north side of the street, and extending back 100 feet to the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger, and the east and west sides of the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger, and the east and west sides of the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger. EDWARD THOMAS, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth McLaughlin, deceased.

A PIECE OR LOT OF GROUND situated in the Borough of Ebensburg, fronting on the north side of the street, and extending back 100 feet to the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger, and the east and west sides of the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger, and the east and west sides of the lot of C. B. Hunsinger and John P. Hunsinger. EDWARD THOMAS, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth McLaughlin, deceased.

TERMS OF SALE. One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash, and the balance in two equal annual payments, with interest, to be secured by a mortgage on the premises. EDWARD THOMAS, Administrator of the Estate of Elizabeth McLaughlin, deceased.

S. S. MARVIN & CO'S. SUPERIOR CRACKERS AND PAN CAKE FLOUR.

Practical Watchmaker and Jeweler. Money Received on Deposit, PAYABLE ON DEMAND. INTEREST ALLOWED ON TIME DEPOSITS. COLLECTIONS MADE AT ALL RESPECTABLE PLACES. DRAFTS ON THE PRINCIPAL CITIES Bought and Sold, and a GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS TRANSACTED. Accounts Solicited. A. W. BUCK, Cashier. Ebensburg, March 20, 1880-11.

ROOFING AND SPOUTING PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. REPAIRS FOR STOVES CONSTANTLY ON HAND. HARRISBURG, OCT. 10, 1879-81.

Ebensburg Fire Insurance Agency. T. W. DICK, General Insurance Agent, EBENSBURG, PA. Policies written at short notice in the OLD RELIABLE "METNA" and other First Class Companies. EBENSBURG, Sept. 22, 1880-19-81.

SECHLER & KITTELL, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, JOHNSONSTOWN AND EBENSBURG. Office in the corner Main and Union Sts., Johnsonstown, Pa., and in Columbia Road, Ebensburg, Pa.

T. W. BUCK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Ebensburg, Pa. Office in building of T. W. Bick, No. 2, 10th Street, Ebensburg, Pa. Subscribes for THE ADRIAN FREEMAN, and publishes a weekly advertisement.

Good FARM PROPERTIES. Premium Notes now in force - $100,000. No Steam Risks Taken. G. E. M. READE, President. T. W. DICK, Secretary. Ebensburg, Sept. 20, 1881-39.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Mary Adams, late of Clearfield township, died, having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to the said estate, and all persons having claims against the same, are hereby notified to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. MARY L. VAIL, Administrator.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Mary Adams, late of Clearfield township, died, having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to the said estate, and all persons having claims against the same, are hereby notified to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. MARY L. VAIL, Administrator.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Mary Adams, late of Clearfield township, died, having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to the said estate, and all persons having claims against the same, are hereby notified to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. MARY L. VAIL, Administrator.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE. Letters of administration on the estate of Mary Adams, late of Clearfield township, died, having been granted to the undersigned by the Register of Cambria county, all persons indebted to the said estate, and all persons having claims against the same, are hereby notified to present the same to the undersigned on or before the 30th day of December, 1881. MARY L. VAIL, Administrator.