THE election in Ohio for State officers and members of the Legislature will take place on Tuesday next. Both parties express great confidence in the result. We regard the outcome as "mighty uncertain," as the Indian said of the white man, although such is not usually the verdict of Ohio. Governor Hoadly has conducted his campaign in a very fearless, creditable and able manper, and deserves success, although the . race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong. If the people of Ohio on Tuesday next elect Hoadly and send a Legislature to Columbus that will retire John Sherman, wrapped up in his bloody shirt, to private life, and elect Allen G. Thurman to take his place in the United States Senate, they will do a good day's work, and the Democracy of the country will rise up and call them blessed.
