-Alexis Reeder, a colored man, died at Altona, on Monday last. His son claims that his father was 110 years old, but the probability is that he was about 100. He was formerly a slave and had several owners in Virginia and Maryland, the last one being a man named Pinson, who lived near Cum-berland in the latter State. Reeder made his escape from Pinson and came to Bedford, and afterwards to Baker's Furnace, where he worked for a long time. Several of his children are living in different parts of the country. The old man had been raised from childbood in the Catholic faith, in which he was a devoted believer, and for years regularly attended St. John's church in Altoona. His remains were taken to that church on Tuesday morning, where Mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul, after which they were interred in the Catholic cemetery. -It's a little late in the season for this story, but it seems to us it ought to be told anyhow. A PROMISE TO A DYING MAN NOT BINDING.

—When Mr. Win. Anderson, father of Mr.
A. J. Anderson, of Altoona, Mrs. N. F. Carroll, of Salina, Kansas, Mrs. M. J. Murphy, of East Freedom, Blair county, and also of several other children, was dying a few years ago at his home in the latter place, his second wife, Jane, promised him that she would endeavor to agree to the terms of his will. After his death she gave a paper to the executors carrying out that agreement. She was told, however, that she simply relinquished four thousand dollars of her dow-er. She consequently revoked the agreement and put in her claim for one-third of the estate, which was valued at thirty thousand dollars. The other heirs endeavored sand dollars. The other heirs endeavored to hold to her written promise, and when the County Common Pleas decided against them appealed to the Supreme Court. The latter tribunal on Thursday last, as we learn from the Philadelphia Times of the day following, also supported her and said: "It matters not what Mrs. Anderson's motive was included." Anderson's motive was in electing to take under the will. A promise to that effect made to her husband was clearly not binding on her."

WILMORE, PA., June 20, 1832: WILMORE, PA., June 20, 1832.

EDITOR FREEMAN—We learn from the Carrolltown News that our friend and fellow townsman, P. F. Kirby, has withdrawn his name as a candidate for Assembly, and inasmuch as only two copies of said paper come to our benighted village we respectfully ask you to republish the tester of that gentleman, so that all the Democratz who take the Freeman may know that he is off the track and that his friends may have a fair understanding, a free ballot and a fine chance to go as they please for either or all the other candidates.

DEMOCRATS OF WILMORE—[From the Carrolltown News.]

[From the Carrolltown News.]

I From the Carrolltown News.]

Mr. Editor—Vielding to the urgent appeal of my Democratic friends, my name was published in your valuable paper as being a candidate for the office of Assembly at the coming election, but in consequence of pressing business lately developed and lack of means to carry on a successful campaign, I deem it prudent to decline the desired honor. I might turther add that there being a number of applicants for that office who are more competent and available than I might be, and considering the magnitude of the campaign and the hoped-for success of the party, there being a new apportionment to be made by the next Legislature for Congressmen and Senators in this State, and also in order to secure a majority in that body, ability and availability should be the motto and union and harmony the sentiment of every good Democrat, and no one should have a desire to rake up the dying embers of past discord, which has to a great extent been the cause of the success of the Republican party in this county for some of the best offices in her gift. A higher and nobler motive than personal prejudice or political dissension should inspire the members of the Democratic party, and I will here say that with or without my name before them as a candidate, I shall not cease to labor meassantly for the party until the crombling pillars of Republican Stalwartism are buried beneath its own rains and the living principles of the Democratic party—those principles which are regarded by so many honest, intelligent men as the palladiumfel our country, and which for so many years in the past held the nation and people together in an unbroken link—not by the sword, bayonet, or iron-clad oath, but by that sweet symphony of peace which characterizes a free and happy people—are once more triumphant.

Hoping for a brilliant Democratic victory. I remain y people—are once more triumphant.

Hoping for a brilliant Democratic victory. I reman Yours.

THERE is in common use a word Whose meaning I have never heard; In print it is not to be found, But it resembles in its sound, "Damano." There is one thing we all know, or ought to know—to wit: That S. Blumenthal, ills Eleventh avenue, Altoona, sells more books and shoes for both sexes than any other dealer in this part of the State. The reason is palpable—he sells only a superior article and at prices way down below the lowest. His stock for spring and summer wear, lately received, is specially large and fine, and the attention of the reader is directed to the same.—He or she will secure a bargain by sending Mr. B, an order, which will be accorded prompt and careful attention.

The Premiums are given to Agents who obtain subscribers for our paper. Anyone an at as Agent. Our Sunny South is an eight page, forty-solumn monthly paper, devoted to the interests of the home and farm. It is carefully edited, and elegantly printed on good paper. It has a "State Department," which, each month, is filled with valuable information in regard to Texas. This feature alone is worth the subscription price. It also has a "Ladies" Department" and a "Children's Department." It does not publish continued stories; it contains nothing immoral or sensational; it is not an advertising sheet. The publishers are endear-oring to publish a good paper at a low price, pure in tone and elevating in morals. Its motto is, "Fighting for the Good, the True, and the Beautiful." The subscription price of Our Sunny South is only 50 cents per year. There is no reduction on this price to amone. We desire to introduce this paper into 50,000 naw homes within the next six months, and consequently make this literal effer. Anyone who will send us a club of four subscribers, at fifty cents each, will receive a certificate entitling the holder to One Share in our

It has been greatly improved and simplified, and is a much better implement than the old "Miller," There is an imitation new being manufactured, but a comparison will show farmers and dealers that the "BUSS" is by far the superio Ea None genuine unless my name is upon the snath. Any'one manufacturing or selling any other make under the name of the Miller or McGuire Cradle will be dealt with according to law. All persons wishing to have their old cradles repaired should send them in immediately, as it will be impossible to accommodate them if left until within a few days of the harvest.
