SPECIAL ATTENTION.

SEC. 1. Every male citizen twenty-one years of age, possessing the following qualifications, shall be entitled to vote at all elections:

First—He shall have been a citizen of the United States one month.

Second—He shall have resided in the State one year (or if having previously been a qualified citizen of the State, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election.

Third—He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election.

Fourth—If twenty-one years of age, or upward, he shall within two years have paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least two months and paid at least one month before the election.

All elections by the citizens shall be by ballot. Every ballot voted shall be numbered in the order in which it shall be received, and the name of the person voting, with the number of the ballot, opposite the name of the elector who votes the ballot. Any elector may write his own ticket, or cause his name to be written and attested by a citizen of the district. The election officers shall be sworn or affirmed to discover how any elector shall have voted, if required to do so as a witness in a judicial proceeding.

Electors shall in all cases except treason, felony, or surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on elections, and in going to and returning therefrom.

Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in active military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States or by authority from this Commonwealth, they may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are or shall be prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual places of election.

All laws regulating the holding of elections by the citizens, or the registration of electors within this Commonwealth, shall be uniform throughout the State, but no person shall be deprived of the privilege of voting by reason of his name not being registered.

Any person who shall give or promise to give to any elector any money, reward or other valuable consideration for his vote at any election, or for withholding the same, or who shall practice any fraud in procuring or obtaining the vote of any elector, or prevent any elector from voting, or who shall compel, or in any manner influence any elector to vote for or against any candidate or person who is or may be voted for at any election, or who shall make use of any force, violence or restraint, or inflict or threaten any injury, damage, harm or loss, or in any manner practice intimidation upon or against any elector, in order to induce him to vote or refrain from voting at any election, or who shall by abduction, duress or any fraudulent device or contrivance, impede, prevent or otherwise interfere with any elector in the free exercise or enjoyment of his right of suffrage at any election, or shall furnish or procure intoxicating liquors, food or refreshments to any elector, at any election, with the intent to influence his vote, or who shall be guilty of any fraud in connection with such election, or who shall aid, counsel or procure any person to do any of the acts aforesaid, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor in office, and upon conviction thereof, shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or undergo imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both or either, at the discretion of the court, according to the aggravation of the offence.

No person shall be entitled to vote at any election other than in the district in which he shall reside at the time of such election, and in which he shall have resided for two months next before the election, except as provided by the supplement of May 30, 1874.

If any person shall receive a ballot for an office or a judge, inspector or clerk of election, knowing that he is not entitled to vote at such election for such office, or if
