In the meantime Moses, another train at that point. The lawyer, owever, intent upon his prey, accompan by another constable, soon started in pursuit, and overbauled Moses and his man at Cresson, talked loudly and blustered immensely during which Deputy Sheriff Kinkead, of this county, who happened to be at Cresson, of-fered to take Pritchard to Ebensburg and fered to take Pritchard to Ebensburg and keep him in jail here until disposed of by the proper authorities. Moses, however, at last wilted, as he should not have done, and Pritchard was taken back to Altoona and from there to the Blair county jail, to be detained until Moses would return from Ohio with "papers" of some kind from Gov. Fos-This is certainly a case without a parallel, and as such excites widespread interest.

The following in reference to the matter is furnished by an Altoona telegram published in the Pittsburg Dispatch of Wednesday last and dated the day previous: and dates the day previous:

Miller Outcult, Esq., Prosecuting Attorney of Hamilion county, Ohio, and Special Officer Joseph Moses, of the same county, arrived in this city this morning for the purpose of reserving B. F. Pritchard, who was foreibly taken from the latter officer in this place on Saturday morning, while en route to Cincinnati. Pritchard is now in just at Hollidaysburg, awaiting the result of the legal efforts which are being minde for his release.

A writ of habeas corpus was granted on Saturday, which will be argued before Associate Judge Stewart in Hollidaysburg to morrow morning. A. V. Divoly and A. S. Landis, Esq., will appear for the prisoner, and the Cincinnati lawyer and W. A. Hammond, Esq., for the State of Ohio.

There is little or no doubt as to the identity of the prisoner, and he was arrested by the Ohio officer in Washington City in the regular way. He managed to steal the officer's papers, and now his lawyers say he cam't be taken without a requisition and that the Governor of Pennsylvania cannot grant a requisition in his case, as he is not a citizen of the State.

The prisoner has money and offers his attorners and now has been the prisoner and the states without a requisition in his case, as he is not a citizen of the State. farm, 30 horses, and 40 cows. The prisoner has money and offers his attorneys. The The prisoner has money and offers his attorners handsome amounts if they secure his release. The Ohio officers have returned with a duplicate commission, and will insist that Pritchard is a fugitive and can be taken without a requisition. Governor Foster has telegistical the facts in the case to Governor Hoyt and received an answer that all the aid in his power will be given to the Ohio officers. Pritchard's attorneys have telegraphed a protest to Governor Hoyt.

SUBJECT-As follows :

" New let me think : the Holidays are over, and for these two months I really believe I shall have more time then during any part of the year. In March and April spring dress goods will come out, so my time will be taken up then, and I'm sure I don't want to have much on hand when warm weather comes; so I'll just see what I need for Housekeeping, get the things ready, and make them up.

"There are sheets, pillow-cases, and perhaps some other articles for bedding; then I must have a supply of table-cloths, nap-kins, towels, and—and—oh! a good many things, so I'll send a postal card for a Housekeeper's Price List, and see what I do want. If I go to the city I can then have my memorandum made up, and if I don't go I'll order by letter, as I have

I want at the same prices that I would pay if in person. "Of course something might not be just exactly as I expect it, so I must send my order to a store that will let me exchange or will pay my money back if I want it To do this, and have the greatest variety of goods in any one establishment in the United States to select from, I must address my postal card MARIE GRAND DEPOT. PRILADELPHIA There, I came near forgetting! This is a good time to make up underwear, too; so I'll add to my postal card—' Send me an Underwar Price List,' and see if it won't be cheaper to get it already made, and save all that tiresome cutting, sewing and trimming."

A STRANGE PROCEEDING. HOW AN ALLEGED FORGER WAS RESCUED

WHILE EN BOUTE TO CINCINNATI. A Deputy Sheriff of Cincinnati named Moses, arrested a man named Pritchard in Washington City last Friday, on a requisition from Gov. Foster, of Ohio, charged with having committed forgery. Moses made the "mistake" of going to sleep in the cars between Harrisburg and Huntingdon, and the prisoner, taking advantage of his condition, stole the requisition and warrant of arrest from his custodian's pocket, tore them up and managed to notify an Alteona lawyer by telegraph to meet him at the train when it reached that city. The lawyer was on hand with one or more members of the Altoona police, who took charge of both Moses and his prisoner. Then either the lawyer referhaving got his eyes wide open, saw into the nice little game that was being played upon him and Gov. Foster, and promptly hired a conveyance, and accompanied by an Altoona constable drove to Cresson, intending to take

St. Vincent, near Latrobe, in our neighboring county of Westmoreland, is the oldest monastery in America. At the close of the eighteenth century Theodore Browles, a pious Benedictine, bought the tract of land on which the monastery now stands and erected buildings, and at his death, about 1790, left it to the priest who should succeed him. Each succeeding priest was to have the use of the farm for life. The only condition to the sholding was that the priest should say four masses for the soul of Father Browles. The farm consists of 500 acres: the building is of brick, 400 feet long by 200 feet wide, four stories high, with one tall tower. There are at the present time more than one hundred monks and lay brothers, teaching and cultivating the farm. The monastery was raised to the dignity of an abbey by Pope Pius IX in 1880, and the College of St. Vincent, in charge of the monks, is one of the best known in this country. It has now 316 students, drawn from all parts of the United States, with numbers from the old country and two trom Cuba. The barn is 300 feet long by 98 feet wide, and has ample acdations for all crops raised on the
