How the Newsboy Stepped off a Fast Train.
"Practice makes perfect," observed the train boy as he folded and smoothed the newspapers that he had gathered from the seats, getting them ready to be sold.

THE GROWTH OF DAKOTA.
The new census of Dakota is interesting. The returns from North Dakota indicate that the population of that Territory has increased to 100,000, while in 1880 the entire Territory contained but 15,177, and North Dakota had 36,465.

THE MONKEY BOY AND GIRL.
The anxiety so often attendant on the wandering away of a little child from his usual familiar surroundings, or his being separated from his parents in a crowd, is more than usually distressing to the parents.

NEWSPAPER AND MAGAZINE WORK.
Explained by a Writer Who Has Done Both.
One-half of the really good writers of the age, says a Washington correspondent of the Chicago News, are engaged by the great newspapers, the other half are writing books, and all of them more or less, are selling their names attached to their second and third class work, and rummaging their waste baskets for the benefit of the magazines.

THE HABIT OF SAVING.
Children who have a little money ought to practice saving something.
Many boys and girls of to-day hardly know a higher use for any money that comes into their hands than spending it for some foolish thing as quickly as possible.

THE MIGHT OF A MILL.
Thomas J. Malby, a Boston teacher, expects a huge fortune. He is about to go to Newfoundland and then to England to secure the rights of a water power.

SWALLOW KILL A HAWK.
Near Yorkville, N. Y., a large hawk swooped upon a swallow, and, setting a hen, flew with it to the top of a neighboring tree. The hen made a great outcry, and before the hawk could kill it a swallow made a dash at the hawk, and pecked at its breast, so that it released the hen and attempted to fly away.
