Y H. A. MoPIKE.

H. A. McPIKE, Editor and Publisher.

"HE IS A PRESMAN WHOM THE TRUTH MAKES PRES, AND ALL ARE SLAVES BESIDE."

$1.50 and postage per year, in advance.

EBENSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MARCH 17, 1882.

WANTED! Wanted! Wanted!

VOLUME XVI.

00 Bushels Potatoes, 300 Bushels Apples, 200 Lbs. Dried Apples.

The above are some of the articles we are just now in need of, but anything you have to sell bring to us and we will give you

THE HIGHSET MARKET PRICE

EITHER IN EXCHANGE FOR GOODS OR CASH. t the same time we wish to call your attention to the fact that we have a n hands at present, all of which we are positively offering at

ERY LARGE STOCK OF GOODS

XTREMELY LOW PRICES! IF YOU WANT ANYTHING IN THE WAY OF cold Weather GOODS,

SUCH AS

BLANKETS,

HEAVY FLANNELS. OVERCOATS, WATERPROOFS, &c., &c. ou can save money by buying them

now, as we are offering OME SPECIAL BARGAINS goods that we have on hand, so that we can dispose of as many as possible before the 1st of April next.

DON'T FORGET OUR

TOCK OF BOOTS AND SHOES,

hich is the largest and most complete Ebensburg. To make a long story ort, bring us what you have for sale d we will sell you what you want at right figures.

V. S. BARKER & BRO. pensburg. Feb. 24, 1882.

> The Best Place TO BUY

CLOTHING! OAK HALL,

Sixth and Market Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

THE LARGEST CLOTHING HOUSE IN AMERICA.

HE PEOPLE'S STORE

ONLY CO-OPERATIVE STORE IN JOHNSTOWN, o. 3 MORRIS Street,

WILL SELL ALL KIND OF GOODS

MLY KEPT IN A FIRST-CLASS GENERAL STORE, AT THE VERY LOWEST PRICES.

Residents of Northern Cambria are specially invited to give us a modious yard and feeding place for horses, free of charge, of customers.

JNO. E. STRAYER, Secretary. IWN, JAN. 27, 1882.578. The Address Tree # Well Auguste, Me. Soofree. Address H. Helleff & Co., Portland, Me.

SEEK

health and avoid sickness, Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't you rather feel fresh and strong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881. Mansheld, Ohio, Now 26, 1881.
> Gentlemen: —I have suffered with pain in my side and back, and grent screness on my breast, with shooting pains all through my body, attended with great weakness, depression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, kidneys, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters: I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—soreness all out of my breast, and I have a good appetite, and am gaining in strength and fiesh. It can justly be called the king of medicines.
>
> JOHN K. ALLENDER.

Brown's Iron BITTERS is composed of Iron in soluble form; Cinchona the great tonic, together with other standard remedies, making a remarkable non-alcoholic tonic, which will cure Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Malaria, Weakness, and relieve all Lung and Kidney diseases.

FRENCH

nas effected cures every time when when used acrections. We now say to the affricted abting ones that we will pay the ve rewart for a strigle case of LAME BACK That the Pad falls to sure. This Great Remedy sbegs. Lame Back, Sciator c. Grevel, Diabetes, pay, Bright's Discover of the k lidness, Sucontenence retention of the Unine, by tamatien of the Kiden, Saiser's of the Bladder. High Cotored Urine, a in the Back, Side-or Loins, Nervous Weaknets, in fact all disorders of the Bladder and Uriyy Organs, whether contracted by private disorderwise.

Is or otherwise.

Ladtes, if you are suffering from Female Weakess, Lencorrhea, or any dise ase of the Kidneys, Sladder, or Urinary Organs.

PROF. GUILMIETTE'S FRENCH KIDNEY PAD

YOU CAN BE CURED

WHICH CURES BY ABSORPTION. Ask your dengoist for PROF. GUILMETTE'S FRENCH &IDNEY PAD, and take no other. If he has not get it, send $2.00 and you will receive the Pad by return mall.

TESTIMONIALS PROM THE PEOPLE. JUDGE BUCKANAN, LAWYET, Toledo, G., SAYE:
"One of Prof. Guilmette's French Kidney Pads cured me of Lambago in three weeks' time. My case had been given up by the best Doctors as incurable. During all this time I suffered entold agony and paid out large sums of money." Choose Varmen, J. P., Toledo, O., Saye: "I suffered for three years with Seistica and Kidney Disease, und oftenthad to go about on crutches, I was entirely and permanently our ed after wearing Prof.
Guilmette's Prench Kidney Pads four weeks."

Squiss N. C. Scott, Sylvania, O., writes: "I have been agreat-sufferer for by ears with Bright's Disease of the Kidney. For weeks at a time was unable to get aut of bed; took barrels of medicine, but they gave me only temperary relief. Lawre two of Prof. Guilmette's Kidney Pads six weeks, and I now know! as catirely cured."

Mus. Harsey Innoval Toleso O.

two of Prof. Guilmette's Kidneys Pads six weeks, and I now know I am entirely cured."

Mrs. Hence Jamens, Toleno, O., says: "For years I have been confined, a great part of the time to my bed, with Lucerrhee and female week, ness. I were one of Guilmette's Kidney Pads and was cured in one moath."

H. B. Green, Wholesale Greecer, Findiay, O., writes: "I suffered 25 years with lame back, and in three weeks was permanently cured by wearing one of Prof. Guilmette's Kidney Pads."

B. F. Kenearyo, "M. D., Druggist, Logansport, Ind., in sending an order for Kidney Pads, writes: "I wore one of the first lones we had and I received more benefit from it than anything I ever used. In fact the Pads give better general satisfaction than any kidney remedy we ever sold."

Ray & Sneemaker, lieuggist, Hannibal, Mo.,: "We are working up a lively trade in your Pads.

We are working up a lively trade in your Pads, and are hearing of good results from them every day."

[2-17,-19,]

For sale at James Drug Store, Ebensburg. annually cobbed of r v'etims, lives pro-od, happiness and th restored by the

GERMAN INVIGORATOR

which positively and permanently cures Impo-tency (caused by excesses of any kind), Semi-nal Weakness, and all diseases that follow as a sequence of Self-Abuse, as loss of energy, loss of memory, universal institude, pain in the back, dismess of vision, premature old age, and many other diseases that lead to insamily or consumption and a premature grave. and a tremature grave.
Send for circulurs with testimonials free by mail.
The INVIGORATOR is sold at $1 yer box, or six boxes for $5, by all druggists, or will be sent free by mail, securely scaled, on receipt of price by addressing

F. J. CHENEY, Draggist, 137 Summit St., TOLEDO, OBIO, [2-17.-19.] Sole Agent for the United States For sale at James Drug Store, Ebeusburg.

Will positively cure Fever and Ague, Dumb Ague Cake, Billions Fever, Janndice, Dyspepsia, and all diseases of the Liver, Stomash and Bloed. Price $1.50 by mail. Send for Prof. Guilmette's fronties on the Kidneys and Liver, free by mail. Address F. J. CHENEY, Druggist, Tolano, Ohio.

Tolano,

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE. Estate of M. J. TRITELBAUM, dee'd.
Whereas letters tests mentary en the estate of M.
Teiteibaum, late of Loretto borough, deceased, ive been granted to the undersigned, all persons y authenticated for settlement without delay. SOLAIMON TEITELBAUM, Executor. Loretto, Feb. 10, 1982-61.

I was invited to a lunch party in one of the and was much impressed by the appearance gentlemanly instinct has risen up as she of one of the young ladies present. She was came in. not beautiful, but united the striking characteristics of a briffiant fresh complexion. was very merry, a good talker, and, I must said Mamie confess, I contrived to occupy the larger part of her attention.

After bidding adieu to the ladles, I turned ually remarked of my new acquaintance: "By jove, what hair! It accents her whole price was rather large. De you like stories? about that white hair you admire so much." We went over to the hotel, and something like this my friend told me :

My friend removed his cigar.

You have no idea, you city people, the inships of young folks. From the time Henry | watching the storm. Wells began to sidle up to Mamie Clausen at church socials, until their marriage in the and is now a prominent commission mer- three people." chant, generally considered weaithy, and has always lived at least like a man of means. - have no place for you, and the sterm is al-Mamie was pretty, dashing, a local belle and ready breaking away." miles from town, and they, too, are people blinding sheets, and lightning streaked the of reputation in the county. Old Jack Wells Insavens. represented us a few times in the Legislaanother a handsome property.

although he has at one time the reputation giving me some sort of shelter, if it's only of being wild, he had sobered down, and your dog kennel." was at any rate such a frank, n sanly young general rejoicing. Mamie's fat' ner gave her at last. drawing up deeds and doing back-work of the door on the outside." that sort. They lived about f our miles out of town, and two miles from old Jack's .- looking at her curiously, "I don't care where He had built them a pretty m odern cottage you lock the door." on a detached portion of his fa rm, and there they lived as happy as two bir ds.

Gradually Harry picked up business, and children, with a half-crazy I nother and no young people ready to go out and keep her mpany. Harry always insisted that she mustn't stay alone. For a lav r-abiding State we have a pretty rough element in it, and although we haven't had much to complain of here, there is a general-sense of uneasiness. One Angust afternoon Harry had an unand had been making various collections.

begged them to wait until the day after.

"Just like a woman! No. 'But I declare I don't know where to tell you. The most key of the attic." secure. Any piace, dear, but between the lock and opened the trap. The tramp mattresses. I leave that to you. But you sprang up at the sound. must guard it, if necessary, with your life, for remember the money is not ours, and at knows I have it. But one ought to take At the foot of the stairs she stopped. proper precautions, and I beg of you not to

"All right, dear; we won't let the teamps have a drink even, and I'll take care of the money, you may be sure." Harry bade his wife good-bye, and Mamie gave up the picnic. At the end of two days she received a telegram from him, saying he had been detained and telling her to get some one to stay with her for two days, town, and one of her old friends went out there?" with her. At the end of two days she had another telegram saying he was detained until the next-day. Her friend went home, and for me in case I need it." in place of Barry came a third telegram, and so every day for ten days he was expected They heard the key applied to the door softmeet Harry, who was expected home after the longest absence he had ever made from the longest absence he had ever the longest absence be had ever made from do," said the tramp. wanted something to eat and who wouldn't die, Sarah." be driven off.

"You oughtn't to leave him a minute tramp, who went down stairs, the two wollands against the same will present them proper. I will come down and send him off."

The man had fallen backward and lay with

HOW HER HAIR TURNED WHITE. | but the next day without fail, Harry wrote, he would be home. Turning round she saw the tramp-a graceless-looking fellow, unmland cities of Pennsylvania not long ago, shaven and ill-dressed, who with a certain

"I suppose my girl told you we had nothing for you, and that it will be a great kindand a profusion of hair white as snow. She ness if you will leave as soon as possible," They say small-pox cures one of other dis-

"Yes, she did just that, madam, but I took it upon myself to believe it wasn't so urgent. Pox; they cure one of lesser weaknesses-The truth is, I'm very hungry and dead tired, to the obliging friend who had been my and I didn't believe but that you would give sponser at these incidental gayeties, and cas- me something to eat; at least I've waited to ask you in person."

Women are soft-headed creatures. Mamie appearance. Wasn't she lucky to achieve it went and got him something to est herself. The darkness that had been increasing for him since." some time came down rapidly, and there "That depends on how you look at it. I burst one of those terrific thunder-storms doubt II she wouldn't say to-day that the that gather so suddenly and with such force everything by rule. It is rule or ruin with in this country. After its strength was him. I'm minded to tell you one, if you like, spent there fell steady sheets of rain that brought Toock Creek over the bridge before stories have always foundation.

"Madum, it's no use talking. You men't mean to send a fellow out in such a storm," terest we country people take in the court- said a tramp as the three stood on the porch

"I'm sorry, but I've ne place for you." "What, in a house like this? It's a pity First Presbyterian church, the entire com- there isn't a cranny for a stowaway. I was munity gave minute consideration to their walking around it, waiting for the girl, and affairs. Mamie's father, John Clausen, was it seems to me it ought to be able to hold "You are very impertinent. Ttell you ?

a great favorite. 'Harry's family lived a few | 'As she spoke, even the rain came down in

"Well," he said carelessly, "we don't go ture, and has accumulated in one way and much on manners on the road; but I know I wouldn't send a dog out such a night as this. The marriage was in every way a suitable I'm not a particular chap, leastwise not one. Harry was educated at Princeton, and nowadays, and I'll have to insist on your and his plumb for dessert.

The man spoke with decision. Mamie felt fellow that he was generally forg iven any in- that after all they were really in his power, and possibly it might be worth while to do As I say, the marriage was the occasion of civilly what she would probably have to do an unusually good send-off, and the details "I will keep you on one condition," she were sent far and wide throng a the State. said. "There is a loft to the house, a sort of singing. He wants timber. However, he is was handed in to him, and when he opened Harry had studied law, although be didn't garret, which is very comfortable. It is accurate in his measure, and, if a boss, is it he found it contained the information that have much natural inclination for it, and closed with trap-door, and you may sleep on careful to keep good time. had settled down into a country notary, the lounge there if you will allow us to lock

"Bless my stars and garters!" he said,

They took him up stairs, and he climbed up the steep attic stairs. The woman shut the door as he politely bade them good night, finally through his father beca me trustee for and they fastened the padlock, hearing him the Minor heirs. They were an odd lot of chuckle to himself as he kicked off his boots, "I'd take the key, mum," said Sarab.

Mamie took the key with her, and the two descended to shut up the house. After they gave a naturally lazy man some additional had made everything secure they went back leave Mamle. You may ima gine that there Sarah," the mistress said. Sarah dragged in was a good deal of visiting at the house of ber bedding and made a pallet on the floor. two such popular young pe ople, and that and then, after the custom of women, they The rain was still falling heavily and the in town, and there was alway's some of the night black as ink. The mistress and maid went to bed and, although worried and anx ious, finally went to sleep.

After midnight Mamie found herself wide awake and a bright light shinig in the room. She started up and saw that it was the moonlight. The storm had cleared away at last. She got up, unable to compose herself immeexpected summons to go to Scrienton about a diately, and went to the window. The moon suit connected with the Minor heirs. He was indeed shining brightly. As she stood looking at the peaceful scene before her she saw away down the road, for it was as bright which left in his hands about $4,500. When as day, several horsemen. It was such an he found he had to go off at a few moments' unusual sight at this hour that she stood notice, he wrapped up a bundle of papers. watching them as they came nearer. To her and this money and took them into the surprise they turned up the lane leading to honse. Mamie was making preparations for their house, and on reaching the gate came a pienic they were to go to the next day, and into the yard. Now, almost paralyzed with fear, she saw that they were masked. The "But, my dear child, I haven't time even truth a'most blinded her. They knew that to go to town and put these in the bank, so she was alone, that she had this money, and you'll have to take care of them. I'll try they had come to get it. For a moment she and get back in two days at the furthest; was paralyzed. She remembered Harry's ly cried out: meanwhile nobody will know that the money dast words: "You must guard it with your life if necessary." Then he explained to her the value of the She ran to the sleeping Sarah and awakenpapers and handed her a canvas bag, in ed her. She got down Harry's rifle, which which was the $4,500 belonging to the Minor be had loaded and taught her to use. The sleeping girl was soon thoroughly awake, "Where will I keep it, Harry? Between and she explained to her their condition. "It's the tramp that's done it."

"The tramp? No. Sarah, the key-the insecure place apparently is often the most | She flew up the stairs, unlocked the pad-

"Come, come with me," she cried. His own senses alert, and hearing the all hazards I am responsible. I don't really noise of the horses below and steps about suppose there is the least danger, for no one | the house, he followed her without a word.

"I have a large sum of money in the house admit any tramps while I am gone, Tell and those men have come to get it, thinking Sarah not even to slow them to stop long I am alone. If they kill me that money must be guarded."

"What have you-pistols, shot-guns?" he whispered, taking in the whole situation. "Here is my busband's rifle. It is loaded." "Hist. Where are they going to break front door. "Get behind me. I will fire at the first when he would be at home. She drove into man that enters. How many barrels are

"Six, all loaded." "Very well. Keep this care in your hand

There was no storming of the shutters .home, and every day came a disappointing ly. It opened, and a man followed by two jingles your week's wages in his trowsers telegram. By this time she had become ac. others confidently entered. The first figure customed to her charge, which she had set | walked directly to the stairs. He had taken like a bag of seed-beans in a corner of a up a step, when three shots came in rapid dark closet opening from her room. The af- succession. There was a heavy thud; this drinking '

her. After a time Sarah came up and told Mamie caught hold of the rail for support, her there was a tramp down stairs who and then went into the room. "Get a can-

Wells! Do you want to know now why her onir is white? resumed my friend, after a

"It's no use to ask why Harry did it. Motives don't matter in such a case. But she, Mamie-Mrs. Wells-though she has her gray hair, there is no trace of that midnight tragedy in her face," said I. "I believe she was ill for a long time," answered my friend.

> eases. Well, some griefs are like the smalltenderness of the heart, for example. This, I think, was one of them." "'And the tramp-" on his journey, and I have never heard of THE CARPENTER .- The carpenter does

"He and Sarah were of course the witness-

The carpenter never deals in fiction. His The carpenter's weapon is the hammer.

He uses it to drive the nails home. The carpenter is not very much of a fisherman, but is very fond of the angle. Though a strong man the carpenter cannot raise his frame without assistance.

But the carpenter never deserts his friends He does everything on the square. Here is another funny thing about the carpenter. His finest work is his plane work.

When a carpenter sells a house he sells the cellar with it. The buyer is also frequently It is a mistake to suppose that a carpenter

His work is usually constructed on correct models, though he is not always a model man ties his frame together with the knots in the

When hungry, the carpenter can dine off one of his joints, take rabbit plane for entree strangest subjects that you ever saw. It such an anguish to him that he lost his balgrows in interest the mortise studied. The most celebrated carpenter I ever heard was entirely penniless, and his prospects of was the Carpenter of Rouen. You never were so unpromising, and his despair so carpenter, perhaps.

has taken a great many inches. The carpenter has many tools. You may to keep them awl sharp. This adz to his la- had parted by some mysterious way with the the crime by the knowledge that his unfortu-who would chisel him out of his earnings. The carpenter is a pillar of society, and though coping with all sorts of difficulties is seldom floored. He writes no political articles for the columns of the press, excepting if everything had gone right," said Richard, now and then something relating to cabinet work .- Boston Transcript.

A FABLE.-Two hares who were looking for a change of abode happened to meet at the entrance of a den which had been deserted by a woodchuck.

"I saw it first!" exclaimed one. "No you didn't. I had my left eye on this place when I saw you with the other." "Oh! come now that's too thin. As I am the elder I shall take possession." "Don't be too sure. As I am the stronger I shall turn you out." "Come to reflect," said the older hare after carefully scratching his ear, "there is no need of a quarrel. Right is right the world over

As we are both sensible hares I think we can come to a perfect understanding." "No doubt we could," replied the other, but as there comes the fox, we will ask him to decide between us."

"What's all this row about?" exclaimed the fox as he came up. "We have a dispute as to which of us is entitled to this vacant burrow."

"Ah! ha! A case of law! You did well to call me in," grinned the fox. "Let me first inspect the disputed claim." He disappeared down the hole, and was absent so long that the impatient hares final-

"Hello! you!" "Hello yourself!" was the impudent reply

"Are you down there?" "You bet I am !" "Have you decided the case?" "Long ago. My decision is that when two hares are foolish enough to quarrel over the possession of a burrow large enough for a whole family, the fox is entitled to take pos-MORAL-Two neighbors who can't settle a question of equity should call in a lawyer.

A FEW QUESTIONS TO THE MAN WHO DRINKS .- Who had turkey stuffed with oysters, and all the "fixins" Thanksgiving day, you, or the man who sold you whisky and

Who has the fat of the land, all that money can buy, you or the saloon keeper? Who keeps a horse and takes his wife and children out riding, you or the man who takes your money for drink?

Who wears good clothes, you or the saloon Whose children are dressed nicely, and have all that children want to make life com-The steps came boldly on the piazza to the fortable, yours or the saloon keeper's? Who eats the stale bread because it

> Who eats cheap meat, buys soup-bones, and everything that is a little poor because it is cheap? Is it the saloon keeper? When you are hauled up before the Police Justice for being drunk and disorderly whom does the Justice smile upon, bow to, and Who pays your fine, the man who has your earned a few extra dollars, washing, What good has ever come to you from

Has it made you a better man?

wanted something to eat and who wouldn't die, Sarah."

They lighted a candle and gave it to the drink beer and whisky?

They are a few points, of hundreds, for off a spray of flowers which was just begin-

NUMBER 8.

ROMANCE OF A RAILROAD. The following chapter is from Mrs. Burnet's story "Through One Administration," published in the Century for March. The story is prettily told. "Just think of those Westoria lands, and what they will be worth if the road is carried through them-and as to romance, what could be more romantic than the story attached to them ?" said Richard.

"But I don't know the story," said Bertha,

"It is a very affecting story," he replied, and it was the story which first called my the father objected to the whole business. attention to the subject. There was a poor The foolish young woman, growing desperes at the inquest. The next day he was off visionary fellow whose name was Wester, to whom a large tract of this land came suddenly as an inheritance from a distant relative. He was not practical enough to make the words, "Cruel father, thou art the cause much use of it, and he lived in the house of my death !" The father, at this accusa upon it in a desolate shiftless way for several tion, was said to exhibit great agitation.years, when he had the ill-fortune to discover | On the evidence then, of the daughter's dycoal on the place. I say it was ill-fortune, because the discovery drove him wild. He worked, and starved, and planned, and scraped together all the money he could to dence could be more conclusive; but still, buy more land, keeping his secret closely for be it remembered, it was only "apparently." some time. When he could do no more he It was simply, after all, going on the quescame to Washington and began to work for tion of precedent. It was only a presumpa railroad which would make his wealth tion of fact, grounded on the general belief available. His energy was a kind of frenzy, that the confession of a dying person may they say. He neither ate, slept, nor rested, and really managed to get the matter into active movement. He managed to awaken a | so afterward, as a new tenant of Shaw's for kind of enthusiasm, and, for a short time. he was a good deal talked of and noticed. He was a big, raw-boned young Westerner, and created a sensation by his very uncouthness in its connection with the wildly fabu- the chimney. It was folded as a letter, and lous stories told about his wealth. He had among his acquaintances a man of immense Influence, and at this man's house he met the inevitable young woman. She'amused herself, and he fell madly in love, and became to that of the only man I could love, and tyrmore frenzied than ever. It was said that she intended to marry him if he was success-The carpenter, children, is one of the ful, and that she made his poor, helpless life ance entirely. There came a time when he saw him, but you have seen the ruin of the great, that he went to his boarding house one day with the intention of killing himself, and The carpenter's voice is not first-rate for just as he finished loading his pistol a letter

"Poor fellow !" said Bertha.

say that anything went wrong !" with fine artistic appreciation. "You could near the Capitol, but wandered out and took his place on one of the seats in the park lady was visiting, and sat there, a lank, unshorn, haggard figure, either staring at her window, or leaning forward with his head upon his hands. People actually heard of his being there and went to look at him, and and never at any time the only, judge of the came away without having dared to address him. The young woman looked out from behind her blind and was furious, and even sent word to him to go away. But he would not go, and only glared at the man who was sent to him with the message. He sat there until night, and then staggered across and rang at the bell, and inquired for the man of influence, and was told-what no you suppose he was told ?" "Oh!" cried Bertha, desperately, "I don't know."

"He was told that he was occupied." "Occupied ?" echoed Bertha. Richard clasped his hands comfortably and gracefully behind his head. "That's the climax of the story," he said. "He was occupied-in being married to the young woman of whom he had been greatly enamored for some time, and who had discreetly decided to marry him, because he had proved to her that the other man's bill could not possibly pass. It could not pass because he had the energy and influence to prevent its doing so, and he prevented its passing because he knew he would lose the young woman otherwise. At least that is the story, and I like the version."

"I don't like it!" said Bertha. "It makes me feel desperate." "What it made the poor fellow feel," Rich ard went on, "nobody ever found out, as he said nothing at all about it. On bearing the truth he sat down on the steps a few minutes and then got up and went away. He went to his boarding-house and had an interview with his landlady, who was a kind-hearted creature, and when she saw him began to cry because his bill had not passed. But when she spoke of it she found he knew nothing of it-be had never asked about it, and he said to her, 'Oh, that doesn't matter : it isn't any consequence particularly; I'm only troubled about your bill. I haven't money enough to pay it. I've only enough to take me home, and you'll have to let me give you the things I have in my room for pay. I only want one thing out of there-if you'll let me go and get it, I won't take anything else.' So she let him go, and stood outside his door and cried, while he went in tural journals are sorely troubled to know and took something out of a drawer."

"Yes," said Richard. "He actually found a use for it after all, but not in Washington. He went as far as he could by rail, and then and that his shoes were worn to shreds, and they would allow it. A man cannot set on his feet cut and bruised by the walk. When the wash bench, but he could set the basin or he reached the house it had been shut up so it, and neither the basin nor the grammarians long that the honeysuckle which climbed would object. He could sit on a dog's tail, about it had grown across the door, and he if the dog were willing; or he might set his could not have got in without breaking or foot on it. But if he should set on the aforepushing it aside. People fancied that at first said tail, or sit his foot there, the grammaribe thought of going in, but that when he saw ans as well as the dog would howl. And yet,

"Richard!" cried Bertha.

Advertising Rates.

The large and reliable circulation of the Car-maia France an commends it to the favorable occ-sideration of advertisers, whose favors will be in-serted at the following low rates:

Anditor's Notices.

Stray and similar Notices.

Rusiness items. first insertion 10c. per line; aso, subsequent insertion 5c. per line. Resolutions or proceeding of any corporation or society, and communications designed to call after Jos Painting of all kind neatly and expediti-ously executed at lowest prices. Bon't youlorge!

Bertha elenched her hand and struck her knee a fierce little blow. "Richard," she said, "if that had happened in my day, I should have turned lobbyist, and every thought and power and gift I had

---LAW, NOT JUSTICE,

the passage of that bill."

would have been brought to bear to secure

William Shaw, a respectable tradesman of Edinburgh, was blessed with a daughter who had formed a foolish attachment for a young man of had character. Naturally enough, ate, stabbed herself. When in the throes of death, in the presence of witnesses, her father appeared, and before expiring she uttered ing speech, and the decided alarm which he displayed, the unfortunate father was condemned to the gallows. Apparently no evialways be taken for granted to be true. But circumstance proved otherwise. A year or mer apartments was rummaging by chance in the room in which Catherine Shaw had died, he accidentally discovered a paper which had fallen into a cavity on one side of on being opened the following confession was brought to light: "Barbarous Father-Your cruelty having put it out of my power ever to join my fate annically insisting upon my marrying one whom I always hated, has made me form a resolution to put an end to an existence which has become a burden to me. I doubt not I shall find mercy in another world, for sure no benevolent Being can require that) should live any longer in terment to myself in this. My death I lay to your charge. When you read this, consider yourself an ireuman wretch that plunged the murderous knife into the bosom of the unhappy "Catharine Shaw." For another case might be quoted the famous trial and conviction of Bradford, the another distant relative, affected by the ru- duced conviction consisted of the fact that With some men, if you give them an inch mors concerning him, had left him twenty he was seen standing with a bloody knife in they will take an ell. The carpenter, on the thousand dollars. He laid his pistol in a his hand over the body of the murdered man. contrary, will not give you an L until he drawer, and left the house to begin again. Bradford was executed, but by a deathbed He had an interview with his lady love, and confession of guilt it subsequently became one with his man of influence, and at the end known that the real murderer was the seranger from this that he has to brace up a bit of a few weeks had bought more land, and want of the victim, who had been tempted to bor, which should be borne in mind by those rest of his money, and was on the very eve of nate master was carring a considerable sum caught red-handed in the presence of their never guess what happened. Everything he edity guilty because he was discovered under did seemed to work to a miracle; every train | the same circumstances, and it was quite unwas laid and every match applied. On the natural to suppose anything to the contrary. day that was to decide his fate he did not go | As to the well known case of the Courier of Lyons, the Geddeley case and the recent case of Hebron, who fortunately escaped the which faced the house at which the young gallows, there is no need to enter into any particular details, as those airendy quoted are sufficient for any ordinary purposes of exposition. It may be taken for granted. then, that the lawyer is not always the best,

FOR GIRLS WHO GO BACK ON THE "OLD

WOMAN."-"Come here, Sis, and sit down beside me, and let me give you a taiking to I wish to speak to you of your mother. It may be you have seen a care-worn look upon her face lately. Of course it has not been brought there by any act of yours, still it is your duty to try and chase it away. I don't mean for you to 'run at it and shake your ben, nor do I expect you to get on the other side of the fence and throw old oyster cans get up early in the morning and get breakfast, and when your mother comes down and be gins to express her surprise, go up to her and brighten up her dear old face. Her face has more wrinkles than yours, far more, and yet you were sick that face would appear to to your wants, and every one of these wrin ing each other over that dear old face. She will leave you one of these days. These ourdens, if not lifted from her shoulders, will nner. And after dinner you might wash up 'the dishes while she takes a little nan-Then you might take down her halt and do used to make yours, but give it a gentle crushing and wind it up tenderly as though you enjoyed doing it for her. The gentleman in the parlor can wait until you have performed these duties. If he expresses any impatience you can explain to him that you feel under more obligations to your mother than you do to him."

"SIT" AND "SET."-Many of the agriculwhether a hen sits or sets. If some editor of dignity would set a hen on the nest, and the Are the men that get your money friends to whom you can turn in time of need?

Is your head clearer, yoursoul purer, your intellect brighter, your home happier, when you had steadier, your home happier, when you had evidently gone to the door, he assailed by the dog or the grammarians.

ning to bloom-he held it crushed in his hand ting pain from terrible sores all over my body SCIOMON TEITELBAUM, Executor.

Loretto, Feb. 10, 1982-6.

BEATTY'S ORGANS, 27 Stops, 10 set Reeds, cuty and send the set of the down stairs, surprised to find how late it had grown. When she resched the kitchen she found a messenger with another telegram, which announced another disappointments which announced another disappointments.

Solidon's Teitelbaum, Executor.

Solidon's Teitelbaum, Exe