THE DEMOCRATIC LEADERS FOR 1882.

The Republicans have now a candidate in

General Leaves who will make the best of his great opportunities. Those who assume that the Stafwart Beaver will be easily beaten must be ignorant of his vast advantages. He is able on the stump with the eloquence of his war crutches to plead for his success, and he will be backed by the ablest and most desperate men and methods ever exhiphed in a Pennsylvania convass. He will have the whole material power of President Arthur's administration. He will have all the men in office with any needed percentage of their official salaries. He will have all the machinery of the State well tested in the many despecte conflicts of the past, and will have all organs with their long well-trained subtrission. Such is the enemy the Democrats will have to fight in November next. There is not a question of doubt about the Stalwart leader, as the Republican masses are releved from all trouble about their candidate for Governor, as the Stal-wart managers have united on General Bea-

A BRIGHTER DAY FOR FINNSYLVANIA. It is hoped that this year will see the beginning of a brighter day for Pennsylvania. The whole machine of the government of the State has become rotten. The best Repub-licans in the Common wealth-the most compotent and deserving have been ignored, and the money of the State has been used to ish them and reward the incompetent and unsdeserving. Such has been the condi-tion of things for upwards of twenty years. There must be no Waiaceism or Randallism in the man nominated as the Deuroeratic candidate for Governor. Any man nomina-ted for holividual supramacy will surely be rejected by the party and the popple, but if a candidate fike James H. Hopkins, who will not be set up of any faction, but be the representative of the sternly aggressive, hon-est and liberal Democracy of the age, his election with Congressionia and Legislative thant Governor, the Democracy of the age, his election will be certain With James H. Hopkins as a sandidate for Governor, and with Moses Veale as a candidate for Governor, and est yvania will wu a victory that will disen-thraw the Commonwaith and ensure hon-est government in the State. The Democrats of Penn-sylvania will wu a victory that will disen-thraw the Commonwaith and ensure hon-est government in the State. The Democrats of Penn-sylvania will wu a victory that will disen-thraw the Commonwaith and ensure hon-est government in the State. The Democrats are portaily, and let them embrace it. Every-thing now depends on their candidates. There are enough honest voters in Pennsylvania a strand for their suppor. A BRIGHTER DAY POR FINNET/VANIA. Ive and cloquent sermon by Rev. Father Reardon. -----THERE are gains for all our losses. There are gains for all our lange, There are baims for all our pains; But when youth, the dream departs, It takes something from our hearts, And it never comes again. Short metre. If anybody has lost anything of Short metre. If anybody has lost anything of value and wants to make it up, our advice to him is to pay a visit to Jas. J. Murphy's Star Clothing Hall, 109 Clinton street, Johnstown, and buy a bill of greads. If he has lost one dollar and buys five dollars' worth of dothing, he will have made him-will just square again. As to that something which now comes back to our hearts, we don't ex-netly understand what is meant by the approxima-but we do know that Mr. Murphy has one of the imgrest and best stocks of cohing to be bound anywhere, and—an important consideration—a special guaranty accompanies each and every arti-cle sold.
