THE schedules of the assets and liabilities of John Roach the Delaware county shipbuilder, were filed in New York last week. They show his liabilitses to be about two million and a quarter of dollars, and his actual assets nearly three million and a half, so that he was very near the truth when he stated after he had made an assignment of his property, that he would have two dollars left over every dollar he owed. And yet Quay declared in an interview that Roach's failure was the result of a than transposing and bartering the popular Washington, meaning Mr. Whitney, Secretary of the Navy, and Mr. Garland, the Attorney General, and that the purpose of these gentlemen was to punish Roach, who is an Irishman, for having yoted for Blaine. THE Chairman of the Republican State committee, Thomas V. Cooper, has of late been uttering a great deal of nonsense in regard to what he claims are the leading issues involved in the election of State Treasurer, one of which he says is the "veto of apportionment bills when passed because they did not please the Governor." This is a very cool specimen of impudence on his part Harrisburg, on Wednesday, August 26th, and is a direct impeachment of the loyat 10 a. And yet when the vote in the House was taken on Govornor Pattlson's veto of the Congressional apportionment bill, the Republicans refused to pass it over the veto, although they had the numerical strength to do so, and seven votes to spare. Conservative, discreet and careful of movement, the President has evidently anticipated this "band-to hand fight with the bad elements of both parties" and was ready for the contest. He may not always have scored a victory, but he has demonstrated that in his aims and purposes—as evinced by his action—he has ever cherished the idea that good government, economically adminstered, is the greatest desideratum in the conduct of public affairs. The people of all parties and sections have watched him and ratched him narrowly, and from all parties and conditions of men comes the unequivocal verdict of honest, faithful, manly endeavor to deal justly with all and to conduct the Government with an eye single to the common good. Every candid, bonest, unbiased man must admit this much, and the the admission is proof that he has advanced from the mere chrysalis state of rancid, partisan bigotry to the more realistic, broader and manifer ground of true Republican citzenship-the good of the people-rather conspiracy among leading Democrats at weal for individual gain and aggrandize-

POWER OF THE STATE.

It is pretended by the advocates' of monopoly that there is no power in the people of Pennsylvania to enforce the provisions of their organic law forbidding such conspiracies as that which is the Pennsylvania Railrosa Company and William H. Vanderbilt. If this were true, then the Constitution of Pennsylvania was adopted in 1873 to little purpose, and the people of this great State are indeed in a helpless condition But those who make the assumption concerning the feebleness of the people in the presence of corporate aggression have not considered the latent powers which reside in the organic law of Pennsylvania. The Constitution declares The exercise of the right of eminent domain shall never be abridged or so construed as to prevent the General Assembly from taking the property and franchises of incorporated companies and subjecting them to public use, the same exercise of the police power of the State shall never be abridged or so construed as to permit corporations to conduct their business in such manner as to infringe the equal rights of individuals or

The Catholic Temperance Movement.

On Wednesday of last week the fifteenth annual convention of the Cathowas held at New Haven. It was attended by about twenty-five hundred members from all parts of the United States, After formally opening in a public hall, the delegates proceeded to Mary's church, where high Mass was celebrated by Bishop McMahon, of marched ir. an imposing procession thro'

the sreets of the town. In the evening a great meeting was held, Bishop McMahon presiding. Addresses were made by priests which recalled the oratory of the days when the temperance agitation was most active. Statistics presented showed that this Total Abstinence Union already numbers about forty thousand members, and the speakers looked forward to the time when that number would seem insignificant in comparison with the host

WASHINGTON, August 17, 1885. Life is comparitively easy in Washngton just now. The heat of last week has subsided from fifteen to twenty denow in process of consumation between gress. The other ecretaries. I believe, are at their posts. but I have fust returned to Washington after a two weeks' absence, and I must make the confession, unparalled in journalism, that there are one or two things that I do not know.

The work in all the departments has not been for years so well systemized as the property of individuals; and the and pushed as at present. This is the comment of all who' have long had business with Pension, Patent, Land, Indian and other bureaus of the Government service. Methods have been improved. abuses eradicated, barnacles have been scraped off; competent men have been appointed in places of drones and shirks; new life, new energy, and oldfashioned honesty have been infused into the complicated and labyrinthine system through which the affairs of 5,000,000 of people are administered. That so much has been accomplished in five months is remarkable; but then it must be remembered that his has been done by 'traitors' and 'rebels' whose no. sole object, as predicted by the only truly good Republican party-was to 'disrnpt; paralize, and ruin,'

The wonderful changes which can be effected in a Government office by the introduction of thethoroughly business methods, in place of the methods formsign, and has become justly subject to erly in vogue, is strikingly apparent in short of the full number employed under the old administration. What Will They Do About It?

Before the nomination of Quay the Philadelphia Press and other Republican newspapers distinctly warned the party of the probable consequences. They informed the Ring managers that self-respecting Republicans, however strong in their partisanhip, could not ic Total Abstinence Union of America be expected to vote for a man of his antecedents and reputation.

They asked "What are conscientious Republicans to say in defense, when men point to the jobbery and corruption | against them. of the old State Ring, to the shameless plunder of the state treasury under Kemble, Mackey and Quay, to the railroad schemes to rob the sinking fund, the ordinary horse car attached, with its and to keep the people in the shackles of monopoly, to the Riot Bill villainy, and to the infamous pardon of the convicted criminals; all of which are represented bp Quay, who is avowedly nominated because he does represent

This is substantially what was said by the better class of Republican journals before the nomination. They did which it is communicated to smaller dynamo not particularly develop these monstrous scandals, because they were matters of history and general notoriety.

But the old managers of the Treasury Ring and the rallroad lobby paid no attention to the Press and its coadjutors. They declared that the people were tired of honesty and economy and dely to lend itself at all to the purpose cency in official life; that the masses of indeed, if any total abstinence man and would be satisfied with nothing less should exercise his rights as a citizen in than the nomination of the most dissuch a manner as to encourage the very | reputable of the lot; that they wanted machine rule, machine methods, with he is trying to suppress," "We must all that they imply, including the morals of the Riot Bill enterprise and liquor traffic," he said further, and it of the Quay pardon board; and that they was "with sorrow and shame" that he particularly desired an eminent exemsaw "so many of those professing our plar of "addition, division and silence," holy religion engaged in this mean and at the head of the treasury, so as to revive the old system of plunder in all its ancient perfection.

They had their way. They nominated Quay in spite of the avalanche of protests, and, to be entirely consistent, the committee on resolutions sat down infidelity. It is the duty, therefore, of heavily and incontinently upon Senator Emery's mild little anti-discrimination resolution, thus giving due notice that the Republican party was formaily committed to railroad monopoly as well as to official profligacy.

And now what are the people to do about it? When Wm. M. Tweed, with insolence no greater, asked this question, Samuel J. Tilden, Charles O'-Conor, and the tax-payers of New York, without distinction of party, furnished him an unexpected answer.-Lancaster Intelligencer.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral Has preserved the aves of great numbers of persons, by arresting the development of Laryngitis, Bronchitts, Pneumoni and Pulmonery Consumption, and by the cure of those dangerous maiadies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of Croup, the alleviation of Whooping Cough, and the cure of Colds and Influenza, aliments peculiarly inci-dental to childhood and youth. Prompti-tude in dealing with all diseases of this class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, entail fatal consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful efficacy, while the malady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the speediest and most certain to cure, of Dyspepsia or indigestion the most prominent are: Variable appetite; faint, gnawing feeling at pit of the stomach, with unsatisfied craving for food; heartburn, feeling of weight and wind in the stomach, bad breath, bad taste in the mouth, low spirits, general prostration, headache, and constipation. There is no form of disease more prevalent than Dyspepsia, and none so peculiar to the high-living and rapid-eating American people. Alcohol and tobacco produce Dyspepsia; also, bad air, rapid eating, etc. BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS will cure the worst case, by regulating the bowels and toning up the digestive organs. Sold everywhere.

WHAT IS DYSPEPSIA?
