MORAL COSMETICS.

Ye who would save your features florid, Lithe limbs, bright eyes, unwrinkled fore-head. From age's devastation horrid,

Adopt this plan ; "Twill make, in climate cold or torrid, A hale old man. Avoid in youth luxurious diet, Restrain the passion's lawless riot : Devoted to domestic quiet,

Be wisely gay; So shall ye, spite of ages flat, Resist decay. Seek not in Mammon worship pleasure, But find your richest, dearest treasure, In books, friends, music polish'd leisure;

The mind, not sense, Made the sole scale by which ye measure Your opulence. This is the soluce, this the science, Life's purest, sweetest, best appliance That disappoints not man's reliance, What'er his state:

-Springfield Republican. THE SILVER LINING.

Time, fortune, fate.

There's never a day so sunny But a little cloud appears ; There's never a life so happy

But has its time of tears Yet the sun shines out the brighter Whenever the tempest clears.

There's never a garden growing With roses in every plot; There never a heart so hardened But it has one tender spot : We have only to prune the border

To find the forget-me-not. There's naver a sur that rises But we know 'twill set at night; The tinfs that gleam in the morning

At evening are just as bright And the hour that is the sweetest Is between the dark and light. There's never a dream so happy

But the waking makes us sad: There's never a dream of sorrow But the waking makes us glad We shall look some day with wonder At the troubles we have had.
