SAD RAILBOAD FATALITY.-We are indebted to the Huntingdon Local News of the 9th instant, for the following facts: Mapleton depot, this county, was the scene of an accident to two young ladies on Saturday evening last, which has cast a gloom over both the town and surrounding counlance to the much wanted Mickey.

—A sleighing party of young ladies from daughters of Mr. George Miller, a farmer, ut one mile west of started to walk home shortly pefore church left out that evening, and were using the south track of the P. R. R. A freight train passing west at the time, they were unable to see a second section of Mail Express coming east, and on the curve a short distance west of the depot were struck by the swiftly moving train, both being buried down a high embankment. The engineer, Robert Hunter, felt the shock and not knowing what he had struck stopped his train. On investigation it was found that the younger girl, Ella, was dead, her head having been hed and right hip shattered. The elder Annie, was seriously injured, a small bone in right limb near ankle being broken and also one of the bones in right arm near wrist. Her head was cut in two places. The ins of Ella were conveyed to her home, and Anuie was taken to the residence of Miss Anne Parker in Dr.

J. R. Lowry and Dr. D. P. Mulet w. m-moned, who attended to her wounds. She is in a critical condition, but there are hopes of her recovery. The funeral of the unfortunate girl will take place to morrow morning at nine o'clock, and her remains will be interred at Mt. Nebo cemetery, near Mount Union, by the side of her mother who died seven years ago.

Mr. George Miller, the father, was overcome with grief and greatly depressed by the death of his daughter Elia. Miss Jennie Miller, one of the sisters of the deceased, is much dejected in spirits, despondent and suffering great nervous prostration. The father, two sisters and three brothers are apparently nearly crazed by grief. At latest accounts Annie was resting pretty well.— Both the girls were much respected by all

Reduced Rates to the Inauguration via the Penn'a Railroad. The inauguration of President-elect Develand on the 4th of March next promises to be a noteworthy event in the history of Washington. THE DEATH OF WILLIAM BARNES.-From Tuesday's Johnstown Tribme: The cause and manner of the death of William Barnes, the mine boss, who was brought to this city from Portage on Saturday, and subsequently died at the residence of William Morgan. in Miliville, are to be investigated by the authorities. District Attorney Rose on Monday evening directed Justice Strayer to impanel a jury of inquest. The following gentlemen were summoned as jurors: Messrs. H. W. Storey, D. W. Evans, Jacob Fend, James P. McConaughy, Chal. L. Dick and Jonathan Lewis. The body was viewed at 7 o'clock, and the jury then adjourned until 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, when witnesses will be examined at Justice Stray-

This morning Chief Harris visited Portage for the purpose of subpoening witnesses. Morris and Harry Long, John Skelly, John Cramer, and Peter and Wolford McGough were notified to be on band Thursday to tell what they know about the matter. The trouble in which Barnes is supposed to have received the blow which indirectly caused his death occurred on or about the 12th of January in a saloon. The deceased and 'Squire McGlade, who is a man well advanced in years, had a dispute, the report goes, and the latter knocked the former down with his cane, the blow being inflicted on the back of the head and being so heavy that the stick broke The inquest will doubtless develop all the facts in the case. This morning members of the family of Mr. Farrel, with whom Barnes boarded at Portage, came down to the city to attend the funeral. They speak in the highest terms of the deceased. Interment took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock.
