

The Administration is industriously making hay, and it looks as if there would be a long spell of sunshine.

Mr. HAY, First Assistant Postmaster General, returned to Washington from the South on Saturday last, and at once entered upon the discharge of his official duties. His health is much improved, and he says he has no intention of resigning.

No man makes money so fast as a member of the Legislature when he goes to Harrisburg on a free railroad pass at the beginning of the session and returns home at its final adjournment on the same pass, and is paid mileage by the State at the rate of twenty cents per mile both going and returning.

CHRISTOPHER L. MAGEE, the Pittsburg boss, may be, and in point of fact is able to, mould the present Republican Legislature into any shape he wishes, in order to carry out the personal aims of the rig he represents, but when he undertook to control the next Republican State Convention in favor of an obscure and unknown friend of himself, named McDevitt, for State Treasurer against Matthew S. Quay, he entered a very large field of corn with a very small hoe.

A JOINT Committee of the Legislature consisting of five members went to Pittsburg about three weeks ago, to take testimony in regard to the mental and physical ability of Judge Kirkpatrick, of that city, to discharge his duties as one of the Judges of the Courts of Allegheny county. The Committee was absent from Harrisburg about a week and has filed a bill against the State amounting to $1,061.63, which is at the rate of $212 for each member. The items of which this bill is made up, would, if published, make mighty interesting reading. Only one of them has been made public and that is a charge of $486 for mileage, or $97.20 for each member of the Committee. When it is known that they all traveled on their free railroad passes this mileage, the most shameless way of rapacity that has ever been made up by a committee of the Legislature. It is the lowest and the meanest way of getting money from the State treasury without any consideration, and yet we venture the prediction that it will be paid without a word of protest.

MAHONEY'S Postmasters in Virginia are now being crushed between the upper and nether mill stone at Washington at a very lively rate. The President, who may be regarded as the upper stone, is suspended as high as Haman ten or a dozen of them one day last week, and Malcom Hay, First Assistant Postmaster General, who is the nether stone, and whose field of operation is much more extensive than that of Mr. Cleveland, rolled up his sleeves on Monday last, dismissed eighty-eight of Mahoney's Postoffice benchmen and named their successors in office. More removals of the same kind will speedily follow until the entire Mahoney crew is swept away. Whatever necessary delay may occur in making removals in other States, Mr. Hay will take good care that not a single one of Mahoney's appointees shall be permitted to remain. We don't believe that fair minded Republicans who are familiar with Mahoney and despise his political methods, will make any serious objection to Mr. Hay's summary style in dealing with the dishonest gang who have aided and abetted Mahoney in his practical crusade against the irresponsibility of the public debt of Virginia.

A VERY important bill which passed the lower branch of the Legislature some time ago, passed the Senate on Wednesday last week and has been signed by Governor Pattison. The vote on the passage of the bill in the Senate stood, yes, 31, nays, 12. The bill permits defendants to testify in all criminal cases, and this is the first time that such a bill has run the gauntlet of the Senate, although frequent attempts have been made at former sessions to secure its passage through that body. Defendants are now competent witnesses in all civil actions as well as in criminal prosecutions for misdemeanor. Those who are opposed to defendants being examined as witnesses in their own behalf either in a criminal or a civil case, and especially in the former, have always alleged that the law permitting it opens the door to the wholesale commission of perjury. While this is no doubt true to some extent we have always believed that an intelligent jury in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred, can tell whether a defendant is swearing truly or falsely. It is the most difficult thing in the world for a witness, whether a defendant or not, to invent and swear to a falsehood, without being detected and exposed by the undisturbed facts in the case. The parties to a quarrel whether it ended in a tragedy, in a homicide, are surely the best witnesses of all that occurred and therefore the most competent to tell it all to a Court and jury. A similar law has worked well in other States and we know of no reason why it should not do so in our own.

The bill prohibiting the granting or receiving of free railroad passes, under a heavy penalty, was defeated in the State Senate on yesterday week by a vote of 13 yeas, to 18 nays. This result is not surprising for a similar bill has on several occasions heretofore been defeated in either the Senate or the House. Every member of the Senate took an oath at the beginning of the session to support the Constitution of the State, and that Constitution declares that "no read, railway, or other transportation Company shall grant free passes, or passes at a discount, to any person except officers or employees of the Company," and commands the Legislature to enforce the prohibition by appropriate legislation. No man of ordinary capacity can possibly mistake the plain meaning of the Constitution on this subject, and yet Mr. Biddis, a Democratic Senator from Pike county, claimed during the debate on the bill that every man had the right of a private intercession. Biddis evidently took the oath to support the Constitution with a mental reservation. What earthly use have the people of this State for a Constitution which can't extend itself to the Legislature, and it is required to do, refuses to pass the necessary laws to carry it into effect? It is an inspiring spectacle to see the Legislature treat the Constitution with contempt, accept free passes from the Pennsylvania Railroad, and when a Committee of its members goes to Pittsburg, as recently in the Judge Kirkpatrick investigation, learn that they each charged the State almost one hundred dollars for mileage, although they didn't pay one cent of fare. Free railroad passes cost the taxpayers of the State over one hundred thousand dollars at every session of the Legislature.

The Lancaster Intelligencer says: The biography of John Kelly, the well-known New York Democrat, contains much of interest to the student of American politics for the reason that he was an actor in one of the most heated periods of American political history. Kelly won his maiden spurs in the days when native Americanism was at the zenith of its power. He and Bishop Hughes were the men who prevented the meeting of the native American leaders in New York, which had it occurred as intended, would, in the next excited state of public opinion, certainly have ended in wholesale bloodshed. Thus in fighting the battles of his faith and his race, young Kelly quickly climbed the political ladder, and sat in Congress for one of the New York city districts in 1854 when he was only 23 years old. He was one of the great moving spirits that led the bulk of the Whig vote into the Democratic party after and during the time that the latter party was waging its successful war against Know-Nothingism. It was then that the Athletics and other well-known local families joined the Democratic ranks. Voicing this exodus of the Catholic Whigs, Kelly said in a speech in Congress: "The large Catholic vote of Kentucky and Maryland had always been found with the Whig party, until the Know-Nothing monster and its protean brood of platforms drove them in self-respect, as well as in self-defense, into the ranks of the national Democracy, where they have found repose and peace under the shadow of the Constitution."

And under its shadows the great bulk of this vote still repose. The United States Marshal for the Southern District of Iowa, Mr. R. Root, believes in the doctrine that "to the victors belong the spoils," and so believing, has tendered his resignation to the President in the following frank and manly letter: "I think," said he, "the vilest crime in the catalogue of crimes, worse than any in the book of the law, is that which is done by those who hold office, and who are sworn to uphold the law, and who are trusted by the people, to do as they please, and who are not held accountable for their actions.
