

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR. ROBT E. PATTISON, of Philadelphia. FOR TREASURER. CHAUNCEY F. BLAIR, of York. FROM JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT. SILAS M. CLARK, of Indiana. FOR SECRETARY OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS. J. SIMPSON AFRICA, of Huntingdon. FOR CONGRESSMAN-AT-LARGE. MORTIMER F. ELLIOTT, of Tioga.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

THE COUNTY TICKET AGAIN.

As there will be issued two numbers of our paper between this and the day of the election, we propose to add a few words of special application to what we said in a general way last week, regarding the duty of every Democrat to support the county ticket made by a majority of the Democrats who attended the primary elections.

THE LESSON IN OHIO.

In attributing the result in Ohio to the lesser question of Republican leadership, we are not to be understood as assuming, or affect to do so, that it affords no indications in regard to the November States, where the issues are very different. This is true to some extent, but unfortunately for the Republicans, the same tendency that has manifested itself so disastrously in Ohio prevails throughout the country, and is being felt by the voters by thousands.

OUR PHILADELPHIA LETTER.

OSCAR WILDE AND HIS BOOK ON AMERICAN LIFE-TWO DESCENDANTS OF AN ANCIENT NAVE-KING-MOUNTAINERS-THE ADVANTAGES OF MOUNTAIN AND CHERRY. PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16, 1892.

DEAR MCKINLEY: By some unaccountable means, it has been left out of the published biography of the Earl of Hovington that he is not to be taken for a man of letters, or not to get a bit of credit for being the first to make this interesting fact known. Oscar Wilde, the author of some thirty-five or forty thousand dollars by his sunflower lectures since he has been among the English, writes a book on American life and manners. He is now in Philadelphia, and is making a number of the representatives of the people, and has been a closer student of our institutions than Charles Dickens. He is going to touch on all American subjects, from the buffalo land down to the horned frog. It is somewhat exciting and interesting to read of the life of a man who has made a name for himself in the most energetic way. He is going to make a figure in the apostle's book. He is going to make a figure in the apostle's book. He is going to make a figure in the apostle's book.

BOSS QUAY AFTER IRISH VOTERS.

DELANEY AND GALLAGHER CIRCULATING A FALSE PATTISON SPEECH AGAINST THE IRISH-PATTISON'S UNQUALIFIED DENIAL-THAT THE SPEECH WAS DELIVERED. A special Pittsburgh dispatch of the 17th to the Pittsburgh Press says that Charles Gallagher, of Harrisburg, at Irish Republic for several days, visiting all the Irish citizens he could reach and appealing to them to vote against Pattison because Pattison denounced the Irish in a speech on the steps of Independence Hall. Gallagher was a petty office of watchman on the public grounds of the Capitol at Harrisburg, and he was now in Philadelphia, where he was to circulate some new story each year to mislead Irish voters into the support of James G. Thompson.

NEWS AND OTHER NOTINGS.

Pattison talks good, and some every time he opens his mouth on public questions. The wife of Cyrus Hoke, a farmer near Ebensburg, Pa., was killed by the kick of a horse. C. F. Young, of Altoontown, has a pear tree in bloom. It has borne one crop of fruit this year. In Ohio it is now accounted an error of judgment to assume that the Democratic party is dead.

Strangers passing through the city are cordially invited to visit the store, and make free use of its conveniences, leaving their luggage under check at any of the doors, or in the Luggage Room in the Department of Public Comfort.

Really we meant to have this important department in full operation before everybody got back from sea and mountain. It is made for strangers; and they seem to enjoy it so far as it has got. It consists of a free Reading Room for gentlemen, a free Resting Room for ladies, free writing-facilities in both, closets, and other little conveniences; a soda and mineral-water fountain that isn't free; and a lunch-room to be added.

We make the great public welcome there, beyond the wont of any other house, so far as we know. We think it will pay us to look after Public Comfort a little, as a means of advertising. There's nothing silly or crooked about it. We want visitors to Philadelphia to have a good time, and to come our store with it.

New things are coming and fall trade is already begun. New things do not come all together. They come in a steady stream from now till Christmas. And they have to. You may easily believe it when you see our house full all the time, of goods and of people taking them away. It would be hardly worth speaking of so obvious a fact, but for the moral; which is: Buy when you find what you want; for tomorrow somebody else will be after it.

New things will crowd upon us now for mention every day. Only a few can get into the papers, except in the most general way. It will be fair to come for whatever you want, and expect to find it.

New foreign wraps have come. There are jersey coats, jersey blouses, pelisses, and others. The writer of this hasn't even seen them. He has only heard of the flatter they are going to make.

Wonderful silks have come. But we must say some about the best of them than we have time for today.

We have neither time nor knowledge today to go into particulars. This is only an early notice that the store is filling up with goods for fall.

We need to say further to you who live at a distance that you needn't go to the city every time you want anything. We take so much pains to send you what you want, that you risk little in writing for goods. Let us know, as nearly as you can, what you want, and we will send you samples and prices or take other means of finding out exactly what you desire.
