ORIGINAL POETRY.

THE KEY OF LIFE. The said that Colonel Ingersell Maintains this present life is all, But more assertion is no proof, As sure as Satan wears a hoof; For we can say on tother hand. There is a drendful flory land. Now let the gallant Colonel bring Strong arguments. Strong arguments to prove the thing; For 'tis a weighty circumstance, And one that shouldn't stand a chance, To pass a heaven like Christan folk, Or in eternal fire and smoke! For, that we all live now, 'tis sure And sertain to the voriest hoer. Now, whate'er called us on this stage, A luxy being to ensure. To ope the Universe? The Key
To immortality was given.
Long ages past, to men from Heaven!
The different eroods we contemplate:
Their number new is truly great.
Were introduced by Sin's dark night.;
For man at first was formed in light.
He wandered from God's presence out
And then he first began to doubt
And wander, groping in the dark,
Without an aim, without a mark.
All Heathen Systems are, in sooth,
But grotesque shadows of the Truth I
Mahomet's rise you plainly see
Within the great Inspired Key.
The ninth of Recolution shows
From winner the smeak The ninth of Revelation shows
From whence the smoke of Islam rese
Obscuring all the Christian light,
And shadowing men's souls in night,
The prophet did on Palmos write
Of Saracen and Turkish blight;
Five centuries ore the plague began,
He showed their coming unto man.
This single instance plainty shows
Whence came the single, double woes.
One instance shows the inspired pen
Convincingly as thousands ten. A. 1

For the Happiness of Home. From a Clergyman's Home Comes of Message Containing the Wisdom of Experience.

Home is the centre of the social system. From it preced the best and purest influences (clt in the world, and towards it gravitate the tenderest hopes of humanity. For it all good men labor while their working days last, and around it their last thoughts linger lovingly when those days are done. Yet home does not usually approach in practice its own ideals. The mother is avertaxed with household duties and the rearing and training et her children, while the tather fights the outside battle to win the wherewithal to meet expenses.—Soener or later care and toll leave their marks.—It is true enough, as Kingsley sings in the Three Fishers," that

"Men must work, and women must weep."
but too much working and weeping brush all the bloom from life's truit.

Mental anxiety and luck of rest and pleasure induce physical diseases of many kinds; whence the need of a trustworthy tonic to give help and strength in times of need. Among the good women of the land who have must such a sure anchor is Mrs. A. C. George, wife of Rev. A. C. George, wife of Rev. A. C. Church of Chleage, whose words we have her permission to quote:

"I use Paukkn's Ginora Tonic in my family, and can say that we are highly pleased with it as a tonic. From my experience of its value, I recommend it as a reliable family modicine."

Please note: first, Paukkn's Ginora Tonic is not a mera essence of Ginger; specond, it contains nothing to create an appelle for informating drinks; third, it is a michall health restoration for all who suffer from discordered Liver or Kidneys, or any discover arriving from indiscretion or impure blood. Accept no substitute for it. Prices, See and 31 per bottle. It is chemper to buy the larger size, Himcox & Co. New York. "Men must work, and women must weep."

For two years, perhaps, we have had the richest, largest, most varied and most exhaustive collection of dress-goods in Philadelphia. Before that, we may have had the largest, and even the most exhaustive, but perhaps not the richest. The slowest trade to come to a new merchant is the trade of luxury. It is the slowest to change from one to another. But it does change.

We may say our dressgoods of all sorts are at about their highest now. Second and third efficies, southeast

Silks of all sorts have come; and never were silks more acceptable. And these words have a meaning here beyond any they could have elsewhere; because of the greater variety of wants that look to us for supply. We must have all accepted styles, and all the approved qualities of those styles; and, as to colors, can you think of one that we can do without? A store that has only one class of trade can get along with comparatively few silks. Which stock would you rather buy out of? Fext onter circle, south entrance to main building.

Two damask towels at 15 and 18 cents may serve to show what we gain by buying of the makers. The very same towels are in the wholesale trade in New York at about 21 and 22 cents, which means at least 25 cents at retail. We are not going to say that all our retail prices are below New York wholesale; nothing of the sort. "More than one swallow to make a summer." But where such towels are to be got for 15 tents is a good place to look for bed and table-linen, and all the other linens. That's what we mean exactly; it's true, too. -

Outer circle. City-hall square entrance. A very wide and surprisingly good navy-blue twilled flannel for 50 cents; 45-inch. Do you remember a 35cent flannel for 25 cents, of which we had 18,000 yards last fall? Afterward we got 7,000 yards more of it; and a little of it is left yet. That is 23-inch. This wide flannel is fully as good as that.

Third circle, southeast from center. O All the warmer sorts of underwear are ready; for men, women and children: thick-cotton, merino, wool, and silk. All the sorts needed for all sorts of people with all sorts of notions; and, for people who want it, there is quite a little wit 15out underwear to be pickdup at the counter. Where eise would you look for it? Not in books surely; for goods are changing all the time; and so get ahead of

The people generally get what they make a market for. They demanded better newspapers, and within the last few years journalism has made rapid strides. THE TIMES, which, from the day of its first laste, took place in the front rank of proviesive journalism, has kept along at the double-quiet step, and at this time is a better newspaper than ever. It is a journal that never sleeps and never takes a holiday. As there are 356 days in the year, so there are 356 lastes of THE TIMES in a year. The week day edition of THE TIMES is of four pages, being in a form suitable for the busy man or the busy woman. The Sunday edition, of eight pages, contains a great deal of the best miscellany as well as all the news. The editorial strength of THE TIMES need not be dwelt upon—the fact that it is quoted more than any other paper in America is sufficient evidence of its excellence in that direction. Nor need the typographical superiority be more than mentioned—for it is widelyjknown as "the handsomest paper in the country."

The Philadelphia Weekly Times Covers a distinct field. Into THE WEEKLY goes the cream of the daily issues and at the same time it contains matter especially adapted to the wants of readers in every part of America. It erroulates, as a first-class family journal, in every State and Territery, and it has subscribers in every part of the world. The leading feature of THE WEEKLI is the "ANNALS OF THE WAR."
