EBENSBURG. PA., FRIDAY, - - - JANUARY 9, 1885.

GOV. PATTISON sent his message to the Legislature on Tuesday afternoon. It is a very lengthy document and is spoken of as an exceptionably able State paper.

IT is now ascertained that all but three of the orphans who were in St. John's Catholic Home, in Brooklyn, when it was destroyed by fire about three weeks ago, have been accounted for.

Two Democrats in the State Senate voted for S. P. Woolverton, of Northumberland, for Speaker pro tenis, and the Democrats in the other branch voted for John E. Faunce, of Philadelphia, who was Speaker of the last House,
