THE scramble for office at Washington during the last two weeks is represented to have been without a parallel. The frightful array of thirsty patriots is made up of Arthur Republicans, Blaine Republicans, Readjuster, or Repudiation Republicans, from "Ole Virginny," Greenback Republicans, and even some Republicans of the David Davis independent school. The impression has toward Washington and swarm through its thoroughfares like pilgrims on the roads to the holy well at Mecca. On last Saturday night a large number of the members of Tammany who have recently rebelled against the "bossism" of Mr. Kelly, held a meeting to perfect a new organization. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 18, 1881. Special Correspondence of the FREENAN.]

DEAR HENRY—The death of John Wein Forney was attended with more general manifestations of sorrow than the death of any man that has taken place in this city for many years, if indeed there ever was a death in Philadelphia so universally regretted.—Upwards of six thousand people passed thro' the parior to take a last look at the face of the man who for nearly half a century had occupied a preminent position in the history Special Correspondence of the FRERMAN. occupied a preminent position in the history of the country, and when the doors were of the country, and when the doors were finally closed, in order that the remains might be prepared for the grave, there were still thousands on the street seeking to obtain admission and take a last look at the great American journalist. Nearly every trade, profession and walk in life was represented in the moving line which passed around the casket. The features of the dead journalist were a singular life aspect—so much so that wore a singular life aspect—so much so that there was even a trace of the genial smile with which he was wont to greet his friends and acquaintances. Never was any man's death in this city more sincerely deplored.

TERRIAKE EXPLOSION.

FOUR CHILDREN INSTANTIN KILLED BY

About half-past five o'clock this morning, says the Huntingdon Semi-Weekly News of Monday, an explosion of giant powder (dynamile) occurred at the house of a miner named Joseph Ingram, who resided in the suburbs of Mount Union, this county, by which he and his wife were seriously injured and four of his five children were instantly killed. A few days since Ingram purchased a box containing twenty sticks of dynamite, and placed the box in the second story of his residence. The powder froze, and before ten of the explosives and placed them in the over of the cooking store to thaw them .-His wife was busily preparing the breakfast, and it is thought, his children were standing near the stove warming themselves when the dynamite exploded with a terrible result. | FP The two story house was completely demol-ished, two of the youngest children were blown to the rear of the building a considerable distance and instantly killed; his wife and oldest daughter were blown to the front

- -TERRIBLE EXPLOSION IN AN ENGLISH COAL MINE. - An explosion occurred about noon on Monday last in a colliery at Bolton, Eng., and the first supposition was that 180 persons had perished, as 200 descended into the pit that morning, but the latest news is that only 34 were killed and 36 injured. The explosion occurred in the Orrell pit, which and told the sad story of what had occurred was considered one of the safest in Lancahire, as neither gunpowder was used for blasting nor furnaces for ventilation. The Arley pit, which is 150 feet below the Orrell, was affected by the explosion in the latter, and for a time it was feared that many of the niners in the Arley pit had been suffocated. This apprehension was subsequently relieved, however, by the rescue of the entire parin the upper seam, were seriously burned.

---NEW BLOOMFIELD, Miss., Jan. 2, 1880.-I wish to say to you that I have been suffer-ing for the last five years with a severe itching all over. I have heard of Hop Bitters and have tried it. I have used up four bot tles, and it has done me more good than all the doctors and medicines that they could use on or with me. I am old and poor but wish to bless you for such a relief by you medi-cine and from the torment of the doctors. I have had fifteen doctors at me. One gave me seven ounces of solution of arsenic; another took four quarts of blood from me.
